TELEFONICA CTC CHILE ANNOUNCES THE PUBLICATION OF ITS CODE OF ETHICS

(Santiago, Chile - 2 de septiembre, 2003) Compania de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. (NYSE: CTC) ("Telefonica CTC Chile" o la "Compania") announces the publication of its code of business ethics which includes business principles and ethics that must be upheld in the decisions and actions of all those who work at Telefonica CTC Chile. These are guided by the commitment of the Company with its employees, shareholders, clients, providers and with the community in general.

The published rule forms part of the reinforcement in the internal controls of the Company as a publicly listed corporation in the international markets and in compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 2002.

The text with this code of ethics is available in the Company's investor relations website: HTTP://WWW.CTC.CL/INVESTORS/INFORMACION/INDEX.HTML

Edgar Filing: TELECOMMUNICATIONS CO OF CHILE - Form 6-K

Compania de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A., the first South American company to list shares on the New York Stock Exchange, is the largest telecommunications enterprise in Chile, providing local service, as well as domestic and international long distance services throughout the country. Additionally, the Company provides equipment marketing, data transmission, value-added services and information systems services and operates a nationwide cellular network.

This news release contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1996, including but not limited to Compania de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.'s expectations for its performance for the year 2002. Forward looking statements may also be identified by words such as "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "projects", "intends", "should", "seeks", "estimates", "future", or similar expressions. The forward looking statements included in this news release are based on current expectations, but actual results may differ materially from anticipated future results due to various factors many of which are beyond the control of Compania de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. and its subsidiaries. Certain factors which could cause the actual results of Compania de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. and its subsidiaries to differ materially from the expected results include, among others, changes in Chile's regulatory framework, impact of increased competition and other factors beyond Compania de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.'s control.

BUSINESS ETHICS CODE

OBJECTIVE:

To establish a Business Ethics Code that declares the ethical values that must guide the actions and behavior of the employees of Telefonica CTC Chile and its subsidiaries, both internally and externally.

APPLICABLE TO:

Employees of Telefonica CTC Chile and its subsidiaries

VALUES AND PRINCIPLES OF TELEFONICA CTC CHILE

We are Telefonica CTC Chile, a publicly held stock corporation that is part of the Telefonica Group. We are fully committed with the advancement of our country and the integral development of its telecommunications industry. We aim to be a company admired for the excellence of its services and the transparency of its actions. In this effort we must act in accordance with our principles and ethical values regarding our customers, vendors, employees, stockholders, the government and its regulatory agencies, and the community in general.

Our Customers are the reason of our existence. We must direct all our efforts to them. Customer satisfaction should be the measure of our own satisfaction. We must be sure to understand, attend and fulfill all their needs by offering them products and services of the highest quality in relation to their price. We will never try to take undue advantage of our customers solely to make temporary profit. We will always sell our products and services honestly and fairly, relying solely on the product's attributes. We must give preference to a long term relationship with our customers based on fairness and mutual gain. If our customers should have complains or requests ,we will make our best effort to attend to their concerns in a efficient and timely manner that will demonstrate, by our attitudes and acts, our ongoing commitment to service.

Our Vendors must feel that we appreciate their contribution to the commitment we have acquired with our customers and the performance of the Company. We intend to form mutually satisfactory long-term relationships that will allow the Company to stay current and competitive in the marketplace. Our commitment to them is to maintain fair and rigorously impartial relationships, without discrimination or exclusions. The reason for selecting one vendor over another must be only merit-based. In the same way we expect our vendors' collaboration, commitment and comprehension for the needs and decisions of the Company, we must put all our effort in fulfilling our commitment to our vendors.

Our Employees are the foundation of our actions. We fully respect their privacy and dignity. Our commitment is to offer them a comfortable work environment, in which they can develop their personal and professional potential. We intend to provide them with broad opportunities for training and participation in personal development and improvement programs, particularly in the use of new technologies. We will spare no effort in providing a safe working environment that is protective of their health, security and personal integrity.

Our personnel policies are based on principles of equal employment opportunities and the outmost respect for employee associations. There will be no form of discrimination in employment practices, so our employees can enjoy equal employment opportunities and treatment, regardless of ethnic origin, political beliefs, sex, age, handicap or religion. We fully respect the employee's rights to form and join unions or associations, provided solely that they adhere to the law and abide by the bylaws. In the absence of a union, the Company will remain absolutely neutral to the preferences taken by the employees, whether they decide to form and then join unions or to stay as is. We unreservedly acknowledge the right of every employee to decide whether their employment contracts will be negotiated collectively or individually.

We expect a lot from our employees. For sure, the highest standards of technical excellency and professional behavior. We expect them to put the success of the Company over partial or personal interests and to be accountable for their decisions and actions. We also expect an unquestionable ethical behavior both in their professional and personal life. We consider responsibility, honesty, proactiveness, diligence, professionalism, objectivity and respect towards others, values that should guide all of our actions.

We must all put special attention to situations which present conflicts of interest with either customers or vendors. That is how we preserve fairness in our relations and the legality of our decisions. Any information, resources or influences that are available to us as a result of our position can never be used directly or indirectly for the benefit of ourselves or third parties in violation of laws or to the detriment of the interests of the Company.

We also expect from our employees their commitment to the Company, the unrestricted defense of the Company's interests and patrimonial integrity, the efficient use of its goods and resources for the Company only, with a view towards savings, physical preservation and rational utilization. We consider it primordial to uphold all laws and regulations that apply to us, as well as the rigorous handling of confidential information available on the Company, which must be kept with special zeal, especially the ones regarding our employees, customers and vendors.

The correct use of privileged information deserves special mention. It should never be used for personal gain nor to induce third parties to trade securities, which price might be influenced by this information. Persons with access to privileged information, must not perform any type of transaction that uses that information nor disclose it, communicate it, nor recommend or advice third parties to acquire or sell securities based on that information.

Finally we expect our employees to contribute with their attitudes and behavior to create an environment of trust and respect in which rules of healthy coexistence are observed and conducts that could be interpreted as contempt or disrespect towards other co-workers are avoided. This does not imply tolerance of inappropriate conducts of others. Ethical behavior is a shared responsibility and violations or deviations from this principles and values affect us all without distinction. We must all become custodians of the ethical patrimony of the Company.

Our commitment to the shareholders. We are the trustees of our shareholders. They expect our decisions and actions to be aligned with the creation of value, and we owe the utmost transparency. We will also try to provide profitability in line with market conditions, with a sound, forward-looking business model.

Our commitment to the government and its regulatory agencies is to uphold the governing laws and regulation aplicable to the Company and to contribute in maintaining a modern and competitive Telecommunications insdustry.

Our Company is committed to the development of Chile and the well-being of its people, in its own area of action. In particular, the Company will conduct its operations and will provide its services respecting all current legislation and adopting measures to protect the environment. It will also maintain shareholders, regulators and the public at large fully and promptly informed of all matters inherent to it, and it will encourage the development of the telecommunications industry in the country through the services it provides.
