Employment Agreements

An employment agreement between the Company and John Howell Bullion, Chief Executive Officer, was executed on October 29, 1999. The agreement commenced October 20, 1999 and continues for a three-year period. At the end of the three-year period, the agreement will automatically renew for successive two-year periods, unless terminated by either party in accordance with the terms of the agreement. The employment agreement automatically terminates upon the mutual agreement of the parties, upon Mr. Bullion's death, or if Mr. Bullion is disabled for a continuous nine-month period. Mr. Bullion's employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $180,000 for the calendar year 2000 and $200,000 for calendar years 2001 and 2002. In February 2002, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Bullion's 2002 annual base salary to $225,000, and effective January 1, 2003, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Bullion's 2003 annual base salary to $275,000. Effective January 1, 2005, The Compensation Committee increased Mr. Bullion's annual salary to $330,000. Mr. Bullion may terminate his employment at any time upon 90 days written notice to the Company, in which case he will receive his base salary and accrued vacation and sick pay through the date of termination.

The Company may terminate Mr. Bullion's employment at any time for good cause. The employment agreement defines good cause as willful and continued failure by Mr. Bullion to substantially perform his duties, or willful misconduct by Mr. Bullion that is materially injurious to the Company. If the Company terminates Mr. Bullion for cause, Mr. Bullion will receive his base salary and accrued vacation and sick pay through the date of termination. If the Company terminates Mr. Bullion without cause, the employment agreement provides that Mr. Bullion will receive one year's salary, a bonus equal to the average bonus paid to him in the most recent two fiscal years, all accrued vacation and sick pay. In addition, upon a termination without cause, all of Mr. Bullion's unvested options will immediately vest and he will be entitled to participate in the Company's benefit plans for a two year period, which includes continued payment by the Company of Mr. Bullion's health, life and disability insurance premiums for that period. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Bullion may treat a material change in his position, duties or location of employment as a termination by the Company without cause. Mr. Bullion may also treat termination of his employment upon one year's advance notice by the Company as a termination without cause.

The employment agreement also provides for payments to Mr. Bullion if the Company terminates him within 120 days of the effective date of a change in control of the Company. In such event, Mr. Bullion will receive two years' base salary, all accrued vacation and sick pay as of the date of termination and the Company will continue to pay his health, life and disability insurance premiums for two years. The Company may offset severance payments to Mr. Bullion by amounts Mr. Bullion receives from other full-time employment during the two year-period following his termination.

Change in Control Arrangements

The Company has entered into agreements with its executive officers providing for the payment of certain benefits to the officers if their employment terminates following a change in control of the Company. The agreements provide for payment of benefits if an officer's employment is terminated within the 12 months following a change in control if the officer was terminated without cause, required to relocate or required to accept less pay or less responsibility. The formula and payout for the benefits under the change in control agreement is the highest annual salary and incentive payment within the last two years divided by 12 multiplied by the following number of months for the officers: Dr. Houghton, 18 months; Mr. Perrin, 18 months; and Mr. McGrath, 12 months.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The compensation committee members are Dr. Wardell, Mr. King and Ms. Champisi. No member of the compensation committee during the 2004 fiscal year was an officer or employee of the Company, nor formerly an officer of the Company.

In addition, directors who are not employees receive $1,000 for each meeting, $500 for each telephone meeting and $250 for committee meetings.
