

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 13, 2017, an alleged stockholder of Blue Nile, Inc. (“Blue Nile”) filed a putative class action complaint (the “Complaint”) in the Delaware Court of Chancery (the “Delaware Court”) against Blue Nile and the members of its Board of Directors, captioned Hale v. Blue Nile Inc. et al., C.A. No. 2017-0025-SG (the “Action”). The Complaint asserted a claim for breach of fiduciary duty for failure to disclose material information in Blue Nile’s Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A (the “Definitive Proxy”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), dated December 28, 2016, relating to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated November 6, 2016, pursuant to which Blue Nile would be acquired by legal entities formed by funds managed by Bain Capital Private Equity (the “Proposed Transaction”). The Action, among other things, sought additional disclosure of facts relating to the Proposed Transaction in connection with the stockholder vote thereupon and/or injunctive relief.

On January 24, 2017, Blue Nile filed a supplement to the Definitive Proxy with the SEC on Form 8-K that contained supplemental disclosures that mooted Plaintiff’s claims (the “Supplemental Disclosures”). The defendants to the Delaware Action continue to deny all allegations of wrongful or actionable conduct asserted in the action and further maintain that they diligently complied with their fiduciary duties, that the Definitive Proxy Statement was complete and accurate in all material respects and that no further disclosure was required under applicable law. In making the supplemental disclosures, the defendants to the Delaware Action do not in any way admit to the factual or legal allegations therein and further reserve all of their rights and defenses with respect thereto.

On February 2, 2017, following the Supplemental Disclosures, the Delaware Court dismissed the Action, retaining jurisdiction over the Action solely for the purpose of determining a potential application by Plaintiff’s counsel for an award of attorneys’ fees and reimbursement of expenses. After negotiations, the parties have reached an agreement pursuant to which Blue Nile will pay Plaintiff’s counsel $125,000 in attorneys’ fees and expenses in view of the Supplemental Disclosures. On February 10, 2017, the Delaware Court entered an Order Regarding Notice to Class Members, pursuant to which Blue Nile is providing notice. The Delaware Court has not ruled upon or approved the payment of the attorneys’ fees or expenses.
