INTRODUCTION

This Registration Statement on Form S-8 is filed by United Therapeutics Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company or the Registrant), to register an additional 1,500,000 share tracking awards (the Awards), each of which represents a contractual right to receive an amount in cash equal to the appreciation (defined as the positive difference, if any, between the fair market value of the Award on the exercise date and the fair market value of the Award on the grant date), which have been and will be granted in accordance with the terms of the United Therapeutics Corporation Share Tracking Awards Plan (the Plan). The fair market value of an Award on the grant date or the exercise date is equal to the closing price per share of the Company's common stock on that date.

The Company previously filed a registration statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-153695) on September 26, 2008, registering 3,000,000 Awards under the Plan. On September 14, 2009, a majority of the Company's Board of Directors, acting upon the recommendation of its Compensation Committee, approved an amendment to the Company's non-dilutive Plan to increase the maximum number of Awards available for grant under the Plan by 1,500,000. Upon payment of a two-for-one stock dividend announced by the Company pursuant to a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 1, 2009, this number will automatically be proportionately adjusted to 3,000,000, as required by the Plan. The amendment is described in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 18, 2009, and is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to such Current Report on Form 8-K. The Plan was originally filed on July 31, 2008, as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

In accordance with General Instruction E of Form S-8, the entire contents of the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-8, Registration No. 333-153695, are incorporated herein by reference, and certain information required by Part II is omitted.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

As permitted by Delaware law, the Company's certificate of incorporation provides that no director will be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability for (a) any breach of duty of loyalty to the Company or its shareholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) willful or negligent violations of certain provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") imposing certain requirements with respect to stock repurchases, redemptions and dividends, or (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that the Company must indemnify its directors and executive officers and may indemnify its other officers and employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Pursuant to Section 145 of the DGCL, the Company generally has the power to indemnify its current and former directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses and liabilities that they incur in connection with any suit to which they are, or are threatened to be made, a party by reason of their serving in such positions so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action, they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. The statute expressly provides that the power to indemnify or advance expenses authorized thereby is not exclusive of any rights granted under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The Company believes that indemnification under its certificate of incorporation and bylaws covers negligence and gross negligence on the part of indemnified parties. The Company also has the power to purchase and maintain insurance for such directors and officers, and currently maintains an insurance policy which, within the limits and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, covers certain expenses and liabilities that may be incurred by directors and officers in connection with actions, suits or proceedings that may be brought against them as a result of an act or omission committed or suffered while acting as a director or officer of the Company.

The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and executive officers. These agreements, among other things, require the Company to indemnify such directors and executive officers for certain expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and settlement amounts incurred by any such person in any action or proceeding, including any action by the Company or in its right, arising out of such person's services as a director or officer of the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any other company or enterprise to which the person provides services at the Company's request.

The foregoing discussion of the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and Section 145 of the DGCL is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by each of those documents and that statute.
