Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 24, 2007, the board of directors of Lantronix, Inc. (“Lantronix”) appointed Bernard Bruscha and Curt Brown as an additional member to the board of directors. Neither Mr. Bruscha nor Mr. Brown has been named, or is expected to be named, to any committee of the board of directors as of the date of this filing. Each of Mr. Bruscha and Mr. Brown upon his appointment to the board of directors was automatically granted a nonstatutory stock option to purchase up to 25,000 shares of Lantronix common stock on the date he became a director. The board of directors intends to make additional grants of options to each of Messrs. Bruscha and Brown of up to 25,000 shares of Lantronix common stock consistent with past practice.

Mr. Bruscha served as chairman of Lantronix from Lantronix’s founding until May 2002 and has been its single largest shareholder, currently with ownership of over approximately 30% of Lantronix’s outstanding common stock. A serial entrepreneur for over 20 years, Mr. Bruscha founded several technology distribution and hardware companies and currently serves as Chairman of transtec AG, a computer systems manufacturer and direct computer reseller. A customer of Lantronix, transtec AG has accounted for less than 4% of Lantronix’s revenues in each of the past 8 quarters.

Mr. Brown was previously executive vice president of research and development at Lantronix from June 2001 to August 2004, and holds a number of patents, including two of Lantronix’ patents pertaining to XPort® embedded device servers. Mr. Brown has had a distinguished 30-year career of increasing responsibility in the electronics industry, working for such companies as Iomega Corporation, Hewlett Packard Company, Connor Peripherals, Inc., Seagate Technology and Quantum Corporation.
