Item 4. Description of Securities

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Registrant has amended and restated its articles of incorporation limiting the personal liability of its directors for monetary damages to the fullest extent permitted by the California General Corporation Law. Under California law, a director's liability to a company or its shareholders may not be limited as to:

acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing and culpable violation of law;

acts or omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of the company or its shareholders or that involve the absence of good faith on the part of the director;

any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit;

acts or omissions that show a reckless disregard for the director's duty to the company or its shareholders in circumstances in which the director was aware, or should have been aware, in the ordinary course of performing the director's duties, of a risk of serious injury to the company or its shareholders;

acts or omissions that constitute an unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of the director's duty to the company or its shareholders; contracts or transactions between the company and a director governed by Section 310 of the California General Corporation Law; or improper dividends, loans and guarantees under Section 316 of the California General Corporation Law.

In addition, under California law a director's liability to a company or its shareholders may not be limited as to any act or omission (i) occurring prior to the date when its amended and restated articles of incorporation becomes effective or (ii) occurring in his or her capacity as an officer, notwithstanding that such individual is also a director or that his or her actions, if negligent or improper, have been ratified by the directors.

The limitation of liability does not affect the availability of injunctions and other equitable remedies available to the Registrant's shareholders for any violation by a director of his or her fiduciary duty to the Registrant or its shareholders.

Edgar Filing: SPECIALTY LABORATORIES INC - Form S-8

The Registrant's amended and restated articles of incorporation also include an authorization for Registrant to indemnify its "agents," as defined in Section 317 of the California General Corporation Law, through bylaw provisions, agreements with such agents, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, to the fullest extent permitted by law. Under this provision, Registrant's amended and restated bylaws provide for indemnification of its directors, officers and employees. In addition, Registrant may, at its discretion, provide indemnification to persons whom it is not obligated to indemnify. The Registrant's amended and restated bylaws also allow it to enter into indemnification agreements with individual directors, officers, employees and other agents.

The Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its officers and directors. These agreements contain provisions that may require the Registrant, among other things, to (a) indemnify these officers and directors against liabilities that may arise because of their status or service as officers or directors, except for liabilities arising from willful misconduct of a culpable nature, (b) advance their expenses, subject to an undertaking, incurred as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified, and (c) obtain officers' and directors' liability insurance if it is maintained for other officers and directors. These agreements do not require Registrant to indemnify its directors and officers in situations where: (i) any remuneration paid to an officer or director is determined by final judgment or other final adjudication to be in violation of law; (ii) a judgment is rendered against the director or officer for an accounting of profits made from the purchase or sale of Registrant's securities under the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or similar provisions of any federal, state or local statutory laws; (iii) the officer's or director's conduct is adjudged to have been knowingly fraudulent or deliberately dishonest, or constitutes willful misconduct; or (iv) a court determines that indemnification under the circumstances is not lawful.
