Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 18, 2006, INVESTools Inc. ( INVESTools ), thinkorswim Group, Inc. ( thinkorswim ) and Atomic Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of INVESTools ( Merger Sub ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ), pursuant to which INVESTools will acquire thinkorswim.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, which was approved unanimously by the Boards of Directors of INVESTools and thinkorswim, Merger Sub will be merged with and into thinkorswim (the Merger ) and thinkorswim shareholders will receive 50% of the merger consideration in cash and 50% in stock, representing approximately $170 million in cash and 19.1 million shares of INVESTools common stock. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. will provide INVESTools a senior secured term loan of $125 million to fund a portion of the cash transaction and, separately, will also provide an unfunded committed senior secured revolving credit facility of $25 million. Following the transaction, thinkorswim shareholders will represent approximately 30% of the ownership of INVESTools, and thinkorswim will receive two seats on an expanded eight-member INVESTools Board of Directors. thinkorswim employees are eligible for a $20 million retention bonus pool which will be paid over 3 years and INVESTools options which vest over 4 years, of which 50% will have an exercise price equal to the market price at closing, and 50% will have an exercise price equal to 150% of the market price at closing.

The parties to the Merger Agreement have made customary representations, warranties and covenants therein. INVESTools has also agreed to call a meeting of INVESTools stockholders to consider approval of the issuance of INVESTools common stock to the securityholders of thinkorswim and the grants of options to purchase INVESTools common stock to the management of thinkorswim, and to consider approval of an amendment to INVESTools certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of INVESTools common stock. The INVESTools Board of Directors will recommend approval of these proposals. The Merger Agreement also provides for customary covenants providing for the parties to use their commercially reasonable efforts to take actions necessary for the closing of the Merger.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various customary conditions, including approval by INVESTools stockholders of the proposals described above, the receipt by INVESTools of the debt financing necessary to consummate the Merger and the receipt of certain regulatory approvals, including approval of the Merger by the National Association of Securities Dealers.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is included to provide information regarding its terms. It does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties made by and to the parties thereto as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. For the foregoing reasons, no person should rely on the representations and warranties as statements of factual information at the time they were made or otherwise.

Important Additional Information Regarding the Merger will be filed with the SEC.

In connection with the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of INVESTools to, among other things, approve the issuance of INVESTools common stock in connection with the proposed Merger, INVESTools will file a proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ).
