("Santana") entered into an amendment (the "Amendment") to Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 27, 2006, by and among Armor, Santana and the Company (the "Merger Agreement"). The Amendment provides for an increase in the Per Share Consideration (as defined in the Merger Agreement) from $35.00 to $36.50 per share in cash; provided, however, that if the proposal relating to the merger is not approved by the Company's shareholders entitled to vote thereon at the special meeting of shareholders to be reconvened on May 25, 2006 by the requisite vote required under applicable law, then the Per Share Consideration shall revert to $35.00 automatically and without any further action being required by any of the parties.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.

A subsidiary of the Company and a subsidiary of Armor are parties to (i) Teaming Agreements relating to the joint development of the armored cab for the U.S. Army's Family of Medium Tactical Vehicles, which includes the High Mobility Artillery Rocket System, and (ii) purchase orders for the supply by a subsidiary of Armor to a subsidiary of the Company of armoring materials for incorporation into the Company's Low Signature Armored Cabs.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On May 15, 2006, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Company, Armor and Santana had entered into the Amendment and that the Company intends to adjourn its previously scheduled special meeting of shareholders on May 16, 2006 to vote on the merger, to May 25, 2006 at 9:00 a.m., Houston time, at The Fulbright Tower, 1301 McKinney, Houston, Texas 77010. The Company announced that it has removed this lawsuit to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division, and it plans to file a motion to dismiss Oshkosh's claims. The Company also intends to assert a third-party claim against Oshkosh for breach of the confidentiality and standstill agreement, filed in the separate shareholder litigation still pending in the same federal district court.
