Asset Purchase Agreement relating to the Sale of Customer Contracts of CIBER's ITO Division

On July 28, 2012, CIBER, Inc. (the "Company") entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Savvis Communications Corporation., a Missouri corporation (the "Buyer"), whereby the Company agreed to sell to the Buyer certain customer contracts and the related assets and personnel associated with the Company's information technology outsourcing practice (the "ITO Business") for an initial purchase price of $7.0 million in cash. The Company is also entitled to receive additional future consideration in the form of up to $13 million in a cash earn-out payment that is mainly dependent upon the post-closing success of the transferred customer contracts to be measured based on December 2013 results and to be paid during the first quarter of 2014 (the "Transaction").

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of each of the Company and the Buyer, and contains customary indemnification provisions relating to breaches of representations, warranties and covenants. The Purchase Agreement also contains a special indemnification provision whereby the Company will indemnify the Buyer for certain losses, if any, incurred by the Buyer post-closing under the customer contracts being transferred. Consummation of the Transaction is contingent upon a number of closing conditions, including, among other things, the Company obtaining numerous customer and other third-party consents, the continuance of employment of a certain percentage of certain groups of employees of the ITO Business, conditions relating to the revenue and EBITDA of the ITO Business, delivery by each of the Company and the Buyer of certain ancillary documents and the absence of any material adverse effect on the ITO Business.

The consummation of the Transaction is expected to be completed within 60-90 days of the date of the Purchase Agreement.

On July 31, 2012, the Company issued a press release announcing the Transaction and its entry into the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 99.1. The information contained in the press release is incorporated herein by reference.
