PROXY STATEMENT

FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS TO BE HELD JUNE 1, 2007

GENERAL

The Board of Directors of ACME Communications, Inc. (the Company) is soliciting the enclosed proxy for use at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Friday, June 1, 2007 at 11600 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 2300, Los Angeles, California at 9:00 a.m. (local time) and at any adjournment thereof (the Annual Meeting or the Meeting). The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy are first being sent or given to stockholders is May 7, 2007.

We will vote all valid and properly executed proxies that we receive before the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions specified in the proxy. If proxies do not give any instructions, we will vote shares FOR: (1) the election of the named nominees for director and (2) the ratification of Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C.'s appointment as our independent accountants for 2007. As to any other business which may properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in such proxies will vote in accordance with their best judgment.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is actually voted at the Annual Meeting. You may do this by (a) delivering to the Secretary of the Company, at or prior to the Annual Meeting, an instrument of revocation or another proxy bearing a date or time later than the date or time of the proxy being revoked or (b) voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Mere attendance at the Annual Meeting will not serve to revoke your proxy.

We will pay the cost of this proxy solicitation. Brokers and nominees should forward soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the stock such brokers and nominees hold of record. We will reimburse them for their reasonable forwarding expenses. Our directors, officers and regular employees, without extra compensation, may solicit proxies personally, by telephone, by mail or by other means of communication.

VOTING SECURITIES

Each share of common stock has one vote on all matters submitted to our stockholders at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders of record at the close of business on April 27, 2007 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On April 27, 2007, our issued and outstanding voting securities consisted of 16,046,763 shares of common stock.

The presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote will constitute a quorum for the meeting. Assuming such a quorum is present, for the purpose of electing directors, the affirmative vote of a plurality of votes cast is necessary to approve the election of a director. For the purpose of approving all other proposals presented to our stockholders at the Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote of a majority in voting power of the shares of common stock that are present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote thereon is necessary for approval.

Counting of Votes

Our inspector of elections will count all votes cast in person, by proxy or by written consent at the meeting. Abstentions will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, and will be treated as votes cast and have the same effect as a vote against a proposal. Under Delaware law, if you hold your shares in street name through a broker or nominee and do not provide specific voting instructions with respect to any matter, your broker or nominee will have discretionary authority to vote on routine matters and those shares will be counted for general quorum purposes.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Election of Directors

Each of these nominees has been proposed by the Nominating and Governance Committee and will serve until the annual meeting of stockholders in 2008 or until his successor is elected and qualified.

Each nominee has indicated his willingness to serve if elected, but if any nominee should become unable to serve, we will vote your proxies for the election of such other person as our directors select.

Board Committees and Corporate Governance

Audit Committee

Our Audit Committee is comprised of Michael Corrigan (Chairman), John Conlin and Frederick Wasserman. Our Board has determined that each Audit Committee member is independent, and Messrs. Corrigan and Wasserman are financial experts under the rules and regulations of the SEC and the NASDAQ Rules. Our Audit Committee engages our independent public accountants, reviews with the independent public accountants the plans and results of such audit engagement, approves professional services provided by the independent public accountants, reviews the independence of the independent public accountants, considers the range of audit and non-audit fees, reviews the adequacy of our internal accounting controls and reviews our critical accounting policies and is responsible for overseeing a variety of other accounting and financial reporting issues as enumerated in its charter. The Audit Committee met five times in 2006.

Compensation Committee

The Committee also administers our 1999 Stock Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee met three times in 2006.

Nominating and Governance Committee

Our Nominating and Governance Committee was formed in April 2004 and is comprised of Michael Corrigan, Thomas Embrescia, Brian McNeill and Frederick Wasserman. The board has determined that each of the members of the committee qualifies as an independent director as defined under the NASDAQ Rules. The Nominating and Governance Committee identifies, evaluates and recommends to the Board candidates for appointment or election to the board, as appropriate. It also evaluates the nature, structure and composition of other Board committees. In connection with Mr. Wasserman's appointment to the board in December 2006, the committee discussed Mr. Wasserman's candidacy and qualifications and, upon consensus of the committee, recommended to the board that Mr. Wasserman be appointed director. In April 2007, upon the resignation of James Collis from our Board of Directors, our Board appointed Mr. Wasserman to the Nominating and Governance Committee and appointed him to replace Mr. Collis as the committee's chairman. The committee has met and determined that all those persons named as nominees in this proxy statement be nominated for election to the Board of Directors. The committee will meet at other times as needed to consider candidates to fill any vacancies that may occur.

At least once a year, the committee will consider whether the number of directors is appropriate for the Company's needs and recommend to the Board any changes in the number of directors and evaluate the performance of the Board and its committees. In addition, the committee (a) oversees the evaluation of the Board and management and (b) develops and recommends to the Board a set of corporate governance principles. The committee will monitor and reassess from time to time these corporate governance principles. The committee met twice in 2006.

A stockholder may submit the name of a director candidate for consideration by the Nominating and Governance Committee by writing to: Nominating and Governance Committee, ACME Communications, Inc., 2101 E. Fourth St., Suite 202A, Santa Ana, CA 92705. The stockholder must submit the following information in support of the candidate: (a) the name and address of the stockholder recommending the candidate; (b) a representation that the stockholder recommending the candidate is a stockholder of the Company's stock; (c) a description of any arrangement or understanding between the stockholder and the candidate and any other person or persons regarding the stockholder's submission of the candidate's name for consideration and identifying such person or persons by name, address and affiliation with the stockholder, the candidate, and the Company, if any; (d) such other information regarding the candidate as the Company would be required to include in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC if the Board were to nominate the candidate for election as a director or if the Board were to appoint the candidate as a director; (e) the consent of the candidate to be identified to the board for consideration and to be identified in the proxy; and (f) the consent of the candidate to serve as a director if elected. The committee may refuse to consider any candidate for whom the stockholder fails to provide the information mentioned above.

In evaluating a director candidate, the Nominating and Governance Committee will consider the candidate's independence, character, corporate governance skills and abilities, business experience, training and education, commitment to performing the duties of a director, and other skills, abilities or attributes that fill specific needs of the board or its committees. The committee will use the same criteria in evaluating candidates suggested by stockholders as for candidates suggested by other sources.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

Our Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Conduct and Ethics which applies to all directors, officers (including our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions) and employees. The full text of our Code of Conduct and Ethics is available on our website at www.acmecomcommunications.com. We intend to disclose future amendments to certain provisions of the Code of Conduct and Ethics, and any waivers of provisions of the Code of Conduct and Ethics required to be disclosed under the rules of the SEC, at the same location on our website.

Annual Stockholders Meeting

It is our policy that all directors make every reasonable effort to attend the annual stockholder meeting, either in person or by telephone. Messrs. Kellner, Allen and Corrigan were physically present at the Company's 2006 Annual Stockholders Meeting, held in Los Angeles, California, on June 9, 2006. All of our other directors were present by telephone.

Stockholder Communications

Stockholders may communicate with any director, the entire Board, or any committee by sending a letter to that person(s), care of the Company's Secretary, at 2101 E. Fourth St., Suite 202A, Santa Ana, CA 92705, or by sending an e-mail to them at: board@acmecom.com. Based on written confirmations from all directors and officers subject to Section 16(a) with respect to our Company, during 2006 all such persons complied with the filing requirements of that Section.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Since January 1, 2006, there has not been, nor is there any proposed transaction where we were or will be a party in which the amount involved exceeded or will exceed $120,000 and in which any director, executive officer, holder of more than 5% of any class of our voting securities, or any member of the immediate family of any of the foregoing persons had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, other than the compensation agreements and other agreements and transactions which are described elsewhere in this proxy statement and the transactions described below. We believe that the agreements and transactions described below were generally on terms that were comparable to terms we could have obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

Policies and Procedures for Related Party Transactions

Pursuant to its written charter, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for reviewing and approving all related party transactions. The Audit Committee monitors and reviews potential conflict of interest situations involving a principal stockholder, a member of the Board of Directors or senior management.

Registration Rights

We have a registration rights agreement with all of our pre-initial public offering investors who still hold our capital stock, including Messrs. Kellner, Allen, Gealy, Embrescia and McNeill and their affiliates. At any time, these stockholders, holding an aggregate of at least 25% of the stock covered by this registration rights agreement, may demand that we file a registration statement covering our securities held by them. However, the securities to be registered must have an anticipated aggregate public offering price of at least $10.0 million. These stockholders can effect two such demand registrations.

In addition, at any time we are eligible to use a Registration Statement on Form S-3 to register an offering of our securities, these stockholders may request that we file a registration statement on Form S-3 covering all or a portion of our securities held by them, if the aggregate public offering price is at least $2.0 million. These stockholders can request that we file two S-3 registration statements per year. In addition, these stockholders have piggyback registration rights. If we propose to register any common stock, these stockholders may require us to include all or a portion of their securities in such registration.

These registration rights are subject to our right to delay the filing of a registration statement, not more than once in any 12-month period, for not more than 90 days.

We would bear all registration expenses incurred in connection with these registrations. The stockholders would pay all underwriting discounts, selling commissions and stock transfer taxes applicable to the sale of their securities.

The registration rights of each stockholder under this registration rights agreement terminate when such stockholder transfers its securities under Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act or their shares have otherwise been transferred.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The primary objective of our compensation policies and programs with respect to executive compensation is to serve our stockholders by attracting, retaining and motivating talented and qualified individuals to manage and lead our business. We focus on providing a competitive compensation package which provides both short and long-term incentives for the achievement of measurable corporate and individual performance objectives. The Compensation Committee is responsible for evaluating and making recommendations to the Board concerning the compensation levels of our executive officers. Our Compensation Committee and Board review a number of factors in making their decisions, including recommendations of management. Future decisions regarding executive compensation will continue to be the responsibility of our Compensation Committee.

In 2006, we compensated our senior management primarily through base salaries at levels that we believed were comparable to executives of companies of similar size and stage of development. The Compensation Committee recommended the approval of, and the Board approved, Messrs. Kellner's, Gealy's and Allen's consulting and employment agreements and the August 10, 2006 amendments extending the terms of those agreements through September 30, 2009.

Elements of Executive Compensation

Base Salary or Consulting Fee

We seek to provide our senior management with a level of base salary (or, in the case of Mr. Kellner, base consulting fee) in the form of cash compensation appropriate to their roles and responsibilities. Base salaries for our executives are established based on the executive's qualifications, experience, scope of responsibilities, future potential and past performance, as well as the salaries paid by comparable companies for similar positions. Although base salaries are reviewed annually and adjusted from time to time to realign salaries with market levels, Messrs. Kellner, Gealy and Allen have not been given an increase in their base salaries (or, in the case of Mr. Kellner, his base consulting fee) since January 1, 2002. Mr. Danduran has not received an increase in his base salary since January 1, 2004. The decisions not to raise base salaries has been based on numerous factors including the individual responsibilities, performance and experience of each executive and the downsizing of our Company as well as the general economic uncertainties and continuing uncertain television advertising demand and the resultant impact on the Company and the industry.

Incentive Cash Bonuses

Our practice is to award incentive cash bonuses to our executive officers based upon their individual performance as well as business and strategic objectives of the Company. In 2006, no bonuses were awarded to our executive officers as business conditions continued to be challenging for the Company. The Company expects to continue its informal discretionary plan for 2007 and beyond and will utilize incentive cash bonuses to reward executives for achieving financial and operational goals and for achieving individual performance objectives.

Long-Term Equity Compensation

We believe that long-term performance is achieved through an ownership culture that encourages long-term performance by our executive officers through the use of stock-based awards. Because Messrs. Kellner, Gealy and Allen own significant amounts of Company stock that we believe align their interests with the stockholders, we have not granted any awards to these executives since our initial public offering in September 1999. From time to time, we grant other officers or employees of the Company and its operating subsidiaries stock options, which generally vest over a three year period, to provide a long-term incentive to such executives, provide them with an opportunity to obtain an ownership interest in our company and further align their interests with the interests of our stockholders. In recent years we have reduced the use of equity incentives. No stock options were granted to any of our employees in 2006.

Other Compensation

Our executive officers are eligible to receive the same benefits that are available to all employees. Certain additional benefits may be provided to our executives such as a Company provided automobile, but each on a case-by-case basis.

Summary Compensation Table

The following table shows information regarding the compensation earned during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 by our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and our two other executive officers whose total compensation exceeded $100,000 during that fiscal year (the Named Executive Officers).

EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS AND AGREEMENTS

We have a non-exclusive consulting agreement with Mr. Kellner. In connection with his agreement, Mr. Kellner directs overall Company strategy and supervises the Company's Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer and is regularly involved with senior management in monitoring and overseeing the Company's progress and performance. We have full-time exclusive employment agreements with each of Messrs. Gealy and Allen. In August 2006, the Compensation Committee authorized, and the executives entered into, agreements to extend the consulting and employment agreements through September 2009.

Mr. Kellner's consulting agreement provides that either he or the Company may terminate the agreement for any reason upon forty-five days written notice and that in the event of such termination, no severance or further compensation will be due Mr. Kellner beyond the effective date of the termination.

In the event that Messrs. Gealy or Allen are terminated in connection with a change in control, then each terminated executive is entitled to receive his base salary and continue to participate in employee benefits for the lesser of (a) the balance of the term of his contract or (b) one year from the date of termination. Such payments shall not be subject to mitigation. In the event that either of them are terminated without cause, then such executive is entitled to receive his base salary and employee benefits for the lesser of (a) the balance of the term of his contract or (b) eighteen months from the date of termination and such payments shall not be subject to mitigation. If during the term of Mr. Gealy's or Allen's employment agreements the Company completes the sale of four or more stations subsequent to August 10, 2006, including the Company's sale of station WTVK in Ft. Myers - Naples, Florida which was completed in February 2007, then the Company can, if in good faith it determines that the executive's services are no longer required, terminate the executive with ninety days written notice and such executive shall be entitled to receive his base salary plus employee benefits for an additional six month period. Any amounts paid by the Company during the six month severance period are subject to mitigation by the executive.

As of December 31, 2006 Mr. Kellner's annual consulting fee was $258,500, and will remain at this amount until his agreement expires on September 30, 2009. As of December 31, 2006, each of Mr. Gealy's and Mr. Allen's base salary was $387,750, and will remain at this amount until their agreements expire on September 30, 2009.

Messrs. Kellner, Gealy and Allen's agreements also entitle them to participate in an annual cash incentive plan that they are to present to the Compensation Committee for its review and approval. To date, the executives have declined the Committee's invitation to propose such a plan and the executives are unlikely to do so in the future. Therefore, the Board has not adopted any annual cash incentive plan for these three executives.

Mr. Danduran is employed by us on an at-will basis. Mr. Danduran's base annual salary was $175,000 at December 31, 2006. Mr. Danduran is eligible for a discretionary annual cash bonus of up to 20% of his current base salary. No cash bonus was awarded to Mr. Danduran for 2006. In the event that Mr. Danduran is terminated due to a downsizing of the Company, he will be entitled to receive thirteen weeks of severance based on his then current base salary and such severance shall be subject to mitigation. In addition, all of his unvested options will become immediately vested.

Grants of Plan-Based Awards

No options were granted to our Named Executive Officers in 2006.

Management is responsible for our internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of our consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants all matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

Our independent accountants also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussions with management and the independent accountants and the Audit Committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in our Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2006 filed with the SEC.

Any stockholder wishing to bring business before the 2008 Annual Meeting, who would like the Company to consider the inclusion of such proposal in the Company's proxy materials relating to the 2008 Annual Meeting under Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, also must submit such proposal to the Company and such proposal must be mailed and received at our principal executive offices no later than January 8, 2008. However, if the date of the 2008 Annual Meeting is changed by more than 30 days from the first anniversary of the Annual Meeting, the deadline for submission of a stockholder proposal for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement will be a reasonable time before the Company mails its proxy materials for the 2008 Annual Meeting, and the Company will disclose the deadline in a report filed with the SEC. You should direct any such stockholder proposals to the attention of the Secretary of the Company at our address set forth on the first page of this Proxy Statement.

With respect to any proposal that a stockholder of the Company presents at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in the year 2008 that is not submitted for inclusion in the Company's proxy materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, the proxy for such annual meeting of stockholders will confer discretionary voting authority to vote on such stockholder proposal to the extent permitted under Rule 14a-4 under the Exchange Act.
