THE NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP, INC.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

1. Basis of Presentation

The Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements of The Neiman Marcus Group, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted for complete financial statements. Therefore, the financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 3, 2002.

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments (as well as a change in accounting principle as more fully described in Note 3), necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company for the applicable interim periods. The results of operations for these periods are not necessarily comparable to, or indicative of, results of any other interim period or for the fiscal year as a whole.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and the disclosure of gain and loss contingencies at the date of the condensed consolidated financial statements.

Since future events and their effects cannot be determined with absolute certainty, actual results will differ from those estimates. The amounts currently estimated by the Company are subject to change if different assumptions as to the outcome of future events were made. The Company evaluates its estimates and judgments on an ongoing basis and predicates those estimates and judgments on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Management makes adjustments to its assumptions and judgments when facts and circumstances dictate.

Management of the Company believes the following critical accounting policies, among others, encompass the more significant judgments and estimates used in preparation of its financial statements:

Revenue recognition;

Valuation of merchandise inventories, including determination of original retail values, recognition of markdowns and vendor allowances, and estimation of inventory shrinkage, and determination of cost of sales;

Recognition of income and expenses related to the Company's securitization program;

Determination of impairment of long-lived assets;

Recognition of advertising and catalogue costs;

Recognition of costs related to the Company's loyalty programs;

Recognition of income taxes; and Measurement of accruals for general liability, workers' compensation and health insurance as well as short-term disability, pension and postretirement health care benefits.

A description of the Company's critical accounting policies is included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 3, 2002.

2. Operating Segments

The Company has identified two reportable segments: Specialty Retail Stores and Direct Marketing. The Specialty Retail Stores segment includes all Neiman Marcus and Bergdorf Goodman retail stores, including Neiman Marcus clearance stores. Direct Marketing includes the operations of Neiman Marcus Direct, which publishes NM by Mail, the Neiman Marcus Christmas catalogue, the Horchow catalogue and the Chef's Catalogue and the Company's online operations. Beginning in fiscal year 2001, all of the Company's online operations are included in Direct Marketing. Previously, certain online operations were included in Other. Therefore, the amounts below for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. Other includes the operations of Kate Spade LLC and Gurwitch Bristow Products, LLC (the Brand Development Companies) and corporate expenses.

The following table sets forth the information for the Company's reportable segments:

3. Change in Accounting Principle Writedown of Intangible Assets

The Company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" as of the beginning of the first quarter of fiscal year 2003. SFAS No. 142 established a new fair value-based accounting model for the valuation of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets recorded in connection with business combinations. Pursuant to the provisions of SFAS No. 142, goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are measured for impairment by applying a fair value-based test at least annually and are not amortized.

In connection with the adoption of the provisions of SFAS No. 142, the Company engaged third party appraisal experts to assist with the determination of the fair value of its goodwill and intangible assets. For each of the Company's operating segments, a summary of the intangible assets recorded by the Company as of the beginning of the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 in accordance with the cost-based accounting model established by previous accounting principles and the adjustment required to adopt the fair value model of SFAS No. 142 is as follows:

Carrying Value at	SFAS No. 142	Adjusted Carrying
----------------------	-----------------	----------------------

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

	August 4, 2002	Adjustment	Value

Indefinite-lived tradenames	32,945		32,945
	$ 117,424	$ (24,066)	$ 93,358

The $24.1 million writedown in the carrying value of the indefinite-lived intangible assets of the Company's Direct Marketing segment is reflected as a change in accounting principle ($14.8 million, net of taxes) in the accompanying Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003.

The Company ceased amortization of its goodwill and indefinite-lived intangibles assets as of the beginning of fiscal year 2003. Amortization expense in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 was approximately $1.5 million and reduced diluted earnings per share by $0.02 for the period.

4. Earnings per Share

The weighted average shares used in computing basic and diluted earnings per share (EPS) are presented in the table below. No adjustments were made to net earnings for the computations of basic and diluted EPS during the periods presented.

Effect of dilutive stock options and restricted stock	274	306
Shares for computation of diluted EPS	47,970	47,664

6

Options to purchase 1,957,300 shares of common stock for the thirteen weeks ended November 2, 2002 and 1,269,650 shares for the thirteen weeks ended October 27, 2001 were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because the exercise price of those options was greater than the average market price of the common shares.

5. Undivided Interests in NMG Credit Card Master Trust

Pursuant to a revolving credit card securitization program, the Company transfers substantially all of its credit card receivables to a wholly-owned subsidiary, Neiman Marcus Funding Corporation, which in turn sells such receivables to the Neiman Marcus Credit Card Master Trust (the Trust). The Trust issued certificates representing undivided interests in the credit card receivables to both third-party investors (Sold Interests) and to the Company (Retained Interests). The Retained Interests are shown as "Undivided interests in NMG Credit Card Trust" on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

6. Derivative Financial Instruments

As of November 2, 2002, the Company had foreign currency contracts in the form of forward exchange contracts in the amount of approximately $26.9 million. The contracts have varying maturity dates through August 2003. The settlement terms of the forward contracts, including amount, currency and maturity, correspond with the payment terms for purchases of merchandise inventories. These contracts have been designated and accounted for as cash flow hedges.

At November 2, 2002, the fair value of the Company's outstanding foreign currency exchange contracts was an asset of approximately $0.5 million. This amount, net of taxes, is reflected in accumulated other comprehensive income.

7. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is involved in various suits and claims in the ordinary course of business. Management does not believe that the disposition of any such suits or claims will have a material adverse effect upon the consolidated results of operations, cash flows or the financial position of the Company.

8. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities." SFAS No. 146 addresses financial accounting and reporting for costs associated with exit or disposal activities and nullifies the guidance previously provided in Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)." SFAS 146 requires that a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity is recognized at fair value when the liability is incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The provisions of SFAS No. 146 will be effective for disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. The Company does not expect that the implementation of SFAS No. 146 will have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS

Matters discussed in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations include forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the Company's objectives and expectations concerning, among other things, its:

productivity and profitability;

merchandising and marketing strategies;

inventory performance;

store renovation and expansion plans;

capital expenditures;

liquidity; and development of management information systems.

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

These forward-looking statements are made based on management's expectations and beliefs concerning future events, as well as on assumptions made by and data currently available to management. Therefore, these forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties and are not guarantees of future performance. A variety of factors could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the anticipated or expected results expressed in these forward-looking statements. Factors that could affect future performance include, but are not limited, to:

current political and economic conditions; changes in political and economic conditions that may occur in the future;

continued terrorist activities in the United States, as well as the potential escalation in the international war on terrorism;

changes in consumer confidence resulting in a reduction of discretionary spending on goods that are, or are perceived to be, "luxuries";

changes in demographic or retail environments;

changes in consumer preferences or fashion trends;

competitive responses to the Company's marketing, merchandising and promotional efforts and/or inventory liquidations by vendors or other retailers;

delays in the receipt of merchandise ordered by the Company due to work stoppages and/or other causes of delay in connection with either the manufacture or shipment of such merchandise;

seasonality of the retail business;

adverse weather conditions, particularly during peak selling seasons;

8

delays in anticipated store openings;

natural disasters;

significant increases in paper, printing and postage costs;

litigation that may have an adverse effect on the financial results or reputation of the Company;

changes in the Company's relationships with designers, vendors and other sources of merchandise;

the financial viability of the Company's designers, vendors and other sources of merchandise;

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

changes in foreign currency exchange rates;

changes in the Company's relationships with certain of its key sales associates;

changes in key management personnel;

changes in the Company's proprietary credit card arrangement that adversely impact its ability to provide consumer credit; or changes in government or regulatory requirements increasing the Company's costs of operations.

The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise (publicly or otherwise) any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events, new information or future circumstances.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. Since future events and their effects cannot be determined with absolute certainty, actual results will differ from those estimates. The amounts currently estimated by the Company are subject to change if different assumptions as to the outcome of future events were made. The Company evaluates its estimates and judgments on an ongoing basis and predicates those estimates and judgments on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Management makes adjustments to its assumptions and judgments when facts and circumstances dictate. See Note 1 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 for a summary of the Company's critical accounting policies. A description of the Company's critical accounting policies is also included in the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 3, 2002.

(1) Direct Marketing includes the operations of Neiman Marcus Direct and the Company's online operations.

(2) Other includes the operations of the Brand Development Companies and corporate expenses.

(3) Beginning in fiscal year 2001, all of the Company's online operations are included in Direct Marketing. Previously, certain online operations were included in Other. Therefore, the amounts above for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.

THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED NOVEMBER 2, 2002 COMPARED TO THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED OCTOBER 27, 2001

Revenues. Revenues for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 of $734.1 million increased $52.9 million, or 7.8 percent, from $681.1 million in the prior year period. The increase in revenues was attributable to both an increase in comparable revenues and the revenues generated by new stores.

Comparable revenues in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 increased 5.8 percent compared to the first quarter of fiscal year 2002. Comparable revenues increased 4.8 percent for Specialty Retail Stores and 12.3 percent for Direct Marketing. The Company believes the increases in comparable revenues for both Specialty Retail Stores and Direct Marketing reflect a higher level of consumer spending in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 compared to the prior year. Sales in September and October 2001 were significantly impacted by a decrease in consumer spending subsequent to the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks in the United States. Comparable revenues in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 declined by 10.9 percent.

Comparable revenues for the Brand Development Companies declined in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003, with a decrease for Kate Spade LLC being offset, in part, by an increase for Gurwitch Bristow Products, LLC.

The Company opened a new Neiman Marcus store in Coral Gables, Florida during September 2002 and a new Neiman Marcus store in Orlando, Florida during October 2002.

Gross margin. Gross margin was 38.2 percent of revenues for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 compared to 36.0 percent for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002. The increase in gross margin was primarily due to decreases in both markdowns and buying and occupancy costs as percentages of revenues.

Markdowns decreased as a percentage of revenues by approximately 3.9 percent for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 compared to the prior year period. The Company incurred a higher level of markdowns in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 in connection with additional and more aggressive promotional events necessary to clear inventories in response to declines in retail sales.

A significant portion of the Company's buying and occupancy costs are fixed in nature. Buying and occupancy costs decreased as a percentage of revenues for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 compared to the prior year period primarily due to an increase in revenues.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses (SG&A) were 27.9 percent of revenues in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 compared to 29.8 percent of revenues in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002. The net decrease in SG&A as a percentage of revenues in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 was primarily due to 1) lower catalogue production and circulation costs due primarily to a planned reduction in catalogue circulation and the leveraging of the fixed-cost component of Direct Marketing expenses, 2) a lower level of SG&A as a percentage of revenues for the Company's more mature stores, 3) higher income received in connection with the Company's undivided interests in the NMG Credit Card Master Trust as a result of a decline in interest rates and 4) the elimination of amortization of the Company's intangible assets in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 upon implementation of a new accounting principle.

The decreases in SG&A were partially offset by 1) higher health care and professional fee expenses, 2) certain officer separation and retirement costs, 3) increased preopening costs and 4) a higher ratio of SG&A to revenues for the Company's less mature stores.

Segment operating earnings. Operating earnings for the Specialty Retail Stores segment were $71.7 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 compared to $47.9 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002. This increase was primarily the result of increased sales, reduced markdowns and net decreases in both buying and occupancy expenses and SG&A expenses as percentages of revenues.

Operating earnings for Direct Marketing increased to $7.4 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 from an operating loss of $2.3 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002, primarily as a result of an improvement in the operating performance of the Company's online operations and lower catalogue production and circulation costs due to reduced catalogue circulation.

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

Interest expense, net. Net interest expense was $3.6 million for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 compared to $4.0 million for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002. The decrease in net interest expense of $0.4 million was primarily due to reduced interest costs associated with lower borrowings on the Company's revolving credit facility in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003. The Company borrowed $50 million on its current revolving credit facility during the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 and $100 million on its former revolving credit facility during the first quarter of fiscal year 2002.

Income taxes. The Company's effective income tax rate was 38.5 percent for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 and 38 percent for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002.

Change in accounting principle writedown of intangible assets, net of taxes. The Company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" as of the beginning of the first quarter of fiscal year 2003. SFAS No. 142 established a new fair value-based accounting model for the valuation of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets recorded in connection with business combinations. Pursuant to the provisions of SFAS No. 142, goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are measured for impairment by applying a fair value-based test at least annually and are not amortized. Based upon its review procedures and the valuation results of its independent third party appraisal experts, the Company recorded a $24.1 million writedown in the carrying value of the indefinite-lived intangible assets of its Direct Marketing segment. The writedown ($14.8 million, net of taxes) is reflected as a change in accounting principle in the accompanying Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003.

QUARTERLY DATA AND SEASONALITY

The specialty retail industry is seasonal in nature and a disproportionately higher level of the Company's revenues and earnings are generated in the fall and holiday selling seasons. The Company's working capital requirements and inventories increase substantially in the first fiscal quarter in anticipation of the holiday selling season.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's cash requirements consist principally of the funding of its merchandise purchases, capital expenditures for new store growth, store renovations, upgrades of its management information systems and debt service requirements. The Company's working capital requirements fluctuate during the year, increasing substantially during the fall season as a result of higher planned seasonal inventory levels.

During the first quarter of fiscal year 2003, cash used for operating activities was $55.6 million compared to cash used for operating activities of $34.0 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002. Despite an increase in net earnings (before the non-cash impact of the accounting change in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003), cash used in operating activities increased in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 by approximately $21.6 million compared to the prior year period. This increase was primarily the result of higher inventory balances and lower levels of accounts payable and accrued liabilities. The increase in inventories in the current year primarily relates to the two new Neiman Marcus stores opened since the end of the first quarter of fiscal year 2002. The decrease in accounts payable and accrued liabilities is attributable primarily to earlier merchandise receipts and payments of fall and holiday season goods in the current year.

As of November 2, 2002, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $67.3 million and outstanding borrowings of $50 million pursuant to the Company's $300 million unsecured revolving credit facility. The Company has used the $50 million proceeds from the revolving credit facility to fund its seasonal working capital requirements. At October 27, 2001, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $86.8 million and outstanding borrowings of $100 million pursuant to the Company's $450 million unsecured revolving credit facility. The $450 million revolving credit facility was replaced by the $300 million credit facility on August 26, 2002.

The Company currently plans to open two new Neiman Marcus stores over the next three fiscal years and has consistently focused on renovating and modernizing its stores to improve productivity. The Company anticipates capital expenditures for fiscal year 2003 to be approximately $120 million to $130 million.

Management believes that operating cash flows, currently available vendor financing and amounts available pursuant to its $300 million revolving credit facility and its credit card securitization program should be sufficient to fund the Company's operations, debt service and currently anticipated capital expenditure requirements through the end of fiscal year 2003.

IMPACT OF INFLATION

The Company believes changes in revenues and net earnings that have resulted from inflation and changing prices have not been material during the periods presented. The Company adjusts selling prices to maintain certain profit levels and will continue to do so as economic conditions permit. There is no assurance, however, that inflation will not materially affect the Company in the future.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities." SFAS No. 146 addresses financial accounting and reporting for costs associated with exit or disposal activities and nullifies the guidance previously provided in Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)." SFAS 146 requires that a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity is recognized at fair value when the liability is incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The provisions of SFAS No. 146 will be effective for disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. The Company does not expect that the implementation of SFAS No. 146 will have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The market risk inherent in the Company's financial instruments represents the potential loss arising from adverse changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. The Company does not enter into derivative financial instruments for trading purposes. The Company seeks to manage exposure to adverse interest rate changes through its normal operating and financing activities.

Future borrowings under the Company's revolving credit facility, to the extent of outstanding borrowings, would be affected by interest rate changes. As of November 2, 2002, the Company had $50 million in borrowings outstanding under this facility. Assuming outstanding borrowings throughout fiscal year 2003 of $50 million, a change of 100 basis points in interest rates would impact earnings by $0.5 million.

The Company's outstanding long-term debt as of November 2, 2002 is at fixed interest rates and would not be affected by interest rate changes.

Pursuant to a revolving credit card securitization program that begins to expire in September 2005, the Company sold substantially all of its credit card receivables through a subsidiary in exchange for certificates representing undivided interests in such receivables. The Class A Certificates, which have an aggregate principal value of $225 million, were sold to investors. The holders of the Class A Certificates are entitled to monthly interest distributions from the Trust at the contractually-defined rate of one month LIBOR plus 0.27 percent annually. The distributions to the Class A Certificate holders are payable from the finance charge income generated by the credit card receivables held by the Trust. At November 2, 2002, the Company estimates a 100 basis point increase in LIBOR would result in an approximate annual decrease of $2.25 million in income to the Company from its Retained Interests in the credit card portfolio held by the Trust.

The Company uses derivative financial instruments to manage foreign currency risk related to the procurement of merchandise inventories from foreign sources. The Company enters into foreign currency contracts denominated in the euro and British pound. The Company had foreign currency contracts in the form of forward exchange contracts in the amount of approximately $26.9 million as of November 2, 2002 and approximately $30.1 million as of October 27, 2001. The market risk inherent in these instruments was not material to the Company's consolidated financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 or the first quarter of fiscal year 2002.

Based on a review of the Company's financial instruments outstanding at November 2, 2002 that are sensitive to market risks, the Company has determined that there was no material market risk exposure to the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows as of such date.
