1. OVERVIEW AND BASIS OF ACCOUNTING:

The operating losses incurred by the Company from 1993 to 1997 significantly reduced its net worth and liquidity position. As a result, in 1998, the Company sold its core credit insurance and related products business, which had been its only remaining business operation, following the sales in 1994 and 1997 of all of its universal life insurance business and the 1996 sale of its auto auction business. Since 1998, the Company has had no business operations and its revenues and expenses have consisted principally of investment income on remaining assets and corporate and other administrative expenses.

In March 1998, the Company's shareholders approved a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution (the Plan of Liquidation) pursuant to which the Company began liquidating its remaining assets and paying or providing for all of its liabilities. However, as discussed more fully in Note 3, in February 2002, the Company entered into an option agreement with CFC Partners, Ltd., a New York investor group (CFC Partners), pursuant to which CFC Partners could obtain a majority interest in the Company's common stock. In August 2002, the option was exercised and 2,700,000 new common shares (approximately 51.2% of the outstanding shares) were issued by the Company to CFC Partners. As a result of the acquisition of the Company, the Plan of Liquidation was discontinued.

As a result of the approval of the Plan of Liquidation, the Company adopted a liquidation basis of accounting for the period from March 25, 1998 to August 28, 2002. Under this basis of accounting, assets were stated at their estimated net realizable values and liabilities were stated at their anticipated settlement amounts. As a result of the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation, effective August 29, 2002, the Company re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going concern entities. Furthermore, as discussed in Note 2, the Company has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform such statements to the current presentation.

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-Q

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Consumers Financial Corporation and its former wholly-owned subsidiary, Consumers Life Insurance Company (Consumers Life) until June 19, 2002 when Consumers Life was sold.

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring items) necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position as of September 30, 2002, the results of its operations for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 and the changes in its cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's 2001 Form 10-K.

The results of operations for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

2. RESTATEMENT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS:

In connection with the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners on August 28, 2002, as described in Note 3, and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation, the Company re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities as of that date. The Company's consolidated financial statements had been prepared using a liquidation basis of accounting since March 25, 1998 when the Plan of Liquidation was approved by the Company's shareholders. In order to provide comparative financial information, the Company has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform to the current presentation which utilizes accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities. Accordingly, in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, the Statement of Net Assets in Liquidation as of December 31, 2001 and the Statement of Changes in Net Assets in Liquidation for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2001, as originally prepared on a liquidation basis of accounting, have been replaced by a Balance Sheet, Statement of Operations and Statement of Cash Flows.

At December 31, 2001, the Company's net assets in liquidation, as originally reported, were zero. For the nine and three months ended September 30, 2001, the Company originally reported an excess of expenses over revenues of $422,000 and $305,000, respectively.

3. ACQUISITION OF THE COMPANY:

On August 28, 2002, CFC Partners exercised its option to acquire 2,700,000

shares of the Company's common stock. The option was granted to CFC Partners through an option agreement dated February 13, 2002. The option price of $108,000 had previously been deposited by CFC Partners into an escrow account held by the Company. The newly issued shares represent approximately 51.2% of the outstanding common stock of the Company. Under Pennsylvania laws, these new shares have no voting rights until CFC Partners obtains the required approval from the remaining common shareholders (see Note 10).

At an August 28 meeting of the Board of Directors, Donald J. Hommel, the President of CFC Partners, was appointed as a Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board. Following such appointment, the Company's officers resigned and the Board elected Mr. Hommel as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. In addition, the Company's two Directors, other than Mr. Hommel, also resigned as planned. At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors, an additional Director was appointed to fill an existing vacancy and additional officers were elected.

In connection with the issuance of the new shares to CFC Partners, the Board of Directors also terminated the Plan of Liquidation. The Board had previously determined that selling the Company for its value as a "public company shell" was a better alternative for the shareholders than the Plan of Liquidation, inasmuch as the common shareholders were not expected to receive any distribution in a liquidation of the Company. The preferred shareholders were given an opportunity to exchange their shares for cash in a tender offer completed by the Company on August 23, 2002 (see Note 8).

CFC Partners has indicated that it intends to pursue strategic alliances as well as a merger or combination of existing businesses with the Company. In connection with strategic alliances, the Company will initially focus on partnering with companies specializing in construction management and real estate development. In furtherance of its plans for the construction management business, CFC Partners is planning to establish, through the Company or a to-be-formed subsidiary of the Company, a dealer network for the sale of residential and commercial conservatories manufactured in the United Kingdom. With respect to the real estate development business, which would also be operated through a to-be-formed subsidiary of the Company, CFC Partners initially intends to acquire residential apartment and commercial office buildings in the states of Illinois and New York. These properties would be upgraded as necessary to enhance their value and, where possible, converted into either co-op or condominium units. This plan would be expanded to other metropolitan locations in the future.

4. RESTRICTED ASSETS

As required by the terms of the option agreement with CFC Partners, the Company deposited $331,434 (representing the tender price of $4.40 multiplied by the 75,326 shares of preferred stock not tendered) into a bank escrow account for the benefit of the remaining preferred shareholders. The funds in this account, including any earnings thereon, are restricted in that they may only be used by the Company to pay dividends or make other distributions to the preferred shareholders. At September 30, 2002, these assets consisted entirely of cash.

5. SALE OF STOCK OF CONSUMERS LIFE:

On June 19, 2002, the Company completed the sale of Consumers Life, its only remaining subsidiary, to Black Diamond Insurance Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation. The purchaser paid the Company $1,549,000 in cash and assumed a $132,000 liability in connection with its acquisition of the Consumers Life stock. The cash proceeds consisted of $1,299,000 for the value of the underlying net assets of the subsidiary plus $250,000 for its state insurance licenses. The sale transaction was approved by the Delaware Insurance Department on June 5, 2002.

6. INCOME TAXES:

Deferred income taxes represent the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. At September 30, 2002 and December 31, 2001, the Company had no material deferred tax liabilities. At September 30, 2002, the Company's only deferred tax assets consisted of (i) $2,001,000 arising from net operating loss carry forwards and (ii) $4,457,000 arising from capital loss carry forwards which are the result of the sale of the stock of Consumers Life. These deferred tax assets, which totaled $6,458,000, have been fully offset by a valuation allowance. At December 31, 2001, the Company's only material deferred tax asset related to net operating loss carry forwards. This deferred tax asset, which totaled $2,013,000, was also fully offset by a valuation allowance.

No provision has been made in the consolidated financial statements for income taxes on pre-tax income or on net unrealized appreciation of debt securities because of the above referenced operating loss and capital loss carry forwards, which have been fully offset by a valuation allowance.

7. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

Certain claims have been filed or are pending against the Company. In the opinion of management, based on opinions of legal counsel, adequate reserves, if deemed necessary, have been established for these matters, and their outcome will not have a significant effect on the financial condition or future operating results of the Company. The Company has taken certain income tax positions in previous years that it believes are appropriate. If such positions were to be successfully challenged by the Internal Revenue Service, the Company could incur additional income taxes as well as interest and penalties. Management believes that the ultimate outcome of any such challenges will not have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

In August 2002, the Company settled a claim it had against a former tenant for unpaid rent and other losses incurred by the Company as a result of the tenant's alleged breach of the lease agreement. This settlement also resolved an immaterial counterclaim the defendant had filed against the Company. The settlement resulted in the receipt by the Company of $55,000. Prior to the collection of this amount, the Company did not reflect any amount due from the former tenant in its financial statements because of the uncertainty as to both the amount which might be received and the collectability of such amount.

8. REDEEMABLE PREFERRED STOCK:

On August 23, 2002, the Company completed a tender offer to all of its preferred shareholders, pursuant to which it purchased 377,288 shares (approximately 83.4% of the shares outstanding) at $4.40 per share plus accrued dividends. The tender offer was completed in conjunction with and was a condition to the exercise of the option by CFC Partners. Since all of the Company's remaining assets would have been distributed to the preferred shareholders if the Company had been liquidated, the Board of Directors believed that the exercise of the option (and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation) should not take place until the preferred shareholders had been given a chance to exchange their shares for cash.

The terms of the redeemable preferred stock require the Company to make annual payments to a sinking fund. Such payments were to have commenced on July 1, 1998. The preferred stock terms also provide that any purchase of preferred shares by the Company will reduce the sinking fund requirements by an amount equal to the redemption value ($10 per share) of the shares acquired. As a result of the Company's purchases of preferred stock in the open market and in the tender offer described above, no sinking fund payment for the preferred stock is due until July 1, 2006. However, in connection with the exercise of the option by CFC Partners, the Company deposited $331,434 into a bank trust account for the benefit of the remaining preferred shareholders (see Note 4).

10. SUBSEQUENT EVENT:

On November 18, 2002, the Company filed preliminary proxy solicitation materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with a Special Meeting of shareholders to be held January 9, 2003. At the Special Meeting, the Company's common shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to reinstate the voting rights of the 2,700,000 shares of common stock owned by CFC Partners. Because these shares represent more than 20% of the total outstanding shares of the Company, under Pennsylvania law, CFC Partners is not entitled to vote the shares with respect to any matters unless and until the voting rights of the shares are reinstated by the affirmative vote of the majority of the Company's outstanding common shares (excluding the shares held by CFC Partners).

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

A review of the significant factors which affected the Company's financial condition at September 30, 2002 and its results of operations for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2002 is presented below. Information relating to the nine and three months ended September 30, 2001 is also presented for comparative purposes. This analysis should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and the related Notes appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-Q and in the Company's 2001 Form 10-K.

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. This Form 10-Q may include forward-looking statements which reflect the Company's current views with respect to future events and financial performance. These forward-looking statements are identified by their use of such terms and phrases as "intends", "intend", "intended", "goal", "estimate", "estimates", "expects", "expect", "expected", "project", "projected", "projections", "plans", "anticipates", "anticipated", "should", "designed to", "foreseeable future", "believe", "believes" and "scheduled" and similar expressions. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

OVERVIEW

At a special meeting of shareholders held on March 24, 1998, the Company's preferred and common shareholders approved the sale of the Company's credit insurance and related products business, which was the Company's only remaining business operation. In connection with the sale of its in force credit insurance business, the Company also sold its credit insurance customer accounts and one of its life insurance subsidiaries. At the special meeting, the shareholders also approved a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution (the Plan of Liquidation), pursuant to which the Company would be liquidated and dissolved.

The Plan of Liquidation permitted the Board of Directors to continue to consider other alternatives to liquidating the Company. Because the common shareholders would not receive a distribution under the plan of liquidation and dissolution, and the preferred shareholders would receive less than the full liquidation value of their shares, the Board of Directors determined that selling the Company for its value as a "public company shell" was a better alternative for the common and preferred shareholders than liquidating the Company. Accordingly, in August 2001, the Company sent request for proposal letters to several investor groups that had expressed an interest in acquiring the Company and issued a press release soliciting similar offers. In October 2001, the Board of Directors met to consider three offers which were received, one of which was from CFC Partners, Ltd. (CFC Partners). Following its review of each offer, the Board determined that the offer from CFC Partners was the best offer. In February 2002, the Company and CFC Partners entered into an option agreement which permitted CFC Partners to acquire a 51.2% interest in the Company at $.04 per share. The option held by CFC Partners was exercisable within 15 business days following the completion by the Company of a tender offer to the preferred shareholders. The completion of this tender offer was, in turn, dependent on the sale of the Company's remaining insurance subsidiary, since substantially all of the Company's assets were held by the subsidiary and state insurance laws would not permit the withdrawal of those assets.

Form 10-Q

In June 2002, the Company completed the sale of the insurance subsidiary. In July 2002, the Board of Directors approved a tender offer to the Company's preferred shareholders at a price of $4.40 per share, and on July 19, 2002, tender offer materials were mailed to the holders of the preferred stock. On August 23, 2002, the Company purchased 377,288 shares of preferred stock, or 83.4% of the total preferred shares outstanding, from those shareholders who elected to tender their shares.

On August 28, 2002, the Board of Directors terminated the Plan of Liquidation and authorized the issuance of 2,700,000 shares of common stock to CFC Partners. Donald J. Hommel, the president of CFC Partners, was also appointed as a Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board. Following such appointment, the Company's officers resigned and the Board elected Mr. Hommel as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. In addition, James C. Robertson and John E. Groninger, who had been Directors of the Company for more than 30 years, also resigned.

On October 17, 2002, the Board of Directors appointed Shalom S. Maidenbaum, Esq. as an additional Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board. In addition, the Directors elected Mr. Hommel as the Company's Treasurer and Mr. Maidenbaum as the Company's Vice President and Secretary.

As a result of the approval of the Plan of Liquidation, the Company adopted a liquidation basis of accounting for the period from March 25, 1998 to August 28, 2002. Under this basis of accounting, assets were stated at their estimated net realizable values and liabilities were stated at their anticipated settlement amounts. As a result of the transaction with CFC Partners and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation, effective August 29, 2002, the Company re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going concern entities. Furthermore, as discussed in Note 2 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-Q, the Company has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform such statements to the current presentation.

At September 30, 2002, the Company had no business operations. CFC Partners intends to pursue strategic alliances, as well as a merger or combination of existing businesses with the Company. With respect to its plans for strategic alliances, the Company will initially focus on partnering with companies specializing in construction management and real estate development.

At September 30, 2002, the Company's shareholders' equity deficiency totaled $72,633 compared to a shareholders' equity deficiency of $2,079,119 at December 31, 2001. For the first nine months of 2002, the Company's net income was $163,889 and dividends to preferred shareholders totaled $239,806.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

A discussion of the material factors which affected the Company's results of operations for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 is presented below.

NINE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2002 AND 2001

For the nine months ended September 30, 2002, the Company reported net income of $163,889 (a loss of $.05 per share because of preferred dividends) compared to a net loss of $501,969 ($.31 per share) in the same period of 2001.

The 2002 results were positively impacted by a $242,480 gain on the sale of the Company's life insurance subsidiary and $255,000 in proceeds received from the settlement of litigation and other disputes. The gain from the sale of the insurance subsidiary includes a $178,483 gain from the sale of the insurance licenses and the charter, a $56,448 gain from the transfer of appreciated bonds to the buyer and $7,549 in other gains. Prior to the collection of the $255,000 in settlement proceeds, the Company had not reflected any amounts due from the other parties in its financial statements because of the uncertainty as to both the amounts which might be received and the collectability of such amounts. Offsetting these non-recurring revenues were (i) a decline in investment income (from $122,705 last year to $44,295 in 2002) due to both a decrease in the Company's invested asset base and a decline in short-term interest rates, (ii) an increase in insurance costs (from $34,176 in 2001 to $64,537 in 2002) and a $37,867 increase in other fees, primarily due to a $29,117 fee paid to the custodian of the Company's retirement plan in connection with the termination of a guaranteed investment contract held by the plan.

The Company's results in 2001 were adversely affected by a $216,000 charge related to the settlement of certain litigation matters and an $80,250 write-down of the value of the state licenses and charter of the insurance subsidiary, based on the Company's assessment at that time that the subsidiary would be liquidated rather than sold.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2001, the Company originally reported an excess of expenses over revenues of $421,719 under the liquidation basis of accounting. This amount differs from the $501,969 of net income being reported in the accompanying consolidated financial statements by $80,250, which is the amount of the write-down of the value of the insurance licenses and charter referred to above. Under liquidation accounting, this amount was treated as an adjustment of assets to estimated net realizable value and was not included in the determination of the excess of expenses over revenues.

THREE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2002 AND 2001

The Company's net income for the third quarter of 2002 was $123,889 (less than $.01 per share) compared to a net loss of $332,225 ($.17 per share) in the third quarter of 2001. The $255,000 in settlement proceeds, as discussed above, was a significant factor in the level of net income reported for the third quarter of 2002. For the same period in 2001, the Company reported a $216,000 charge in connection with the settlement of certain litigation matters, as well as a $27,250 write-down of the value of the state insurance licenses and charter.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company currently has no commitments for any capital expenditures. However, if the Company develops certain planned strategic alliances or identifies a target company to be merged or otherwise combined with the Company, the Company's plans regarding capital expenditures and related commitments are likely to change.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2002, the Company's cash and cash equivalents decreased by $1,565,363 (from $1,802,265 at the beginning of the year to $236,902 at September 30, 2002). The decrease is principally the result of the Company's tender offer to its preferred shareholders. In August 2002, the Company paid $1,660,067 to acquire the 377,288 shares which were tendered.

September 30, 2002

The Company also paid $335,986 in dividends to the preferred shareholders. (As a result of the tender offer, the Company's current preferred dividend requirement has been reduced from $96,180 per quarter to $16,007). Further, in connection with the acquisition of a majority interest in the Company by CFC Partners, the Company deposited cash in the amount of $331,434 into a bank escrow account for the benefit of the preferred shareholders who did not tender their shares. These decreases in available cash were partially offset by $945,181 in proceeds received from the sale of bonds which were transferred to the buyer of the Company's insurance subsidiary.

The Company's shareholders' equity deficiency decreased significantly during the nine months ended September 30, 2002. The deficiency totaled $2,079,119 at the end of 2001 compared to a deficiency of $72,633 at September 30, 2002. The reduction in the amount of the deficiency is principally due to the Company's purchase of 377,288 shares of its preferred stock in August 2002 at $4.40 per share, which was less than the $9.78 per share carrying value of such shares at the end of 2001. Net income of $163,889 further reduced the deficiency, but was more than offset by preferred shareholder dividends for the period of $239,806.

LIQUIDITY

Historically, the Company's subsidiaries met most of their cash requirements from funds generated from operations, while the Company generally relied on its principal operating subsidiaries to provide it with sufficient cash funds to maintain an adequate liquidity position. While the Company was in liquidation, its principal sources of cash funds were investment income and proceeds from the sales of non-liquid assets. In connection with the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners, substantially all of the Company's remaining liquid assets were used to complete a tender offer to the preferred shareholders in August 2002.

Because the Company currently has no business operations, the adequacy of the Company's liquidity position in the future will be dependent on its ability to form strategic alliances with existing businesses or to acquire and/or develop businesses with meaningful revenues and positive cash flows. The Company currently has minimal cash resources. However, management believes that new cash revenue sources will be developed before the Company's current cash funds have been depleted.

REDEEMABLE PREFERRED STOCK

On August 23, 2002, the Company completed a tender offer to all of its preferred shareholders, pursuant to which it purchased 377,288 shares (approximately 83.4% of the shares outstanding) at $4.40 per share plus $47,445 in accrued dividends. The tender offer was completed in conjunction with and was a condition to the exercise of the option by CFC Partners. Since all of the Company's remaining assets would have been distributed to the preferred shareholders if the Company had been liquidated, the Board of Directors believed that the exercise of the option (and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation) should not take place until the preferred shareholders had been given a chance to exchange their shares for cash.

The terms of the redeemable preferred stock require the Company to make annual payments to a sinking fund. Such payments were to have commenced on July 1, 1998. The preferred stock terms also provide that any purchase of preferred shares by the Company will reduce the sinking fund requirements by an amount equal to the redemption value ($10 per share) of the shares acquired. As a result of the Company's purchases of preferred stock in the open market and in the tender offer, no sinking fund payment for the preferred stock is due until July 1, 2006. However, in connection with the exercise of the option by CFC Partners, the Company deposited $331,434 into a bank trust account for the benefit of the remaining preferred shareholders (see Note 4 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-Q).

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK

The requirements for certain market risk disclosures are not applicable to the Company because, at September 30, 2002 and December 31, 2001, the Company qualifies as a "small business issuer" under Regulation S-B of the Federal Securities Laws. A small business issuer is defined as any United States or Canadian issuer with revenues or public float of less than $25 million.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's President and Chief Executive Officer/Chief Financial Officer evaluated the Company's disclosure controls and procedures within 90 days of the filing date of this quarterly report. Based upon this evaluation, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer/Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that material information required to be disclosed is included in the reports that it files with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

There were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or, to the knowledge of the management of the Company, in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the evaluation date.
