PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

(To Prospectus dated January 12, 2007)

$115,000,000

Acadia Realty Trust

3.75% Convertible Notes due 2026 and

Common Shares Issuable Upon Conversion of the Notes

This prospectus supplement covers resales from time to time by the selling security holders identified herein of our 3.75% Convertible Notes due 2026, or the notes, and our common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes. The notes have the following provisions:

the holders of the notes may convert the notes into cash (with respect to the principal return, as defined herein), and into cash, our common shares or a combination of cash and our common shares (with respect to the net amount, as defined herein) prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the stated maturity date at any time on or after December 15, 2025 and also under the circumstances described herein at an initial conversion price of $30.86 per share which is equivalent to a conversion rate of 32.4002 shares per each $1,000 principal amount of notes, subject to adjustment in specified events;

on or after December 20, 2011, we may redeem the notes, in whole or in part, for cash at 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed plus the applicable interest; we may not redeem the notes prior to December 20, 2011 except to the extent necessary to preserve our status as a real estate investment trust; on December 20, 2011, December 15, 2016 and December 15, 2021, as well as following the occurrence of certain change of control transactions prior to December 20, 2011, holders may require us to repurchase their notes;

we will pay interest on the notes on June 15 and December 15 of each year, and the first interest payment will be made on June 15, 2007; and the notes are our unsecured obligations and rank equally with all of our other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness.

We do not intend to apply for the listing of the notes on any securities exchange or for inclusion of the notes in any automated quotation system. The notes are designated for trading in The PORTAL Market of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The notes sold using this prospectus supplement, however, will no longer be eligible for trading in The PORTAL Market of the National Association of Securities Dealers.

Our common shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol AKR. On March 30, 2007, the last reported sales price for our common shares on the New York Stock Exchange was $26.07 per share.

Investing in the notes and our common shares involves risks. See Risk Factors beginning on page S-7 of this prospectus supplement, as well as the risk factors in the documents incorporated by reference.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus supplement is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

This prospectus supplement is a supplement to the accompanying prospectus, dated January 12, 2007, that is also a part of this document. This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus are part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) using the SEC's shelf registration rules. Both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus include important information about us, the notes, our common shares and other information you should know before investing in our securities. This prospectus supplement also adds to, updates and changes some of the information contained in the accompanying prospectus. To the extent that any statement that we make in this prospectus supplement is inconsistent with the statements made in the accompanying prospectus, the statements made in the accompanying prospectus are deemed modified or superseded by the statements made in this prospectus supplement. You should assume that the information appearing in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, as well as the information contained in any document incorporated by reference, is accurate as of the date of each such document only, unless the information specifically indicates that another date applies.

You should read both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus together with the additional information described under the caption "Where You Can Find More Information" in this prospectus supplement.

In this prospectus supplement, unless otherwise stated or the context otherwise requires, the terms "we," "us," "our" and other similar terms refer to the consolidated business of Acadia Realty Trust and all of its subsidiaries. In this prospectus supplement, the term "Acadia" refers to Acadia Realty Trust and not to any of its consolidated subsidiaries.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement include "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act. All statements other than statements of historical fact are "forward-looking statements" for purposes of this prospectus supplement and the information incorporated by reference herein, including, without limitation, statements as to any predictions of earnings, revenue, expenses or other financial items; any statements of the plans, strategies and objectives of management for future operations; any statements regarding future economic conditions; any statements concerning our future operations, financial condition and prospects; and any statements of assumptions underlying the foregoing. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as "may," "would," "could," "should," "expects," "intends," "plans," "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "predicts," "projects," "seeks," "potential," "likely," "continue," or similar words or the negative of these terms. These forward-looking statements are only predictions and, accordingly, are subject to substantial risks, uncertainties and assumptions.

Some of the factors that might cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements made in this prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference or that might cause us to modify our plans or objectives include, but are not limited to, the following:

- our reliance on revenues derived from major tenants and the impact of any material credit quality deterioration of such tenants;
- general economic and business conditions affecting demand for rental space, the availability and creditworthiness of prospective tenants, lease rents and terms;
- our limited control over joint venture investments and the impact of any decisions made by our venture partners;
- our holding company structure and the ability of our subsidiaries to make upstream distributions to us;
- geographic concentration of our properties and the impact of an economic downturn in such regions;
- market interest rates;
- leverage and its impact on our operations and limitations imposed by financial and restrictive covenants;

ii

our ability to successfully implement our growth strategy;

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

our ability to preserve our status as a REIT;
the impact of uninsured losses;
the loss of key executives;
changes in our real estate markets, including, among other things, competition with other companies;

risks of real estate development and acquisition and our ability to quickly react to changes in the real estate markets;
the impact of governmental actions and initiatives and any costs associated therewith; and the impact of environmental/safety requirements and any costs associated therewith.

Other factors that may cause our actual results to differ from the forward-looking statements contained herein and that may affect our prospects in general are included under the heading Risk Factors in this prospectus supplement and in our historical and future periodic filings with the SEC, particularly our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

We caution you that any forward-looking statement reflects only our belief at the time the statement is made. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee our future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update any of the forward-looking statements to reflect events or developments after the date of this prospectus supplement.

SUMMARY

The information below is only a summary of the more detailed information included elsewhere in this prospectus supplement or the documents incorporated herein by reference. This summary does not contain all the information that is important to you or that you should consider before investing in the notes and the common shares into which the notes are convertible. As a result, you should carefully read this entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus as well as the documents incorporated herein by reference.

We are a fully integrated, self-managed and self-administered equity real estate investment trust, or REIT, focused primarily on the ownership, acquisition, redevelopment and management of retail properties, including neighborhood and community shopping centers and mixed-use properties with retail components. As of the date of this prospectus supplement, we currently operate 74 properties, which we own or have an ownership interest in. These assets are located primarily in the Northeast, Mid-Atlantic and Midwest regions of the United States and, in total, comprise approximately 10 million square feet. We also have private equity investments in other retail real estate related opportunities including investments for which we provide operational support to the operating ventures in which we have a minority equity interest.

All of our assets are held by, and all of our operations are conducted through, Acadia Realty Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership, or the Operating Partnership, and its majority-owned subsidiaries. As of the date of this prospectus supplement, we controlled 98% of the Operating Partnership as the sole general partner. As the general partner, we are entitled to share, in proportion to our percentage interest, in the cash distributions and profits and losses of the Operating Partnership. The limited partners represent entities or individuals who contributed their interests in certain properties or partnerships to the Operating Partnership in exchange for common or preferred units of limited partnership interest, or OP Units. Limited partners holding Common OP Units are generally entitled to exchange their units on a one-for-one basis for our common shares. Holders of our Preferred OP Units are entitled to convert their units into Common OP Units at certain fixed conversion prices and are entitled to preferred quarterly distributions.

Our common shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol AKR. Our executive offices are located at 1311 Mamaroneck Avenue, Suite 260, White Plains, New York 10605 and our telephone number is (914) 288-8100.

We maintain an internet website at <http://www.acadiarealty.com>. We are not incorporating by reference in this prospectus supplement any material from our website, and we have provided an inactive textual reference to the website's uniform resource locator (URL) for your reference only.

Recent Developments

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

On January 8, 2007, we issued an additional $15.0 million aggregate principal amount of the notes (for a total of $115.0 million). The net proceeds from the sale of the additional notes, after deducting the underwriters' discount and estimated offering expenses, were approximately $14.7 million.

On January 8, 2007, we paid down $21.3 million of our floating-rate debt.

On January 26, 2007, we refinanced a property for $26.0 million. The loan on this property bears interest at 5.4% and matures on February 11, 2017. We used a portion of the proceeds to pay off the existing debt balance of $15.7 million.

On February 12, 2007, Klaff Realty, L.P. converted 3,800 Series B Preferred Units into 296,412 Common OP Units and ultimately into our common shares.

On February 23, 2007, we, through an affiliate, and together with an unrelated third party, entered into an agreement to purchase the leasehold interest in a property located in downtown Brooklyn, New York, for $120.0 million. Plans for the property include the demolition of the existing improvements and the development of a 1.6 million square foot mixed-use complex. This transaction is subject to approval by the Mayor of the City of New York. There are no assurances that such approval will be granted.

On February 26, 2007, we received, through the RCP Venture, a cash distribution totaling approximately $42.5 million from our ownership position in Albertsons. The Operating Partnership's share of this distribution amounted to approximately $8.5 million. The distribution resulted from cash proceeds obtained by Albertsons in connection with its disposition of certain operating stores and a refinancing of the remaining assets held in the entity.

On March 20, 2007, we purchased the following two properties:

- a single tenant property located in Staten Island, New York for $16.9 million; and
- a commercial condominium located in Manhattan, New York for $36.0 million.

THE NOTES AND COMMON SHARES

This summary is not a complete description of the notes and the common shares. You should read the full text and more specific details contained elsewhere in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus. For a more detailed description of the notes, see Description of Notes in this prospectus supplement. See Description of Shares of Beneficial Interest in the accompanying prospectus for a description of our common shares

Securities	$115,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 3.75% Convertible Notes due 2026 and 3,727,000 common shares into which the notes are convertible.
Selling Security Holders	Selling security holders, including their transferees, pledgees or donees or their successors, may from time to time offer and sell the notes and the common shares into which the notes are convertible in certain circumstances pursuant to this prospectus supplement. See Selling Security Holders in this prospectus supplement.
Maturity of Notes	December 15, 2026, unless earlier converted, redeemed or repurchased.
Interest Rate on Notes	3.75% per year. Interest is payable in cash on June 15 and December 15 of each year, beginning on June 15, 2007.
Ranking of Notes	The notes are our unsecured obligations and rank equally with all of our other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. The notes are effectively subordinated to our secured indebtedness and to all indebtedness and other liabilities of our subsidiaries (as well as to the Series A and Series B Preferred OP Units of the Operating Partnership). As of December 31, 2006, Acadia had $100.0 million of unsecured indebtedness and our subsidiaries had secured indebtedness and other liabilities of approximately $397.0 million. See Risk Factors Effective subordination of the notes may reduce amounts available for payment of the notes in this prospectus supplement. We have no material assets other than our investment in the Operating Partnership.
Redemption of Notes at Our Option	Prior to December 20, 2011, we do not have the right to redeem the notes, except to preserve our status as a REIT. After that time, we have the right to redeem the notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, for cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes plus any accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to, but not including, the redemption date.
Repurchase of Notes at Each Holder's Option	Holder's of notes may require us to repurchase their notes, in whole or in part, on December 20, 2011, December 15, 2016, and December 15, 2021 for cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be repurchased plus any accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to, but not including, the repurchase date.

Repurchase of Notes at Each Holder's Option Upon Certain Change of Control Transactions	If certain change of control transactions occur prior to December 20, 2011, holders of notes may require us to repurchase their notes, in whole or in part, for cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be repurchased plus any accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to, but not including, the repurchase date.
Conversion Rights of the Notes

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

Holders may convert their notes based on the applicable conversion rate (described below) prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the stated maturity date at any time on or after December 15, 2025 and also under any of the following circumstances:

during any calendar quarter beginning after December 31, 2006 (and only during such calendar quarter), if, and only if, the closing sale price of our common shares for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) in the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of the preceding calendar quarter is greater than 130% of the conversion price per common share in effect on the applicable trading day;

during the five consecutive trading-day period following any five consecutive trading-day period in which the trading price of the notes was less than 98% of the product of the closing sale price of our common shares multiplied by the applicable conversion rate;

if those notes have been called for redemption, at any time prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the redemption date;

upon the occurrence of specified transactions described under Description of Notes Conversion Rights in this prospectus supplement; or if our common shares are not listed on a United States national or regional securities exchange for 30 consecutive trading days.

Conversion Rate for the Notes

The initial conversion rate for each $1,000 principal amount of notes is 32.4002 of our common shares, payable in cash or, if the conversion value is greater than the principal return, in cash, our common shares or a combination of cash and our common shares, at our option, as described under Description of Notes Conversion Settlement in this prospectus supplement (equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $30.86 per common share).

If certain change of control transactions occur prior to December 20, 2011 and a holder elects to convert notes in connection with any such transaction, we will increase the conversion rate in connection with such conversion by a number of additional common shares based on the date such transaction becomes effective and the price paid per common share in such transaction as described under Description of Notes Conversion Rights Make Whole Upon Certain Change of Control Transactions in this prospectus supplement.

The conversion rate may also be adjusted under certain other circumstances, including the payment of cash dividends in excess of our current regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.20 per common share, but will not be adjusted for accrued and unpaid interest on the notes. See Description of

Conversion Settlement of the Notes	Notes Conversion Rate Adjustments in this prospectus supplement. Upon a conversion of notes, we will deliver cash and, at our election, our common shares, with an aggregate value, which we refer to as the conversion value, equal to the conversion rate multiplied by the average price of our common shares as follows: (1) an amount in cash, which we refer to as the principal return, equal to the lesser of (a) the principal amount of the converted notes and (b) the conversion value; and (2) if the conversion value is greater than the principal return, an amount with a value equal to the difference between the conversion value and the principal return, which we refer to as the net amount. The net amount may be paid, at our option, in cash, our common shares or a combination of cash and our common shares. We refer to any cash delivered upon a conversion of notes as part of the net amount as the net cash amount, and we refer to any of our common shares delivered upon a conversion of notes as part of the net amount as the net shares. Any portion of the net amount that we issue as net shares will be equal to the sum of the daily share amounts (calculated as described under Description of Notes Conversion Settlement in this prospectus supplement) for each trading day in the 20 consecutive trading-day period referred to below, except that we will pay cash in lieu of any fractional common shares issuable, at our option, as net shares based on the average price of our common shares. The average price of our common shares will be equal to the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares over the 20 consecutive trading-day period commencing on the third trading day following the date the notes are tendered for conversion. We will pay the principal return and cash for fractional shares, and deliver net shares or pay the net cash amount, as applicable, to holders upon a conversion of their notes no later than the third business day following the last trading day of the 20 consecutive trading-day period referred to above.
Restrictions on Ownership	In order to assist us in maintaining our qualification as a REIT for U.S. federal income tax purposes, no person may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution rules of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the Internal Revenue Code or the Code), more than 9.8% in value of our outstanding shares of beneficial interest, subject to certain exceptions. Notwithstanding any other provision of the notes, no holder of notes will be entitled to convert such notes for our common shares to the extent that receipt of such common shares would cause such holder (together with such holder's affiliates) to exceed the ownership limit contained in our declaration of trust.

No Shareholder Rights for Holders of Notes	See Description of Shares of Beneficial Interest Shares REIT Ownership Limitations in the accompanying prospectus. Holders of notes, as such, will not have any rights as our shareholders (including, without limitation, voting rights and rights to receive dividends or other distributions on our common shares).
Registration Rights	In connection with the offering of the notes, we agreed to file with the SEC within 120 calendar days after the original issuance of the notes, and to use our reasonable best efforts to cause to become effective within 210 calendar days after the original issuance of the notes, a registration statement, or otherwise

	make a registration statement available, with respect to the resale of the notes and our common shares that may be issuable upon conversion of the notes. See Description of Notes Registration Rights; Additional Interest in this prospectus supplement. This prospectus supplement satisfies our obligation to file a registration statement to register the resale of the notes and the common shares that may be issuable upon conversion of the notes.
Trading	The notes are designated for trading on The PORTALSM Market. The notes sold using this prospectus supplement, however, will no longer be eligible for trading on The PORTALSM Market. We do not intend to list the notes on any securities exchange or arrange for the quotation of the notes on any automated quotation system.
NYSE Symbol for our Common Shares	Our common shares are listed on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol AKR.
Use of Proceeds	We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of any securities offered by this prospectus supplement.
U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations	The notes and our common shares that may be issuable upon conversion of the notes will be subject to special and complex U.S. federal income tax rules. Prospective investors are urged to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of purchasing, owning and disposing of the notes and our common shares for which the notes, in certain circumstances, are convertible. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations in this prospectus supplement.
Risk Factors	You should carefully read the Risk Factors beginning on the next page of this prospectus supplement, as well as the risk factors that are incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement, before investing in the notes or our common shares.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risks of investing in our securities.

Risks relating to our operations and our common shares are set forth in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and in our most recent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed after our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Risks relating to the notes are set forth below.

These risks are not the only ones that we face. Additional risks not presently known to us or our subsidiaries or that are currently deemed immaterial could also materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects and our subsidiaries, including the Operating Partnership. The trading price of the notes and the common shares for which the notes are convertible could decline due to any of these risks, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

Risks Related to the Notes

Acadia has no material assets other than its investment in the Operating Partnership.

Acadia has no material assets other than its investment in the Operating Partnership and substantially all its consolidated assets are held by the Operating Partnership. Accordingly, Acadia's ability to service its debt, including the notes, depends on the results of operations of the Operating Partnership and its other subsidiaries and upon the ability of such subsidiaries to provide Acadia with cash, whether in the form of management fees, dividends, loans or otherwise, and to pay amounts due on its obligations, including the notes. Acadia's subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities and have no obligation, contingent or otherwise, to make payments on the notes or to make any funds available for that purpose. In addition, dividends, loans or other distributions to us from such subsidiaries may be subject to contractual and other restrictions and are subject to other business considerations.

Effective subordination of the notes may reduce amounts available for payment of the notes.

The notes are not guaranteed by the Operating Partnership or any of Acadia's other subsidiaries. As a result, the notes are structurally subordinated to the debts and other obligations of the Operating Partnership and all of Acadia's other subsidiaries. This means that creditors of the Operating Partnership and Acadia's other subsidiaries, including trade creditors, have and will have access to the assets of those subsidiaries prior to the holders of the notes. As of December 31, 2006, the Operating Partnership and Acadia's other subsidiaries had total liabilities, including trade payables of approximately $496.8 million, including an aggregate of approximately $447.4 million of outstanding indebtedness.

The notes are unsecured. The holders of our secured debt may foreclose on the assets securing such debt, reducing the cash flow from the foreclosed property available for distribution to us for the payment of our unsecured debt, including the notes. The holders of our secured debt also would have priority, to the extent of the secured asset, over unsecured creditors in the event of our bankruptcy, liquidation or similar proceeding. As a result, the notes are effectively subordinated to our secured debt. As of December 31, 2006, we and our consolidated subsidiaries had secured indebtedness of approximately $347.4 million.

In addition, the notes are subordinated to the Series A and Series B Preferred OP Units of the Operating Partnership. The Operating Partnership has a total of 188 Series A Preferred OP Units outstanding as of December 31, 2006. These OP Units were issued at a price of $1,000 per unit and are convertible into Common OP Units at a conversion price of $7.50 per unit and are entitled to a preferred quarterly distribution of the greater of (a) $22.50 per Series A Preferred OP Unit (9% annually) or (b) the quarterly distribution attributable to a Series A Preferred OP Unit if such unit were converted into a Common OP Unit. Accordingly, annual distributions to holders of these units will total at least $19,000.

The Operating Partnership has a total of 4,000 Series B Preferred OP Units outstanding as of December 31, 2006. These OP units have a stated value of $1,000 per unit and are entitled to a quarterly preferred distribution of the greater of (i) $13.00 (5.2% annually) per unit or (ii) the quarterly distribution attributable to a Preferred OP Unit if such unit were converted into a Common OP Unit. The Series B Preferred OP Units are convertible into Common OP Units based on the stated value of $1,000 divided by $12.82 at any time. Accordingly, annual distributions to holders of these units will total at least $249,000.

Acadia may not have the cash necessary to pay the principal return and any net amount upon a conversion of notes or to repurchase the notes on specified dates or following certain change of control transactions.

Upon a conversion of notes in accordance with their terms, Acadia will be required to pay the principal return of those notes in cash. Holders of notes also have the right to require Acadia to repurchase the notes for cash on December 20, 2011, December 15, 2016 and December 15, 2021 or upon the occurrence of certain change of control transactions occurring prior to December 20, 2011. Acadia may not have sufficient funds to pay the principal return and any net cash amount or make the required repurchase of notes, as the case may be, in cash at the applicable time and, in such circumstances, may not be able to arrange the necessary financing on favorable terms. In addition, Acadia's ability to pay the principal return and any such net cash amount or make the required repurchase, as the case may be, may be limited by law or the terms of other debt agreements or securities. However, Acadia's failure to pay the principal return and any such net cash amount or make the required repurchase, as the case may be, would constitute an event of default under the indenture governing the notes, which, in turn, could constitute an event of default under other debt agreements or securities, thereby resulting in their acceleration and required prepayment and further restrict Acadia's ability to make such payments and repurchases.

There is currently no trading market for the notes, and an active liquid trading market for the notes may not develop.

There is currently no existing trading market for the notes. We do not intend to apply for listing of the notes on any securities exchange or for quotation of the notes on any automated dealer quotation system. Accordingly, an active public trading market may not develop for the notes and, even if one develops, may not be maintained. If an active public trading market for the notes does not develop or is not maintained, the market price and liquidity of the notes is likely to be adversely affected and holders may not be able to sell their notes at desired times and prices or at all. If any notes are traded after their purchase, they may trade at a discount from their purchase price.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

The liquidity of the trading market, if any, and future trading prices of the notes will depend on many factors, including, among other things, the market price of our common shares, prevailing interest rates, the business, financial condition, results of operations, prospects and credit quality of us and our subsidiaries, including the Operating Partnership, and other comparable entities, the market for similar securities and the overall securities market, and may be adversely affected by unfavorable changes in any of these factors, some of which are beyond our control and others of which would not affect debt that is not convertible into capital stock. Historically, the market for convertible debt has been volatile. Market volatility could materially and adversely affect the notes, regardless of the business, financial condition, results of operations, prospects or credit quality of us and our subsidiaries, including the Operating Partnership.

The notes have a number of features that may adversely affect the value and trading prices of the notes, including conversion conditions and the lack of financial covenants. In addition, even if the conversion conditions are met, because the conversion value of the notes is dependent upon the closing sale price of our common shares, volatile or depressed market prices for our common shares are likely to have a similar effect on the trading prices of the notes. We cannot assure you that the closing sale price of our common shares in the future will not have an adverse effect on the trading prices of the notes.

Holders of notes will not be entitled to any rights with respect to our common shares, but will be subject to all changes made with respect to our common shares.

Holders of notes will not be entitled to any rights with respect to our common shares (including, without limitation, voting rights and rights to receive any dividends or other distributions on our common shares). However, holders of notes will be subject to all changes affecting our common shares. Holders of notes will be entitled to the rights afforded our common shares only if and when our common shares are delivered to them upon a conversion of notes. For example, in the event that an amendment is proposed to our declaration of trust or bylaws requiring shareholder approval and the record date for determining the shareholders of record entitled to vote on the amendment occurs prior to a holder's receipt of our common shares upon a conversion of notes, that holder will not be entitled to vote on the amendment, even though that holder will be subject to any changes affecting our common shares.

The price of our common shares may fluctuate significantly.

The market price of our common shares may fluctuate significantly in response to many factors, including:

- actual or anticipated changes in operating results or business prospects;
- changes in financial estimates by securities analysts;
- an inability to meet or exceed securities analysts' estimates or expectations;
- conditions or trends in our industry or sector;
- the performance of other REITs in our sector and related market valuations;
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic partnerships, divestitures, joint ventures or other strategic initiatives;
- hedging or arbitrage trading activity in our common shares;
- changes in interest rates;
- capital commitments;
- additions or departures of key personnel;
- future sales of our common shares or securities convertible into, or exchangeable or exercisable for, our common shares; and
- the factors described elsewhere in Risk Factors and Forward-Looking Statements.

Holders who receive our common shares upon conversion of their notes will be subject to the risk of volatile and depressed market prices of our common shares. In addition, many of the factors listed above are beyond our control. These factors may cause the market price of our common shares to decline, regardless of our financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects or those of our subsidiaries. We cannot assure you that the market prices of our common shares will not fall in the future.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

The conditional conversion feature of the notes may prevent a conversion of notes prior to December 15, 2025, and we also have the right to deliver all cash upon a conversion of notes, so that holders may not receive any of our common shares upon conversion.

The notes are convertible prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the stated maturity date at any time on or after December 15, 2025 and also if the closing sale price of our common shares reaches a specified threshold over a specified time period, if the trading price of the notes is below a specified threshold for a specified time period, the notes are called for redemption or if certain specified transactions or events occur and then only at prescribed times. See Description of Notes Conversion Rights in this prospectus supplement. If these conditions are not met, holders of notes will not be able to convert their notes prior to December 15, 2025 and, therefore, may not be able to receive the value of the consideration for which the notes would otherwise be convertible.

In addition, even if such conditions are met, upon a conversion of notes, we are required to pay the principal return in cash and, to the extent any net amount exists, we may elect to pay the entire net amount in cash. As a result, we are not required to deliver any of our common shares upon a conversion of notes. Therefore, holders may not be able to obtain any benefits of future ownership of our common shares upon any conversion and would be required to incur the related transaction costs to purchase our common shares with the cash consideration received upon such conversion, including our common shares that holders may require in order to cover short positions.

The premium payable on notes converted in connection with certain change of control transactions prior to December 20, 2011 may not adequately compensate holders for the lost option time value of their notes as a result of any such change of control.

If certain transactions that constitute a change of control occur prior to December 20, 2011, under certain circumstances, Acadia will increase the conversion rate by a number of additional common shares. This increased conversion rate will apply only to holders who convert their notes in connection with any such transaction. The number of the additional common shares will be determined based on the date on which the transaction becomes effective and the price paid per common share in such transaction, as described under Description of Notes Conversion Rights Make Whole Upon Certain Change of Control Transactions in this prospectus supplement. While the number of additional common shares is designed to compensate holders for the lost option time value of the notes as a result of such transaction, the amount of the premium payable is only an approximation of such lost value and may not adequately compensate holders for such loss. In addition, notwithstanding the foregoing, if (1) such transaction occurs on or after December 20, 2011, or (2) the price paid per common share in the transaction is less than $25.72 or equal to or in excess of $75.00, the conversion rate will not be increased. In no event will the number of common shares issuable upon a conversion of notes exceed 38.8802 subject to adjustment under certain circumstances, regardless of when the transaction becomes effective or the price paid per common share in the transaction.

The conversion rate of the notes may not be adjusted for all dilutive events and the adjustments are subject to limitations in the case of certain dilutive events.

Adjustments to the conversion rate of the notes as a result of cash dividends and self-tender or exchange offers may not exceed 38.8802 of our common shares, subject to adjustment in certain cases. As a result, holders of the notes will not realize the benefits of an increase to the conversion rate otherwise described in this prospectus supplement if such increase, together with previous increases, would result in the issuance of a number of our common shares upon conversion in excess of such specified maximum amount.

The conversion rate of the notes is subject to adjustment for certain events, including, without limitation, certain dividends on our common shares, the issuance of certain rights, options or warrants to holders of our common shares, subdivisions or combinations of our common shares, certain distributions of assets, debt securities, capital stock or cash to holders of our common shares and certain tender or exchange offers as described under Description of Notes Conversion Rate Adjustments in this prospectus supplement. The conversion rate will not be adjusted for other events, such as an issuance of our common shares for cash, that may adversely affect the trading price of the notes and our common shares. We cannot assure you that an event will not occur that is adverse to the interests of the holders of the notes and their value but does not result in an adjustment to the conversion rate.

The circumstances under which we are required to offer to repurchase notes are limited, so that the market price of the notes may decline if Acadia or the Operating Partnership enters into a transaction that is not a change of control under the indenture.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

The term “change of control” (as used in the notes and the indenture) is limited in terms of its scope and may not include every event that might cause the market price of the notes to decline. As a result, our obligation to repurchase the notes upon a change of control may not preserve the value of the notes in the event of a highly leveraged transaction, reorganization, merger or similar transaction.

Upon conversion of the notes, holders may receive less consideration than expected because the value of our common shares may decline between the day that the conversion right is exercised and the day the value of our common shares is determined.

The conversion value that holders will receive upon conversion of notes will be determined on the basis of the closing sale price of our common shares on the New York Stock Exchange for each of the 20 consecutive trading days beginning on the third trading day following the date the notes are tendered for conversion. Accordingly, if the price of our common shares decreases after the conversion right is exercised, the conversion value will be adversely affected.

The net share settlement feature of the notes may have adverse consequences.

The net share settlement feature of the notes, which is described under “Description of Notes—Conversion Settlement” in this prospectus supplement, may:

- result in holders receiving no shares upon conversion or fewer shares relative to the conversion value of the notes;
- reduce our liquidity because we will be required to pay the principal return in cash and the net amount, if any, may be paid, at our option, in cash as well;
- delay holders’ receipt of the proceeds upon conversion; and
- subject holders to market risk before receiving any shares upon conversion.

Ownership limitations in our declaration of trust may impair the ability of holders to convert notes for our common shares.

In order to assist us in maintaining our qualification as a REIT for U.S. federal income tax purposes, no person may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution rules of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 9.8% in value of our outstanding common shares, subject to certain exceptions. Notwithstanding any other provision of the notes, no holder of notes will be entitled to convert such notes for our common shares to the extent that receipt of our common shares would cause such holder (together with such holder’s affiliates) to exceed the ownership limit contained in our declaration of trust. See “Description of Shares of Beneficial Interest—Shares—REIT Ownership Limitations” in the accompanying prospectus.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks Related to the Notes

Certain of the possible adjustments to the conversion rate (or the failure to make certain adjustments to the conversion rate) may result in a deemed distribution from Acadia or in a deemed payment of interest by us to a holder of a note.

The conversion rate of the notes is subject to adjustment under certain circumstances. If certain of the possible adjustments to the conversion rate of the notes are made, a holder may be deemed to have received a distribution from Acadia. See “Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations” in this prospectus supplement.

We may withhold on payments to non-U.S. holders of notes in a repurchase, redemption or conversion of notes for cash and any common shares.

We may be required to withhold U.S. federal income tax from any amount paid to non-U.S. holders of notes upon a repurchase, redemption or conversion of notes for cash or any of our common shares. We also intend to withhold U.S. federal income tax from any amount paid to non-U.S. holders with respect to deemed distributions from us that may result in connection with certain adjustments made to the conversion rate of the notes. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations in this prospectus supplement.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the securities offered by this prospectus supplement.

RATIOS OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table sets forth our ratios of earnings to fixed charges for the periods indicated:

	Years ended
	December 31,
	2006	2005	2004	2003	2002
Ratio of earnings to fixed charges	1.39x	2.70x	1.69x	1.63x	2.04x

For the purpose of calculating the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings have been calculated by adding minority interest attributable to continuing operations, income or loss from equity investees, fixed charges and distributed income of equity investees to income from continuing operations before income taxes, less capitalized interest and preferred distributions of consolidated subsidiaries. Fixed charges consist of interest costs, whether expensed or capitalized, amortization of deferred financing costs, amortization of discounts or premiums related to indebtedness and preferred distributions of consolidated subsidiaries.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

The following description, which summarizes certain terms and provisions of the notes, the indenture (including the supplemental indenture relating to the notes) and the registration rights agreement that we entered into in connection with the issuance of the notes does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the actual terms and provisions of the notes, the indenture and the registration rights agreement, each of which is incorporated herein by reference.

We issued the notes under an indenture, dated as of December 11, 2007, between us, as issuer, and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee, as supplemented by the first supplemental indenture thereto. The following description, which summarizes certain terms and provisions of the notes, the indenture (including the supplemental indenture relating to the notes) and the registration rights agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the actual terms and provisions of the notes, the indenture and the registration rights agreement, which are incorporated herein by reference. We will provide copies of these documents to you upon request.

Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this section of the prospectus supplement will have the meanings given to them in the notes, the indenture or the registration rights agreement, as applicable. As used in this section, the terms Acadia, we, us, our refer to Acadia Realty Trust, and not to any of its consolidated subsidiaries, and the term Operating Partnership refers to Acadia Realty Limited Partnership and not to any of its subsidiaries. Unless the context otherwise requires, the term interest includes additional interest, if any, due under the registration rights agreement.

General

The notes are our unsecured obligations and rank equally with all of our other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. The notes are effectively subordinated to our secured indebtedness and to all indebtedness and other liabilities of our subsidiaries (as well as to the Series A and Series B Preferred OP Units of the Operating Partnership). See Risk Factors Effective subordination of the notes may reduce amounts available for payment of the notes in this prospectus supplement.

We have no material assets other than our interest in the Operating Partnership. See Risk Factors Acadia has no material assets other than its investment in the Operating Partnership and Effective subordination of the notes may reduce amounts available for payment of the notes in this prospectus supplement.

The notes are initially limited to the aggregate principal amount of $115,000,000. We may, without the consent of holders of the notes, increase the principal amount of the notes by issuing additional debt securities in the future on the same terms and conditions, except for any difference in the issue price and interest accrued prior to the issue date of the additional debt securities, and with the same CUSIP number as the notes offered hereby, provided that such additional debt securities constitute part of the same issue as the notes offered hereby for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The notes are issued only in fully registered, book-entry form, in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof, except under the limited circumstances described under Book-Entry System below.

Holders may convert notes at the office of the conversion agent, present notes for registration of transfer at the office of the registrar for the notes and present notes for payment at maturity at the office of the paying agent. We have appointed the trustee as the initial conversion agent, registrar and paying agent for the notes.

If any interest payment date, stated maturity date, redemption date or repurchase date is not a business day, the payment otherwise required to be made on such date will be made on the next business day without any additional payment as a result of such delay. The term business day means, with respect to any note, any day, other than a Saturday, Sunday or any other day on which banking institutions in The City of New York are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close. All payments will be made in U.S. dollars.

The terms of the notes provide that we are permitted to reduce interest payments and payments upon a redemption, repurchase or conversion of notes otherwise payable to a holder for any amounts we are required to withhold by law. For example, non-U.S. holders of notes may, under some circumstances, be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax with respect to payments of interest on the notes. Moreover, holders of convertible debt instruments such as the notes may, in certain circumstances, be deemed to have received distributions of stock if the conversion price of such instruments is adjusted even though such holders have not received any cash or property as a result of such adjustments, which deemed distribution (in the case of a non-U.S. holder) will be subject to a U.S. federal withholding tax.

We are not subject to any financial covenants under the indenture, other than the covenant by Acadia not to permit the Operating Partnership, directly or indirectly, to incur or guarantee any indebtedness other than non-recourse indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions, unless prior to or concurrent with such incurrence or guarantee, the Operating Partnership guarantees the notes on an equal and ratable basis. Except as described in the prior sentence, the indenture does not restrict our ability to pay distributions, incur debt or issue or repurchase our securities.

The indenture does not contain any provisions that would necessarily protect holders of notes if we were involved in a highly leveraged transaction, reorganization, merger or other similar transaction that may adversely affect us, except for the right of holders to require us to repurchase their notes upon the occurrence of a change of control prior to December 20, 2011 as described below under Repurchase at Option of Holders upon a Change of Control. Furthermore, the notes contain certain features that could deter or discourage third party acquisition proposals that could be beneficial to holders.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

We or one of our affiliates may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, at any time purchase notes in the open market, by tender at any price or by private agreement. Any note purchased by us or our affiliates (a) after the date that is two years from the latest issuance of the notes may, to the extent permitted by and consistent with applicable laws, be reissued or sold or may be surrendered to the trustee for cancellation or (b) on or prior to the date referred to in clause (a), will be surrendered to the trustee for cancellation. Any notes surrendered for cancellation may not be reissued or resold and will be cancelled promptly.

Interest

Interest on the notes accrues at the rate of 3.75% per year from and including December 11, 2006 or the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid or provided for, and will be payable semi-annually in arrears on June 15 and December 15 of each year, beginning on June 15, 2007. The interest so payable will be paid to each holder in whose name a note is registered at the close of business on the June 1 or December 1 (whether or not a business day) immediately preceding the applicable interest payment date. Interest on the notes will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. In addition, we may be required to pay additional interest on the notes as provided under Registration Rights; Additional Interest below.

Upon a conversion of notes, accrued interest thereon will be deemed to be paid by delivery of the consideration due to the exchanging holder upon such conversion, except that holders of notes on a record date will be entitled to receive interest payable on the related interest payment date even if such notes are converted after such record date and on or prior to such interest payment date. However, unless we have called the notes for redemption on a redemption date that falls after a record date for an interest payment date and on or prior to the second business day following the related interest payment date, holders who surrender their notes for conversion after such record date and on or prior to such interest payment date must pay to the conversion agent upon conversion an amount in cash equal to the interest payable by us on such interest payment date. The foregoing sentence will not, however, apply to notes with overdue interest or additional interest at the time of the conversion, with respect to such overdue interest or additional interest, as applicable. No other payment or adjustment will be made for accrued interest on a converted note. If we redeem the notes, or if a holder surrenders a note for repurchase by us in accordance with the terms of such note, we will pay accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to the holder that surrenders such note for redemption or repurchase, as the case may be. However, if an interest payment date falls on or prior to the redemption date or repurchase date for a note and after the related record date, we will pay the accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) due on that interest payment date instead to the record holder of such note at the close of business on the related record date.

Maturity

The notes will mature on December 15, 2026 and will be paid against presentation and surrender thereof at the corporate trust office of the trustee unless earlier (1) redeemed by us at our option or repurchased by us at a holder's option at certain times as described under Redemption of Notes at Our Option, Repurchase at Option of Holders on Certain Dates or Repurchase at Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control below, or (2) converted at a holder's option as permitted under Conversion Rights below. The notes will not be entitled to the benefits of, or be subject to, any sinking fund.

Redemption of Notes at Our Option

We will not have the right to redeem any notes prior to December 20, 2011, except to preserve our status as a REIT for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If, at any time, we determine it is necessary to redeem the notes in order to preserve our status as a REIT, we may redeem the notes, in whole or in part, for cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes plus accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to, but not including, the redemption date. In addition, on or after December 20, 2011, we will have the right to redeem the notes in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, for cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to, but not including, the redemption date. Written notice of redemption must be delivered to holders of the notes not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the redemption date.

If the paying agent holds money sufficient to pay the redemption price due on a note on the redemption date in accordance with the terms of the indenture, then, on and after the redemption date, that note will cease to be outstanding and interest on that note will cease to accrue, whether or not the holder effects a book-entry transfer of that note or delivers that note to the paying agent. Thereafter, all other rights of the holder of that note terminate, other than the right to receive the redemption price and additional interest, if any, due on the redemption date.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

If we decide to redeem the notes in part, the trustee will select the notes to be redeemed (in principal amounts of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof) on a pro rata basis or such other method it deems fair and appropriate. If the trustee selects a portion of a note for partial redemption and a holder converts a portion of the same note, the converted portion will be deemed to be from the portion selected for redemption.

In the event of any redemption of notes in part, we will not be required to:

issue or register the transfer or conversion of any note during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before any selection of notes for redemption and ending at the close of business on the earliest date on which the relevant notice of redemption is deemed to have been given to all holders of notes to be so redeemed; or register the transfer or conversion of any note so selected for redemption, in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any note being redeemed in part.

If we call notes for redemption, a holder may convert notes called for redemption only until the close of business on the second business day immediately preceding the redemption date, unless we fail to pay the redemption price. See Conversion Rights Conversion upon Notice of Redemption below.

Repurchase at Option of Holders on Certain Dates

Holders of notes may require us to repurchase their notes in whole or in part (in principal amounts of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof) on December 20, 2011, December 15, 2016 and December 15, 2021 for cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be repurchased plus accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to, but not including, the repurchase date. To exercise its repurchase right, a holder must deliver a written repurchase notice to the paying agent, which initially is the trustee, during the period beginning at any time from the opening of business on the date that is 20 business days prior to the repurchase date until the close of business on the second business day prior to the repurchase date.

On or before the 20th business day prior to each repurchase date, we will provide to the trustee, any paying agent and to all holders of the notes, and to beneficial owners as required by applicable law, a notice stating, among other things:

the repurchase date;

the repurchase price;

the name and address of the trustee and any paying agent and the conversion agent;

that notes with respect to which the holder has delivered a repurchase notice may be converted, if otherwise convertible, only if the holder withdraws the repurchase notice in accordance with the terms of the indenture; and the procedures that holders must follow to require us to repurchase their notes.

We will also disseminate a press release through Dow Jones & Company, Inc. or Bloomberg Business News containing the information specified in such notice or publish that information in a newspaper of general circulation in The City of New York, or through such other public medium as we deem appropriate at that time. In addition, we will post any such press release on our website or disseminate it through any other appropriate public medium.

To exercise its repurchase right, a holder of the notes must deliver to the paying agent prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the repurchase date written notice of such holder's exercise of its repurchase right. The notice must state:

if such notes are in certificated form, the certificate number(s) of the notes to be repurchased;

the principal amount of notes to be repurchased, in integral multiples of $1,000, provided that the remaining principal amount of notes is in an authorized denomination; and that the notes are to be repurchased by us pursuant to the applicable provisions of the indenture and the notes.

Holders may withdraw any repurchase notice in whole or in part by a written notice of withdrawal delivered to the paying agent prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the repurchase date. If a holder of notes delivers a repurchase notice, it may not thereafter surrender such notes for conversion unless such repurchase notice is withdrawn as permitted below. The notice of withdrawal must specify:

the name of the holder;

the principal amount of notes in respect of which the repurchase notice is being withdrawn, which must be an integral multiple of $1,000;

the principal amount of notes, if any, that remains subject to the repurchase notice, which must be an integral multiple of $1,000; and if the notes subject to the withdrawal notice are in certificated form, the certificate number(s) of all notes subject to the withdrawal notice.

If the notes are in book-entry form, the above notices must also comply with the appropriate procedures of The Depository Trust Company, or DTC.

Holders electing to require us to repurchase notes must either effect book-entry transfer of notes in book-entry form in compliance with appropriate DTC procedures or deliver the notes in certificated form, together with necessary endorsements, to the paying agent on or prior to the repurchase date to receive payment of the repurchase price on the repurchase date. We will pay the repurchase price within two business days after the later of the repurchase date or the time of such transfer or delivery of the notes.

If the paying agent holds funds sufficient to pay the repurchase price of the notes on the repurchase date, then on and after such date:

such notes will cease to be outstanding;

interest on such notes will cease to accrue; and all rights of holders of such notes will terminate, except the right to receive the repurchase price.

This will be the case whether or not book-entry transfer of the notes in book-entry form is made and whether or not notes in certificated form, together with the necessary endorsements, are delivered to the paying agent.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no notes may be repurchased by us at the option of the holders thereof if there has occurred and is continuing an event of default with respect to the notes (other than a default in the payment of the repurchase price for those notes). In addition, we may also be unable to repurchase the notes in accordance with their terms. See Risk Factors Acadia may not have the cash necessary to pay the principal return and any net amount upon a conversion of notes or to repurchase the notes on specified dates or following certain change of control transactions in this prospectus supplement.

To the extent legally required in connection with a repurchase of notes, we will comply with the provisions of Rule 13e-4 and other tender offer rules under the Exchange Act then applicable, if any, and will file a Schedule TO or any other schedule required under the Exchange Act.

We may arrange for a third party to purchase any notes for which we receive a valid repurchase notice that is not withdrawn, in the manner and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in the terms of the notes applicable to the offer to repurchase the notes. If a third party purchases any notes under these circumstances, then interest will continue to accrue on those notes and those notes will continue to be outstanding after the repurchase date and will be fungible with all other notes then outstanding. The third party subsequently may resell those purchased notes to other investors.

Repurchase at Option of Holders upon a Change of Control

If a change of control (as defined below) occurs at any time prior to December 20, 2011, holders of notes may require us to repurchase their notes in whole or in part for cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be repurchased plus accrued and unpaid interest (including additional interest, if any) to, but not including, the repurchase date. If a change of control occurs on or after December 20, 2011, holders of notes will not have any right to require us to repurchase their notes, except as described under Repurchase at Option of Holders on Certain Dates above.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

Within 20 days of a change of control, we will provide to the trustee, any paying agent and to all holders of the notes, and to beneficial owners as required by applicable law, a notice stating, among other things:

- events causing a change of control and the date of such change of control;
- the date on which we shall repurchase the notes upon a change of control;
- the repurchase price;
- the name and address of the trustee, any paying agent and the conversion agent;
- that notes with respect to which the holder has delivered a repurchase notice may be converted, if otherwise convertible, only if the holder withdraws the repurchase notice in accordance with the terms of the indenture; and
- the procedures that holders must follow to require us to repurchase their notes.

Within 20 days after the occurrence of a change of control, we are obligated to give to the holders of the notes written notice of the change of control and of the repurchase right arising as a result of the change of control and the repurchase date (which repurchase date may be no earlier than 15 days and no later than 30 days after the date of such notice). We must also deliver a copy of this notice to the trustee and any paying agent. We will also disseminate a press release through Dow Jones & Company, Inc. or Bloomberg Business News announcing the occurrence of the change of control or publish that information in a newspaper of general circulation in The City of New York or through such other public medium as we deem appropriate at that time. In addition, we will post any such press release on our website or disseminate it through any other appropriate public medium.

To exercise its repurchase right, a holder of notes must deliver to the paying agent prior to the close of business on the third business day prior to the repurchase date written notice of such holder's exercise of its repurchase right. This notice must state:

- if such notes are in certificated form, the certificate number(s) of the notes to be repurchased;
- the portion of the principal amount of notes to be repurchased, in multiples of $1,000, provided that the remaining principal amount of notes is in an authorized denomination; and
- that the notes are to be repurchased by us pursuant to the applicable provisions of the notes.

Holders may withdraw any repurchase notice in whole or in part by a written notice of withdrawal delivered to the paying agent prior to the close of business on the third business day prior to the repurchase date. If a holder of notes delivers a repurchase notice, it may not thereafter surrender such notes for conversion unless such repurchase notice is withdrawn as permitted below. The notice of withdrawal must specify:

- the name of the holder;
 - if the notes subject to the withdrawal notice are in certificated form, the certificate number(s) of all notes subject to the withdrawal notice;
 - the principal amount of notes in respect of which the repurchase notice is being withdrawn, which must be an integral multiple of $1,000; and
 - the principal amount of notes, if any, that remains subject to the repurchase notice, which must be an integral multiple of $1,000.

If the notes are in book-entry form, the above notices must comply with the appropriate procedures of DTC.

Holders electing to require us to repurchase notes must either effect book-entry transfer of notes in book-entry form in compliance with appropriate DTC procedures or deliver the notes in certificated form, together with necessary endorsements, to the paying agent on or prior to the repurchase date to receive payment of the repurchase price on the repurchase date. We will pay the repurchase price within two business days after the later of the repurchase date or the time of such transfer or delivery of the notes.

If the paying agent holds funds sufficient to pay the repurchase price of the notes on the repurchase date, then on and after such date:

- such notes will cease to be outstanding;
- interest on such notes will cease to accrue; and

all rights of holders of such notes will terminate, except the right to receive the repurchase price.

This will be the case whether or not book-entry transfer of the notes in book-entry form is made and whether or not notes in certificated form, together with the necessary endorsements, are delivered to the paying agent.

A change of control will be deemed to have occurred at the time that any of the following occurs:

consummation of any transaction or event (whether by means of a share exchange or tender offer applicable to our common shares, a liquidation, consolidation, recapitalization, reclassification, combination or merger of us or a sale, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of our consolidated assets) or a series of related transactions or events pursuant to which all of our outstanding common shares are exchanged for or converted into the right to receive cash, securities or other property; any person or group, other than us, the Operating Partnership or any of our majority-owned subsidiaries or any employee benefit plans of ours or those of the Operating Partnership or such subsidiaries, is or becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the total voting power in the aggregate of all of our classes of shares of beneficial interest then outstanding entitled to vote generally in elections of trustees;

during any period of 12 consecutive months after the date of original issuance of the notes, persons who at the beginning of such 12-month period constituted our board of trustees, together with any new persons whose election, appointment, designation or nomination was approved by a vote of a majority of the persons then still comprising the board of trustees who were either members of the board of trustees at the beginning of such period or whose election, appointment, designation or nomination for election was previously so approved, cease for any reason to constitute a majority of our board of trustees; or we cease to be the general partner of the Operating Partnership.

However, even if any of the events specified above have occurred, except as indicated below, a change of control will not be deemed to have occurred if either:

the closing sale price of our common shares for any five trading days within (1) the period of 10 consecutive trading days ending immediately after the later of the change of control or the public announcement of the change of control, in the case of a change of control relating to an acquisition of shares of beneficial interest, or (2) the period of 10 consecutive trading days ending immediately after the change of control, in the case of a change of control relating to a merger, consolidation or asset sale, lease or other transfer equals or exceeds 105% of the conversion price applicable to the notes on each of those trading days; provided, however, that the exception to the definition of change of control specified in this bullet point shall not apply in the context of a change of control as described under Conversion Rights Conversion Upon Specified Transactions or Conversion Rights Make Whole Upon Certain Change of Control Transactions below; or at least 90% of the consideration paid for our common shares (excluding cash payments for fractional shares and cash payments made pursuant to dissenters appraisal rights) in a merger, consolidation or other transaction otherwise constituting a change of control consists of shares of common stock (or depositary receipts or other certificates representing or evidencing common equity interests) traded on a national securities exchange or quoted on an established automated over-the-counter trading market in the United States (or will be so traded or quoted immediately following such merger, consolidation or other transaction) and as a result of the merger, consolidation or other transaction the notes become convertible into such shares of common stock (or depositary receipts or other certificates representing or evidencing common equity interests).

For purposes of these provisions, person includes any syndicate or group that would be deemed to be a person under Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act.

The definition of change of control includes a phrase relating to the sale, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of our consolidated assets. There is no precise, established definition of the phrase substantially all under applicable law. Accordingly, the ability of a holder of notes to require us to repurchase its notes as a result of the sale, lease or other transfer of less than all of our consolidated assets may be uncertain.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no notes may be repurchased by us at the option of the holders thereof if there has occurred and is continuing an event of default with respect to the notes (other than a default in the payment of the repurchase price for those notes). In addition, we may also be unable to repurchase the notes in accordance with their terms. See Risk Factors Acadia may not have the cash necessary to pay the principal return and any net amount upon a conversion of notes or to repurchase the notes on specified dates or following certain change of control transactions in this prospectus supplement.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

To the extent legally required in connection with a repurchase of notes, we will comply with the provisions of Rule 13e-4 and other tender offer rules under the Exchange Act then applicable, if any, and will file a Schedule TO or any other required schedule under the Exchange Act.

We may arrange for a third party to purchase any notes for which we receive a valid repurchase notice that is not withdrawn, in the manner and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in the terms of the notes applicable to the offer to repurchase the notes. If a third party purchases any notes under these circumstances, then interest will continue to accrue on those notes and those notes will continue to be outstanding after the repurchase date and, subject to compliance with applicable law, will be fungible with all other notes then outstanding. The third party subsequently may resell those purchased notes to other investors subject to compliance with applicable law.

No Shareholder Rights for Holders of Notes

Holders of notes, as such, will not have any rights as our shareholders (including, without limitation, voting rights and rights to receive any dividends or other distributions on our common shares).

S-19

Conversion Rights

Subject to the restrictions on ownership of our common shares and the conditions described below, holders may convert their notes into cash or, if the conversion value is greater than the principal return (as such term is defined in this prospectus supplement), cash with respect to the amount equal to the principal return, and with respect to any portion in excess of the principal return, cash, our common shares or a combination of cash and our common shares, at our option, initially at a conversion rate of 32.4002 common shares per $1,000 principal amount of notes (equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $30.86 per common share). The conversion rate and the equivalent conversion price in effect at any given time are referred to in this prospectus supplement as the conversion rate and the conversion price, respectively, and will be subject to adjustment as described herein.

Upon conversion of a note, a holder will not receive any cash payment of interest (unless such conversion occurs after a record date and on or prior to the interest payment date to which it relates) and we will not adjust the conversion rate to account for accrued and unpaid interest. Our delivery to the holder of cash and, if applicable, our common shares, if any, will be deemed to satisfy our obligation to pay interest with respect to notes tendered for conversion except as otherwise provided herein. Accordingly, upon a conversion of notes, except as otherwise provided herein, any accrued and unpaid interest will be deemed to be paid in full, rather than cancelled, extinguished or forfeited.

Holders of notes at the close of business on a record date for an interest payment will receive payment of interest payable on the corresponding interest payment date notwithstanding the conversion of such notes at any time after the close of business on the applicable regular record date. Notes tendered for conversion by a holder after the close of business on any record date for an interest payment and on or prior to the corresponding interest payment date must be accompanied by payment of an amount equal to the interest that the holder is to receive on the notes; provided, however, that no such payment will be required to be made (1) if we have specified a redemption date that is after such record date and on or prior to the second business day following such interest payment date, or (2) with respect to overdue interest (including additional interest), if any overdue interest exists at the time of conversion with respect to such notes.

If a holder converts notes and we elect to deliver our common shares, we will pay any documentary, stamp or similar issue or transfer tax due on the issue of our common shares upon the conversion, if any, unless the tax is due because the holder requests the shares to be issued or delivered to a person other than the holder, in which case the holder will pay that tax prior to receipt of such common shares.

If a holder wishes to exercise its conversion right, such holder must deliver an irrevocable duly completed and manually signed conversion notice, together, if the notes are in certificated form, with the certificated security, to the conversion agent along with appropriate endorsements and transfer documents, if required or, if the notes are in book-entry form, comply with appropriate procedures of DTC, and pay any transfer or similar tax, if required. The conversion agent will, on the holder's behalf, convert the notes into cash and our common shares, if any. Holders may obtain copies of the required form of the conversion notice from the conversion agent.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

If a holder has already delivered a repurchase notice as described under either Repurchase at Option of Holders on Certain Dates or Repurchase at Option of Holders upon a Change of Control above, with respect to a note, that holder may not tender that note for conversion until the holder has properly withdrawn the repurchase notice.

A holder may convert fewer than all of its notes so long as the notes converted are an integral multiple of $1,000 principal amount and the remaining principal amount of notes is in an authorized denomination.

Upon surrender of a note for conversion, the holder shall deliver to us cash equal to the amount that we are required to deduct and withhold under applicable law in connection with such conversion; provided, however, that if the holder does not deliver such cash, we may deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise deliverable to such holder the amount required to be deducted and withheld under applicable law.

Holders may surrender their notes for conversion for cash or, if the conversion value is greater than the principal return, cash with respect to the amount equal to the principal return, and with respect to any portion in excess of the principal return, a combination of cash and our common shares, at our option, at the applicable conversion rate prior to the close of business on the second business day immediately preceding the stated maturity date at any time on or after December 15, 2025 and also under any of the following circumstances, each as further discussed below:

during any calendar quarter beginning after December 31, 2006 (and only during such calendar quarter) if, and only if, the closing sale price of our common shares for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) in the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of the preceding calendar quarter as determined by us is more than 130% of the conversion price per common share in effect on the applicable trading day;

during the five consecutive trading-day period following any five consecutive trading-day period in which the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of the notes (as determined following a reasonable request by a holder of the notes) was less than 98% of the product of the closing sale price of our common shares multiplied by the applicable conversion rate;

if those notes have been called for redemption, at any time prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the redemption date;

during prescribed periods upon the occurrence of specified transactions discussed below; or if our common shares are not listed on a U.S. national or regional securities exchange for 30 consecutive trading days.

Closing sale price of our common shares or other capital stock or similar equity interests or other publicly traded securities on any date means the closing sale price per share (or, if no closing sale price is reported, the average of the closing bid and ask prices or, if more than one in either case, the average of the average closing bid and the average closing ask prices) on such date as reported on the principal United States securities exchange on which our common shares or such other capital stock or similar equity interests or other securities are traded or, if our common shares or such other capital stock or similar equity interests or other securities are not listed on a United States national or regional securities exchange, as reported by Pink Sheets LLC or another established over-the-counter trading market in the United States. The closing sale price will be determined without regard to after-hours trading or extended market making. In the absence of the foregoing, we will determine the closing sale price on such basis as we consider appropriate.

Trading day means a day during which trading in securities generally occurs on the NYSE or, if our common shares are not then listed on the NYSE, on the principal other national or regional securities exchange on which our common shares are then traded.

Make Whole Upon Certain Change of Control Transactions

If a change of control occurs prior to December 20, 2011 as a result of a transaction described in the first or second bullets of the definition of change of control (as set forth above under Repurchase at Option of Holders upon a Change of Control) and a holder elects to convert its notes in connection with such change of control as described below under Conversion Rights Conversion upon Specified Transactions, we will increase the applicable conversion rate for the notes surrendered for conversion by a number of additional common shares (the additional change of control shares) as described below. A conversion of notes will be deemed for these purposes to be in connection with such a change of control if the notice of conversion of the notes is received by the conversion agent from and including the effective date of the change of control up to and including the 30th business day following the effective date of the change of control or, if applicable, the related repurchase date.

The number of additional change of control shares will be determined by reference to the table below and is based on the date on which such change of control transaction becomes effective (the effective date) and the price (the share price) paid per common share in such transaction. If the holders of our common shares receive only cash in the change of control transaction, the share price shall be the cash amount paid per common share. Otherwise, the share price shall be the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares on the 10 consecutive trading days up to but excluding the effective date of the change of control.

The share prices set forth in the first row of the table (i.e., the column headers) will be adjusted as of any date on which the conversion rate of the notes is adjusted. The adjusted share prices will equal the share prices applicable immediately prior to such adjustment multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the conversion rate immediately prior to the adjustment giving rise to the share price adjustment and the denominator of which is the conversion rate as so adjusted. In addition, the number of additional change of control shares will be subject to adjustment in the same manner as the conversion rate as set forth below under Conversion Rate Adjustments.

The following table sets forth the share price and number of additional change of control shares per $1,000 principal amount of notes:

Effective Date	Share Price
	$25.72	$30.86	$35.00	$40.00	$45.00	$50.00	$55.00	$60.00	$65.00	$70.00	$75.00

December 20, 2011

The actual share prices and effective dates may not be set forth in the table, in which case:

(1) if the share price is between two share price amounts in the table or the effective date is between two dates in the table, the additional change of control shares will be determined by straight-line interpolation between the number of additional change of control shares set forth for the higher and lower share price amounts and the two dates, as applicable, based on a 365-day year;

(2) if the share price is equal to or in excess of $75.00 per common share (subject to adjustment), no additional change of control shares will be issued upon conversion; and

(3) if the share price is less than $25.72 per common share (subject to adjustment), no additional change of control shares will be issued upon conversion.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the total number of our common shares, including any additional change of control shares, issuable upon conversion exceed 38.8802 per $1,000 principal amount of notes, subject to adjustment in the same manner as the conversion rate as set forth below under Conversion Rate Adjustments.

Our obligation to deliver the additional change of control shares could be considered a penalty, in which case the enforceability thereof would be subject to general principles of reasonableness of economic remedies.

Conversion upon Satisfaction of Market Price Condition

A holder may surrender any of its notes for conversion during any calendar quarter beginning after December 31, 2006 (and only during such calendar quarter) if, and only if, the closing sale price of our common shares for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) in the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of the preceding calendar quarter as determined by us is more than 130% of the conversion price per common share in effect on the applicable trading day. Our board of trustees will make appropriate adjustments, in its good faith determination, to account for any adjustment to the conversion rate that becomes effective, or any event requiring an adjustment to the conversion rate where the ex-dividend date of the event occurs, during that 30 consecutive trading-day period.

Conversion upon Satisfaction of Trading Price Condition

A holder may surrender any of its notes for conversion during the five consecutive trading-day period following any five consecutive trading-day period in which the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of notes (as determined following a reasonable request by a holder of the notes) was less than 98% of the product of the closing sale price of our common shares multiplied by the applicable conversion rate.

The trading price of the notes on any date of determination means the average of the secondary market bid quotations per $1,000 principal amount of notes obtained by the trustee for a $2,000,000 principal amount of notes at approximately 3:30 p.m., New York City time, on such determination date from two independent nationally recognized securities dealers that we select, which may include the initial purchasers; provided that if at least two such bids cannot reasonably be obtained by the trustee, but one such bid can reasonably be obtained by the trustee, then one bid shall be used. If the trustee cannot reasonably obtain at least one bid for a $2,000,000 principal amount of notes from a nationally recognized securities dealer or, in our reasonable judgment, the bid quotations are not indicative of the secondary market value of the notes, then the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of notes will be deemed to be less than 98% of the product of the closing sale price of our common shares and the conversion rate on such determination date.

The trustee shall have no obligation to determine the trading price of the notes unless we have requested such determination, and we shall have no obligation to make such request unless a holder provides us with reasonable evidence that the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of notes would be less than 98% of the product of the closing sale price of our common shares and the conversion rate, whereupon we shall instruct the trustee to determine the trading price of the notes beginning on the next trading day and on each successive trading day until the trading price is greater than or equal to 98% of the product of the closing sale price of our common shares and the conversion rate.

Conversion upon Notice of Redemption

A holder may surrender for conversion any of the notes called for redemption at any time prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to the redemption date, even if the notes are not otherwise convertible at such time. The right to convert notes will expire at that time, unless we default in making the payment due upon redemption. However, if a holder has already delivered a repurchase notice with respect to a note, such holder may not surrender that note for conversion until it has withdrawn such notice in accordance with the terms of the notes.

Conversion upon Specified Transactions

If we elect to:

distribute to all holders of our common shares certain rights entitling them to purchase, for a period expiring within 45 days, our common shares at less than the closing sale price of our common shares on the trading day immediately preceding the declaration date of such distribution; or distribute to all holders of our common shares assets, debt securities or rights to purchase our securities or those of the Operating Partnership, which distribution has a per share value exceeding 15% of the closing sale price of our common shares on the trading day immediately preceding the declaration date of such distribution, we must notify the holders of notes in writing at least 25 business days prior to the ex-dividend date for such distribution. Once we have given that notice, holders may surrender their notes for conversion at any time until the earlier of the close of business on the business day prior to the ex-dividend date or an announcement that such distribution will not take place; provided, however, that a holder may not exercise this right to convert if the holder may participate, on an as-converted basis, in the distribution without conversion of the notes. The ex-dividend date is the first date upon which a sale of our common shares does not automatically transfer the right to receive the relevant distribution from the seller of our common shares to its buyer.

In addition, if we are a party to a consolidation, merger, binding share exchange or a sale, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of our consolidated assets pursuant to which all of our outstanding common shares would be exchanged for cash, securities or other property that is not otherwise a change of control, a holder may surrender its notes for conversion at any time from and including the date that is 25 business days prior to the anticipated effective time of the transaction up to and including five business days after the actual date of such transaction. We will notify holders as promptly as practicable following the date we publicly announce such transaction (but in no event less than 25 business days prior to the anticipated effective time of such transaction).

If a change of control occurs as a result of a transaction described in the first or second bullets of the definition of change of control (as set forth above under Repurchase at Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control), a holder will have the right to convert its notes at any time from and including the effective date of such transaction up to and including the 30th business day following the effective date of the transaction, subject to expiration of a holder's conversion right with respect to any notes submitted for repurchase. We will notify holders as promptly as practicable following the date we publicly announce such change of control (but in no event later than five business days prior to the effective date of such change of control).

If we are a party to a consolidation, merger, binding share exchange or a sale, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of our consolidated assets pursuant to which all of our common shares are exchanged for cash, securities or other property, then from and after the effective time of the transaction, any conversion of notes, including the conversion value and the net shares deliverable in connection with such conversion, will be based on the kind and amount of cash, securities or other property that a holder of notes would have received if such holder had converted its notes for our common shares immediately prior to the effective time of the transaction. For purposes of the foregoing, where a consolidation, merger or binding share exchange or a sale, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of our consolidated assets involves a transaction that causes our common shares to be converted into the right to receive more than a single type of consideration based upon any form of shareholder election, such consideration will be deemed to be the weighted average of the types and amounts of consideration received by the holders of our common shares that affirmatively make such an election. If a change of control occurs prior to December 20, 2011 as a result of a transaction described in the first or second bullets of the definition thereof, we will adjust the conversion rate for notes tendered for conversion in connection with the transaction, as described above under Conversion Rights Make Whole Upon Certain Change of Control Transactions.

Conversion Upon Delisting of our Common Shares

A holder may surrender any of its notes for conversion at any time beginning on the first business day after our common shares have ceased to be listed on a U.S. national or regional securities exchange for a 30 consecutive trading-day period.

Conversion Settlement

Upon a conversion of notes, we will deliver, in respect of each $1,000 principal amount of notes tendered for conversion in accordance with their terms:

- cash in an amount (the principal return) equal to the lesser of (a) the principal amount of notes surrendered for conversion and (b) the conversion value; and
- if the conversion value is greater than the principal return, an amount (the net amount) in cash, our common shares or a combination of cash and our common shares with an aggregate value equal to the difference between the conversion value and the principal return as described in this prospectus supplement.

We may elect to deliver any portion of the net amount in cash (which we refer to as the net cash amount) or in our common shares, and any portion of the net amount we elect to deliver in our common shares (the net shares) will be the sum of the daily share amounts (calculated as described below) for each trading day during the applicable conversion period. Prior to the close of business on the second trading day following the date on which notes are tendered for conversion, we will inform holders of such notes of our election to pay cash for all or a portion of the net amount and, if applicable, the portion of the net amount that will be paid in cash and the portion that will be delivered in the form of net shares.

We will deliver cash in lieu of any of our fractional common shares issuable in connection with payment of the net shares based upon the average price.

The conversion value for each $1,000 principal amount of notes is equal to (a) the applicable conversion rate, multiplied by (b) the average price.

The applicable conversion period means the 20 consecutive trading-day period commencing on the third trading day following the date the notes are tendered for conversion.

The average price is equal to the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares for each trading day in the applicable conversion period. If the notes have become convertible into securities or property other than our common shares, the average price is equal to the average of the closing sale prices of such securities for each trading day in the applicable conversion period or, in the case of other property, the fair market value thereof as determined in good faith by the board of trustees.

The daily share amount for each $1,000 principal amount of notes and each trading day in the applicable conversion period is equal to the greater of:

zero; and a number of our common shares determined by the following formula:

$$\frac{(\text{CSP} \times \text{applicable conversion rate}) - ($1,000 + \text{net cash amount, if any})}{20 \times \text{CSP}}$$

where

CSP = the closing sale price of our common shares on such trading day; provided that if the notes have become convertible into securities or property other than our common shares, CSP is equal to the average of the closing sale prices of such securities for each trading day in the applicable conversion period or, in the case of other property, the fair market value thereof as determined in good faith by the board of trustees

The conversion value, principal return, net amount, net cash amount and the number of net shares, as applicable, will be determined by us promptly after the end of the applicable conversion period. We will pay the principal return and cash in lieu of fractional shares, and deliver net shares or pay the net cash amount, as applicable, no later than the third business day following the last trading day of the applicable conversion period.

Conversion Rate Adjustments

The conversion rate shall be adjusted from time to time as follows:

(1) If we issue our common shares as a dividend or distribution on our common shares to all holders of our common shares, or if we effect a share split or share combination, the conversion rate will be adjusted based on the following formula:

$$CR_1 = CR_0 \times (OS_1/OS_0)$$

where

CR₀ = the conversion rate in effect immediately prior to the adjustment relating to such event

CR₁ = the new conversion rate in effect taking such event into account

OS_0 = the number of our common shares outstanding immediately prior to such event

OS_1 = the number of our common shares outstanding immediately after such event.

Any adjustment made pursuant to this paragraph (1) shall become effective on the date that is immediately after (x) the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive such dividend or other distribution or (y) the date on which such split or combination becomes effective, as applicable. If any dividend or distribution described in this paragraph (1) is declared but not so paid or made, the new conversion rate shall be readjusted to the conversion rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared.

(2) If we issue to all holders of our common shares any rights, warrants, options or other securities entitling them for a period of not more than 45 days after the date of issuance thereof to subscribe for or purchase our common shares, or issues to all holders of our common shares securities convertible into our common shares for a period of not more than 45 days after the date of issuance thereof, in either case at an exercise price per common share or a conversion price per common share less than the closing sale price of our common shares on the business day immediately preceding the time of announcement of such issuance, the conversion rate will be adjusted based on the following formula:

where

CR_0 = the conversion rate in effect immediately prior to the adjustment relating to such event

CR_1 = the new conversion rate taking such event into account

OS_0 = the number of our common shares outstanding immediately prior to such event

X = the total number of our common shares issuable pursuant to such rights, warrants, options, other securities or convertible securities

Y = the number of our common shares equal to the quotient of (A) the aggregate price payable to exercise such rights, warrants, options, other securities or convertible securities and (B) the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares for the 10 consecutive trading days prior to the business day immediately preceding the date of announcement for the issuance such rights, warrants, options, other securities or convertible securities.

If the application of the foregoing formula would result in a decrease in the conversion rate, no adjustment to the conversion rate will be made.

For purposes of this paragraph (2), in determining whether any rights, warrants, options, other securities or convertible securities entitle the holders to subscribe for or purchase, or exercise a conversion right for, our common shares at less than the applicable closing sale price of our common shares, and in determining the aggregate exercise or conversion price payable for such common shares, there shall be taken into account any consideration received by us for such rights, warrants, options, other securities or convertible securities and any amount payable on exercise or conversion thereof, with the value of such consideration, if other than cash, to be determined by our board of trustees.

If any right, warrant, option, other security or convertible security described in this paragraph (2) is not exercised or converted prior to the expiration of the exercisability or convertibility thereof, the new conversion rate shall be readjusted to the conversion rate that would then be in effect if such right, warrant, option, other security or convertible security had not been so issued.

(3) If we distribute shares of our capital stock, evidences of indebtedness or our other assets or property to all holders of our common shares, excluding:

(A) dividends, distributions, rights, warrants, options, other securities or convertible securities referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) above,

(B) dividends or distributions paid exclusively in cash, and

(C) Spin-Offs described below in this paragraph (3), then the conversion rate will be adjusted based on the following formula:

$$CR_1 = CR_0 \times (SP_0 / (SP_0 - FMV))$$

where

CR_0 = the conversion rate in effect immediately prior to the adjustment relating to such event

CR_1 = the new conversion rate taking such event into account

SP_0 = the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares for the 10 consecutive trading days prior to the business day immediately preceding the earlier of the record date or the ex-dividend date for such distribution

FMV = the fair market value (as determined in good faith by our board of trustees) of the shares of capital stock, evidences of indebtedness, assets or property distributed with respect to each outstanding common share on the earlier of the record date or the ex-dividend date for such distribution.

An adjustment to the conversion rate made pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph shall be made successively whenever any such distribution is made and shall become effective on the day immediately after the date fixed for the determination of holders of our common shares entitled to receive such distribution.

If we distribute to all holders of our common shares capital stock of any class or series, or similar equity interest, of or relating to our subsidiary or other business unit (a Spin-Off), the conversion rate will be adjusted based on the following formula:

$$CR_1 = CR_0 \times ((FMV_0 + MP_0) / MP_0)$$

where

CR_0 = the conversion rate in effect immediately prior to the adjustment relating to such event

CR_1 = the new conversion rate taking such event into account

FMV_0 = the value, based on the average of the closing sale prices of the capital stock or similar equity interest distributed to holders of our common shares over the first 10 consecutive trading days after the effective date of the Spin-Off applicable to one common share

MP_0 = the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares over the first 10 consecutive trading days after the effective date of the Spin-Off.

An adjustment to the conversion rate made pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph will occur on the 10th trading day after the effective date of the Spin-Off.

If any such dividend or distribution described in this paragraph (3) is declared but not paid or made, the new conversion rate shall be readjusted to be the conversion rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared.

(4) If we make any cash dividend or distribution during any of our quarterly fiscal periods (without regard to when paid) to all holders of our common shares in an aggregate amount that, together with other cash dividends or distributions made in respect of that quarterly fiscal period, exceeds the product of $0.20 (the Reference Dividend) multiplied by the number of our common shares outstanding on the record date for such distribution, the conversion rate will be adjusted based on the following formula:

where

CR_0 = the conversion rate in effect immediately prior to the adjustment relating to such event

CR_1 = the new conversion rate taking such event into account

SP_0 = the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares for the 10 consecutive trading days prior to the business day immediately preceding the earlier of the record date or the day prior to the ex-dividend date for such distribution

RD = the Reference Dividend

C = the amount in cash per share that we distribute to holders of our common shares in respect of such quarterly fiscal period.

An adjustment to the conversion rate made pursuant to this paragraph (4) shall become effective on the date immediately after the date fixed for the determination of holders of our common shares entitled to receive such dividend or distribution. If any dividend or distribution described in this paragraph (4) is declared but not so paid or made, the new conversion rate shall be readjusted to the conversion rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an adjustment to the conversion rate is required to be made as a result of a dividend or distribution that is not a quarterly dividend or distribution either in whole or in part, the Reference Dividend shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of determining the adjustment to the conversion rate as a result of such dividend or distribution.

The Reference Dividend shall be subject to adjustment in a manner that is inversely proportional to the adjustments to the conversion rate; provided that no adjustment will be made to the Reference Dividend for any adjustment made to the conversion rate pursuant to this paragraph (4).

(5) If we or any of our subsidiaries make a payment in respect of a tender offer or exchange offer for our common shares to the extent that the cash and value of any other consideration included in the payment per common share exceeds the closing sale price of our common share on the trading day next succeeding the last date on which tenders or exchanges may be made pursuant to such tender or exchange offer (the Expiration Time), the conversion rate will be adjusted based on the following formula:

where

CR_0 = the conversion rate in effect immediately prior to the adjustment relating to such event

CR_1 = the new conversion rate taking such event into account

AC = the aggregate value of all cash and any other consideration (as determined in good faith by our board of trustees) paid or payable for our common shares purchased in such tender or exchange offer

OS₀ = the number of our common shares outstanding immediately prior to the date such tender or exchange offer expires

OS₁ = the number of our common shares outstanding immediately after such tender or exchange offer expires (after giving effect to the purchase or exchange of shares pursuant to such tender or exchange offer)

SP₁ = the average of the closing sale prices of our common shares for the 10 consecutive trading days commencing on the trading day next succeeding the date such tender or exchange offer expires.

If the application of the foregoing formula would result in a decrease in the conversion rate, no adjustment to the conversion rate will be made.

Any adjustment to the conversion rate made pursuant to this paragraph (5) shall become effective on the date immediately following the Expiration Time. If we or one of our subsidiaries is obligated to purchase our common shares pursuant to any such tender or exchange offer but is permanently prevented by applicable law from effecting any such purchase or all such purchases are rescinded, the new conversion rate shall be readjusted to be the conversion rate that would be in effect if such tender or exchange offer had not been made.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of an adjustment to the conversion rate pursuant to paragraphs(4) or (5), in no event will the conversion rate exceed 38.8802, subject to adjustment pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) above.

If we have in effect a rights plan while any notes remain outstanding, holders of notes will receive, upon a conversion of notes in respect of which we have elected to deliver net shares, in addition to such net shares, rights under any shareholder rights agreement we may then have in effect unless, prior to conversion, the rights have expired, terminated or been redeemed or unless the rights have separated from our common shares. If the rights provided for in the rights plan adopted by us have separated from our common shares in accordance with the provisions of the applicable shareholder rights agreement so that holders of notes would not be entitled to receive any rights in respect of our common shares that we elect to deliver as net shares upon conversion of notes, the conversion rate will be adjusted at the time of separation as if we had distributed to all holders of our common shares capital stock, evidences of indebtedness or other assets or property pursuant to paragraph (3) above, subject to readjustment upon the subsequent expiration, termination or redemption of the rights.

In addition to the adjustments pursuant to paragraphs (1) through (5) above, we may increase the conversion rate in order to avoid or diminish any income tax to holders of our common shares resulting from any dividend or distribution of capital stock (or rights to acquire our common shares) or from any event treated as such for income tax purposes. We may also, from time to time, to the extent permitted by applicable law, increase the conversion rate by any amount for any period if we have determined that such increase would be in our best interests. If we make such determination, it will be conclusive and we will mail to holders of the notes a notice of the increased conversion rate and the period during which it will be in effect at least 15 days prior to the date the increased conversion rate takes effect in accordance with applicable law.

We will not make any adjustment to the conversion rate if holders of the notes are permitted to participate, on an as-converted basis, in the transactions described above without converting their notes.

The applicable conversion rate will not be adjusted upon certain events, including but not limited to:

the issuance of our common shares pursuant to any public or private follow-on offering;

the issuance of any of our common shares pursuant to any present or future plan providing for the reinvestment of dividends or interest payable on our securities and the investment of additional optional amounts in shares of our common shares under any plan;

the issuance of any of our common shares or options or rights to purchase those shares pursuant to any of our present or future employee, trustee or consultant benefit plan, employee agreement or arrangement or program;
the issuance of any of our common shares pursuant to any option, warrant, right, or exercisable, exchangeable or convertible security outstanding as of the date the notes were first issued;
a change in the par value of our common shares;

accumulated and unpaid dividends or distributions;

as a result of a tender offer solely to holders of less than 100 of our common shares; and the issuance of limited partnership units by the Operating Partnership for cash or property and the issuance of our common shares for cash or property or the payment of cash upon redemption thereof; provided that the acquisition of property upon issuance of the limited partnership units will not result in any anti-dilution adjustments.

No adjustment in the conversion price will be required unless the adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least 1% of the conversion price. If the adjustment is not made because the adjustment does not change the conversion price by at least 1%, then the adjustment that is not made will be carried forward and taken into account in any future adjustment. All required calculations will be made to the nearest cent or 1/1000th of a share, as the case may be. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the notes are called for redemption, all adjustments not previously made will be made on the 10th business day preceding the applicable redemption date.

If certain of the possible adjustments to the conversion price of the notes are made, a holder may be deemed to have received a distribution from us or other income from us even though such holder has not received any cash or property as a result of such adjustments. We intend to withhold federal income tax (in the case of a non-U.S. holder) with respect to any deemed distribution from us, from cash payments of interest and payments in redemption, repurchase or conversion of the notes. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations in this prospectus supplement.

Ownership Limit

In order to assist us in maintaining our qualification as a REIT for U.S. federal income tax purposes, no person may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution rules of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 9.8% in value or number, whichever is more restrictive, of the issued and outstanding shares of any of our class or series of shares of beneficial interest, subject to certain exceptions. In case of requests for waivers or modifications of such limit by persons that are not individuals or treated as individuals under the Internal Revenue Code, our board of trustees is required to waive or modify such limit if, among other things, evidence satisfactory to it is presented that such ownership would not jeopardize our status as a REIT. Notwithstanding any other provision of the notes, no holder of notes will be entitled to convert such notes into our common shares to the extent that receipt of such common shares would cause such holder (together with such holder's affiliates) to exceed the ownership limit contained in our declaration of trust. See Description of Shares of Beneficial Interest REIT Ownership Limitations in the accompanying prospectus.

Calculations in Respect of the Notes

Except as expressly specified otherwise herein, we will be responsible for making all calculations required under the notes. These calculations include, but are not limited to, determinations of the conversion price and conversion rate applicable to the notes. We will make all these calculations in good faith and, absent manifest error, our calculations will be final and binding on holders of the notes. We will provide a schedule of our calculations to the trustee, and the trustee is entitled to rely upon the accuracy of our calculations without independent verification. The trustee will forward our calculations to any holder of notes upon request within 20 business days of the effective date of any adjustment.

S-30

Limitations on Incurrence of Indebtedness

We will not permit the Operating Partnership, directly or indirectly, to incur or guarantee any indebtedness, other than non-recourse indebtedness, unless prior to or concurrently with such incurrence or guarantee, the Operating Partnership guarantees the notes on an equal and ratable basis. For purposes of the foregoing restriction, non-recourse indebtedness shall include (i) any indebtedness or guarantee that is non-recourse except for certain customary non-recourse carveouts, including, without limitation, bad boy acts and environmental indemnities; (ii) letters of credit and trade payables in the ordinary course; and (iii) non-recourse mezzanine loans secured by the direct and indirect ownership interests in the property-owning entity.

Merger, Consolidation or Sale

We may consolidate with, or sell, lease or convey all or substantially all of our consolidated assets to, or merge with or into, any other entity, provided that the following conditions are satisfied or fulfilled:

we are the continuing entity, or the successor formed by or resulting from any such consolidation or merger or which has received the transfer of those assets is organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State therein or the District of Columbia and expressly assumes payment of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the notes and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and conditions contained in the indenture; if as a result of such transaction the notes become convertible into common stock or other securities issued by a third party, such third party assumes or fully and unconditionally guarantees all obligations under the notes and the indenture; immediately after giving effect to the transaction, no event of default under the indenture, and no event which, after notice or the lapse of time, or both, would become an event of default under the indenture, has occurred and is continuing; and an officer's certificate from us and a legal opinion covering such conditions is delivered to the trustee.

Events of Default, Notice and Waiver

The following events will be events of default with respect to the notes:

default for 30 days in the payment of any interest (including additional interest, if any) on the notes;

default in the payment of the principal of, and any premium on, the notes when due and payable, whether on the stated maturity date or any earlier date of redemption or repurchase or otherwise;

default in the delivery when due of the conversion value, on the terms set forth in the indenture and the notes, upon exercise of a holder's conversion right in accordance with the indenture and the continuation of such default for 10 days;

our failure to provide notice of the occurrence of a change of control when required under the indenture, and such failure continues for 5 business days;

default in the performance of any of our other covenant or warranty contained in the indenture with respect to the notes, which continues for 60 days after written notice as provided in the indenture;

default in the payment of an aggregate principal amount exceeding $25,000,000 of any evidence of indebtedness of us or any of our subsidiaries or any mortgage, indenture, note, bond, capitalized lease or other instrument under which that indebtedness is issued or by which that indebtedness is secured, such default having continued after the expiration of any applicable grace period or having resulted in the acceleration of the maturity of that indebtedness, but only if that indebtedness is not discharged or

such acceleration is not rescinded or annulled, in each case, within 30 days after written notice to us from the trustee (or to us and the trustee from holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes); and certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, or court appointment of a receiver, liquidator or trustee of us, the Operating Partnership, or any other Significant Subsidiary (as defined in Article I, Rule 1-02 of Regulation S-X, promulgated under the Securities Act) of us or the Operating Partnership or any of properties owned by these entities.

If an event of default (other than as described in the last bullet above) with respect to the notes occurs and is continuing, then in each case the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes may declare the principal and accrued and unpaid interest on all of the notes to be due and payable immediately by written notice thereof to us (and to the trustee if given by the holders). If an event of default described in last bullet above occurs and is continuing, the principal (or such portion thereof) of and accrued and unpaid interest on all of the notes will become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the trustee or any holders. However, at any time after any acceleration with respect to the notes, but before a judgment or decree for payment of the amounts due has been obtained by the trustee, the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of outstanding notes may rescind and annul that acceleration and its consequences if (1) we have paid or deposited with the trustee all required payments of the principal of and interest on the notes (without giving effect to the acceleration) plus certain fees, expenses, disbursements and, premium, if any, advances of the trustee, and (2) all events of default, other than the nonpayment of accelerated principal or interest with respect to notes, have been cured or waived as provided in the indenture. The indenture also provides that the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the notes may waive any past default with respect to notes and its consequences, except a default (A) in the payment of the principal of or interest on the notes, or (B) in respect of a covenant or provision contained in the indenture that cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the holder of each outstanding note.

The trustee will be required to give notice to the holders of the notes within 90 days of a default under the indenture; provided, however, that the trustee may withhold notice to the holders of the notes of any default with respect to that series (except a default in the payment of the principal of or interest on the notes) if the responsible officers of the trustee consider withholding of notice to be in the interest of the holders.

The indenture provides that no holder of the notes may institute any judicial or other proceedings with respect to the indenture or for any remedy thereunder, except in the case of failure of the trustee, for 60 days, to act after it has received a written request to institute proceedings in respect of an event of default from the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the notes, as well as an offer of reasonable security or indemnity. This provision will not prevent, however, any holder of notes from instituting suit for the enforcement of payment of the principal of and interest on the notes at the respective due dates for payment.

Subject to provisions in the indenture relating to its duties in case of default, the trustee is under no obligation to exercise any of its rights or powers under the indenture at the request or direction of any holders of the notes, unless the holders offer to the trustee reasonable security or indemnity. The holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the trustee, or of exercising any trust or power conferred upon the trustee in respect of the notes. However, the trustee may refuse to follow any direction which is in conflict with any law or the indenture, which may involve the trustee in personal liability or which may be unduly prejudicial to the holders of the notes not joining in the proceeding.

Within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year, we must deliver to the trustee a certificate, signed by one of our specified officers, stating that we are in compliance with all the covenants under the indenture.

Modification of the Indenture

Modifications and amendments of the provisions of the indenture relating to the notes will be permitted to be made only with the consent of holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the notes; provided, however, that no such modification or amendment may, without the consent of the holders of each note affected thereby:

S-32

- change the stated maturity of the principal of, or any installment of interest (including additional interest, if any) on, the notes;
- reduce the principal amount of, or the rate of interest (including additional interest, if any) on, or change the timing or reduce the amount payable on redemption of, the notes;
- make any change that impairs or adversely affects the rights of a holder to convert notes in accordance with the indenture;
- change the place of payment, or the coin or currency, for payment of principal of, or interest (including additional interest, if any) on, the notes;
- reduce or alter the method of computation of any amount payable upon redemption, repayment or purchase of any notes by us (or the time when such redemption, repayment or purchase may be made);
- impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to notes or the delivery of the conversion value as required by the indenture upon a conversion of notes;
- reduce the above stated percentage in principal amount of outstanding notes necessary to modify or amend the indenture, to waive compliance with specified provisions thereof or specified defaults and consequences thereunder or to reduce the quorum or voting requirements set forth in the indenture; or
- modify any of the foregoing provisions or any of the provisions relating to the waiver of certain past defaults or certain covenants, except to increase the required percentage to effect such action or to provide that specified other provisions may not be modified or waived without the consent of the holders of each note affected thereby.

A note shall be deemed outstanding if it has been authenticated and delivered under the indenture unless, among other things, such note has matured or been canceled, converted, redeemed or repurchased.

The indenture provides that the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of outstanding notes have the right to waive our compliance with specified covenants in the indenture in respect of the notes.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

Modifications and amendments of the indenture will be permitted to be made by us and the trustee without the consent of any holder, when authorized by our board of trustees, at any time, in a form satisfactory to the trustee, for certain purposes, including the following:

- to evidence the succession or addition of another person to us as obligor under the indenture;
- to add to our covenants for the benefit of the holders or to surrender any right or power conferred upon us in the indenture;
- to add events of default for the benefit of the holders of all the notes;
- to change or eliminate any provisions of the indenture, provided that the change or elimination will become effective only when there are no notes outstanding which are entitled to the benefit of such provision;
- to secure, or add guarantees with respect to, the notes;
- to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee and to facilitate the administration of the trust under the indenture by more than one trustee;
- to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency in the indenture; or
- to supplement any of the provisions of the indenture to the extent necessary to permit or facilitate defeasance and discharge of the notes under the indenture, provided that such action shall not adversely affect the interests of the holders in any material respect.

S-33

The indenture contains provisions for convening meetings of the holders of the notes. A meeting may be called at any time by the trustee, and also, upon request, by us or the holders of at least 10% in principal amount of the outstanding notes, in any such case upon notice given as provided in the indenture. Except for any consent that must be given by the holder of each note affected by specified modifications and amendments of the indenture, any resolution presented at a meeting or adjourned meeting duly reconvened at which a quorum is present will be permitted to be adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of notes entitled to vote a majority in aggregate principal amount of the notes represented at that meeting; provided, however, that, except as referred to above, any resolution with respect to any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action that may be made, given or taken by the holders of a specified percentage, which is less than a majority, in principal amount of the notes may be adopted at a meeting or adjourned meeting duly reconvened at which a quorum is present by the affirmative vote of the holders of such specified percentage in principal amount of the notes. Any resolution passed or decision taken at any meeting of holders of the notes duly held in accordance with the indenture will be binding on all holders of such notes, whether or not present or represented at the meeting. The quorum at any meeting of holders of the notes called to adopt a resolution, and at any reconvened meeting, will be persons holding or representing a majority in principal amount of the notes; provided, however, that if any action is to be taken at such meeting with respect to a consent or waiver which may be given by the holders of not less than a specified percentage in principal amount of the outstanding notes, the persons holding or representing such specified percentage in principal amount of the outstanding notes will constitute a quorum.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, if any action is to be taken at a meeting of holders of the notes with respect to any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action that the indenture expressly provides may be made, given or taken by the holders of a specified percentage in principal amount of all outstanding notes affected thereby, or of the holders of such series and one or more additional series:

- there shall be no minimum quorum requirement for such meeting; and
- the principal amount of such outstanding notes that vote in favor of such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action shall be taken into account in determining whether such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action has been made, given or taken under the indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge

We may satisfy and discharge our obligations under the indenture by delivering to the trustee for cancellation all outstanding notes or by depositing with the trustee, the paying agent or the conversion agent, if applicable, after the notes have become due and payable, whether on the stated maturity date, any redemption date or any repurchase date, or upon conversion or otherwise, cash and our common shares (as applicable under the terms of the indenture) sufficient to pay all of the outstanding notes and paying all other sums payable, and securities deliverable, under the indenture.

Rule 144A Information

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

If at any time we are not subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act and prior to the expiration of the Rule 144(k) holding period, we will promptly furnish to the holders, beneficial owners and prospective purchasers of the notes or our underlying common shares, upon their request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d) (4) of the Securities Act to facilitate the resale of those notes or our common shares pursuant to Rule 144A.

Provision of Financial Information

So long as the notes are outstanding and whether or not required by the SEC, we will furnish to the trustee within 15 days of the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and regulations:

S-34

all annual and quarterly financial information that would be required to be contained in filings with the SEC on Forms 10-K and 10-Q if we were required to file those filings, including a related Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and, with respect to the annual information only, a report on the annual financial statements by our certified independent accountants; and all current reports that would be required to be filed with the SEC on Form 8-K if we were required to file such reports.

If we are not subject to Sections 13 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act, we will (A) furnish to the holders of the notes, without cost to such holders, a copy of the information and reports referred to above within 15 days of the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and regulations, and (B) upon written request and payment of the reasonable cost of duplication and delivery, promptly supply to any prospective holder of the debt securities a copy of the information and reports referred to above.

In addition, whether or not required by the SEC, we will file a copy of the information and reports referred to above with the SEC for public availability within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and regulations (unless the SEC will not accept such a filing).

Governing Law

The indenture and the notes are governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York.

Trustee

U.S. Bank National Association is the trustee, registrar, conversion agent, bid solicitation agent and paying agent. If an event of default occurs and is continuing, the trustee will be required to use the degree of care and skill of a prudent man in the conduct of his own affairs. The trustee will become obligated to exercise any of its powers under the indenture at the request of any of the holders of any notes only after those holders have offered the trustee indemnity satisfactory to it.

If the trustee becomes one of our creditors, it will be subject to limitations on its rights to obtain payment of claims or to realize on some property received for any such claim, as security or otherwise. The trustee is permitted to engage in other transactions with us. If, however, it acquires any conflicting interest, it must eliminate that conflict or resign.

Book-Entry System

The notes have been issued in the form of one or more fully-registered global notes in book-entry form, which will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company (DTC) and registered in the name of DTC's nominee, Cede & Co. Except as set forth below, the global notes may not be transferred except as a whole by DTC to a nominee of DTC or by a nominee of DTC to DTC or another nominee of DTC or by DTC or any such nominee to a successor of DTC or a nominee of such successor.

So long as DTC or its nominee is the registered owner of a global note, DTC or its nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole holder of the notes represented by such global note for all purposes under the indenture and the beneficial owners of the notes will be entitled only to those rights and benefits afforded to them in accordance with DTC's regular operating procedures. Upon specified written instructions of a participant in DTC, DTC will have its nominee assist participants in the exercise of certain holders' rights, such as demand for acceleration of maturity or an instruction to the trustee. Except as provided below, owners of beneficial interests in a global note will not be entitled to have notes registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of notes in certificated form and will not be considered the registered owners or holders thereof under the indenture.

S-35

If (i) DTC is at any time unwilling or unable to continue as depository or if at any time DTC ceases to be a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by us within 90 days, (ii) upon request if an Event of Default under the indenture relating to the notes has occurred and is continuing, or (iii) we, in our sole discretion, determine at any time that the notes shall no longer be represented by a global note, we will issue individual notes in certificated form of the same series and like tenor and in the applicable principal amount in exchange for the notes represented by the global note. In any such instance, an owner of a beneficial interest in a global note will be entitled to physical delivery of individual notes in certificated form of the same series and like tenor, equal in principal amount to such beneficial interest and to have the notes in certificated form registered in its name. Notes so issued in certificated form will be issued in denominations of $1,000 or any integral multiple thereof and will be issued in registered form only, without coupons.

The following is based on information furnished by DTC:

DTC acts as securities depository for the notes. The notes were issued as fully-registered notes registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC's partnership nominee).

DTC, the world's largest depository, is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a banking organization within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a clearing corporation within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a clearing agency registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. DTC holds and provides asset servicing for over 2 million issues of U.S. and non-U.S. equity issues, corporate and municipal debt issues and money market instruments from over 85 countries that DTC's direct participants deposit with DTC.

DTC also facilitates the post-trade settlement among direct participants of sales and other securities transactions in deposited securities, through electronic computerized book-entry transfers and pledges between direct participants' accounts. This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC). DTCC, in turn, is owned by a number of direct participants of DTC and members of the National Securities Clearing Corporation, Government Securities Clearing Corporation, MBS Clearing Corporation, and Emerging Markets Clearing Corporation, as well as by The New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange LLC and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a direct participant, either directly or indirectly.

Purchases of the notes under the DTC system must be made by or through direct participants, which will receive a credit for the notes on DTC's records. The beneficial interest of each actual purchaser of each note is in turn to be recorded on the direct and indirect participants' records. Beneficial owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase. Beneficial owners are, however, expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the direct or indirect participant through which the beneficial owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of beneficial interests in the notes are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of direct and indirect participants acting on behalf of beneficial owners. Beneficial owners will not receive certificates representing their beneficial interests in notes, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the notes is discontinued. The laws of some states require that certain persons take physical delivery in definitive form of securities which they own. Such limits and such laws may impair the ability of such persons to own, transfer or pledge beneficial interests in a global note.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all notes deposited by direct participants with DTC will be registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co. or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of the notes with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other nominee do not effect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual beneficial owners of the notes; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the direct participants to whose accounts the notes are credited, which may or may not be the beneficial owners. The direct and indirect participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

We will pay principal of and interest on the notes in same-day funds to the trustee and from the trustee to DTC, or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit direct participants' accounts on the applicable payment date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records upon DTC's receipt of funds and corresponding detail information. Payments by participants to beneficial owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in street name, and will be the responsibility of these participants and not of us, the trustee, DTC, or any other party, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements that may be in effect from time to time. Payment of principal and interest to Cede & Co., or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC, is the responsibility of us or the trustee, disbursement of such payments to direct participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the beneficial owners is the responsibility of the direct or indirect participants.

We will send any redemption notices to DTC. If less than all of the notes are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each direct participant in such issue to be redeemed.

A beneficial owner of notes shall give notice to elect to have its notes purchased or tendered, through its participant, to the conversion agent and shall effect delivery of such notes by causing the direct participant to transfer the participant's interest in notes, on DTC's records, to the conversion agent. The requirement for physical delivery of notes in connection with an optional tender or a mandatory purchase will be deemed satisfied when the ownership rights in the notes are transferred by direct participants on DTC's records and followed by a book-entry credit of tendered notes to the conversion agent's DTC account.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as securities depository for the notes at any time by giving us reasonable notice. Under such circumstances, if a successor securities depository is not obtained, we will print and deliver certificated notes. We may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, we will print and deliver certificated notes.

None of us, the initial purchasers or the trustee will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of the beneficial interests in a global note, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial interests.

The information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's system has been obtained from sources that we believe to be reliable, but we take no responsibility for its accuracy.

Registration Rights; Additional Interest

We have prepared this prospectus supplement in connection with the registration rights agreement we entered into in connection with the offering of the notes. Pursuant to the registration rights agreement, we agreed:

- to file with the SEC or otherwise have on file with the SEC, by the 120th day after the date we first issue the notes, a registration statement to cover resales of registrable securities (as described below) by the holders who satisfy certain conditions and provide the information we describe below for use with the registration statement;
- to use our reasonable best efforts to cause the registration statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act, as promptly as practicable but in any event by the 210th day after the date we first issue the notes or otherwise make available for use by selling security holders an effective registration statement no later than such date; and
- to use our reasonable best efforts to keep the registration statement continuously effective under the Securities Act until there are no registrable securities outstanding.

However, the registration rights agreement permits us to prohibit offers and sales of registrable securities pursuant to the registration statement for a period not to exceed an aggregate of 30 days in any three-month period and not to exceed an aggregate of 90 days in any 12-month period, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions. We refer to such any period during which we may prohibit offers and sales as a suspension period. We need not specify the nature of the event giving rise to a suspension in any notice to holders of the registrable securities of the existence of such a suspension.

In addition, if we deem it necessary to file a post-effective amendment to the registration statement in order to make changes to the information in a prospectus supplement regarding the selling holders or the plan of distribution, we may suspend sales under the registration statement until the date on which the post-effective amendment is declared effective by the SEC; provided, however, that any days in any such suspension period shall count towards the 30 and 90 day periods referred to in the previous paragraph.

Registrable securities means each note and any of our common share delivered upon conversion of the notes until the earlier of:

- the date the notes and such common shares have been effectively registered under the Securities Act and disposed of in accordance with the registration statement;
- the date when the notes and such common shares are eligible for sale by a holder that is not an affiliate of ours pursuant to Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act or any similar provision then in effect; and
- the date when the notes and such common shares have ceased to be outstanding.

Holders of registrable securities must deliver to us certain information to be used in connection with, and to be named as selling security holders in, the registration statement in order to have their registrable securities included in the registration statement. The form of notice and questionnaire to be used for this purpose is available upon request from us. Any holder that does not duly complete and deliver a questionnaire or provide the information it requires will not be named as a selling security holder in the registration statement and will not be permitted to sell any registrable securities held by that holder pursuant to the registration statement. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain an effective and current registration statement as required. The absence of an effective registration statement is likely to limit a holder's ability to sell its registrable securities and adversely affect the price, if any, at which it may sell its registrable securities.

If:

- the registration statement is not filed with the SEC by the 120th day after the first issue date of the notes or we do not have on file with the SEC an effective registration statement covering resales of the registrable securities;
- the registration statement has not been declared effective under the Securities Act by the 210th day after the first issue date of the notes or an effective registration statement covering resales of the registrable securities is otherwise not made available for use by selling security holders by such date;
- a holder supplies the questionnaire described below after the effective date of the registration statement or the date after which we first make available an effective registration statement for use by selling security holders, and we fail to supplement or amend the registration statement, or file a new registration statement or amend the prospectus or prospectus supplement, if permitted by applicable law, in accordance with the terms of the registration rights agreement, in order to add such holder as a selling security holder;
- the registration statement is filed and has become effective under the Securities Act, but then ceases to be effective (without being succeeded immediately by an additional registration statement that is filed and immediately becomes effective) or usable for the offer and sale of registrable securities, other than in connection with a suspension event or as a result of a requirement to file a post-effective amendment or prospectus supplement to the registration statement in order to make changes to the information in the prospectus supplement forming part of the registration statement regarding the selling security holders or the plan of distribution, and we do not cure the lapse of effectiveness or usability of the registration statement within ten business days (or if a suspension period is then in effect, the tenth business day following the expiration of such suspension period); suspension periods exceed an aggregate of 30 days in any three-month period or an aggregate of 90 days in any 12-month period; or we fail to name as a selling security holder, in the registration statement or any amendment to the registration statement, at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, or in any prospectus relating to the registration statement, at the time we file the prospectus or, if later, the time the related registration statement or amendment becomes effective under the Securities Act, any holder that is entitled to be so named as a selling security holder within the prescribed time periods, then we will pay additional interest to each holder of notes then outstanding that constitute registrable securities which has provided to us the required selling security holder information. We refer to each event described in the bullet points above as a registration default.

Additional interest will accrue on the notes then outstanding that constitute registrable securities from, and including, the day following the registration default to, but excluding, the day on which the registration default has been cured. Additional interest will be paid semi-annually in arrears, with the first semi-annual payment due on the first interest payment date, as applicable, following the date on which such additional interest begins to accrue, and will accrue at a rate per year equal to:

an additional 0.25% of the principal amount to, and including, the 90th day following such registration default; and an additional 0.50% of the principal amount from and after the 91st day following such registration default.

In no event will additional interest accrue at a rate per year exceeding 0.50%.

We will not pay any additional interest on any note after it has been converted into our common shares. If a note ceases to be outstanding during a registration default, we will prorate the additional interest to be paid with respect to that note.

So long as a registration default continues, we will pay additional interest in cash on June 15 and December 15 of each year to each holder who is entitled to receive additional interest in respect of registrable securities of which the holder was the holder of record at the close of business on the immediately preceding June 1 and December 1, respectively.

Following the cure of a registration default, additional interest will cease to accrue with respect to that registration default as provided in the registration rights agreement. In addition, no additional interest will accrue after the period we must keep the registration statement effective under the Securities Act or on any note that ceases to be a registrable security. However, we will remain liable for any previously accrued additional interest. Other than our obligation to pay additional interest, we will not have any liability for damages with respect to a registration default on any registrable securities.

Additional interest will represent the sole entitlement of the holders of the notes to money damages relating to the registration defaults described above. We will agree in the registration rights agreement to give notice to all holders of the filing and effectiveness of the initial registration statement by release through a reputable national newswire service; provided that if we designate a previously filed and effective registration statement for use by holders of registrable securities, in lieu of the foregoing notice we will provide notice of our designation of that registration statement and the date on which we will first make available for use by selling security holders a prospectus thereunder. A holder of registrable securities that does not provide us with a completed questionnaire or the information called for by it on or prior to the tenth business day before the date the initial registration statement becomes effective will not be named as a selling security holder in the registration statement when it becomes effective and will not be able to use the registration statement to resell registrable securities until it is named as a selling security holder. Similarly, if we designate an effective registration statement for use by selling security holders, a holder of registrable securities that does not provide us with a completed questionnaire or the information called for by it on or prior to the tenth business day before the date of the initial prospectus made available to selling security holders will not be named as a selling security holder in the prospectus and will not be able to use the registration statement to resell registrable securities until it is named as a selling security holder. However, in either case, such a holder of registrable securities may thereafter provide us with a completed questionnaire, following which we will, as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date we receive the completed questionnaire, but in any event within ten business days after that date (except as described below), file a supplement to the prospectus relating to the registration statement or, if required, file a post-effective amendment or a new registration statement in order to permit resales of such holder's registrable securities. However, if we receive the questionnaire during a suspension period, or we initiate a suspension period within five business days after we receive the questionnaire, then we will, except as described below, make the filing within ten business days after the end of the suspension period. We will not be required to file more than three supplements, two amendments or one new registration statement for all holders during a fiscal quarter. If we file a post-effective amendment or a new registration statement, then we will use our reasonable best efforts to cause the post-effective amendment or new registration statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act, as promptly as practicable, but in any event by the 30th day in the case of a post-effective amendment and the 60th day in the case of a new registration statement, after the date the registration rights agreement requires us to file the post-effective amendment or new registration statement, as applicable.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

If a holder does not deliver a duly completed questionnaire on or before the tenth business day before the effective date of the original registration statement or on or before the tenth business day before the date the prospectus is first made available for use by selling security holders, the holder could experience significant additional delay. We urge holders to submit a completed questionnaire as promptly as possible following completion of this offering. To the extent that any holder of registrable securities identified in the registration statement is a broker-dealer, or is an affiliate of a broker-dealer that did not acquire its registrable securities in the ordinary course of its business or that at the time of its purchase of registrable securities had an agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the registrable securities, we understand that the SEC may take the view that such holder is, under the SEC's interpretations, an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act.

This prospectus supplement satisfies our obligation to file a registration statement to register the resale of the notes and the common shares that may be issuable upon conversion of the notes within the required time periods.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion describes material U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the notes and conversion of the notes into our common shares but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all the potential tax considerations relating thereto. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations in the accompanying prospectus for information relating to our taxation as a REIT and the ownership and disposition of our common shares into which the notes may be converted.

The information in this section is based on the Code, current, temporary and proposed Treasury Regulations, the legislative history of the Code, current administrative interpretations and practices of the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS), including its practices and policies as endorsed in private letter rulings, which are not binding on the IRS (except with respect to the taxpayer that received the ruling), and existing court decisions. Future legislation, regulations, administrative interpretations and court decisions could change current law or adversely affect existing interpretations of current law. Any change could apply retroactively. It is possible that the IRS could challenge the statements in this discussion, which do not bind the IRS or the courts, and that a court could agree with the IRS.

S-40

Because this is a summary that is intended to address only certain U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the notes and conversion of the notes into our common shares that will apply to all holders, it may not contain all the information that may be important to you. As you review this discussion, you should keep in mind that:

the tax consequences to you may vary depending on your particular tax situation;

special rules that are not discussed below may apply to you if, for example, you are a broker-dealer, a trader in securities that has elected mark-to-market treatment, a U.S. expatriate, a trust, an estate, a regulated investment company, a financial institution, an insurance company, a U.S. person whose functional currency is not the United States dollar, a person holding a note as part of hedge, straddle, conversion, integrated or other risk-reduction transaction, a holder of notes through a partnership or similar pass-through entity, except to the extent discussed below, a tax-exempt organization or a non-U.S. person, or otherwise subject to special tax treatment under the Code;

this summary does not address state, local or non-U.S. tax considerations or, except to the extent discussed below, any alternative minimum tax considerations; and this summary deals only with notes that are held as capital assets, within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code.

You should review the following discussion and consult with your tax advisor to determine the effect of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the notes and conversion of the notes into our common shares received upon conversion of a note on your individual tax situation, including any state, local or non-U.S. tax consequences.

Any discussion of U.S. federal income tax issues set forth herein was prepared in connection with the offering. This discussion is not intended or written to be legal or tax advice to any person and is not intended or written to be used, and it cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of avoiding U.S. federal tax penalties that may be imposed on such person. Each prospective investor should seek advice based on its particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

As used herein, the term U.S. Holder means any beneficial owner of a note, or of our common shares received upon conversion of a note, that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) a citizen or resident, within the meaning of Section 7701(b) of the Code, of the United States, (ii) a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source or (iv) a trust, if the administration of the trust is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or a trust that has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person pursuant to applicable Treasury Regulations.

As used herein, the term Non-U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of a note, or our common shares received upon conversion of a note, that is not a U.S. Holder or partnership. For purposes of this section, Holder means either a U.S. Holder or a Non-U.S. Holder or both.

In the case of an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes that is a beneficial owner of a note, or our common shares received upon conversion of a note, the treatment of its partners generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A beneficial owner that is a partnership or a partner in such partnership should consult their tax advisors about the U.S. federal income tax consequences of acquiring, holding and disposing of notes and conversion of the notes into our common shares.

S-41

U.S. Holders of the Notes

Interest

Stated interest on a note generally will be included in the income of a U.S. Holder as ordinary income at the time such interest is received or accrued, in accordance with such U.S. Holder's regular method of tax accounting.

Market Discount

If you acquire a note at a cost that is less than the stated redemption price at maturity (i.e., the principal) of the note, the amount of the difference is treated as market discount for federal income tax purposes, unless the difference is less than a statutorily defined de minimis amount. Under the market discount rules of the Code, you are required to treat any gain on the sale, exchange, redemption or other disposition of a note as ordinary income to the extent of the accrued market discount that has not previously been included in income. If you dispose of a note with market discount in certain nonrecognition transactions in which you receive property the basis of which is determined in whole or in part by reference to the basis of the note, such as upon a conversion of the note with respect to which we deliver a combination of cash and our common shares, you must include accrued market discount as income at the time of such transaction to the extent of the gain recognized. To the extent not included in income at the time of the nonrecognition transaction (including a conversion of a note into our common shares), the accrued market discount is recognized as ordinary income upon the disposition of such property. In general, the amount of market discount that has accrued is determined on a ratable basis. You may, however, elect to determine the amount of accrued market discount on a constant yield to maturity basis. This election is made on a note-by-note basis and is irrevocable.

With respect to notes with market discount, you may not be allowed to deduct immediately a portion of the interest expense on any indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or to carry the notes. You may elect to include market discount in income currently as it accrues, in which case the interest deferral rule set forth in the preceding sentence will not apply. This election will apply to all debt instruments that you acquire on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which the election applies and may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS. Your tax basis in a note will be increased by the amount of market discount included in your income under the election.

Amortizable Bond Premium

If you purchase a note for an amount in excess of the stated redemption price at maturity, you will be considered to have purchased the note with amortizable bond premium in an amount equal to the excess, except to the extent attributable to the conversion feature of the note. Generally, you may elect to amortize the premium as an offset to interest income otherwise required to be included in income in respect of the note during the taxable year, using a constant yield method, over the remaining term of the note (or, if it results in a smaller amount of amortizable premium, until an earlier call date). Under the Treasury Regulations, the amount of amortizable bond premium that you may deduct in any accrual period is limited to the amount by which your total interest inclusions on the note in prior accrual periods exceed the total amount treated by you as a bond premium deduction in prior accrual periods. If any of the excess bond premium is not deductible, that amount is carried forward to the next accrual period. If you elect to amortize bond premium, you must reduce your tax basis in the note by the amount of the premium used to offset interest income as set forth above. An election to amortize bond premium applies to all taxable debt obligations then owned and thereafter acquired by you and may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS.

Disposition of the Notes

Upon the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase, retirement or other disposition of a note (other than a conversion which is described below), a U.S. Holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash proceeds and the fair market value of any other property received on the disposition (except to the extent such amount is attributable to accrued but unpaid stated interest, which is taxable as ordinary income if not previously included in such holder's income) and (ii) such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the note. A U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a note generally will equal the cost of the note to such holder (i) increased by any accrued market discount (if the U.S. Holder has included the accrued market discount in income) and (ii) decreased by (A) the amount of any payments received, other than qualified stated interest payments, as defined in the Treasury Regulations, and (B) amortizable bond premium taken with respect to such note. All interest payments on the notes should be treated as qualified stated interest payments. Any gain or loss recognized on a sale, exchange, redemption or other taxable disposition of a note will be capital gain or loss except as described above under -- Market Discount. Such capital gain or loss recognized upon the disposition of a note will be a long-term capital gain or loss if the note was held for more than one year. The maximum tax rate on long-term capital gains to non-corporate U.S. Holders is generally 15% (for taxable years ending on or prior to December 31, 2010). The deductibility of capital losses may be subject to limitations.

Conversion of the Notes

If you convert a note and we deliver solely cash in satisfaction of our obligation, you would generally be subject to the rules described under Disposition of the Notes, above.

If you convert a note and we deliver a combination of cash and our common shares, we intend to take the position that you will recognize any gain (but not loss) realized, but only to the extent that such gain does not exceed the cash received (other than cash received that is attributable to accrued interest income and other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of common shares), subject to the discussion below under Adjustment to Exchange Rate regarding the possibility that the adjustment to the conversion price of notes converted in connection with certain changes in control, as described under Description of Notes Conversion Rights Make Whole Upon Certain Change of Control Transactions, may be treated as a taxable distribution. Any gain recognized would generally be a capital gain, except as described above under Market Discount, and would be taxable as described under Disposition of the Notes, above.

Cash received in lieu of a fractional share of common shares upon a conversion of a note should be treated as a payment in exchange for the fractional share. Accordingly, the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of common shares should generally result in capital gain or loss, if any, measured by the difference between the cash received for the fractional share of shares and your tax basis in the fractional share, as described under Disposition of the Notes. Cash received that is attributable to accrued interest income not previously included in income will be taxable as ordinary income.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

Your tax basis in any common shares received from us upon conversion of a note will generally equal your adjusted tax basis in the note at the time of the conversion, reduced by any basis allocable to a fractional share, reduced by the amount of cash received in the conversion (other than cash received that is attributable to accrued interest income not previously included in income and other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of common shares) and increased by the amount of any gain recognized by you on the conversion (other than gain with respect to a fractional share). The holding period for common shares received on conversion will generally include the holding period of the note converted. To the extent the fair market value of our common shares received is attributable to accrued interest, the fair market value of such shares will generally be taxable as ordinary interest income (as discussed above in Payments of Stated Interest on the Notes), your tax basis in such shares generally will equal the amount of such accrued interest included in income, and the holding period for such shares will begin on the day after the date of conversion.

In the event we undergo certain transactions as described under Description of Notes Conversion Rights Conversion upon Specified Transactions, the conversion rate and the related conversion obligation may be adjusted such that you may receive shares of common stock of the acquirer upon conversion of the notes. Depending on the facts and circumstances at the time of such change in control, such adjustment may result in a deemed exchange of the outstanding notes, which may be a taxable event for U.S. federal income tax purposes. You should consult your tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of such an adjustment.

Adjustments to Conversion Rate

Holders of convertible debt instruments such as the notes may, in certain circumstances, be deemed to have received distributions of stock if the conversion rate of such instruments is adjusted. However, adjustments to the conversion rate made pursuant to a bona fide reasonable adjustment formula which has the effect of preventing the dilution of the interest of the holders of the debt instruments will generally not be deemed to result in a constructive distribution of stock. Certain of the possible adjustments provided in the notes may not qualify as being pursuant to a bona fide reasonable adjustment formula. For example, a constructive distribution would result if the conversion rate were adjusted to compensate holders of notes for distributions of cash to our shareholders. The adjustment to the conversion rate of notes converted in connection with certain changes in control, as described under Description of Notes Conversion Rate Adjustments Make Whole Upon Certain Change in Control Transactions, may also be treated as a constructive distribution. If such adjustments are made, you may be deemed to have received constructive distributions includible in your income in the manner described under Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations Taxation of Taxable U.S. Holders and Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations Taxation of Tax-Exempt Shareholders in the accompanying prospectus even though you have not received any cash or property as a result of such adjustments. In addition, in certain circumstances, the failure to provide for such an adjustment may also result in a constructive distribution to you.

Non-U.S. Holders of the Notes

The rules governing the U.S. federal income taxation of a Non-U.S. Holder are complex and no attempt will be made herein to provide more than a general summary of such rules. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors to determine the effect of U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax laws, as well as tax treaties, with regard to an investment in the notes.

Interest

Payments of interest on the notes by us or any paying agent to a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax, provided that the interest on the notes is not effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the U.S. and the Non-U.S. Holder:

- does not own, actually or constructively, 10 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of our stock entitled to vote within the meaning of Section 871(h)(3) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder;
- is not a controlled foreign corporation related, directly or indirectly, to us through stock ownership;
- is not a bank receiving interest described in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code; and
- satisfies certain certification requirements (described generally below).

This withholding exemption is referred to as the Portfolio Interest Exemption. To satisfy the certification requirement, the Non-U.S. Holder of the note, or a financial institution holding the note on behalf of the Non-U.S. Holder, must provide to us or our paying agent, in accordance with specified procedures, a statement to the effect that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a U.S. person. These requirements will be met if (1) the Non-U.S. Holder provides its name, address and U.S. taxpayer identification number, if any, and certifies, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a U.S. person (which certification may be made on an IRS Form W-8BEN) or (2) a financial institution holding the note on behalf of the Non-U.S. Holder certifies, under penalties of perjury, that such statement has been received by it and furnishes us or our paying agent with a copy of the statement. The certification requirement also may be satisfied with other documentary evidence in the case of notes held through certain qualified intermediaries.

If a Non-U.S. Holder cannot satisfy the requirements of the Portfolio Interest Exception, payments of interest made to such Non-U.S. Holder will be subject to a 30% withholding tax (or such lower rate provided by an applicable treaty) unless the Non-U.S. Holder provides us or our paying agent, as the case may be, with a properly executed (1) IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form) claiming an exemption from withholding tax or a reduction in withholding tax under the benefit of a tax treaty or (2) IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) stating that interest paid on the note is not subject to withholding tax because it is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the U.S. (and, if required by an applicable tax treaty, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder). IRS Forms W-8BEN and W-8ECI are generally effective for the calendar year in which they are signed and for the succeeding three calendar years. Prospective Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Treasury Regulations regarding withholding to their particular circumstances.

If a Non-U.S. Holder of a note is engaged in a trade or business in the United States, and interest on the note is effectively connected with the conduct of the trade or business (and, if required by an applicable tax treaty, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder) the Non-U.S. Holder, although exempt from the withholding tax discussed above (provided the Holder provides us with a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI as described above), will be subject to regular U.S. income tax on such interest generally in the same manner as if it were a U.S. Holder. In addition, if the Non-U.S. Holder is a foreign corporation, it may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30% (or such lower rate provided by an applicable treaty) of its effectively connected dividend equivalent amount (as defined in Section 884 of the Code) for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments. For purposes of the branch profits tax, interest on a note will be included in the dividend equivalent amount of such Non-U.S. Holder if such interest is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States.

Absent further relevant guidance from the IRS, we intend to treat payments of additional amounts, if any, made to Non-U.S. Holders (as described above under Description of Notes Registration Rights; Additional Interest) as subject to United States federal withholding tax. Therefore, we intend to withhold on such payments at a rate of 30% unless the Non-U.S. Holder provides us or our paying agent, as the case may be, with a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8ECI claiming that such payments are subject to reduction or exemption from withholding. If we withhold tax from any payment of additional amounts made to you and such payment were determined not to be subject to United States federal tax, you generally would be entitled to a refund of any tax withheld.

Disposition of the Notes

Any gain realized on the sale, redemption, repurchase, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note by a Non-U.S. Holder (except to the extent such amount is attributable to accrued but unpaid stated interest, which would be taxable as described above) will be exempt from U.S. federal income and withholding taxes so long as: (i) the gain is not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States by such Non-U.S. Holder, (ii) in the case of a foreign individual, such Non-U.S. Holder is not present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year, and (iii) the notes do not constitute United States real property interests within the meaning of the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act (FIRPTA).

Although the applicable rules are not entirely clear, we intend to take the position that the notes will not constitute United States real property interests at the time of any sale, redemption, repurchase or exchange if we are a domestically-controlled REIT at such time. We will be a domestically-controlled REIT if at all times during a specified testing period we are a REIT and less than 50% in value of our common shares are held directly or indirectly by non-U.S. persons. We believe that, currently, we are a domestically controlled REIT and, therefore, the sale of our common shares would not be subject to taxation under FIRPTA. Because our common shares are publicly traded, however, we cannot guarantee that it is or will continue to be a domestically controlled REIT.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

If at the time of any redemption, repurchase or other taxable exchange, we cannot determine whether we are a domestically-controlled REIT, we intend to withhold 10% of any amounts payable on the redemption, repurchase or exchange by us of a note (including an exchange of a note for cash or our common shares). Further, any other sale or disposition of a note may be subject to federal income tax withholding if we are not a domestically-controlled REIT at the time of such sale or disposition.

S-45

You are urged to consult your tax advisor as to whether the sale, redemption, repurchase or other taxable exchange of a note is exempt from U.S. federal income tax under FIRPTA if our common shares are part of a class of stock that is regularly traded on an established securities market and you held notes that, on the date of their acquisition, had a fair market value of five percent or less of the fair market value of our common shares. We believe that our common shares should be currently treated as part of a class of stock that is regularly traded on an established securities market, but no assurance can be provided that our common shares will continue to be so treated. If a sale, redemption, repurchase or other taxable exchange of a note is exempt from U.S. federal income tax under FIRPTA, any amounts withheld from such payments to you may be refunded or credited against your federal income tax liability, if any, if you file with the IRS, on a timely basis, the required IRS forms.

Conversion of the Notes

To the extent you receive cash upon conversion of a note, you generally would be subject to the rules described under Non-U.S. Holders of the Notes Disposition of the Notes above. Otherwise, you generally will not recognize any income, gain or loss on the conversion of a note into common shares (except with respect to common shares received with respect to accrued interest, which would be taxable as described under Non-U.S. Holders of the Notes Interest).

Adjustments to Conversion Rate

The conversion rate is subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. Any such adjustment could, in certain circumstances, give rise to a deemed distribution or other income to Non-U.S. Holders of the notes. See U.S. Holders of the Notes Adjustments to Conversion Rate above. In such circumstances, we intend to take the position that you will be deemed to have received constructive distributions from us, even though you have not received any cash or property as a result of such adjustments. The deemed distribution would be subject to the rules described under Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations Taxation of Shareholders Taxation of Non-U.S. Holders.

In the case of a deemed distribution, because such deemed distribution will not give rise to any cash from which any applicable U.S. federal withholding tax can be satisfied, the indenture provides that we may set off any withholding tax that we are required to collect with respect to any such deemed distribution against cash payments of interest or from cash or shares of our common shares otherwise deliverable to a holder upon an exchange of notes or a redemption or repurchase of a note.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding Tax Applicable to Holders of the Notes

U.S. Holders

In general, backup withholding at the applicable rate will apply to payments on a note (including stated interest payments and payments of the proceeds from the sale, redemption, repurchase, exchange or other disposition of a note) to a U.S. Holder, unless the holder of the note (i) is a corporation or comes within certain exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates that fact or (ii) provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies as to its exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. You generally will be entitled to credit any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules against your U.S. federal income tax liability provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner. Information returns, to the extent required by applicable law, will be filed with the IRS in connection with payments on the notes.

Non-U.S. Holders

Information reporting requirements and backup withholding generally will not apply to payments on a note to a Non-U.S. Holder if the statement described above under Non-U.S. Holders of the Notes Interest is duly provided by such Holder, provided that the withholding agent does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the Holder is a U.S. person. Information reporting requirements and backup withholding will not apply to any payment of the proceeds of the sale of a note effected outside the United States by a foreign office of a broker (as defined in applicable Treasury Regulations), unless such broker (i) is a U.S. person, (ii) derives 50% or more of its gross income for certain periods from the conduct of a trade or business in the United States, (iii) is a controlled foreign corporation within the meaning of the Code or (iv) is a U.S. branch of a foreign bank or a foreign insurance company. Payment of the proceeds of any such sale effected outside the United States by a foreign office of any broker that is described in (i), (ii) or (iii) of the preceding sentence will not be subject to backup withholding, but will be subject to the information reporting requirements unless such broker has documentary evidence in its records that the beneficial owner is a Non-U.S. Holder and certain other conditions are met, or the beneficial owner otherwise establishes an exemption. Payment of the proceeds of any such sale to or through the U.S. office of a broker is subject to information reporting and backup withholding requirements, unless the beneficial owner of the note provides the statement described above under Non-U.S. Holders of the Notes Interest or otherwise establishes an exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld from a payment to a holder of a note under the backup withholding rules will be refunded or credited against the Non-U.S. Holder's federal income tax liability if certain required information is furnished to the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding application of backup withholding in their particular circumstances and the availability of and procedure for obtaining an exemption from backup withholding under current Treasury Regulations.

Treasury Circular 230 Disclosure

The preceding discussion of material U.S. federal income tax consequences and any other discussion in this prospectus supplement of the tax consequences or tax risks of an investment in the notes (collectively, written discussion) is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of avoiding tax penalties that may be imposed on the person. This discussion was written to support the marketing of the transaction(s) or matter(s) addressed by this written discussion, and the taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor. No limitation has been imposed by legal counsel on disclosure of the tax treatment or tax structure of the transaction.

SELLING SECURITY HOLDERS

We originally issued these notes in private placement transactions that were exempt from registration under the Securities Act. Selling security holders, including their transferees, pledgees or donees or their successors, may from time to time offer and sell the notes and the common shares into which the notes are convertible in certain circumstances pursuant to this prospectus supplement. Our registration of the notes and the common shares issuable, in certain circumstances, upon conversion of the notes does not necessarily mean that the selling security holders will sell all or any of the notes or the common shares. Unless set forth below, none of the selling security holders has had within the past three years any material relationship with us or any of our predecessors or affiliates.

The following table sets forth certain information concerning the principal amount of notes beneficially owned by each selling security holder and the number of common shares that may be offered from time to time by each selling security holder under this prospectus supplement. The information is based on information provided to us by or on behalf of the selling security holders on or prior to March 29, 2007. The number of common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes shown in the table below represents the maximum number of common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes assuming the conversion of the full amount of notes held by each holder at the initial conversion rate of 32.4002 common shares per $1,000 principal amounts of the notes. This conversion rate is subject to adjustments in certain circumstances.

Because the selling security holders may offer all or some portion of the notes or common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes, we have assumed for purposes of the table below that the named selling security holders will sell all of the notes or convert all of the notes and sell all of the common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes offered pursuant to this prospectus supplement. In addition, the selling security holders identified below may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of all or a portion of their notes since the date on which they provided the information regarding their notes in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Information about the selling security holders may change over time. Because the selling security holders may offer all or some of their notes or the underlying common shares from time to time, we cannot estimate the amount of notes or underlying common shares that will be held by the selling security holders upon the termination of any particular offering. See Plan of Distribution for further information.

To the extent any of the selling security holders identified below are, or are affiliated with, broker-dealers, they may be deemed to be, under SEC Staff interpretations, underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act.

To our knowledge, except as described below, the selling security holders have sole voting and investment power with respect to all of the securities shown as beneficially owned by them.

- (1) Amounts indicated may be in excess of the total amount registered due to sales or transfers exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act since the date upon which the selling security holders provided us with the information regarding their holdings of notes and common shares for inclusion herein.
- (2) Consists of common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes, assuming the initial conversion rate of 32.4002 common shares per $1,000 principal amount of notes and a cash payment in lieu of any fractional share interests. The conversion price is subject to adjustment as described in this prospectus supplement under Description of Notes Conversion Rights.
- (3) Calculated based on Rule 13d-3(d)(i) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, using 32,132,797 shares outstanding as of March 30, 2007. In calculating this amount, we treated as outstanding the number of common shares issuable upon conversion of all of the convertible notes held by a particular holder. However, we did not assume the conversion of the convertible notes held by any other holder.
- (4) Nathaniel Brown and Robert Richardson exercise voting and/or dispositive powers with respect to these securities.
- (5) GLG Market Neutral Fund is a publicly-owned company listed on the Irish Stock Exchange. GLG Partners LP, an English limited partnership, acts as the investment manager of the fund and has voting and dispositive power over the securities held by the fund. The shareholders of GLG Partners Limited are Noam Gottesman, Pierre Lagrange, Jonathan Green, Philippe Jabre and Lehman Brothers (Cayman) Limited, a subsidiary of Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc., a publicly-held entity. The managing directors of GLG Partners Limited are Noam Gottesman, Pierre Lagrange and Emmanuel Roman and, as a result, each has voting and dispositive power over the securities held by the fund. GLG Partners LP, GLG Partners Limited, Noam Gottesman, Pierre Lagrange and Emmanuel Roman disclaim beneficial ownership of the securities held by the Fund, except for their pecuniary interest therein.
- (6) Alan Smith, Blair Gauld, Dennis Hunter, Karla Bolden and Jim Rogers, directors of the selling security holder, exercise voting and/or dispositive powers with respect to these securities.
- (7) The selling security holder is a broker-dealer.
- (8) Jack Feiler, chief investment officer of Palisade Capital Management, LLC, exercises voting and/or dispositive powers with respect to these securities.
- (9) The selling security holder is an affiliate of a broker-dealer.

- (19) UBS O Connor LLC, the investment manager, exercises voting and/or dispositive powers with respect to these securities. UBS O Connor LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of UBS AG, a public company.
- (20) Shad Stastney, John Succo and Sky Lucas exercise voting and/or dispositive powers with respect to these securities.
- (21) D. E. Shaw & Co. L.P., as either managing member or investment adviser, exercises voting and/or dispositive powers with respect to any common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes. Julius Gaudio, Eric Wepsic, and Anne Dinning, or their designees, exercise voting and/or dispositive powers with respect to the notes on D. E. Shaw & Co. L.P.'s behalf.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling security holders and their successors, which includes their pledgees, donees, partnership distributees and other transferees receiving the notes and common shares, if any, issuable upon the conversion of the notes from the selling security holders in non-sale transfers, may sell the notes and the underlying common shares directly to purchasers or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents. Underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling security holders or the purchasers. These discounts, concessions or commissions may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved.

The notes and the underlying common shares may be sold in one or more transactions at:

- fixed prices that may be changed;
- prevailing market prices at the time of sale;
- prices related to the prevailing market prices;
- varying prices determined at the time of sale; or
- negotiated prices.

These sales may be effected in a variety of transactions, which may involve cross or block transactions, including the following:

- on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the notes or the common shares may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including the New York Stock Exchange in the case of the common shares;
- in the over-the-counter-market;
- in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market (privately negotiated transactions);

S-52

through the writing and exercise of options (including the issuance of derivative securities), whether these options or such other derivative securities are listed on an options or other exchange or otherwise; through the settlement of short sales; or through any combination of the foregoing, or by any legally available means.

These transactions may include block transactions or crosses. Crosses are transactions in which the same broker acts as an agent on both sides of the transaction.

Selling security holders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which may in turn engage in short sales of the notes or the underlying common shares and deliver these securities to close out short positions. In addition, the selling security holders may sell the notes and the underlying common shares short and deliver the notes and underlying common shares to close out short positions or loan or pledge the notes or the underlying common shares to broker-dealers or other financial institutions that in turn may sell such securities. Selling security holders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions that require the delivery to the broker-dealers or other financial institutions of the notes or the underlying common shares or enter into transactions in which a broker-dealer makes purchases as a principal for resale for its own account or through other types of transactions.

Selling security holders may decide not to sell all or a portion of the notes and the underlying common shares offered by them pursuant to this prospectus supplement. In addition, selling security holders may sell or transfer their notes and common shares issuable upon conversion of the notes other than by means of this prospectus supplement. In particular, any securities covered by this prospectus supplement that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144, Rule 144A or Regulation S under the Securities Act may be sold thereunder, rather than pursuant to this prospectus supplement.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling security holders from the sale of the notes or underlying common shares will be the purchase price of the notes or common shares less any discounts and commissions. A selling security holder reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents, to reject any proposed purchase of notes or common shares to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from this offering.

To comply with the securities laws of some jurisdictions, if applicable, the holders of notes and common shares into which the notes are convertible may sell in some jurisdictions through registered or licensed broker dealers. In addition, under certain circumstances in some jurisdictions, the holders of notes and the common shares into which the notes are convertible may be required to register or qualify the securities for sale or comply with an available exemption from the registration and qualification requirements.

The common shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol AKR. We do not intend to apply for listing of the notes on any securities exchange. The notes are designated for trading on The PORTAL Market. However, notes sold pursuant to this prospectus supplement will no longer be eligible for trading on The PORTAL Market. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the development of liquidity or any trading market for the notes.

The selling security holders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents who participate in the distribution of the notes and the underlying common shares may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act. As a result, any profits on the sale of the notes or the underlying common shares by selling security holders and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by any such broker-dealers or agents may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. If the selling security holders were deemed to be underwriters, the selling security holders will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act and may be subject to liabilities including, but not limited to, those of sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act.

If the notes and the underlying common shares are sold through underwriters or broker-dealers, the selling security holders will be responsible for underwriting discounts or commissions or agent's commissions.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

To the extent that any selling security holder is a broker-dealer, or is an affiliate of a broker-dealer that did not acquire its notes in the ordinary course of its business or that at the time of its purchase of its notes had an agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute its notes, the SEC may take the view that such selling security holder is, under the SEC's interpretations, an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act.

The selling security holders and any other persons participating in the distribution of the notes or underlying common shares will be subject to the Exchange Act. The Exchange Act rules include, without limitation, Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the notes and the underlying common shares by the selling security holders and any such other person. In addition, Regulation M of the Exchange Act may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the notes and the underlying common shares to engage in market making activities with respect to the particular notes and underlying common shares being distributed for a period of up to five business days prior to the commencement of such distribution. This may affect the marketability of the notes and the underlying common shares and the ability to engage in market making activities with respect to the notes and the underlying common shares.

We entered into a registration rights agreement for the benefit of the holders of the notes to register the notes and the common shares into which the notes are convertible under applicable federal securities laws under specific circumstances and specific times. Under the registration rights agreement, the selling security holders and us have agreed to indemnify each other and our respective controlling persons against, and in certain circumstances to provide contribution with respect to, specific liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the notes and the common shares, including liabilities under the Securities Act. We will pay substantially all of the expenses incident to the registration of the notes and the common shares, except that the selling security holders will pay all brokers' commissions and, in connection with an underwritten offering, if any, underwriting discounts and commissions. See Description of Notes Registration Rights; Additional Interest in this prospectus supplement.

Preferred Shares

Debt Securities

We may from time to time offer, in one or more series or classes, separately or together, and in amounts, at prices and on terms to be set forth in one or more supplements to this prospectus, the following securities:

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

our common shares;

our preferred shares; and/or debt securities, which may be either senior debt securities or subordinated debt securities.

We will offer our securities in amounts, at prices and on terms to be determined at the time we offer those securities. We will provide the specific terms of the securities in supplements to this prospectus. We are organized and conduct our operations so as to qualify as a real estate investment trust, or REIT, for federal income tax purposes. The specific terms of the securities may include limitations on actual, beneficial or constructive ownership and restrictions on transfer of the securities that may be appropriate to preserve our status as a REIT.

The securities may be offered on a delayed or continuous basis directly by us, through agents, underwriters or dealers as designated from time to time, through a combination of these methods or through any other method provided in the applicable prospectus supplement. You should read this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement carefully before you invest.

In addition, certain selling securityholders to be identified from time to time in a prospectus supplement may sell our securities that they own. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of our securities by selling securityholders.

Our common shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol AKR.

Investing in our securities involves risks. Before buying our securities, you should refer to the risk factors included in our periodic reports, in prospectus supplements relating to specific offerings and in other information that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. See Risk Factors on page 2.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

reference herein or therein is accurate as of any date other than their respective dates. Our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects may have changed since those dates.

As used in this prospectus, references to we, our, us, and Acadia are to Acadia Realty Trust, except as the context otherwise requires.

This prospectus is part of a shelf registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC. By using a shelf registration statement, we may sell common shares, preferred shares and debt securities from time to time in one or more offerings. This prospectus only provides you with a general description of the securities we may offer. Each time we sell securities, we will provide a supplement to this prospectus that will contain specific information about the terms of the securities offered, including the amount, the price and the terms determined at the time of the offering. The prospectus supplement may also add to, update or change information contained in this prospectus. Before purchasing any securities, you should carefully read both this prospectus and any supplement, together with additional information described under the heading Where You Can Find More Information.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the statements in, or incorporated by reference in, this prospectus or any applicable prospectus supplement constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements relate to expectations, beliefs, projections, future plans and strategies, anticipated events or trends and similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by terms such as anticipate, believe, could, estimate, expect, intend, may, plan, potential, should, will and would or the negative of these terms.

The forward-looking statements are based on our beliefs, assumptions and expectations of our future performance, taking into account all information currently available to us. These beliefs, assumptions and expectations can change as a result of many possible events or factors, not all of which are known to us or are within our control. If a change occurs, our business, financial condition, liquidity and results of operations may vary materially from those expressed in our forward-looking statements.

We expressly disclaim any obligation or undertaking to disseminate any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statement contained in this prospectus or any applicable prospectus supplement to reflect any change in our expectations with regard to the statements or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, except as required by law. In evaluating forward-looking statements, you should consider these risks and uncertainties, together with the other risks described from time to time in our reports and documents filed with the SEC, and you should not place undue reliance on those statements.

ACADIA REALTY TRUST

We are a fully integrated, self-managed and self-administered equity real estate investment trust, or REIT, focused primarily on the ownership, acquisition, redevelopment and management of retail properties, including neighborhood and community shopping centers and mixed-use properties with retail components. We currently operate 77 properties, which we own or have an ownership interest in. These assets are located primarily in the Northeast, Mid-Atlantic and Midwest regions of the United States and, in total, comprise approximately 10 million square feet.

All of our assets are held by, and all of our operations are conducted through, Acadia Realty Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership, or the Operating Partnership, and its majority-owned subsidiaries. As of the date of this prospectus, we controlled 98% of the Operating Partnership as the sole general partner. As the general partner, we are entitled to share, in proportion to our percentage interest, in the cash distributions and profits and losses of the Operating Partnership. The limited partners represent entities or individuals who contributed their interests in certain properties or partnerships to the Operating Partnership in exchange for common or preferred units of limited partnership interest, or OP Units. Limited partners holding Common OP Units are generally entitled to exchange their units on a one-for-one basis for our common shares. Holders of our Preferred OP Units are entitled to convert their units into Common OP Units at certain fixed conversion prices and are entitled to preferred quarterly distributions.

Our common shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol AKR. Our executive offices are located at 1311 Mamaroneck Avenue, Suite 260, White Plains, New York 10605 and our telephone number is (914) 288-8100.

We maintain an internet website at <http://www.acadiarealty.com>. We are not incorporating by reference in this prospectus any material from our website, and we have provided an inactive textual reference to the website's uniform resource locator (URL) for your reference only.

RISK FACTORS

Before you invest in any of our securities, in addition to the other information in this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, you should carefully consider the risk factors under the heading "Risk Factors" contained in Part I, Item 1A in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and any risk factors disclosed under the heading "Risk Factors" in Part II, Item 1A in our most recent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed after our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, as the same may be updated from time to time by our future filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We intend to use the net proceeds from the sales of the securities as set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement.

RATIOS OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table sets forth our ratios of earnings to fixed charges for the periods indicated:

	Nine Months ended		Years ended
	September 30, 2006	2005	December 31, 2005	2004	2003	2002	2001
Ratio of earnings to fixed charges	1.30x	1.83x	2.70x	1.69x	1.63x	2.04x	1.39x

For the purpose of calculating the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings have been calculated by adding minority interest attributable to continuing operations, income or loss from equity investees, fixed charges and distributed income of equity investees to income from continuing operations before income taxes, less capitalized interest and preferred distributions of consolidated subsidiaries. Fixed charges consist of interest costs, whether expensed or capitalized, amortization of deferred financing costs, amortization of discounts or premiums related to indebtedness and preferred distributions of consolidated subsidiaries.

DESCRIPTION OF SHARES OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST

This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Declaration of Trust and Bylaws, each as amended or restated. See "Where You Can Find More Information" in this prospectus.

General

Under our Declaration of Trust, we may issue 100,000,000 common shares, par value $0.001 per share. All common shares, when issued, are duly authorized, fully paid and nonassessable. This means that the full price for the shares has been paid at the time of issuance and consequently that any holder of such shares will not later be required to pay us any additional money for the same. As of December 31, 2006, 31,772,952 of our common shares were issued and outstanding, as were 642,272 of Common OP Units of the Operating Partnership, which are convertible into the same number of our common shares (subject to anti-dilution adjustments).

In addition, 2,212 Series A Preferred OP Units of the Operating Partnership were issued at a price of $1,000 per unit to certain individuals on November 16, 1999. These Series A Preferred OP Units are convertible into Common OP Units at a conversion price of $7.50 per unit and are entitled to a preferred quarterly distribution of the greater of (a) $22.50 per Series A Preferred OP Unit (9% annually) or (b) the quarterly distribution attributable to a Series A Preferred OP Unit if such unit were converted into a Common OP Unit. A total of 188 Series A Preferred OP Units were outstanding as of December 31, 2006.

On January 27, 2004, 4,000 Series B Preferred OP Units of the Operating Partnership were issued in connection with the acquisition of the rights to provide asset management, leasing, disposition, development and construction services for an existing portfolio of retail properties from Klaff Realty, L.P. ("Klaff"). These units are entitled to a quarterly preferred distribution of the greater of (i) $13.00 (5.2% annually) per unit or (ii) the quarterly distribution attributable to a Preferred OP Unit if such unit were converted into a Common OP Unit. The Series B Preferred OP Units are convertible at any time into Common OP Units based on the stated value of $1,000 divided by $12.82. Additionally, the holder of the Series B Preferred OP Units may redeem their units at par for either cash or Common OP Units (at our option) after the earlier of the third anniversary of their issuance, or the occurrence of certain events, including a change in our control. After the fifth anniversary of the issuance, we may redeem the Series B Preferred OP Units and convert them into Common OP Units at market value as of the redemption date. In response to a subsequent request from Klaff, our board of trustees approved a waiver on February 24, 2004 which allows Klaff to redeem 1,500 Series B Preferred OP Units at any time. Klaff has not redeemed any Series B Units as of the date of this prospectus.

Effective February 15, 2005, we acquired the balance of Klaff's rights to provide the above-referenced services and certain potential future revenue streams. In consideration for this transaction, we issued 250,000 restricted Common OP Units to Klaff. These units are convertible into our common shares on a one-for-one basis after a five-year lock-up period.

Our common shares have equal dividend, liquidation and other rights, and have no preference, exchange or appraisal rights, except for any appraisal rights provided by Maryland law. Holders of our common shares have no conversion, sinking fund or redemption rights, or preemptive rights to subscribe for any of our securities.

Distributions

Holders of our common shares may receive distributions out of assets that we can legally use to pay distributions, when and if they are authorized and declared by our board of trustees. Each common shareholder shares in the same proportion as other common shareholders out of the assets that we can legally use to pay distributions after we pay or make adequate provision for all of our known debts and liabilities in the event we are liquidated, dissolved or our affairs are wound up.

Voting Rights

Holders of common shares have the power to vote on all matters presented to our shareholders, including the election of trustees, except as otherwise provided by Maryland law. Our Declaration of Trust prohibits us from merging or selling all or substantially all of our assets without the approval of two-thirds of the outstanding shares that are entitled to vote on such matters. Holders of common shares are entitled to one vote per share.

There is no cumulative voting in the election of our trustees, which means that holders of more than 50% of the common shares voting for the election of trustees can elect all of the trustees if they choose to do so and the holders of the remaining shares cannot elect any trustees.

Restrictions on Ownership and Transfer

To qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code, we must satisfy certain ownership requirements. Specifically, not more than 50% in value of our outstanding common shares may be owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code to include certain entities) during the last half of a taxable year, and the common shares must be beneficially owned by 100 or more persons during at least 335 days of a taxable year of twelve months or during a proportionate part of a shorter taxable year. We must also satisfy certain income requirements to maintain our REIT status. One such requirement is that at least 75% of our gross income for each calendar year must consist of rents from real property and income from certain other real property investments. This is complicated by the fact that the rents received by the Operating Partnership will not qualify as rents from real property if we own, actually or constructively, 10% or more of the ownership interests in our lessees, within the meaning of section 856(d)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. See "Certain Federal Income Tax Considerations" in this prospectus.

Because our board of trustees believes it is essential for us to continue to qualify as a REIT, our Declaration of Trust contains provisions aimed at satisfying the requirements described above. In regard to the ownership requirements, the Declaration of Trust provided that no person may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution rules of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 9.8% in value or number, whichever is more restrictive, of the issued and outstanding shares of any of our class or series of shares of beneficial interest, subject to certain exceptions. The trustees may waive this limitation if evidence satisfactory to them or our tax counsel is presented that such ownership will not jeopardize our status as a REIT. As a condition of such waiver, the trustees may require opinions of counsel satisfactory to them and/or an undertaking from the applicant with respect to preserving our REIT status.

Our Declaration of Trust also provides that any purported transfer or issuance of shares or securities transferable into shares which would (i) violate the 9.8% limitation described above, (ii) result in shares being owned by fewer than 100 persons for purposes of the REIT provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, (iii) result in our being "closely held" with the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (iv) otherwise jeopardize our REIT status under the Internal Revenue Code (including a transfer which would cause us to own, actually or constructively, 9.8% or more of the ownership interests in one of our lessees) will be null and void ab initio (from the beginning). Moreover, common shares transferred, or proposed to be transferred, in contravention of the above will be subject to purchase by us at a price equal to the lesser of (i) the price stipulated in the challenged transaction and (ii) the fair market value of such shares (determined in accordance with the rules set forth in our Declaration of Trust).

All certificates representing the common shares bear a legend referring to the restrictions described above.

The ownership limitations described above could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a takeover or other transaction in which holders of some, or a majority, of common shares might receive a premium for their shares over the then prevailing market price or which such holders might believe to be otherwise in their best interest.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for our common shares is American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, which has an address at 40 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFERS OF COMMON SHARES AND ANTI-TAKEOVER PROVISIONS

Maryland Law

Business Combinations. Section 8-301(14) of the Maryland General Corporation Law (MGCL) permits a Maryland REIT to enter into a business combination (including a merger, consolidation, share exchange or, in certain circumstances, an asset transfer or issuance or reclassification of equity securities) on the same terms as a Maryland corporation under the MGCL. Under the MGCL, certain business combinations between a Maryland corporation and any person who beneficially owns 10% or more of the voting power of such corporation s shares, or an affiliate of such corporation who, at any time within the two-year period prior to the date in question, was the beneficial owner of 10% or more of the voting power of the then-outstanding voting shares of such corporation (an Interested Stockholder) or an affiliate thereof, are prohibited for five years after the most recent date on which the Interested Stockholder becomes an Interested Stockholder. Thereafter, any such business combination must be recommended by the board of directors of such corporation and approved by the affirmative vote of at least (a) 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding shares of voting stock of such corporation and (b) two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of shares of voting stock of such corporation other than the shares held by the Interested Stockholder with whom (or with whose affiliate) the business combination is to be effected, unless, among other conditions, the corporation s common shareholders receive a minimum price (as defined in the MGCL) for their shares and the consideration is received in cash or in the same form as previously paid by the Interested Stockholder for its shares.

Additional Anti-Takeover Provisions. As an additional anti-takeover defense, Maryland law permits publicly-held Maryland statutory REITs to elect to be governed by all or any part of Maryland law provisions relating to unsolicited takeovers, as described below. The election to be governed by one or more of these provisions can be made by a publicly-held Maryland REIT in its Declaration of Trust or Bylaws (charter documents) or by resolution adopted by its board of trustees so long as it has at least three trustees who, at the time of electing to be subject to the provisions, are not officers or employees, are not persons seeking to acquire control of the REIT, are not trustees, officers, affiliates or associates of any person seeking to acquire control, and were not nominated or designated as trustees by a person seeking to acquire control. Our charter documents do not contain any such provisions.

However, if the charter documents do not already contain these provisions, a REIT may adopt one or more of these additional anti-takeover provisions by a board resolution or a Bylaw amendment, following which it must file articles supplementary to its Declaration of Trust with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation. Shareholder approval is not required for the filing of these articles supplementary. Our board of trustees has not passed any such resolution or Bylaw amendment and we have not filed such articles supplementary.

A Maryland REIT may elect to be subject to all or any portion of the following anti-takeover provisions of Maryland law, notwithstanding any contrary provisions in the REIT s charter documents:

Classified Board: A REIT may divide its board into three classes which, to the extent possible, will have the same number of trustees, the terms of which will expire at the third annual meeting of shareholders after the election of each class, with the first class term expiring one year after adoption, the second class term expiring two years later and the third class term expiring three years later. We do not have a classified board.

Two-thirds Shareholder Vote to Remove Trustees: If the REIT has a classified board, the shareholders may remove any trustee only by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all votes entitled to be cast by the shareholders generally in the election of trustees, but a trustee may not be removed without cause. If the REIT does not have a classified board, the shareholders may remove any trustee only by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all votes entitled to be cast by the shareholders generally in the election of trustees, with or without cause.

Size of Board Fixed by Vote of Board: The number of trustees will be fixed only by resolution of the board, but the number cannot be less than three trustees.

Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form 424B3

Board Vacancies Filled by the Board for the Remaining Term: Vacancies that result from an increase in the size of the board, or the death, resignation, or removal of a trustee, may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining trustees even if they do not constitute a quorum. Trustees elected to fill vacancies will hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of trustees in which the vacancy occurred, as opposed to until the next annual meeting of shareholders, and until a successor is elected and qualified.

Shareholder Calls of Special Meetings: Special meetings of shareholders may be called by the secretary of a REIT only upon the written request of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of all votes entitled to be cast at the meeting and only in accordance with procedures set out in the MGCL.

As we have stated above, we have not elected to be subject to any of the foregoing anti-takeover provisions.

DESCRIPTION OF PREFERRED SHARES

This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Declaration of Trust and Bylaws, each as amended or restated. See "Where You Can Find More Information" in this prospectus.

General

Subject to limitations prescribed by Maryland law and our Declaration of Trust, our board of trustees is authorized to issue one or more series of preferred shares from time to time and, with respect to any such series, to fix the designations, numbers, preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms or conditions of redemption of such series.

Reference is made to any supplement to this prospectus relating to the preferred shares offered thereby for specific items, including:

- The title and stated value of such preferred shares;
- The number of such preferred shares offered, the liquidation preference per share and the offering price of such preferred shares;
- The distribution rate(s), period(s), and/or payment date(s) or method(s) of calculation thereof applicable to such preferred shares;
- The date from which distributions on such preferred shares shall accumulate, if applicable;
- The procedures for any auction and remarketing, if any, for such preferred shares;
- The provision for a sinking fund, if any, for such preferred shares;
- The provision for redemption, if applicable, of such preferred shares;
