Vale informs about public civil action

Rio de Janeiro, January 29, 2016 Vale S.A. (Vale) informs that it was summoned in the public civil action filed at 12ª Vara Federal of Belo Horizonte by the Federal Union, by the States of Minas Gerais and Espírito Santo, and by other entities, against Samarco S.A. ( Samarco ) and its shareholders, BHP Billiton Brasil Ltda. ( BHP ) and Vale. It asks, among other claims, the lien over ore mining licenses of the three respondents, without, however, limiting its production and commercial activities, and claims their responsibility by the losses resulting from the accident of the Samarco Fundão dam. It was assigned to the cause a value of R$20.2 billion. This action was already announced by the media.

Vale will adopt all measures to guarantee its right of defense and will keep the market informed in case of any new information related to the action that materially affects its performance.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
