June 1st, 2010

Dear Sirs,

Telefónica, S.A. (Telefónica) hereby submits to Portugal Telecom, SGPS, SA. (Portugal Telecom) a binding offer (the Offer) for the acquisition by Telefónica, directly or through any of its affiliates, of fifty percent (50%) of the shares of Brasilcel, N.V. (Brasilcel or the Company) owned directly or indirectly by Portugal Telecom, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, through any of the Offer alternatives mentioned in this Offer (the Transaction).

This Offer shall constitute a binding commitment on our part subject to the terms provided below. Should you accept the Offer (in any of its alternatives), the terms and conditions herein will become legally binding.

1. Alternative Offer Structures

1.1 Alternative A

Edgar Filing: PORTUGAL TELECOM SGPS SA - Form 6-K

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Offer, Telefónica proposes to acquire 50% of the total number of shares of the Company, owned directly or indirectly by Portugal Telecom, free and clear from any liens, charges, encumbrances and third party rights (the Alternative A Shares) for an aggregate purchase price of Euros 6,500 million (six thousand and five hundred million Euros) (the Alternative A Consideration). The Alternative A Consideration would be payable in cash, in immediately available funds on the date of completion of the acquisition of the Alternative A Shares (the Closing A).

1.2 Alternative B

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Offer, Telefónica alternatively proposes to acquire one third (1/3) of the 50% of the total number of shares of the Company, owned directly or indirectly by Portugal Telecom, free and clear from any liens, charges, encumbrances and third party rights (the Alternative B Shares) for an aggregate purchase price of 2,166,666,667 (two thousand one hundred and sixty six million six hundred and sixty six thousand and six hundred and sixty seven) Euros, equivalent to one third (1/3) of 6,500 (six thousand and five hundred) million Euros (the Alternative B Consideration). The Alternative B Consideration would be payable in cash, in immediately available funds on the date of completion of the acquisition of the Alternative B Shares (the Closing B).

Additionally, Telefónica would propose to offer to Portugal Telecom the right to put (the Put) all part (and in such case the Put may be exercised in several times) of the two thirds (2/3) of the 50% of the total number of shares of the Company, owned directly or indirectly by Portugal Telecom after Closing B, free and clear from any liens, charges, encumbrances and third party rights (the Alternative B Put Shares) for an aggregate purchase price, for each relevant transfer, equivalent to (the Alternative B Put Consideration) an amount equal to 6,500 (six thousand and five hundred) million Euros multiplied by the percentage that the number of Alternative B Put Shares transferred from time to time represent over fifty percent (50%) of the total number of shares of the Company.

Telefónica undertakes to cause the Company to yearly pay dividends (or other type of distributions such reserves distributions, etc.) to its shareholders that permits that Portugal Telecom receives an amount equal to the Annual Amount until the earliest of (i) the date on which all the Alternative B Put Shares have been transferred by Portugal Telecom to Telefónica; and (ii) the third anniversary of the Closing B.

For this purpose, Annual Amount shall mean an amount that would result of applying a rate of five per cent (5%) over the purchase price attributable to the Alternative B Put Shares in each 12-month period starting on the date of the Closing B (or any anniversary thereof), provided, for the avoidance of doubt, that such amount shall not accrue interests starting on the date on which such amounts are paid by Telefónica to Portugal Telecom as a consequence of a transfer of Alternative B Put Shares. The Annual Amount shall be compounded on a yearly basis (assuming a year of 360 days) on each anniversary of the Closing B.

in the event that Telefónica fails to cause that the Company distributes dividends as provided in the previous paragraph, Telefónica and Portugal Telecom shall agree in good faith on other mechanism that allows Portugal Telecom to receive the aforesaid interest in an efficient manner.

If the dividends (or other distributions) paid by the Company exceed in any 12-month period starting on the Closing B the Annual Amount that would correspond to such period, the excess will be deducted from the Alternative B Put Consideration payable by Telefónica in the next transfer of Alternative B Put Shares.

The Put may be exercised by written notice delivered to Telefónica (the put Exercise Notice), one or more times, and at any time from the date of acceptance of this Offer until the third anniversary thereof, provided that each Put Exercise Notice shall comprise at least 10% of the total Alternative B Put Shares.

The Alternative B Put Consideration shall be payable in cash, in immediately available funds on the date of completion of the acquisition of the relevant portion of the Alternative B Put Shares.

1.3 Closing.

The consummation of any transfer of the shares shall occur as promptly as practicable but in no event later than 60 (sixty) days after (i) the date of acceptance of this Offer (in the event of the Closing A or the Closing B); or (ii) the delivery of the Put Exercise Notice (in the event of any transfer of all or a portion of Alternative B Put Shares); at the time and place as may be agreed upon by Portugal Telecom and Telefónica.

The Parties undertake to use their reasonable efforts to fulfil any requirements and to obtain any necessary approval necessary to effect either the Closing A or the Closing B, or any transfer of Alternative B Put Shares as soon as practicable and to enter into the documents required under Dutch Law for the valid transfer of shares.

1.4 Termination of Shareholders Agreement and Subscription Agreement.

On the date of the Closing A or the Closing B, as applicable, the Company's Shareholders' Agreement (as amended) and Subscription Agreement entered into by Portugal Telecom and Telefónica on October 17, 2002, shall terminate without any liability on either Portugal Telecom or Telefónica as a consequence of such termination.

1.5 Company's Governance under Alternative B.

On the date on which the Closing B occurs:

(i) all the Supervisory Directors except for two (2) and all the Managing Directors appointed by Portugal Telecom, as well as the directors appointed following Portugal Telecom's nomination in any of the Company's subsidiaries, shall resign;

(ii) the replacing Directors will be appointed by nomination of Telefónica;

(iii) except for two Supervisory Directors to be appointed by Portugal Telecom, it shall withdraw any right to appoint Directors in any of the companies referred to in (i) above, including the Company; and

(iv) Portugal Telecom shall commit to vote its shares in the Company in accordance with the Telefónica's instructions, including but not limited, in relation to corporate transactions involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries, including any corporate transaction with third parties, to the extent that such transactions are performed in accordance with fair valuations.

Edgar Filing: PORTUGAL TELECOM SGPS SA - Form 6-K

The right to appoint two Supervisory Directors out of twelve (12) mentioned in (iii) above will expire on the date on which the interest of Portugal Telecom in the Company is reduced below ten percent (10%).

2. Funding of the Transaction

Telefónica has available funds and credit lines to complete the Transaction and therefore this Offer is not subject to obtaining financing by Telefónica.

3. No other conditions

This Offer is not subject to any other conditions. In particular:

- (i) this Offer has been approved by the Board of Directors of Telefónica and thus this Offer is not subject to further approvals by Telefónica;

- (ii) this Offer is not subject to obtaining approvals from third parties in relation to the Transaction;
- (iii) Telefónica would not require non-compete or non-solicitation commitments by Portugal Telecom;
- (iv) Telefónica would not require to complete a due diligence process and therefore this Offer is not contingent on the outcome of such due diligence process.

4. Limited representations and warranties

With respect to the Company, Telefónica does not require any representation or warranty other than customary representations and warranties in relation to authority to enter into the Transaction, ownership and good title over the Shares and absence of liens and encumbrances on the Shares.

5. Vivo management / employees

Telefónica is pleased with the recent performance of Vivo and therefore it envisions the continuity of Vivo's management, including contract with the CEO, which will be transferred to Vivo, and the preservation of Vivo employees' rights.

6. Subsequent tender offer

Telefónica contemplates to launch after Closing A or Closing B, as applicable, a tender offer over the voting shares (ON) of Vivo not owned by the Company. The purchase price offered in such tender offer would be 80% of the value attributed to each of the Vivo's voting shares (ON) in this Offer.

Edgar Filing: PORTUGAL TELECOM SGPS SA - Form 6-K

Telefónica would propose to offer to Portugal Telecom the right to call, or to elect one or more third parties at its sole discretion to call (the PT Call) the shares held directly by Telefónica in Portugal Telecom (the PT Call Shares), representing approximately 8,5% of its share capital free and clear from any liens, charges, encumbrances and third party rights.

In the event of exercise by Portugal Telecom of the PT Call, Telefónica shall use its reasonable efforts to cause that an additional interest in Portugal Telecom of approximately 1,5% of its share capital, currently held by Telefónica's direct or indirect subsidiaries, is also transferred to Portugal Telecom and, if Telefónica may effectively cause such transfer, PT Call Shares shall also comprise such additional shares.

The Call may be exercised by written notice delivered to Telefónica (the Call Exercise Notice) indicating the elected party or parties that will acquire the PT Call Shares, at the following dates:

- (i) if Portugal Telecom elects to effect the Transaction following Alternative A, Portugal Telecom shall deliver the Call Exercise Notice on:

a. the date of Closing A, and in such event the purchase price of each PT Call Shares shall be equivalent to the volume weighted average price for Portugal Telecom shares on the Euronext Lisbon for the thirty (30) trading days immediately following the date on which the Board of Directors of Portugal Telecom accepts this Offer or calls the General Shareholders Meeting of Portugal Telecom to deliberate about the Offer; or

b. the date that is two (2) months after the date of Closing A, and in such event the purchase price of each PT Call Shares shall be equivalent to the volume weighted average price for Portugal Telecom shares on the Euronext Lisbon for the sixty (60) days immediately prior to the date of delivery of the Call Exercise Notice; or

(ii) if Portugal Telecom elects to effect the Transaction following Alternative B:

a. in relation to one third (1/3) of the PT Call Shares:

- the date of Closing B, and in such event the purchase price of each PT Call Shares shall be equivalent to the volume weighted average price for Portugal Telecom shares on the Euronext Lisbon for the thirty (30) trading days immediately following the date on which the Board of Directors of Portugal Telecom accepts this Offer or calls the General Shareholders Meeting of Portugal Telecom to deliberate about the Offer; or

- the date that is two (2) months after the date of Closing B, and in such event the purchase price of each PT Call Shares shall be equivalent to the volume weighted average price for Portugal Telecom shares on the Euronext Lisbon for the sixty (60) days immediately prior to the date of delivery of the Call Exercise Notice; and

b. in relation to the remaining PT Call Shares, no later than on the date of the transfer of Alternative B Put Shares and for up to the same proportion of the portion of the Alternative B Put Shares being transferred, and in this event the purchase price of the PT Call Shares shall be equivalent to the volume weighted average price for Portugal Telecom shares on the Euronext Lisbon for the ninety (90) trading days immediately preceding the date of transfer of the relevant PT Call Shares, which average price shall be calculated based on the weighted average price of the shares for each day during such ninety (90) day trading period.

The consummation of any transfer of the relevant PT Call Shares shall occur as promptly as practicable but in any event no later than 60 (sixty) days after the delivery of the Call Exercise Notice at the time and place as may be agreed upon by Portugal Telecom and Telefónica.

Edgar Filing: PORTUGAL TELECOM SGPS SA - Form 6-K

For the avoidance of doubt, the PT Call shall be exercised in accordance with the periods mentioned in (i) and (ii) above, and in no event it may be exercise after the third anniversary of the date of acceptance of this Offer.

From the date of the Closing A or the Closing B, as applicable, Telefónica undertakes to exercise its voting rights in relation to its direct interest in Portugal Telecom, in favour of the proposals submitted by the Board of Directors to the General Shareholders Meeting.

8. Dedic Acquisition by Telefónica.

Subject to the Closing A or the Closing B, as applicable, having occurred, Telefónica, directly or through any of its affiliates, will purchase from Portugal Telecom all but not part of the shares in Dedic, S.A. (the Dedic Shares) currently owned directly or indirectly by Portugal Telecom free and clear from any liens, charges, encumbrances and third party rights for a price resulting from an independent evaluation.

Immediately after the Closing A or the Closing B, as applicable, Portugal Telecom shall make available to Telefónica all necessary information to perform a customary due diligence process over Dedic (including tax, legal, financial, operational, commercial, labour and technical due diligence). Such due diligence process shall last thirty (30) Business Days after such information was made available. For the purposes of this Offer, Business Day shall mean a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in Sao Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Madrid, Lisbon or Amsterdam.

After finalization of the due diligence process, Portugal Telecom and Telefónica shall attempt to reach an agreement on the purchase price to be paid by Telefónica for the Dedic Shares. If Portugal Telecom and Telefónica are unable to reach an agreement on such purchase price within fifteen (15) Business Days after the finalization of the due diligence process, the Parties agree to start the independent evaluation procedure within a thirty days period from the date of acceptance of this Offer. The consummation of any transfer of the Dedic Shares shall occur as promptly as practicable and in any event no later than 30 (thirty) days after the delivery of the Dedic binding evaluation.

The independent evaluation will be undertaken by two leading international investment banks. For this purpose, each Party will appoint a bank from a list of three banks proposed by the other Party within 15 days following receipt of the list. Absence of appointment in such term will imply acceptance of any of the banks included in the list at the option of the Party that sent the list. The list of banks presented by each Party will exclude any bank which owns a significant direct or indirect interest in its share capital or has representation in the Board of the Party.

Should the two evaluations undertaken by the international investment banks referred to above, differ by more than five percentage points, a third evaluation shall be undertaken by another leading international investment bank, which will be appointed by mutual agreement of the Parties or, failing such agreement within 15 days following receipt of notice from one Party to the other seeking for agreement, by the appointed banks, and failing appointment by them, by the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris as Appointing Authority. The third bank must indicate a valuation within the values given by the two first investment banks and it will be binding for both Parties.

Should the two evaluations undertaken by the international investment banks referred to above differ by five percentage points or less, then the difference will be equally split between the Parties.

Any valuation undertaken by a third leading international investment bank, as a result of any of the provisions above, will be binding upon the Parties hereto.

The investment banks appointed by Portugal Telecom and Telefónica, and the Third Investment Bank shall issue their valuation reports within 30 Business Days after their respective engagement, shall apply valuation criteria commonly used in relation to companies of the same sector as Dedic, according to market practice and shall take into account any findings of the due diligence process referred to above.

Portugal Telecom shall undertake to procure that, from the date of acceptance of this Offer and until the closing of the transfer of the Dedic Shares, Dedic shall be managed in the ordinary course of business in accordance with past practices.
