PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On October 24, 2005, the Audit Committee of the Willis Lease Finance Corporation Board of Directors determined that the Company should restate its previously issued consolidated financial statements for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2004 and the condensed consolidated interim financial statements for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 and the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004. The Company will file an amended Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 and amended Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters end March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 with the SEC. Additional information regarding the restatements is set forth in a Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 28, 2005.

The Company is endeavoring to complete the restatement process and intends to file the amended reports on November 21, 2005. However, because the restatement process has not been completed, the Company has not yet filed its amended quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 or its amended annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Until such reports are filed, the Company is unable to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2005 by November 14, 2005. The Company expects to file its Form 10-Q on or before November 21, 2005.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company expects that its third quarter results will include significant changes in its results of operations from the corresponding period in 2004, including a net loss for the third quarter of 2005. As described above, the Company is in the process of restating its financial statements for each of the years included in the three-year period ended December 31, 2004. Until the restatement is completed, the Company is unable to provide specific, numerical comparisons between the period ended September 30, 2005 to the corresponding period in 2004 at this time.

As of today's date, the Company expects to report an increase in lease revenue for the third quarter of 2005 over the same period last year due primarily to higher utilization. The higher lease revenue was due to a combination of higher utilization, higher lease rates and a somewhat larger lease portfolio.

Several items significantly affected the Company's expenses this quarter. The first item relates to the repayment of approximately $203 million on a prior warehouse credit facility following the close of a $228 million asset backed securitization (ABS). As a result of the ABS transaction, previously capitalized funding costs of approximately $1.4 million must be written off. This write-off was the primary reason for the loss in net income.

The second item relates to the inclusion of the fair value of derivative instruments in the statement of income. As set forth in the Company's 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 28, 2005, its documentation of derivatives was inadequate to qualify for hedge accounting under SFAS 133 Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities and, as a result, the company is filing an amended 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2004 as well as amended 10-Q filings for the first and second quarters of 2005 to account for this change. The inclusion of the fair value of derivatives in the income statement increases the volatility of the Company's earnings from quarter to quarter and between years.

The third item relates to a significant increase in expenses. Total expenses increased in the third quarter, reflecting the write-off of capitalized funding costs described above, increased interest costs, higher depreciation, and higher overhead costs. Depreciation expense increased reflecting changes made in 2003 through 2005 in estimates of the useful lives and residual values on certain older engine types. Continued increases in 1-month LIBOR, the index to which most of the Company's debt is pegged, increased interest expense. This index has almost doubled in the past year. At September 30, 2005 it was approximately 3.86% compared to 1.84% for the same quarter end in 2004. Third quarter general and administrative expense was up from the third quarter a year ago, reflecting higher corporate aircraft, personnel and regulatory compliance costs. For the first nine months of 2005, general and administrative expense also rose.
