Safe Harbor Statement

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward looking statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations. These statements are based on beliefs and assumptions of the Company's management, and on information currently available to management. These forward looking statements include, among other things: the growth and demand for the Company's products and services, including its modernization, spares and sustainment business and anticipated significant new orders; the anticipated long-term demand for service, support and upgrade work to the Company's fleet of vehicles; the opportunities to market and the capabilities of the Ocelot and JAMMA vehicles; the Company's ability to develop new technologies and products, and the effectiveness of these technologies and products; the Company's execution of its business strategy and strategic transformation, including its operating plan and its opportunities to grow the business; the effects of the expansion in Afghanistan, and the Company's expected financial and operating results, including its revenues, cash flow and gross margins, for future periods. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any of them publicly in light of new information or future events. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Examples of these factors include, but are not limited to, the ability to effectively manage the risks in the Company's business; the ability to develop new technologies and products and the acceptance of these
