Stock Separation and Conversion

NOTICE OF SEPARATION AND CONVERSION

Internacional de Ceramica, S.A. de C.V., (the "Company") hereby announces that in accordance with the Third Article of the Company's Bylaws, on December 7, 2004, the Company realized the separation of its securities currently designated as "Common Units" and "Limited Voting Units" from (i) with respect to the Common Units, two Series B Common Shares trading together to two separately trading Series B Shares, and (ii) with respect to the Limited Voting Units, one Series D Dividend Preference Share and one Series L Limited Voting Share trading together, to one separately trading Series D Share and one separately trading Series L Share.

Simultaneously with the separation, each Series L Share will convert into one Series B Share, such that after the separation and conversion, the Company's stock structure will be comprised of Series B Shares and Series D Shares only, and the Series L Shares will cease to exist as a class of the Company's capital stock. Holders of former Limited Voting Units will thus hold one Series B Share and one Series D Share for each Limited Voting Unit formerly held by the holder, and holders of former Common Units will hold two Series B Shares for each Common Unit formerly held by them.
