PRESIDENT'S LETTER

February 2010

Fellow Shareholders:

The broad market as measured by the S&P 500 Index rose 26.46 percent in 2009, its best calendar year return since 2003. Theories abound as to which direction equity markets will take in 2010, but investors were severely tested in 2008 and early 2009. Realizing the excellent equity returns generated in 2009 required investors to stay the course during a severe market decline for which decades of stock market history provided little perspective.

Equity markets improved dramatically as the year progressed in response to a combination of severely depressed prices and data that showed conditions were getting less bad. Credit conditions dramatically improved in response to the Federal Reserve's historic quantitative easing initiative. The housing sector started to show some signs of life. Consumption, down in the fourth quarter of 2008, was up fractionally in the first quarter of 2009. Inventory liquidation moderated in the second quarter and as a result, second quarter GDP declined a moderate 0.7 percent and turned positive in the third quarter.

With conditions beginning to show signs of improvement by early March, forward-looking investors seized upon the compelling values created by the collapse in stock prices. By the end of the year their buying propelled the Russell 3000 Growth Index to a 67.46 percent gain off its March 9 low. After factoring in declines in January and February leading to a 4.54 percent decline in the first quarter the Russell 3000 Growth Index netted a gain of 37.01 percent for the full year, the best calendar year for the index since 1991.

For the year, Liberty All-Star Growth Fund returned 32.79 percent with shares valued at net asset value (NAV), 34.55 percent with shares valued at NAV with dividends reinvested and 40.84 percent with shares valued at market price (with dividends reinvested). Although these are strong absolute returns they were mixed relative to the 37.01 percent rise in the Russell 3000 Growth Index and the 38.12 percent gain in the Lipper Multi-Cap Growth Mutual Fund Average, the Fund's primary benchmark. Off the March 9 low, the Fund's NAV with dividends reinvested advanced 63.73 percent, while Fund shares valued at market price (with dividends reinvested) gained 82.19 percent. The Fund's NAV reinvested return ranked in the 56th and 33rd percentiles within the Lipper Multi-Cap Growth Universe for the trailing one and three years, respectively. It is noteworthy that the Fund's top third three year relative ranking encompasses the severe dislocations caused by the financial crisis that began back in the fall of 2007.

While the early stages of the market rebound during 2009 was driven in large part by lower quality stocks, we believe growth investors will increasingly focus on higher quality companies with sustainable growth potential, and that bodes well for the Fund.

Over the course of the year, the discount at which Fund shares traded relative to their underlying NAV ranged from 13.9 percent to 24.6 percent, the latter figure recorded in March. Thus, the discount narrowed, but remains stubbornly high. The discount is roughly in-line with discounts of other domestic equity closed-end funds and may reflect continuing risk aversion by individual investors. These data and other performance measures are included in the table accompanying this letter.

It has been traditional for us to include a manager roundtable discussion in our annual reports. This year, we are modifying that approach and asking each manager to provide their perspective on the investment environment based on their particular style and strategy. We believe you will find the comments of these leading investment managers to be both interesting and insightful. You will also notice the presence of a new large-cap growth style manager, Mazama Capital Management, Inc., which replaced Chase Investment Counsel Corporation effective December 21. Ronald A. Sauer, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer of Mazama, represents the firm in this annual report feature, which begins on page 7. You will also notice that a proxy for the upcoming annual meeting of shareholders was enclosed with this annual report. We encourage you to take the time to read more about Mazama and vote your shares accordingly. A change in voting procedures requires that shareholders vote their own proxy in order to approve a change in one of the Fund's investment managers, so we would appreciate and encourage you to vote your shares in a timely manner so that the Fund avoids additional mailing and solicitation costs.

We are pleased that the Fund demonstrated its value as a high quality, growth equity holding by allowing shareholders to meaningfully participate in the 2009 market rebound. We continue to believe that the Fund's multi-manager structure provides a sound foundation for investing in small, mid- and large capitalization growth stocks. This view is further enhanced by the quality of the Fund's three growth style investment managers. For our part, we at Liberty All-Star Growth Fund will continue to do our best to manage the Fund with the best long-term interests of shareholders first and foremost.

Sincerely,

William R. Parmentier, Jr.

Performance shown from the first full calendar year since restructure to a multi-cap growth fund. Figures shown for the Fund and the Lipper Multi-Cap Growth Mutual Fund Average are total returns, which include dividends, after deducting Fund expenses. The Fund's performance is calculated assuming that a shareholder exercised all primary rights in the Fund's rights offerings. Figures shown for the unmanaged NASDAQ Composite Index, the Russell 3000 Growth Index and the S&P 500 Index are total returns, including dividends. A description of the Lipper benchmark and the market indices can be found on page 34.

Past performance cannot predict future results. Performance will fluctuate with market conditions. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data shown. Performance information does not reflect the deduction of taxes that shareholders would pay on Fund distributions or the sale of Fund shares. An investment in the Fund involves risk, including loss of principal.

Shares of closed-end funds frequently trade at a discount to net asset value. The price of the Fund's shares is determined by a number of factors, several of which are beyond the control of the Fund. Therefore, the Fund cannot predict whether its shares will trade at, below or above net asset value.

UNIqUE FUND ATTRIBUTES

Unique Attributes of Liberty All-Star Growth Fund

Several attributes help to make the Fund a core equity holding for investors seeking a diversified growth portfolio, income and the potential for long-term appreciation.

Multi-management for Individual Investors

Large institutional investors have traditionally employed multiple investment managers. With three investment managers investing across the full capitalization range of growth stocks, the Fund brings multi-management to individual investors.

Real-time Trading and Liquidity

The Fund has a fixed number of shares that trade on the New York Stock Exchange and other exchanges. Share pricing is continuous not just end-of-day, as it is with open-end mutual funds. In addition, Fund shares offer immediate liquidity and there are no annual sales fees.

Access to Institutional Managers

The Fund's investment managers invest primarily for pension funds, endowments, foundations and other institutions. Because institutional managers are closely monitored by their clients, they tend to be more disciplined and consistent in their investment process.

Monitoring and Rebalancing

ALPS Advisors continuously monitors these investment managers to ensure that they are performing as expected and adhering to their style and strategy. Periodic rebalancing maintains the Fund's structural integrity and is a well-recognized investment discipline.

Alignment and Objectivity

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY ALL STAR GROWTH FUND INC. - Form N-CSR

Alignment with shareholders' best interests and objective decision-making help to ensure that the Fund is managed openly and equitably. In addition, the Fund is governed by a Board of Directors that is elected by and responsible to shareholders.

Distribution Policy

Since 1997, the Fund has followed a policy of paying annual distributions on its shares at a rate that approximates historical equity market returns. The current annual distribution rate is 6 percent of the Fund's net asset value (paid quarterly at 1.5 percent per quarter), providing a systematic mechanism for distributing funds to shareholders.

Manager perspectives: Past, present and future

The Fund's three growth style investment managers look at markets in 2009 and 2010 through the lens of their capitalization focus.

MAZAMA CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, INC.

Portfolio Manager/Ronald A. Sauer

President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer

Capitalization Focus/Large-Cap Growth Mazama conducts in-depth research to discover companies that are gaining market share and accelerating their revenue and earnings growth rates. Research activities include detailed analysis of company financials, ongoing discussions with management, visits to company operations, and information gathered from vendors, suppliers and competitors.

From the perspective of your capitalization focus for Liberty All-Star Growth Fund, please give us your point of view on 2009.

Low investor expectations coupled with historical price-to-earnings multiple compression into early March 2009 ultimately presented a great opportunity for investors. Following the market low in early March, we experienced multiple expansion and upward earnings revisions for our portfolio holdings as our companies were able to grow earnings much faster than the overall market and with a greater velocity than anticipated by other investors. Providing an additional tailwind to our style of growth investing was a return to normalcy in the markets, highlighted by the fact that companies with stronger forward earnings growth characteristics had better stock price appreciation, on average, than did their slower growth counterparts.

Mazama's portfolios remain focused on owning the fastest growing companies within our investable universe, as evidenced by the fact that 72 percent of our holdings have grown by at least double-digit rates. Combine that with the fact that 92 percent of the portfolio is invested in companies that beat earnings estimates during the most recent quarter, and you can see why we are optimistic about the outlook for 2010 and confident in our ability to identify some of the best growth companies in the investable universe.

What will you be focused on going into 2010, once again, from your own perspective?

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY ALL STAR GROWTH FUND INC. - Form N-CSR

As a growth manager, we remain laser-focused on identifying and owning only the best large cap growth companies in the universe. As a cornerstone of our process, we seek companies that are able to grow independently of the economic environment and possess the following attributes: 1) market share leadership in expanding addressable markets both in the U.S. and overseas; 2) recognizable, brandable products and services; 3) significant insider stock ownership; and 4) attracting and retaining top industry talent. We also seek companies with strong balance sheets and financial models that are able to provide investors with compelling returns on equity while delivering sustainable earnings growth.

As we look across the capitalization spectrum in the growth universe, we feel the Mazama large cap growth strategy is well positioned to perform, given valuations and expectations. Other supporting factors include the fact that many of these multi-national companies are less dependent on the debt markets for capital, and also that credit conditions for larger, high-quality companies have eased substantially. Another performance driver for Mazama is the diversification of our portfolio companies' revenue base. Many of these companies have revenues ex-U.S. that are in excess of 50 percent, which will continue to be a positive in what we expect will be a soft U.S. dollar environment.

M.A. WEATHERBIE & CO., INC.

Portfolio Manager/Matthew A. Weatherbie, CFA

President and Founder

Capitalization Focus/Small-Cap Growth M.A. Weatherbie practices a small capitalization growth investment style focusing on high quality companies that demonstrate superior earnings growth prospects, yet are reasonably priced relative to their intrinsic value. The firm seeks to provide superior returns relative to small capitalization growth indices over a full market cycle.

From the perspective of your capitalization focus for Liberty All-Star Growth Fund, please give us your point of view on 2009.

Our high quality smaller capitalization growth stocks enjoyed strong performance in 2009. We find this encouraging because, historically, our returns have underperformed in ebullient, lower quality markets, such as we had beginning with the March rebound. We believe this may be indicative of the severe recession in which our portfolio companies continued to preserve profits exceptionally well. We remain confident that they are positioned to grow considerably more rapidly than the average company over the course of an economic cycle.

Please summarize what produced the best results for you in 2009 and what, in retrospect, didn't play out the way you thought.

We are bottom-up stock pickers and most of our companies performed well in 2009. For example, Thor Industries, Core Laboratories, VistaPrint, NATCO Group, Phillips-Van Heusen and Ulta Salon all appreciated more than 100 percent. We did have some holdings, like Kaydon Corp. and FLIR Systems, which lagged despite solid operational results. In addition, however, three small health care holdings WuXi PharmaTech, CardioNet and SurModics declined significantly in price due to greater than expected negative changes in the health care environment.

What will you be focused on going into 2010, once again, from your own perspective?

Our investment philosophy and process are unchanged. Our investment team continues to be very productive in unearthing exciting new high quality smaller cap growth stock investments. In the fourth quarter we purchased eight new stocks while selling six. We bought Concur Technologies, Dril-Quip, Graco, Huron Consulting, ICF International, II-VI Inc., Landstar System and VeriFone Holdings. We are confident that while they are in different businesses, each company has a robust business model and strong management. In addition, each meets our stringent growth, quality and valuation criteria.

TCW INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT COMPANY

Portfolio Manager/Brendt Stallings, CFA

Managing Director

Capitalization Focus/Mid-Cap Growth TCW seeks capital appreciation through investment in the securities of rapidly growing companies whose business prospects, in TCW's view, are not properly perceived by consensus research.

From the perspective of your capitalization focus for Liberty All-Star Growth Fund, please give us your point of view on 2009.

The market's strong rebound in the second and third quarters of 2009 was a reversal of the first-quarter panic, and was driven by the extra fuel fed to it by the rapidly expanding money supply and related monetary and fiscal policies. For the rally to be durable, we will need to see follow-through in corporate earnings and revenue growth.

Evidence of just such growth continued through the fourth quarter, with rising S&P 500 earnings estimates indicating the first quarter of growth since 2007. Most indicators suggest the macroeconomic environment will be supportive of revenue growth in 2010. This is playing out as a garden variety economic recovery, despite the extraordinary events of 2008.

Please summarize what produced the best results for you in 2009 and what, in retrospect, didn't play out the way you thought.

Our best stock selections in 2009 were in the technology and health care sectors. In health care, we largely avoided companies exposed directly to health care reform. Instead, several of our biotechnology and pharmaceutical holdings drove our returns. We benefitted from the strong rebound in technology in the second half of the year, as the market focused on the growth potential for our tech companies despite a weak economy. Our financial services holdings did not, for the most part, work out as we had hoped. The insurance industry did not see the recovery in pricing we expected, and we were not positioned for a rebound in troubled banks, having instead purchased better capitalized banks.

What will you be focused on going into 2010, once again, from your own perspective?

Despite our sanguine view of 2010, the macroeconomic and policy issues we are monitoring are weightier than any we recall encountering in our investing careers. First is the question of when, how and if the Fed will unwind the extraordinary steps it took in response to the financial crisis. Second is the current substitution of private sector leverage with public sector leverage and the distinct possibility this economic recovery is but a third bubble following the technology bubble, then the housing bubble, finally culminating in a public spending and borrowing bubble. Finally, there is the possible reorientation of the U.S. economy away from private sector consumption and toward savings and investment. All three of these interrelated issues and others have huge implications for inflation, the value of the dollar, economic growth and, most relevant to the All-Star portfolio, corporate earnings and equity valuations. But we are hardly alone in identifying and losing sleep over these issues. As is always the case, it may well be the unexpected that defines 2010, rather than the widely discussed issues above.

DISTRIBUTION POLICY

Liberty All-Star Growth Fund, Inc.'s current policy is to pay distributions on its shares totaling approximately 6 percent of its net asset value per year, payable in four quarterly installments of 1.5 percent of the Fund's net asset value at the close of the New York Stock Exchange on the Friday prior to each quarterly declaration date. The fixed distributions are not related to the amount of the Fund's net investment income or net realized capital gains or losses and may be taxed as ordinary income up to the amount of the Fund's current and accumulated earnings and profits. If, for any calendar year, the total distributions made under the distribution policy exceed the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains, the excess will generally be treated as a non-taxable return of capital, reducing the shareholder's adjusted basis in his or her shares. If the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains for any year exceed the amount distributed under the distribution policy, the Fund may, in its discretion, retain and not distribute net realized capital gains and pay income tax thereon to the extent of such excess.

LIBERTY ALL-STAR® GROWTH FUND

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2009

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION

Liberty All-Star Growth Fund, Inc. (the Fund) is a Maryland corporation registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the Act), as amended, as a diversified, closed-end management investment company.

Investment Goal

The Fund seeks long-term capital appreciation.

Fund Shares

The Fund may issue 60,000,000 shares of common stock at $0.10 par.

NOTE 2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

Security Valuation

Equity securities are valued at the last sale price at the close of the principal exchange on which they trade, except for securities listed on the NASDAQ which are valued at the NASDAQ official closing price. Unlisted securities or listed securities for which there were no sales during the day are valued at the closing bid price on such exchanges or over-the-counter markets.

Short-term debt obligations maturing in more than 60 days for which market quotations are readily available are valued at current market value. Short-term debt obligations maturing within 60 days are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value.

Investments for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined in good faith under consistently applied procedures approved by and under the general supervision of the Board of Directors.

Foreign Securities

The Fund invests in foreign securities which may involve a number of risk factors and special considerations not present with investments in securities of U.S. corporations.

Security Transactions

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Cost is determined and gains (losses) are based upon the specific identification method for both financial statement and federal income tax purposes.

Repurchase Agreements

The Fund may engage in repurchase agreement transactions with institutions that the Fund's investment advisor has determined are creditworthy. The Fund, through its custodian, receives delivery of underlying securities collateralizing a repurchase agreement. Collateral is at least equal, at all times, to the value of the repurchase obligation including interest. A repurchase agreement transaction involves certain risks in the event of default or insolvency of the counterparty. These risks include possible delays or restrictions upon a Fund's ability to dispose of the underlying securities and a possible decline in the value of the underlying securities during the period while the Fund seeks to assert its rights.

Income Recognition

Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Corporate actions and dividend income are recorded on the ex-date.

Fair Value Measurements

The Fund discloses the classification of its fair value measurements following the three-tier hierarchy established by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB). Inputs refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may be observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability that are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability that are developed based on the best information available.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments as of the end of the reporting period. These inputs are categorized in the following hierarchy under applicable financial accounting standards:

Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical investments

Level 2 Other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)

Level 3 Significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments)

LIBERTY ALL-STAR® GROWTH FUNDNOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTSDecember 31, 2009*

The following is a summary of the inputs used to value the Fund's investments as of December 31, 2009.

Valuation Inputs	Investments in Securities
Level 1-Quoted Prices
Common Stocks	$	118,245,242
Level 2-Other Significant Observable Inputs
Short Term Investment		2,213,000
Level 3-Significant Unobservable Inputs
Total	$	120,458,242

For the year ended December 31, 2009, the Fund did not have significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) used in determining fair value. Therefore, a reconciliation of assets in which significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) were used in determining fair value is not applicable.

Federal Income Tax Status

For federal income tax purposes, the Fund currently qualifies, and intends to remain qualified, as a regulated investment company under the provisions of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code by distributing substantially all of its investment company taxable net income including realized gain, not offset by capital loss carryforwards, if any, to its shareholders. Accordingly, no provision for federal income or excise taxes has been made.

In accordance with ASC 740 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, (formerly FIN 48), the financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return are to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Management has concluded that the Fund has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of ASC 740. The Fund files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and Colorado. For the years ended December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2009 for the federal jurisdiction and for the years ended December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2009 for Colorado, the Fund's returns are still open to examination by the appropriate taxing authority.

Distributions to Shareholders

The Fund currently has a policy of paying distributions on its common shares totaling approximately 6% of its net asset value per year. The distributions are payable in four quarterly distributions of 1.5% of the Fund's net asset value at the close of the New York Stock Exchange on the Friday prior to each quarterly declaration date. Distributions to shareholders are recorded on ex-date.

Indemnification

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties and which provide general indemnities. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims against the Fund. Also, under the Fund's organizational documents and by contract, the Directors and Officers of the Fund are indemnified against certain liabilities that may arise out of their duties to the Fund. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss due to these warranties and indemnities to be minimal.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2009, the FASB issued [FASB ASC 105 (formerly FASB Statement No. 168)], establishing the FASB Accounting Standards CodificationTM (ASC) as the source of authoritative generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) to be applied by nongovernmental entities. FASB ASC 105 is effective for annual and interim periods ending after September 15, 2009, and the Company has updated its references to GAAP in this report in accordance with the provisions of this pronouncement. The implementation of FASB ASC 105 did not have a material effect on its financial position or results of operations.

In April 2009, the FASB issued [FASB ASC 820-10-65 (formerly FASB Staff Position No. FAS 157-4)], Determining Fair Value When the Volume and Level of Activity for the Asset or Liability Have Significantly Decreased and Identifying Transactions That Are Not Orderly. This standard applies to all assets and liabilities within the scope of accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements, with certain defined exceptions, and provides additional guidance for estimating fair value when the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly decreased. ASC 820-10-65 is effective for interim reporting periods ending after June 15, 2009. The implementation of ASC 820-10-65 did not have a material effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 3. FEDERAL TAX INFORMATION

The timing and character of income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. Reclassifications are made to the Fund's capital accounts for permanent tax differences to reflect income and gains available for distribution (or available capital loss carryforwards) under income tax regulations. If, for any calendar year, the total distributions made under the distribution policy exceed the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains, the excess will generally be treated as a non-taxable return of capital, reducing the shareholder's adjusted basis in his or her shares. If the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains for any year exceed the amount distributed under the distribution policy, the

December 31, 2009

Fund may, in its discretion, retain and not distribute net realized capital gains and pay income tax thereon to the extent of such excess.

For the year ended December 31, 2009, permanent book and tax basis differences resulting primarily from differing treatments for net operating losses were identified and reclassified among the components of the Fund's net assets as follows:

	Accumulated Net Investment Income		Accumulated Net Realized Gain		Paid-In Capital
$	601,322	$	1	$	(601,323)

Net investment income and net realized gains (losses), as disclosed on the Statement of Operations, and net assets were not affected by this reclassification.

Classification of Distributions to Shareholders

Net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) may differ for financial statement and tax purposes. The character of distributions made during the year from net investment income or net realized gains may differ from its ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. Also, due to the timing of dividend distributions, the fiscal year in which amounts are distributed may differ from the fiscal year in which the income or realized gain was recorded by the Funds.

The tax character of distributions paid during the year ended December 31, 2009 and December 31, 2008 was as follows:

	12/31/09	12/31/08
Distributions paid from:
Ordinary income	$	$ 1,705
Long-term capital gain		646,152
		647,857
Tax return of capital	7,708,298	10,579,718
	$ 7,708,298	$ 11,227,575

The following capital loss carryforwards are available to reduce taxable income arising from future net realized gains on investments, if any to the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code:

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY ALL STAR GROWTH FUND INC. - Form N-CSR

Year of Expiration	Capital Loss Carryforward
2017	$ 7,385,274

Future realized gains offset by the loss carryforwards are not required to be distributed to shareholders. However, under the Fund's distribution policy, such gains may be distributed to shareholders in the year the gains are realized. Any such gains distributed may be taxable to shareholders as ordinary income.

As of December 31, 2009, the components of distributable earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Accumulated Capital Losses	Net Unrealized Appreciation	Other Cumulative Effect of Timing Differences
$ (7,385,274)	$ 5,520,855	$ (135)

The differences between book-basis and tax-basis are primarily due to deferral of losses from wash sales.

The Fund has an agreement with its custodian bank under which custody fees may be reduced by balance credits. These credits, if applicable, are recorded as a reduction of total expenses on the Statement of Operations. The Fund could have invested a portion of the assets utilized in connection with the expense offset arrangement in an income-producing asset if it had not entered into such an agreement.

Fees Paid to Officers

All officers of the Fund are employees of AAI or its affiliates, and receive no compensation from the Fund. The Board of Directors has appointed a Chief Compliance Officer to the Fund in accordance with federal securities regulations.

LIBERTY ALL-STAR® GROWTH FUND

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND SHAREHOLDERS OF LIBERTY ALL-STAR GROWTH FUND, INC.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the schedule of investments, of Liberty All-Star Growth Fund, Inc. (the Fund), as of December 31, 2009, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the three years in the period then ended. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits. The financial highlights of the Fund for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2006, were audited by other auditors whose report, dated February 20, 2007, expressed an unqualified opinion on the financial highlights.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. The Fund is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of December 31, 2009, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers; where replies were not received from brokers, we performed other auditing procedures. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Liberty All-Star Growth Fund, Inc. as of December 31, 2009, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the three years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

LIBERTY ALL-STAR® GROWTH FUND

APPROVAL OF THE INVESTMENT ADVISORY CONTRACT (UNAUDITED)

BOARD CONSIDERATION OF THE NEW INVESTMENT ADVISORY CONTRACT

After evaluation, ALPS Advisors Inc. (AAI) deemed it in the best interest of the Growth Fund to terminate Chase Investment Counsel Corporation (Chase), a portfolio manager of the Growth Fund since January 2, 2008, and to replace Chase with Mazama Capital Management, Inc. (Mazama).

At its meeting on December 17, 2009, the Growth Fund Board of Directors, including all of the Disinterested Directors, approved a New Agreement between Growth Fund, AAI and Mazama. Before approving the New Agreement, the Directors considered management's recommendations as to the approval of the New Agreement. As part of the Board's approval process, legal counsel to the Disinterested Directors requested certain information from Mazama and the Directors received reports from Mazama that addressed specific factors to be considered by the Board. The Board's counsel also provided the Directors with a memorandum regarding their responsibilities in connection with the approval of the New Agreement.

In voting to approve the New Agreement, the Board considered the overall fairness of the Agreement and the factors it deemed relevant with respect to the Growth Fund including, but not limited to: (1) the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided to the Growth Fund under the New Agreement; (2) Mazama's investment performance for comparably managed accounts; (3) the fees paid by the Fund and the fees charged by Mazama to other clients, as applicable; (4) the profitability and costs of the services provided; and (5) the effect of changes in the Growth Fund's asset levels on the fee paid to Mazama by AAI and overall expense ratios (economies of scale).

The Board did not consider any single factor or particular information that was most relevant to its consideration to approve the New Agreement and each Director may have afforded different weight to the various factors.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services. The Board considered information regarding Mazama's investment philosophy and process. In addition, the Board reviewed the background and experience of the personnel who would be responsible for managing the large cap growth portion of the Growth Fund's portfolio. The Board also considered Mazama's compliance program and compliance records. The Board concluded that the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided by Mazama were consistent with the terms of the New Agreement and that the Growth Fund was likely to benefit from services provided by Mazama under the New Agreement.

Investment Performance. The Board considered Mazama's large cap investment performance relative to the Russell 1000® Growth Index and a comparable institutional peer group. The Board considered that as of September 30, 2009 Mazama's Focused Large Cap Growth Composite outperformed the Russell 1000® Growth Index since inception of the composite on December 1, 2008. The Board also considered the favorable performance of the Mazama Growth composite, a strategy that shares the same growth equity orientation and investment process and shows a longer track record. The Board also considered that both composites ranked favorably to their respective institutional peer group. The Board concluded that Mazama's large cap investment performance has been reasonable.

Fees and Expenses. The Board considered that the fee to be paid to Mazama under the New Agreement is the same as the fee paid to Chase. The Board noted that the fee is less than the fee that Mazama charges for managing a comparably-sized institutional separate account. The Board also noted that the fee schedule for the New Agreement has breakpoints at which the fee rate declines as the Growth Fund's assets increase above the breakpoint. The Board concluded that the fees payable to Mazama under the New Agreement were reasonable in relation to the nature and quality for the services expected to be provided, taking into account the fee rates that Mazama charges to other clients.

Profitability and Costs of Services. The Board considered that the fee rate to be paid to Mazama for managing the Growth Fund would be the lowest rate that Mazama offers for comparable clients and that the amount of the fee would decline as the Growth Fund increases in size. The Board considered that the fee under the New Agreement would be paid to Mazama by AAI, not the Fund. Accordingly, the Board determined that AAI's costs and profitability in providing services to the Growth Fund were generally more relevant to the Board's evaluation of the fees and expenses paid by the Growth Fund than Mazama's costs and profitability. The Board noted that it would be considering AAI's costs and profitability in connection with its review of the Growth Fund's Management Agreement in 2010.

Economies of Scale. The Board also considered the potential fall-out benefits (including the receipt of research products and services from unaffiliated brokers) that Mazama might receive in connection with its association with the Fund. In addition, the Board acknowledged that Mazama's well-established stand-alone management relationships independent of the Growth Fund and the regulatory risks Mazama would assume in connection with the management of the Fund. The Board concluded that the fee schedule reflects economies of scale that may be realized by Mazama as the Growth Fund's assets increase.

Based on its evaluation, the Board unanimously concluded that the terms of the New Agreement were reasonable and fair and that the approval of the New Agreement was in the best interests of the Growth Fund and its shareholders. The Board unanimously voted to approve and recommend to the shareholders of the Growth Fund that they approve the New Agreement.

The Growth Fund shareholders are being asked to approve the New Agreement at a meeting of shareholders on April 29, 2010, the results of which will be published in the June 30, 2010 semi-annual report.

LIBERTY ALL-STAR® GROWTH FUND

AUTOMATIC DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT AND DIRECT PURCHASE PLAN (UNAUDITED)

As of December 1, 2009, the Plan was revised to reflect current processes at the Plan Agent. The full text of the Plan may be found on the Fund's website at www.all-starfunds.com.

Under the Fund's Automatic Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Purchase Plan (the Plan), shareholders automatically participate and have all their Fund dividends and distributions reinvested by Computershare Trust Company, N.A., as agent for participants in the Plan (the Plan Agent), in additional shares of the Fund. For further information, call Investor Assistance at 1-800-LIB-FUND (1-800-542-3863) weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Eastern Time.

Shareholders whose shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee can participate in the Plan only if their brokerage firm, bank or nominee is able to do so on their behalf. Shareholders participating in the Plan through a brokerage firm may not be able to transfer their shares to another brokerage firm and continue to participate in the Plan.

Under the Plan, all dividends and distributions will be reinvested in additional shares of the Fund. Distributions declared payable in cash will be reinvested for the accounts of participants in the Plan in additional shares purchased by the Plan Agent on the open market at prevailing market prices. If, prior to the Plan Agent's completion of such open market purchases, the market price of a share plus estimated brokerage commissions exceeds the net asset value, the remainder of the distribution will be paid in newly issued shares valued at net asset value (but not at a discount of more than 5% from market price). Distributions declared payable in shares (or cash at the option of shareholders) are paid to participants in the Plan entirely in newly issued full and fractional shares valued at the lower of market value or net asset value per share on the valuation date for the distribution (but not at a discount of more than 5 percent from market price). Dividends and distributions are subject to taxation, whether received in cash or in shares.

Plan participants have the option of making additional investments of $100 or more on a monthly basis up to a maximum of $120,000 in a calendar year. These direct purchases will be invested on or shortly after the 15th of each month and direct purchases should be sent so as to be received by the Plan Agent at least two business days prior to the next investment date. Barring suspension of trading, direct purchases will be invested within 35 days after such date. Alternatively, participants can authorize an automatic monthly deduction from a checking or savings account at a U.S. bank or other financial institution. A participant may withdraw a direct purchase by written notice received by the Plan Agent at least two business days before such payment is to be invested.

The Plan Agent maintains all shareholder accounts in the Plan and furnishes confirmations of all transactions in the account, including information needed by shareholders for tax records. Shares in the account of each Plan participant will be held by the Plan Agent in book-entry or non-certificated form in the name of the participant, and each shareholder's proxy will include those shares purchased or received pursuant to the Plan.

There is no charge to participants for reinvesting distributions pursuant to the Plan. The Plan Agent's fees are paid by the Fund, therefore indirectly by shareholders. There are no brokerage charges with respect to shares issued directly by the Fund as a result of dividends or distributions declared payable in shares. However, each participant bears a per share fee (which includes any brokerage commissions the Plan Agent is required to pay) incurred with respect to the Plan Agent's open market purchases in connection with the reinvestment of distributions declared payable in cash.

With respect to direct purchases, the Plan Agent will charge $1.25 for purchase by check and $2.00 for automatic investment transactions, plus a per share fee (which includes any brokerage commissions the Plan Agent is required to pay). Sales of shares held in the Plan will also be subject to a service fee of $2.50 and a per share fee currently $0.10. All fees described in this summary are subject to change. Please contact the Plan Agent for the current fees.

Shareholders may terminate their participation in the Plan by notifying the Plan Agent by telephone, through the Internet or in writing. Such termination will be effective immediately if notice is received by The Plan Agent prior to any dividend record date and all subsequent dividends and distributions will be paid in cash instead of shares.

The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan.

Item 2. Code of Ethics.

(a) The registrant has, as of the end of the period covered by this report, adopted a code of ethics that applies to the registrant's principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions, regardless of whether these individuals are employed by the registrant or a third party.

(b) The registrant's Board adopted, effective December 10, 2007, a revised code of ethics described in 2(a) above. There have been no revisions to the code since that date.

(c) During the period covered by this report, there were not any waivers or implicit waivers to a provision of the code of ethics adopted in 2(a) above.

Item 3. Audit Committee Financial Expert.

The registrant's Audit Committee is composed of six of the registrant's independent directors who are not affiliated with the registrant's investment advisor. The Board has determined that each of the audit committee members is financially literate and that at least one member has accounting or related financial management expertise as used in the New York Stock Exchange definitions of the terms.

Under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, if the Board has not determined that a financial expert, a term based on criteria contained in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, is serving on the audit committee, it must disclose this fact and explain why the committee does not have such an expert. The Board has determined that none of the members of its audit committee meets the technical requirements of the definition. Moreover, it believes that for the following reasons it is not necessary for a registered investment company such as the registrant, with an audit committee that meets the New York Stock Exchange requirements of financial literacy, to have a financial expert as a member of the committee.

1. The financial statements of and accounting principles applying to the registrant are relatively straightforward and transparent compared to those of operating companies. The significant accounting issues are valuation of securities and other assets (regulated under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the 1940 Act) and computed daily), accrual of expenses, allocation of joint expenses shared with other entities, such as insurance premiums, and disclosures of all related party transactions. Equally important is knowledge of the tax laws applying to registered investment companies. None of the accounting issues involving corporate America that have received recent publicity, such as sophisticated derivative transactions and special purpose entities, are present in financial reporting for this registered investment company.

2. During the years that the registrant has been filing financial reports under the 1940 Act since its inception in 1986 there has never been a requirement for a financial report or statement to be restated.

3. The current members of the audit committee have many years of aggregate experience serving on this audit committee and/or in the Board's judgment, through this experience and experience with other public corporation's financial affairs, they have an understanding of the relevant generally accepted accounting principles governing the registrant's financial statements, tax laws applying to the registrant, the registrant's internal accounting controls and audit committee functions necessary to satisfy the objectives of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act with respect to the financial statements, auditing process and internal controls of the registrant.

4. The audit committee has the capability of employing a consultant who satisfies the technical definition of a financial expert and will do so from time to time if circumstances warrant.

Item 4. Principal Accountant Fees and Services.

(a) Audit Fees. Aggregate Audit Fees billed by the principal accountant for professional services rendered during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009 are approximately $24,000 and $24,000, respectively.

Audit Fees include amounts related to the audit of the registrant's annual financial statements or services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for those fiscal years.

(b) Audit-Related Fees. Aggregate Audit-Related Fees billed to the registrant by the principal accountant for professional services rendered during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009 are approximately $403 and $200, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees include amounts for assurance and related services by the principal accountant that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit of the registrant's financial statements and are not reported in Audit Fees above.

(c) Tax Fees. Aggregate Tax Fees billed by the principal accountant to the registrant for professional services rendered during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009 are approximately $3,460 and $3,460, respectively.

(d) All Other Fees. Aggregate All Other Fees billed by the principal accountant to the registrant for professional services rendered during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009 are $0 and $0, respectively.

All Other Fees include amounts for products and services provided by the principal accountant, other than the services reported in paragraphs (a) through (c) above.

None of the amounts described in paragraphs (a) through (d) above were approved pursuant to the de minimis exception under paragraph (c)(7)(i)(C) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009, there were no Audit-Related Fees, Tax Fees and All Other Fees that were approved for services related directly to the operations and financial reporting of the registrant to the investment advisor (not including any sub-advisor whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment advisor) and any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with such investment advisor that provides ongoing services to the registrant under paragraph (c)(7)(ii) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X.

(e)(1) Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The registrant's Audit Committee is required to pre-approve the engagement of the registrant's independent accountants to provide audit and non-audit services to the registrant and non-audit services to its investment advisor (not including any sub-advisor whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment advisor) or any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with such investment advisor that provides ongoing services to the registrant (Advisor Affiliates), if the engagement relates directly to the operations or financial reporting of the registrant, including the fees and other compensation to be paid to the independent accountants.

The Audit Committee has adopted a Policy for Engagement of Independent Accountants for Audit and Non-Audit Services (Policy). The Policy sets forth the understanding of the Audit Committees regarding the engagement of the registrant's independent accountants to provide (i) audit and permissible audit-related, tax and other services to the registrant; (ii) non-audit services to the registrant's investment advisor (not including any sub-advisor whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment advisor) and Advisor Affiliates, if the engagement relates directly to the operations or financial reporting of a Fund; and (iii) other audit and non-audit services to the registrant's investment advisor (not including any sub-advisor whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment advisor) and Advisor Affiliates. Unless a type of service receives general pre-approval under the Policy, it requires specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee if it is to be provided by the independent accountants. Pre-approval of non-audit services to the registrant, the registrant's investment advisor (not including any sub-advisor whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment advisor) and Advisor Affiliates may be waived provided that the de minimis requirements set forth in the SEC's rules relating to pre-approval of non-audit services are met.

Under the Policy, the Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to any pre-designated member or members who are Independent Directors. The member(s) to whom such authority is delegated must report, for informational purposes only, any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next regular meeting. The Audit Committee's responsibilities with respect to the pre-approval of services performed by the independent accountants may not be delegated to management.

The Policy requires the Fund Treasurer and/or Director of Board Administration to submit to the Audit Committee, on an annual basis, a schedule of the types of services that are subject to general pre-approval. The schedule(s) provide a description of each type of service that is subject to general pre-approval and, where possible, will provide estimated fee caps for each instance of providing each service. The Audit Committees will review and approve the types of services and review the projected fees for the next fiscal year and may add to, or subtract from, the list of general pre-approved services from time to time based on subsequent determinations. That approval acknowledges that each Audit Committee is in agreement with the specific types of services that the independent accountants will be permitted to perform.

(e)(2) The percentage of services described in paragraphs (b) through (d) of this Item approved pursuant to the de minimis exception under paragraph (c)(7)(i)(C) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X during both fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009 was zero.

(f) Not applicable.

(g) The aggregate non-audit fees billed by the registrant's accountant in each of the last two fiscal years of the Registrant were $195,960 in 2008 and $176,460 in 2009. These fees consisted of non-audit fees billed to (i) the Registrant of $3,460 in 2008 and $3,460 in 2009 as described in response to paragraph (c) above and (ii) to ALPS Fund Services, Inc., (AFS), an entity under common control with the ALPS Advisors, Inc., the Registrant's investment advisor, $192,500 in 2008 and $173,000 in 2009. The non-audit fees billed to AFS related to SAS 70 services and other compliance related matters.

(h) The registrant's Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services that were rendered to the registrant's advisor (not including any sub-advisor whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment advisor), and any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the investment advisor that provides ongoing services to the registrant that were not pre-approved pursuant to paragraph (c)(7)(ii) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X, is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence. The Audit Committee determined that the provision of such services is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.

Item 5. Audit Committee of Listed Registrants.

The registrant has a separately-designated standing audit committee established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(58)(A)).

As of December 31, 2009, John A. Benning, Thomas W. Brock, George R. Gaspari, Richard W. Lowry, John J. Neuhauser, and Richard C. Rantow are each an independent director and collectively constitute the entire Audit Committee.

Item 6. Schedule.

The registrant's Schedule I Investments in securities of unaffiliated issuers (as set forth in 17 CFR 210.12-12) is included in Item 1 of this Form N-CSR.

Item 7. Disclosure of Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures for Closed-End Management Investment Companies.

The Fund has delegated to ALPS Advisors, Inc. (the Advisor) the responsibility to vote proxies relating to portfolio securities held by the Fund. In deciding to delegate this responsibility to the Advisor, the Fund's Board reviewed and approved the policies and procedures adopted by the Advisor. These included the procedures that the Advisor follows when a vote presents a conflict between the interests of the Fund and its shareholders and the Advisor, its affiliates, its other clients or other persons.

The Advisor's policy is to vote all proxies for Fund securities in a manner considered by the Advisor to be in the best interest of the Fund and its shareholders without regard to any benefit to the Advisor, its affiliates, its other clients or other persons. The Advisor or an affiliate examines each proposal and votes against the proposal, if, in its judgment, approval or adoption of the proposal would be expected to impact adversely the current or potential market value of the issuer's securities. The Advisor or an affiliate also examines each proposal and votes the proxies against the proposal, if, in its judgment, the proposal would be expected to affect adversely the best interest of the Fund. The Advisor or an affiliate determines the best interest of the Fund in light of the potential economic return on the Fund's investment.

The Advisor addresses potential material conflicts of interest by having predetermined voting guidelines. For those proposals that require special consideration or in instances where special circumstances may require varying from the predetermined guideline, a Proxy Committee determines the vote in the best interest of the Fund, without consideration of any benefit to the Advisor, its affiliates, its other clients or other persons. The Proxy Committee is composed of representatives of equity investments, equity research, compliance, legal and fund administration functions. In addition to the responsibilities described above, the Proxy Committee has the responsibility to review, on a semi-annual basis, the Advisor's proxy voting policies to ensure consistency with internal and regulatory agency policies and to develop additional predetermined voting guidelines to assist in the review of proxy proposals.

The Proxy Committee may vary from a predetermined guideline if it determines that voting on the proposal according to the predetermined guideline would be expected to impact adversely the current or potential market value of the issuer's securities or to affect adversely the best interest of the client. References to the best interest of a client refer to the interest of the client in terms of the potential economic return on the client's investment. In determining the vote on any proposal, the Proxy Committee does not consider any benefit other than benefits to the owner of the securities to be voted. A member of the Proxy Committee is prohibited from voting on any proposal for which he or she has a conflict of interest by reason of a direct relationship with the issuer or other party affected by a given proposal. Persons making recommendations to the Proxy Committee or its members are required to disclose to the Committee any relationship with a party making a proposal or other matter known to the person that would create a potential conflict of interest.

The Advisor has retained Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), a third party vendor, to implement its proxy voting process. ISS provides proxy analysis, record keeping services and vote disclosure services.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST:

Mazama Capital Management, Inc.

MANAGEMENT. The Portfolio Managers oversee investment decision making across all industry groups and sectors, while each Sector Portfolio Manager is responsible for one or more of the five primary sectors in the portfolio (Technology, Financial Services, Consumer Discretionary, Healthcare and Producer Durables). The additional Research Analysts support the primary Portfolio Managers and Sector Portfolio Managers in identifying investments for the Fund(s). COMPENSATION STRUCTURE. Mazama's compensation structure is designed to attract and retain highly skilled investment professionals. The compensation is structured to maximize performance and keep the interests of each member of our portfolio management team aligned with those of our clients.

The incentive compensation structure keeps each member of the team focused on the performance of each strategy versus its respective benchmark. Each Portfolio Manager and Research Analyst receives a base salary and performance based incentive compensation. Performance based incentive compensation includes: i) a percentage of fees received by Mazama for all accounts under management, providing each team member with significant upside participation; and ii) an annual bonus representing between 5% and 20% of total compensation for any calendar year in which the performance of the related composite exceeds the benchmark return by 250 basis points or more, net of management fees. The Investment Team does not distinguish between different accounts within each investment style/strategy with respect to compensation. Cash compensation increases as assets under management increase, whether by appreciation or by attracting new clients, both of which are accomplished by achieving higher than average excess returns. Excess returns are measured as the difference between our composite returns versus those of the relevant benchmark.

Each portfolio manager and analyst is also a stakeholder in Mazama. The firm is 92% employee owned, 77% of which is directly or indirectly owned by the investment team. Mazama provides ongoing equity incentives to its portfolio managers, analysts and other employees in order to attract and retain highly talented professionals throughout the firm.

OWNERSHIP BY PORTFOLIO MANAGERS. None.

MATERIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST: As every member of the Investment Team has day-to-day management responsibilities with respect to more than one account and more than one investment strategy, actual or apparent conflicts may arise.

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY ALL STAR GROWTH FUND INC. - Form N-CSR

The compensation paid to Mazama for managing the Fund(s) is based on a percentage of assets under management rather than a share of the gains. As described above, members of the Investment Team, as equity owners and by receiving a share of portfolio management fees, benefit from Mazama's revenues and profitability. Conflicts of interest can arise to the extent that larger client accounts generate more fees and potentially larger profits for Mazama compared to small accounts. One account pays a fee based on a percentage of assets that can increase and decrease based on performance against a benchmark index, this account is managed consistently with their stated investment strategy. Despite these differences Mazama believes that its trade allocation and other compliance procedures effectively address any related conflicts of interest. Otherwise, no member of the Investment Team is compensated in a way that would add to those conflicts of interest by creating an incentive to favor particular accounts over other accounts.

Execution and research services provided by brokers may not always be utilized in connection with the Fund(s) or with other client accounts that may have paid the commission or a portion of the commission to the broker providing the services. Mazama allocates brokerage commissions for these services in a manner that it believes is fair and equitable and consistent with its fiduciary obligations to each of its clients.

If a member of the Investment Team identifies a limited investment opportunity that may be suitable for more than just the Fund(s) or another client account, the Fund(s) may not be able to take full advantage of that opportunity. To mitigate this conflict of interest, Mazama aggregates orders for the Fund(s) with orders from each of its other client accounts participating in the same strategy and allocates these trades on a pro-rata basis in order to ensure that clients are treated fairly and equitably over time and consistent with Mazama's fiduciary obligations to each of its clients.

Mazama has adopted policies and procedures to address and prevent the above conflicts of interest; however there is no guarantee that such procedures will detect each and every situation in which a conflict arises.

TCW Investment Management Company (TCW)

MANAGEMENT. The portion of the Fund allocated to TCW is managed by Brendt Stallings and Husam Nazer. R. Brendt Stallings, CFA, Managing Director, US Equities Mr. Stallings is the Senior Portfolio Manager of TCW's Growth Equities and Mid-Cap Growth strategies. Mr. Stallings holds a BA in Decision Analysis and Political Science from Stanford University (1990) and an MBA from the Amos Tuck School at Dartmouth College (1995). He is a CFA charterholder.

Mr. Nazer has been a member of the Small and Mid-Cap Growth Equities team since 2000. He joined TCW's US Equity Research Department in 1995 where he made substantial contributions analyzing the health care, retail, and technology industries. Portfolio Managers Compensation

The overall objective of the compensation program for portfolio managers is for the Advisor to attract what it considers competent and expert investment professionals and to retain them over the long-term. Compensation is comprised of several components which, in the aggregate are designed to achieve these objectives and to reward the portfolio managers for their contribution to the success of their clients and the Advisor and its affiliates within The TCW Group (collectively, TCW). Portfolio managers are compensated through a combination of base salary, profit sharing based compensation (profit sharing), bonus and equity incentive participation in the Advisor's immediate parent, The TCW Group, Inc. and/or ultimate parent, Société Générale (equity incentives). Profit sharing and equity incentives generally represent most of the portfolio managers' compensation. In some cases, portfolio managers are eligible for discretionary bonuses.

Salary. Salary is agreed to with managers at time of employment and is reviewed from time to time. It does not change significantly and often does not constitute a significant part of the portfolio manager's compensation.

Profit Sharing. Profit sharing is linked quantitatively to a fixed percentage of income relating to accounts in the investment strategy area for which the portfolio managers are responsible and is paid quarterly. Profit sharing may be determined on a gross basis, without the deduction of expenses; in most cases, revenues are allocated to a pool and profit sharing compensation is paid out after the deduction of group expenses. The profit sharing percentage used to compensate a portfolio manager for management of the Fund is generally the same as that used to compensate them for all other client accounts they manage in the same strategy for TCW, with limited exceptions involving grandfathered accounts (accounts that become clients of TCW before or after a specified date or former clients of a manager that joined TCW from another firm), firm capital of TCW or accounts sourced through a distinct distribution channel. Income included in a profit sharing pool will relate to the products managed by the portfolio manager. In some cases, the pool includes revenues related to more than one equity or fixed income product where the portfolio managers work together as a team, in which case each participant in the pool is entitled to profit sharing derived from all the included products. In certain cases, a portfolio manager may also participate in a profit sharing pool that includes revenues from products besides the strategy offered in the Fund, including alternative investment products (as described below); the portfolio manager would be entitled to participate in such pool where he or she supervises, is involved in the management of, or is associated with a group, other members of which manage, such products. Profit sharing arrangements are generally the result of agreement between the portfolio manager and TCW, although in some cases they may be discretionary based on supervisor allocation.

In some cases, the profit sharing percentage is subject to increase based on the relative pre-tax performance of the investment strategy composite returns, net of fees and expenses, to that of the benchmark. The measurement of performance relative to the benchmark can be based on single year or multiple year metrics, or a combination thereof. The benchmark used is the one associated with the Fund managed by the portfolio manager as disclosed in the prospectus. Benchmarks vary from strategy to strategy but, within a given strategy, the same benchmark applies to all accounts, including the Fund.

Certain accounts of TCW (but not the Fund) have a performance (or incentive) fee in addition to or in lieu of an asset-based fee. For these accounts, the profit sharing pool from which the portfolio managers' profit sharing compensation is paid will include the performance fees. For investment strategies investing in marketable securities such as those employed in the Fund, the performance fee normally consists of an increased asset-based fee, the increased percentage of which is tied to the performance of the account relative to a benchmark (usually the benchmark associated with the strategy). In these marketable securities strategies, the profit sharing percentage applied relative to performance fees is generally the same as it is for the asset-based fees chargeable to the Fund. In the case of alternative investment strategies and TCW's alpha strategies, performance fees are based on the account achieving net gains over a specified rate of return to the account or to a class of securities in the account. Profit sharing for alternative investment strategies may also include structuring or transaction fees. Alpha strategies are those in which the strategy seeks to provide incremental risk-adjusted return relative to a LIBOR rate of return through alpha and beta isolation techniques, that include the use of options, forwards and derivative instruments. Alternative investment strategies include (a) mezzanine or other forms of privately placed financing, distressed investing, private equity, project finance, real estate investments, leveraged strategies (including short sales) and other similar strategies not employed by the Fund or (b) strategies employed by the Funds that are offered in structured vehicles, such as collateralized loan obligations or collateralized debt obligations or in private funds (sometimes referred to as hedge funds). In the case of certain alternative investment products in which a portfolio manager may be entitled to profit sharing compensation, the profit sharing percentage for performance fees may be lower or higher than the percentage applicable to the asset-based fees.

Discretionary Bonus/Guaranteed Minimums. In general, portfolio managers do not receive discretionary bonuses. However, in some cases where portfolio managers do not receive profit sharing or where the company has determined the combination of salary and profit sharing does not adequately compensate the portfolio manager, discretionary bonuses may be paid by TCW. Also, pursuant to contractual arrangements, some portfolio managers may be entitled to a mandatory bonus if the sum of their salary and profit sharing does not meet certain minimum thresholds.

Equity Incentives. All portfolio managers participate in equity incentives based on overall firm performance of TCW and its affiliates, through stock ownership or participation in stock option or stock appreciation plans of TCW and/or Société Générale. The TCW 2001 and 2005 TCW Stock Option Plans provide eligible portfolio managers the opportunity to participate in an effective economic interest in TCW, the value of which is tied to TCW's annual financial performance as a whole. Participation is generally determined in the discretion of TCW, taking into account factors relevant to the portfolio manager's contribution to the success of TCW. Portfolio managers participating in the TCW 2001 or 2005 TCW Stock Option Plan will also generally participate in Société Générale's Stock Option Plan which grants options on its common stock, the value of which may be realized after certain vesting requirements are met. Some portfolio managers are direct stockholders of TCW and/or Société Générale, as well.

Other Plans and Compensation Vehicles. Portfolio managers may also participate in a deferred compensation plan that is generally available to a wide-range of officers of TCW, the purpose of which is to allow the participant to defer portions of income to a later date while accruing earnings on a tax-deferred basis based on performance of TCW-managed products selected by the participant. Portfolio managers may also elect to participate in TCW's 401(k) plan, to which they may contribute a portion of their pre- and post-tax compensation to the plan for investment on a tax-deferred basis.

OWNERSHIP BY PORTFOLIO MANAGERS. None of the individuals at the firm responsible for the day-to-day management of the Fund owns any shares of the Fund.

Potential conflicts of interest in managing multiple accounts

Like other investment professionals with multiple clients, a portfolio manager for a Fund may face certain potential conflicts of interest in connection with managing both the Fund and other accounts at the same time. The paragraphs below describe some of these potential conflicts, which may be faced by investment professionals at most major financial firms. ALPS Advisors, Inc. and the Fund have adopted compliance policies and procedures that attempt to address certain of these potential conflicts.

The management of accounts with different advisory fee rates and/or fee structures, including accounts that pay advisory fees based on account performance (performance fee accounts), may raise potential conflicts of interest by creating an incentive to favor higher-fee accounts. These potential conflicts may include, among others:

- The most attractive investments could be allocated to higher-fee accounts or performance fee accounts.
- The trading of higher-fee accounts could be favored as to timing and/or execution price. For example, higher-fee accounts could be permitted to sell securities earlier than other accounts when a prompt sale is desirable or to buy securities at an earlier and more opportune time.
- The trading of other accounts could be used to benefit higher-fee accounts (front- running).
- The investment management team could focus their time and efforts primarily on higher-fee accounts due to a personal stake in compensation.

Potential conflicts of interest may also arise when the portfolio managers have personal investments in other accounts that may create an incentive to favor those accounts.

A potential conflict of interest may arise when a Fund and other accounts purchase or sell the same securities. On occasions when a portfolio manager considers the purchase or sale of a security to be in the best interests of a Fund as well as other accounts, the adviser's trading desk may, to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, aggregate the securities to be sold or purchased in order to obtain the best execution and lower brokerage commissions, if any. Aggregation of trades may create the potential for unfairness to a Fund or another account if one account is favored over another in allocating the securities purchased or sold—for example, by allocating a disproportionate amount of a security that is likely to increase in value to a favored account.

Cross trades, in which one account sells a particular security to another account (potentially saving transaction costs for both accounts), may also pose a potential conflict of interest. Cross trades may be seen to involve a potential conflict of interest if, for example, one account is permitted to sell a security to another account at a higher price than an independent third party would pay. The Fund has adopted compliance procedures that provide that any transactions between a Fund and another advised account are to be made at an independent current market price, as required by law.

Another potential conflict of interest may arise based on the different investment objectives and strategies of a Fund and other accounts. For example, another account may have a shorter-term investment horizon or different investment objectives, policies or restrictions than a Fund. Depending on another account's objectives or other factors, a portfolio manager may give advice and make decisions that may differ from advice given, or the timing or nature of decisions made, with respect to a Fund. In addition, investment decisions are the product of many factors in addition to basic suitability for the particular account involved. Thus, a particular security may be bought or sold for certain accounts even though it could have been bought or sold for other accounts at the same time. More rarely, a particular security may be bought for one or more accounts managed by a portfolio manager when one or more other accounts are selling the security (including short sales). There may be circumstances when purchases or sales of portfolio securities for one or more accounts may have an adverse effect on other accounts.

A Fund's portfolio manager who is responsible for managing multiple funds and/or accounts may devote unequal time and attention to the management of those funds and/or accounts. As a result, the portfolio manager may not be able to formulate as complete a strategy or identify equally attractive investment opportunities for each of those accounts as might be the case if he or she were to devote substantially more attention to the management of a single fund. The effects of this potential conflict may be more pronounced where funds and/or accounts overseen by a particular portfolio manager have different investment strategies.

A Fund's portfolio managers may be able to select or influence the selection of the brokers and dealers that are used to execute securities transactions for the Fund. In addition to executing trades, some brokers and dealers provide portfolio managers with brokerage and research services (as those terms are defined in Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), which may result in the payment of higher brokerage fees than might have otherwise be available. These services may be more beneficial to certain funds or accounts than to others. Although the payment of brokerage commissions is subject to the requirement that the portfolio manager determine in good faith that the commissions are reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services provided to the fund, a portfolio manager's decision as to the selection of brokers and dealers could yield disproportionate costs and benefits among the funds and/or accounts that he or she manages.

The adviser or an affiliate may provide more services (such as distribution or recordkeeping) for some types of funds or accounts than for others. In such cases, a portfolio manager may benefit, either directly or indirectly, by devoting disproportionate attention to the management of fund and/or accounts that provide greater overall returns to the investment manager and its affiliates.

A Fund's portfolio manager(s) may also face other potential conflicts of interest in managing the Fund, and the description above is not a complete description of every conflict that could be deemed to exist in managing both a Fund and other accounts. In addition, a Fund's portfolio manager may also manage other accounts (including their personal assets or the assets of family members) in their personal capacity. The management of these accounts may also involve certain of the potential conflicts described above. Investment personnel at the advisers, including each Fund's portfolio manager, are subject to restrictions on engaging in personal securities transactions pursuant to Codes of Ethics adopted by the adviser.

Each of the Fund's sub-advisers has trade allocation and other policies and procedures that it believes are reasonably designed to address these and other potential conflicts of interest.
