Section 1 – Conflict Minerals Disclosure

Item 1.01. Conflict Minerals Disclosure and Report

Conflict Minerals Disclosure

Uroplasty, Inc. has evaluated the products that Uroplasty and its subsidiaries manufacture or contract to manufacture and has determined that certain products contain certain “conflict minerals,” which, for purposes of this specialized disclosure report on Form SD, mean columbite-tantalite (coltan), cassiterite, gold, wolframite, and their derivatives, tantalum, tin and tungsten, that are necessary for the functionality or production of the products.

Pursuant to Uroplasty’s evaluation and analysis, it has determined that two of its products contain conflict minerals. Both of such products are outsourced and manufactured for Uroplasty by two separate suppliers. Uroplasty relied on these suppliers to provide them with information on the origin of the conflict minerals contained in the products they supply to Uroplasty, including sources of conflict minerals that are supplied to them from lower tier suppliers. Based upon its reasonable country of origin inquiry, Uroplasty has determined that (1) it has no reason to believe that the conflict minerals contained from one its products came from the Democratic Republic of the Congo or adjoining countries, and (2) it was unable to determine the origin of the conflict minerals contained in its other product, or to determine whether such conflict minerals come from recycled or scrap sources, the facilities used to process them, their country of origin, or their mine or location of origin. Uroplasty’s Conflict Minerals Report, as filed as Exhibit 1.02 to this specialized disclosure report on Form SD and incorporated by reference herein, contains Uroplasty’s determinations, its reasonable country of origin inquiry and the results of the inquiry it performed. Further, a copy of Uroplasty’s Conflict Minerals Report is publicly available under the “Investors-Corporate Governance-Conflict Minerals” section of Uroplasty’s corporate website at www.uroplasty.com.
