PROXY STATEMENT

Edgar Filing: OLD SECOND BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of Old Second Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation, of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders. This meeting is to be held at our corporate headquarters located at 37 South River Street, Aurora, Illinois on April 19, 2005 at 11:00 a.m., local time, or at any postponements or adjournments of the meeting. Old Second conducts full service community banking and trust business through its wholly-owned subsidiaries: The Old Second National Bank of Aurora, Old Second Mortgage, Old Second Bank - Yorkville, Old Second Bank - Kane County and Old Second Financial, Inc.

A copy of our annual report for the year ended December 31, 2004, which includes audited financial statements, is enclosed. This proxy statement was first mailed to stockholders on or about March 15, 2005.

Why am I receiving this proxy statement and proxy form?

You are receiving a proxy statement and proxy form from us because on March 4, 2005, the record date for the annual meeting, you owned shares of our common stock. This proxy statement describes the matters that will be presented for consideration by the stockholders at the annual meeting. It also gives you information concerning these matters to assist you in making an informed decision.

When you sign the enclosed proxy form, you appoint the proxy holder as your representative at the meeting. The proxy holder will vote your shares as you have instructed in the proxy form, ensuring that your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy form in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

If you have signed and returned the proxy form and an issue comes up for a vote at the meeting that is not identified on the form, the proxy holder will vote your shares, pursuant to your proxy, in accordance with his or her best judgment.

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

You are being asked to vote on the election of five directors of Old Second, the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP to serve as our independent auditors for 2005 and any other business that may properly be brought before the meeting.

How do I vote?

A form of proxy is enclosed for use at the meeting. If the proxy is executed and returned, it may nevertheless be revoked at any time insofar as it has not been exercised. Stockholders attending the meeting may, on request, vote their own shares even though they have previously sent in a proxy. Unless revoked or instructions to the contrary are contained in the proxies, the shares represented by validly executed proxies will be voted at the meeting and will be voted for the election of the nominees for director named in this proxy statement.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy form?

It means that you have multiple holdings reflected in our stock transfer records and/or in accounts with stockbrokers. Please sign and return ALL proxy forms to ensure that all your shares are voted.

If I hold shares in the name of a broker, who votes my shares?

If you received this proxy statement from your broker, your broker should have given you instructions for directing how your broker should vote your shares. It will then be your broker's responsibility to vote your shares for you in the manner you direct.

Under the rules of various national and regional securities exchanges, brokers may generally vote on routine matters, such as the election of directors and the ratification of independent auditors, but may not vote on non-routine matters, such as an amendment to the certificate of incorporation or the adoption or amendment of a stock incentive plan, unless they have received voting instructions from the person for whom they are holding shares. If there is a non-routine matter presented to stockholders at a meeting and your broker does not receive instructions from you on how to vote on that matter, your broker will return the proxy card to us, indicating that he or she does not have the authority to vote on that matter. This is generally referred to as a "broker non-vote" and may affect the outcome of the voting on those matters.

While the matters to be voted upon at the 2005 annual meeting should be within the brokers' discretion to vote, whether or not you give your broker direction, we encourage you to provide directions to your broker as to how you want your shares voted on all matters to be brought before the meeting. You should do this by carefully following the instructions your broker gives you concerning its procedures. This ensures that your shares will be voted at the meeting.

How many votes do we need to hold the annual meeting?

A majority of the shares that were outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business. On March 4, 2005, the record date, there were 13,448,924 shares outstanding. A majority of these shares must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting.

Shares are counted as present at the meeting if the stockholder either:

is present in person at the meeting; or has properly submitted a signed proxy form or other proxy.

What happens if any nominee is unable to stand for re-election?

The board may, by resolution, provide for a lesser number of directors or designate a substitute nominee. In the latter case, shares represented by proxies may be voted for a substitute nominee. Proxies cannot be voted for more than five nominees. The board has no reason to believe any nominee will be unable to stand for re-election.

What options do I have in voting on each of the proposals?

You may vote for or withhold authority to vote for each nominee for director. You may vote for, against or abstain for the ratification of the selection of our accountants and on any other proposal that may properly be brought before the meeting.

How many votes are needed for each proposal?

The five individuals receiving the highest number of votes cast for their election will be elected as directors of Old Second. Additionally, the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. An abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the ratification of the selection of our accountants.

Broker non-votes, if any, will not be counted as entitled to vote, but will count for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present on the matter. So long as a quorum is present, broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors.

How are votes counted?

Voting results will be tabulated and certified by the election judges.

Where do I find the voting results of the meeting?

We will announce voting results at the meeting. The voting results will also be disclosed in our Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2005.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Old Second's board of directors is divided into three classes, approximately equal in number. Ordinarily, each year we ask Old Second's stockholders to elect the members of one class for a term of three years. At the annual meeting to be held on April 19, 2005, you will be entitled to elect five directors for terms expiring in three years, as described herein. We have no knowledge that any of the nominees will refuse or be unable to serve as directors, but if any of the nominees becomes unavailable for election, the holders of proxies reserve the right to substitute another person of their choice as a nominee when voting at the meeting.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the board of directors of Old Second has nominated five persons for election at this annual meeting, all of whom are incumbent directors. Set forth below is information concerning the nominees for election and for the other directors whose term of office will continue after the meeting, including their age, year first elected a director and business experience during the previous five years. The five nominees for director, if elected at the annual meeting, will serve for terms expiring in 2008.

Unless authority to vote for the nominees is withheld, the shares represented by the enclosed proxy card, if executed and returned, will be voted for the election of the nominees proposed by the board of directors.

The board of directors recommends you vote your shares for each of the nominees for director.

Upon attaining age 70, an elected director assumes the status of a senior director for a period of three years. Senior directors have the right to attend all board meetings and all meetings of the committees to which they are appointed and to participate in all discussions during such meetings. However, a senior director does not have the right to vote on any matter. There were no senior directors on the board of directors during 2004. Mr. Walter Alexander, who has served on the board since 1976, became a senior director in January, 2005.

All directors will hold office for the terms indicated, or until their earlier death, resignation, removal or disqualification, and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. There are no arrangements or understandings between any of the nominees, directors or executive officers and any other person pursuant to which any of our nominees, directors or executive officers have been selected for their respective positions. No nominee, member of the board of directors or executive officer is related to any other nominee, member of the board of directors or executive officer. Mr. Alexander, who is a senior director, is also a director of Wausau-Mosinee Paper Corporation, a corporation with a class of securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

General

The board of directors is made up of thirteen directors, who are elected every three years to serve staggered terms. Generally, the board oversees our business and monitors the performance of our management. In accordance with our corporate governance procedures, the board does not involve itself in the day-to-day operations of Old Second, which is monitored by our executive officers and management. Our directors fulfill their duties and responsibilities by attending regular meetings of the board and through committee membership, which is discussed below. The board has determined that all of the directors are independent as defined by the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc., with the exception of Messrs. Skoglund and Cheatham, who are executive officers.

The board of directors held twelve regular meetings during 2004. All of the directors attended at least 75% of these meetings and of the meetings of the committees on which they served. We typically schedule a board meeting in conjunction with our annual meeting and expect that our directors will attend our annual meeting. Last year, all individuals then serving as directors attended our annual meeting.

The board of directors believes that it is important to encourage the highest level of corporate ethics and responsibility and is proud that it adopted many of the corporate governance requirements of Nasdaq and the Securities and Exchange Commission prior to the required compliance dates. Among other things, the board has adopted a Code of Conduct, which applies to all of our directors, officers and employees, as well as a procedure for allowing employees to anonymously report any problems they may detect with respect to our financial reporting. The Code of Conduct, as well as other information pertaining to our committees, corporate governance and reporting with the Securities and Exchange Commission, can be found on our website at www.o2bancorp.com.

The board of directors has standing Audit, Nominating and Corporate Governance and Compensation Committees, each of which is made up solely of directors who are deemed to be independent under the rules of Nasdaq. Actions taken by each committee of the board are reported to the full board, usually at its next meeting. The principal responsibilities of each of the committees are described below.

Audit Committee

The members of our Audit Committee during 2004 were Messrs. Alexander, Maberry, Kane, McKee, Schmitz, and Ms. Sobek, each of whom are independent directors, as that term is defined by Nasdaq. Mr. Finn has also served on the committee since his appointment to the full board in July, 2004. The Audit Committee assists the board in carrying out its oversight responsibilities for our financial reporting process, audit process and internal controls. The Audit Committee is solely responsible for the pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services to be provided by the independent accountants and the committee exercises its authority to do so in accordance with a policy that it has adopted. A copy of this policy was attached as an exhibit in last year's proxy statement. Additionally, beginning in 2004, the Audit Committee reviewed and approved all related party transactions between Old Second and its related parties pursuant to Nasdaq's rules and regulations.

Mr. Alexander was the chairman of the committee in 2004. In 2004, the board designated Mr. Maberry, who is Vice President of Aurora Bearing Company, and who previously served as Controller of Aurora Bearing Company, as the Audit Committee Financial Expert as such term is defined by the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The board's determination was based upon Mr. Maberry's level of knowledge and experience regarding financial matters and the audit process as a result of his formal education and professional experience. In December, 2004, Barry Finn, President and Chief Executive Officer, Rush-Copley Medical Center, was appointed as Audit Committee Financial Expert for 2005. This decision was based upon Mr. Finn's work experience as the Chief Financial Officer of several regional hospital organizations, his experience overseeing and managing an audit process, as well as Mr. Finn's formal education. The board believes that each of the other members of the Audit Committee possesses knowledge and experience sufficient to understand the complexities of the financial statements of Old Second. Mr. Alexander, Chairman of the Audit Committee or Mr. Maberry, the designated Audit Committee Financial Expert in 2004, met individually on a quarterly basis with the independent accountants. Additionally, Mr. Maberry has been named as Chairman of the committee for 2005.

The committee's duties, responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.o2bancorp.com. You can request a copy of the committee's charter by sending a written request to the Corporate Secretary at 37 South River Street, Aurora, Illinois 60506, or by sending an e-mail requesting same to rhodgson@o2bancorp.com. The Audit Committee met nine times in 2004.

Compensation Committee

The members of the Compensation Committee in 2004 were Messrs. Alexander, Fagel, Kane, Meyer and Palmer, each of whom is an independent director as defined by Nasdaq, an outside director pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and a non-employee director under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Mr. Palmer is the Chairman of the committee. The Compensation Committee reviews the performance of Old Second's executive officers and sets their compensation levels. The committee's duties, responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.o2bancorp.com. You can request a copy of the committee's charter by sending a written request to the Corporate Secretary at 37 South River Street, Aurora, Illinois 60506, or by sending an e-mail requesting same to rhodgson@o2bancorp.com. The Compensation Committee met twice during 2004.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The members of our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee during 2004 were Messrs. Alexander, Lindgren, Maberry and McKee, each of whom is deemed to be an independent director as that term is defined by Nasdaq. Mr. Meyer and Mr. Palmer will also serve on the committee in 2005. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews the qualifications of, and recommends to the board for nomination, candidates to fill vacancies on the board as they may occur during the year. Additionally, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing our policies, procedures and structure as they relate to corporate governance.

In July, 2004, the committee recommended to the full board that Mr. Finn be appointed to serve as a director. The full board approved this appointment and Mr. Finn has served on the board since that time and he is a nominee for director for the 2005 annual meeting along with four other nominees. In December, 2004, the committee recommended, which recommendations were ratified by the full board of directors, that Mr. McKee be designated as the lead director, Mr. Maberry be designated as the Chairman of the Audit Committee, that Mr. Palmer be appointed as Chairman of the Compensation Committee and that Mr. Meyer and Mr. Palmer be appointed to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for 2005.

The committee's duties, responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.o2bancorp.com. You can request a copy of the committee's charter by sending a written request to the Corporate Secretary at 37 South River Street, Aurora, Illinois 60506, or by sending an e-mail requesting same to rhodgson@o2bancorp.com. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met three times in 2004.

Independent Director Sessions

Consistent with the Nasdaq listing requirements, the independent directors regularly have the opportunity to meet without Messrs. Skoglund and Cheatham in attendance. In 2004, the board of directors created the position of a lead independent director. Mr. Alexander served in that capacity in 2004 and Mr. McKee has been appointed to serve in that position for 2005. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews this appointment annually and the full board has the opportunity to ratify the committee's selection. The lead independent director assists the board in assuring effective corporate governance and serves as chairman of the independent director sessions. In 2004, the independent directors met three times in executive sessions.

Director Nominations and Qualifications

In making its nominations for persons to be elected to the board of directors and included in our proxy statement, the committee evaluates incumbent directors, board nominees and persons nominated by stockholders, if any. Generally, the committee believes that, at a minimum, directors should possess certain qualities, including the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity, a sufficient educational and professional background, demonstrated leadership skills, sound judgment, a strong sense of service to the communities which we serve and an ability to meet the standards and duties set forth in our Code of Conduct. The committee also evaluates potential nominees to determine if they have any conflicts of interest that may interfere with their ability to serve as effective board members and to ensure the nominees' independence so that at least a majority of the directors on the board will be deemed independent in accordance with Nasdaq requirements. Furthermore, all nominees must be under the age of 70, which is the mandatory retirement age for directors, although they may continue to serve as a senior director. Generally, each incumbent director standing for re-election should have, at a minimum, attended at least 75% of board meetings during the past year and attended a majority of committee meetings of which he or she is a member. The committee retains the ability to make exceptions to this attendance requirement as individual circumstances warrant. Currently, there are no fees paid to any third party to identify or assist in identifying or evaluating nominees.

All of the nominees for election as directors for the 2005 annual meeting were nominated by the committee. The committee did not receive any stockholder nominations for director.

Stockholder Communications with the Board; Nomination and Proposal Procedures

Stockholder Communications with Directors. Stockholders of Old Second may contact any member of the board of directors or the board as a whole, through the Corporate Secretary either in person, in writing, via phone at 630-906-5480, or by e-mail at rhodgson@o2bancorp.com. Any communication will promptly be forwarded to the board as a group or to the attention of a specified director per your request. Your letter should indicate that you are an Old Second stockholder. The address for submitting communications to the board by mail is 37 South River Street, Aurora, Illinois 60506.

Nominations of Directors. In order for a stockholder nominee to be considered by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to be its nominee and included in our proxy statement, the nominating stockholder must file a written notice of the proposed director nomination with our Corporate Secretary, at the above address, at least 120 days prior to the date the previous year's proxy statement was mailed to stockholders. Nominations must include the full name and address of the proposed nominee and a brief description of the proposed nominee's business experience for at least the previous five years and, as to the stockholder giving the notice, his or her name and address, and the class and number of shares of our capital stock owned by that stockholder. All submissions must be accompanied by the written consent of the proposed nominee to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected. The committee may request additional information in order to make a determination as to whether to nominate the person for director.

In accordance with our bylaws, a stockholder may otherwise nominate a director for election to the board at an annual meeting of stockholders by giving timely notice in writing to our Corporate Secretary, at the address provided above. To be timely, stockholder nominations must be made in writing, delivered or mailed by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, to our Corporate Secretary not fewer than 14 days nor more than 60 days prior to any meeting of stockholders called for the election of directors. However, if notice of the meeting is given to stockholders less than 21 days prior to the date of the meeting, written nominations must be delivered or mailed to our Corporate Secretary not later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to stockholders. Each written nomination must set forth the name, age, business address and, if known, residence address of each nominee; the principal occupation or employment of each such nominee for the past five years; and the number of shares of stock of Old Second beneficially owned by each such nominee and by the nominating stockholder.

Other Stockholder Proposals. To be considered for inclusion in our proxy statement and form of proxy relating to our 2006 annual meeting of stockholders, the proposing stockholder must file a written notice of the proposal with our Corporate Secretary, at the above address, by November 5, 2005, and must otherwise comply with the rules and regulations set forth by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Compensation of Directors

Each director of Old Second also serves as a director of Old Second National Bank, and may serve on boards of our other subsidiaries. In 2004, non-employee directors received $750 for every board meeting and $500 for every committee meeting attended if there were no other bank-level meetings held that day. Non-employee directors of Old Second National Bank received a $10,000 annual retainer, $750 for every bank board meeting attended and $500 for each committee meeting attended. Additionally, non-employee directors of Old Second Bank-Yorkville and Old Second Bank-Kane County receive $500 per meeting and non-employee directors of Old Second Mortgage receive $300 per meeting.

In 2004, we awarded each non-employee director of Old Second National Bank options to purchase 1,500 shares of our common stock. We also maintain the Old Second Bancorp Directors Fee Deferral Plan, under which directors are permitted to defer receipt of their directors' fees and earn a rate of return based upon the performance of our stock. We may, but are not required to, fund the deferred fees into a trust which may hold our stock. The plan is unqualified and the directors have no interest in the trust. The deferred fees and any earnings thereon are unsecured obligations of Old Second. Any shares held in the trust are treated as treasury shares and may not be voted on any matter presented to stockholders. As of December 31, 2004, the total liability under the plan for the directors was approximately $977,000.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock at December 31, 2004, by each person known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding common stock, by each director or nominee, by each executive officer named in the summary compensation table which can be found later in this proxy statement, and by all directors and executive officers of Old Second as a group. Beneficial ownership has been determined for this purpose in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), under which a person is deemed to be the beneficial owner of securities if he or she has or shares voting power or investment power in respect of such securities or has the right to acquire beneficial ownership of securities within 60 days of December 31, 2004. Unless otherwise noted, the address of each five percent stockholder is 37 South River Street, Aurora, Illinois 60506.

Compensation and Benefits Assurance Agreement

On January 1, 1997, we entered into a Compensation and Benefits Assurance Agreement with Mr. Skoglund, our Chief Executive Officer, and on May 17, 1999, we entered into a Compensation and Benefit Assurance Agreement with Mr. Cheatham, our Chief Financial Officer. The initial term of each of the agreements was for one year and they are automatically extended for successive one-year periods, unless earlier terminated by either party. If a change of control occurs, the term of the agreements shall automatically renew for a two-year period and terminate following that two-year period. Under the agreements, a change of control occurs if: (i) certain persons acquire twenty percent or more of either Old Second or the Old Second National Bank's then outstanding voting securities; (ii) a majority of Old Second's directors serving or thereafter approved by at least (2/3) of the then current board at the beginning of a two-year period cease to constitute such majority following the two-year period; or (iii) the stockholders of Old Second approve a liquidation or a sale of either Old Second or Old Second National Bank or approve a merger or consolidation of Old Second (where the voting securities of Old Second represent less than 75% of the voting securities of the surviving entity after the merger or consolidation).

In the event of a change in control and a qualifying termination (occurring during the two year extended period), which includes an involuntary termination without cause, either Mr. Skoglund's or Mr. Cheatham's voluntary termination with good reason, or a constructive termination, the agreements provide for certain payments. Under Mr. Skoglund's agreement, payments include a lump-sum severance benefit in the amount of three times Mr. Skoglund's base salary. Under Mr. Cheatham's agreement, payments include a lump-sum severance benefit in the amount of two times Mr. Cheatham's base salary. Under both agreements, the executive is also entitled to an amount equal to the executive's salary, accrued vacation pay, unreimbursed business expenses, and all other items earned by and owed to the executive through the date of termination. Additionally, the executive is entitled to accelerated vesting of his stock options or other incentive awards, continuation of health insurance coverage for three years for Mr. Skoglund and two years for Mr. Cheatham, outplacement services for a period of up to one year, and any additional payments necessary to make him whole for any excise taxes that may be imposed.

In the event of a change of control under the agreements and the subsequent termination of Mr. Skoglund or Mr. Cheatham, as of December 31, 2004, we would have been obligated to pay Mr. Skoglund the unpaid portion of his salary and certain other benefits and approximately $1,145,000 and Mr. Cheatham, the unpaid portion of salary and certain other benefits and approximately $396,000, in addition to other amounts that may be due and owing under other compensation arrangements.

Pension Plan

Edgar Filing: OLD SECOND BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

All full-time salaried and regular part-time employees who have completed one year of service are eligible for participation in our pension plan and the remuneration credited to each participant includes all direct salaries and wages paid. Generally speaking, retirement benefits are based on final average monthly earnings during the highest five consecutive years of employment during the last ten years before retirement and integrates with a portion of the primary social security benefit payable to the participant. A participant receives monthly the amount calculated under the following formula: (i) $1\frac{2}{3}\%$ times the number of years of credited service up to a maximum of 30, and (ii) $\frac{1}{2}\%$ times the year of credited service over 30 years; less (iii) one-half the primary social security benefit payable to the participant.

The following table illustrates the annual amount of retirement income available under both our pension plan and a non-qualified supplemental executive retirement plan (SERP) (after deducting one-half of the social security benefit, but without limiting the retirement benefits for the single plan defined benefit limit of Section 415(c), for the combined plan Section 415 limits, and for the includable compensation limitation of Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) from such plan for a person 65 years of age in specified average earnings and years of service classification). The SERP restores benefits lost under the pension plan due to the limits imposed under Sections 401(a) (17) and 415 of the Code. The objective of the SERP is to permit those employees who are affected by the limitations of Code Sections 401(a)(17) and 415 to receive the same benefit they would have received under the Pension Plan but for the limitations imposed by the Code.

In certain cases, a participant's actual benefit may be less than that provided below:

Old Second Bancorp 2002 Long-Term Incentive Plan

In 2002, we adopted a long-term incentive plan for the benefit of our directors, officers, and employees. This plan provides for the issuance of incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, restricted stock and stock appreciation rights. The stockholders approved the plan in 2002 and 250,000 shares were originally reserved for issuance under the plan. In 2004, we awarded stock options to purchase an aggregate of 137,000 shares of Old Second common stock. The stock options awarded to the named executive officers during 2004 are included in the tables on page 11.

Deferred Compensation Plan for Executive Officers

We sponsor an executive deferred compensation plan which is a means by which certain executives may voluntarily defer a portion of their salary or bonus. This plan is an unfunded, nonqualified deferred compensation arrangement. There are two executives participating in this plan and our obligation under this arrangement as of December 31, 2004 was $272,144.

Old Second Bancorp, Inc. Employees 401(k) Savings Plan and Trust

We sponsor a qualified, tax-exempt pension plan qualifying under section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. Virtually all employees are eligible to participate after meeting certain age and service requirements. Eligible employees are permitted to contribute up to an unlimited amount or percentage of their compensation to the 401(k) plan. Pursuant to the plan, we match up to 4% of a participant's deferral into the 401(k) plan limited up to 4% of each participant's salary. The profit sharing portion of the 401(k) plan arrangement provides an annual discretionary contribution to the retirement account of each employee based in part on our profitability in a given year, and on each participant's annual compensation. Participants can choose between several different investment options under the 401(k) plan, including shares of Old Second common stock.

The total matching and profit sharing contributions that we made under the 401(k) plan to the named executive officers are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table on page 10 of this proxy statement.

Compensation Committee Report On Executive Compensation

The incorporation by reference of this proxy statement into any document filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Old Second shall not be deemed to include the following report unless such report is specifically stated to be incorporated by reference into such document.

Introduction

Old Second and Old Second National Bank share an executive management team, the members of which are compensated by the bank instead of the holding company. The compensation packages of the executive management team are based upon their roles and performance for both Old Second and Old Second National Bank, and are determined and approved by the Compensation Committee. The members of the committee are directors of both Old Second and Old Second National Bank. Messrs. Alexander, Fagel, Kane, Meyer and Palmer were members of the Compensation Committee in 2004, each of whom is an independent director as defined by Nasdaq, an outside director pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and a non-employee director under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Compensation Committee consults generally with management on matters concerning executive compensation and on pension savings and benefit plans where board or stockholder action is contemplated with respect to the adoption of or amendments to such plans. The committee further makes recommendations on organization, succession, election of officers, consultants and similar matters where board approval is required.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The executive compensation program is designed to guide the committee in formulating an appropriate compensation structure for senior management. The overall objective is to align senior management compensation with the success of meeting our goals by creating strong incentives to manage the business successfully from both a financial and operating perspective. The executive compensation program is structured to accomplish the following specific objectives:

encourage a consistent and competitive return to stockholders;

maintain a program which:

clearly motivates personnel to perform and succeed according to our current goals;

retains key personnel critical to our long-term success; and emphasizes formula-based components, such as incentive plans, in order to better focus management efforts in its execution of corporate goals;

maintain a corporate environment which encourages stability and a long-term focus for both Old Second and our management; and ensure that management:

fulfills its oversight responsibility to its constituents, including stockholders, customers, employees, the community and government regulatory agencies;

conforms its business conduct to the highest ethical standards;

remains free from any influences that could impair or appear to impair the objectivity and impartiality of its judgments or treatment of our constituents; and continues to avoid any conflict between its responsibilities to Old Second and each individual's personal interests.

There are three major components to executive officer compensation: base salary and bonus, stock options and additional benefit plans. The process utilized by the committee in determining executive officer compensation levels for all of these components is based upon the committee's subjective judgment and takes into account both qualitative and quantitative factors. No specific weights are assigned to such factors with respect to any compensation component. In reviewing an officer's compensation, the committee considers and evaluates all components of the officer's total compensation package. This involves reviewing the officer's base salary, bonus, incentive stock awards, prerequisites, participation in our 401(k) plan, participation in our non-qualified executive plans, payments due upon a change of control, if any, and all other payments and awards that the officer earns. Also, the committee evaluates the recommendations of the senior management with respect to the compensation of other key executive officers. However, the committee makes the final compensation decisions concerning officers.

Base Salary and Bonus

The Compensation Committee reviews each executive's base salary on an annual basis. The committee believes that the base salaries should offer security to each executive and allow Old Second to attract qualified executives and maintain a stable management team and environment.

Edgar Filing: OLD SECOND BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The committee targets base salaries at market levels, although they may be adjusted, either up or down, to reflect Old Second's performance. Initially, base salaries are determined by examining, among other things, each executive's level of responsibility, prior experience, education, breadth of knowledge, internal performance objectives and the current market level.

Annual adjustment to an executive's base salary is driven by corporate and individual performance. Corporate performance is measured primarily in terms of earnings per share, return on equity and assets and enhancement of book value per share. When measuring individual performance, the committee considers the individual's efforts in achieving established financial and business objectives, managing and developing employees and enhancing long-term relationships with customers. A bonus may also be granted based on specific individual goals and corporate performance.

As the President and Chief Executive Officer of Old Second, Mr. Skoglund's base salary increased by approximately 6% in 2004 to reflect a salary commensurate with his role and responsibilities. In determining Mr. Skoglund's salary in 2004 the committee also considered Mr. Skoglund's individual performance and his long-term contributions to Old Second's success. Overall, salary increases for the other senior executive officers were at a rate comparable to the increases provided to officers with similar duties and responsibilities at comparable organizations.

Stock Awards

The board and the committee believe in employee ownership in our common stock. Our current long-term incentive plan is intended to promote equity ownership in Old Second by the directors and selected officers and employees, to increase their proprietary interest in the success of Old Second and to encourage them to remain in the employ of Old Second or its subsidiaries. To reinforce our long-term perspective and to retain valued executives, options granted to these individuals vest ratably over a three-year period following grant. Options are issued at the market value of the common stock at the time of issuance, thereby providing a benefit only upon future stock appreciation. In December 2004, the non-employee directors each received stock options totaling 1,500 shares per director.

Executives receive stock option grants that are generally comparable to the long-term incentive opportunities granted to individuals with similar positions at financial institutions of similar size. In 2004 the number of stock options awarded to officers and employees were similar in number to those granted in 2003. The committee awarded options to purchase 32,000 shares of our common stock to Mr. Skoglund. This award was based upon performance and peer group comparisons and is similar to the package he received in 2003.

Benefits, Qualified Service Plans and Perquisites

Benefits offered to executives are intended to serve a different purpose than base salary and stock options. While the benefits offered are competitive with the marketplace and help attract and retain executives, the benefits also provide a safety net of protection against financial catastrophes that can result from illness, disability or death. Benefits offered to executives are generally those offered to the general employee population, with some variation to promote tax efficiency and replacement of benefit opportunities lost to regulatory limits. Old Second offers eligible employees two tax-qualified plans: a 401(k) savings and profit sharing plan and a pension plan.

The 401(k) savings program has no percentage limit for salary deferrals (with a partial company match); however, it is subject to statutory limitations. The profit sharing portion of the 401(k) plan arrangement provides an annual discretionary contribution to the retirement account of each employee based in part on our profitability in a given year, and on each participant's annual compensation. The pension plan targets a 50% pay replacement, integrated with the participant's social security benefits, at normal retirement age following a full career of service. Excluding employees of non-banking subsidiaries who participate in the 401(k) plan only, participation in these plans is generally offered to full-time salaried and regular part-time employees. Benefits under these plans, taken as a whole, are believed to be competitive with comparable banks and bank holding companies.

Edgar Filing: OLD SECOND BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

In 2004, Mr. Skoglund received $39,298 in other compensation, which includes a matching contribution to the 401(k) plan and an automobile allowance of $10,800. Mr. Skoglund also participates in our pension plan and SERP and has a change in control agreement, each of which is described in more detail in this proxy statement.

Conclusion

The committee believes these executive compensation policies and programs effectively serve the interests of stockholders and Old Second. The committee believes these policies motivate executives to contribute to Old Second's overall future successes, thereby enhancing the value of Old Second for the benefit of all stockholders.

Respectfully,

Mr. Walter Alexander

Mr. Marvin Fagel

Mr. William Kane

Mr. William Meyer

Mr. Gerald Palmer, Chairman
