Item 2.01. COMPLETION OF ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS.

As previously disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 1, 2006, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement, dated as of May 25, 2006, with Crosby Capital, LLC ("Crosby") to acquire all of the limited partnership interests of Argosy Energy International ("Argosy") and all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Argosy Energy Corp. (the "Argosy Acquisition"). On June 20, 2006, the Company closed the Argosy Acquisition and paid consideration to Crosby consisting of $37,500,000 cash, 870,647 shares of the Company's Common Stock and overriding and net profits interests in certain of Argosy's assets, valued at $1,000,000. The Securities Purchase Agreement between the Company and Crosby was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 1, 2006 as Exhibit 10.18 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K.

The Company additionally agreed to register the 870,647 shares of its Common Stock issued as consideration to Crosby in the Argosy Acquisition. On June 20, 2006, the Company executed a registration rights agreement with Crosby, pursuant to which the Company has committed to file a registration statement covering such shares within 45 days of the effective date of the registration statement covering the securities issued to investors in the Offering. The Company shall use reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective no later than 120 days after the date it is filed, unless the registration statement is subject to review by the SEC, in which case the Company will have 150 days from the filing date in which to have the registration statement declared effective. The Company will be required to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement until all shares registered thereunder have been sold or until the registration exemption provided in Rule 144(k) promulgated under the Securities Act has been satisfied with respect to all of the shares of Common Stock issued to Crosby, whichever is earlier. The registration rights agreements provide that the Company will be liable for customary penalties if the registration statement is not effective on the date by which the Company is required to cause it to become effective, or if the Company fails to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement for the require period. The foregoing description is qualified by the Registration Rights Agreement by and between the Company and Crosby attached hereto as Exhibit 10.27.

ITEM 5.03. AMENDMENT TO BYLAWS.

On June 15, 2006, the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") unanimously approved the amendment and restatement of the Company's bylaws (the "Amended and Restated Bylaws," and the former bylaws herein referred to as the "Original Bylaws") to be effective June 15, 2006. The Amended and Restated Bylaws, among other things, contain the following changes from the Original Bylaws:

- A record date to determine stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of the stockholders shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting, and such notice of a stockholder meeting shall be delivered to the stockholder within the same time period. The Original Bylaws required a record date to be set no more than 60 days before a stockholder meeting, but did not provide the minimum 10-day requirement, and required notice of stockholder meetings to be sent to stockholders at least 10 days before the meeting, but did not limit the notice to 60 days prior to the meeting.
- A quorum at a stockholder meeting shall be the majority of the outstanding shares of the capital stock entitled to vote. The Original Bylaws provided that a quorum consisted of two stockholders present or being represented by proxy at a stockholder meeting.
- Provides procedure for stockholders to give notice and propose business to be considered by stockholders at an annual meeting. The Original Bylaws did not provide such a procedure.
- Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by ballot. The Original Bylaws did not specify the required vote for the election of directors.
- Provides for appointment of one or more inspectors of elections, and the duties thereof, which the Original Bylaws did not address.

- A stockholder may vote by proxy, but no proxy shall be voted after eleven months from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. Also, a stockholder may revoke any proxy which is not irrevocable by attending the meeting and voting in person or by filing with the person recording the proceedings of the meeting an instrument in writing revoking the proxy or another duly executed proxy bearing a later date. The Original Bylaws did not set a default time period for the voting of a proxy and did provide a procedure for the revocation of a proxy.
 - Directors shall hold office until the next meeting of stockholders held for the purpose of electing the Board or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified, or until a director's prior death, resignation or removal. The Original Bylaws did not provide for the continuation of the directorships if no stockholder meeting was held for the purpose of electing the Board.
- Between successive meetings, directors have the power to appoint one or more additional directors to fill any vacancies and any director so appointed shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the Company or until his successor is duly elected and qualified but such director shall be eligible for election at the next meeting of stockholders held for the purpose of electing directors and the number of directors will be increased accordingly. The Original Bylaws limit the number of directors that can be appointed between successive annual meetings to no more than one-half of the number of directors fixed at the last stockholder meeting at which directors were elected.
- Provides notice requirements for regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and what is deemed to constitute such notice. The Original Bylaws did not contain such detail.
- Any director may be removed from office only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of at least 67% of the voting power of all of the outstanding voting stock. The Original Bylaws allowed a director to be removed without cause by two-thirds vote of the stockholders.
- Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services as Directors or as members of any committees of the board of directors, but by resolution of the Board a fixed fee and the expenses of attendance may be allowed for attendance at each meeting. The Original Bylaws provided that remuneration may be determined from time to time by the Board, or if directors decide, by the stockholders.
- Establishes the Chairman of the Board as an elected officer of the Company and provides for the duties of the officers of the Company. The Original Bylaws did not contain similar provisions.
- The fiscal year of the Company shall begin on the first day of January and end on the thirty-first day of December of each year. The Original Bylaws allowed the Board to determine the Company's fiscal year from time to time without amending the Original Bylaws.
- Dividends may be declared by the Board from time to time on its outstanding shares of capital stock, pursuant to the terms of the Company's Articles of Incorporation. The Original Bylaws required the approval of the holders of a majority of the class or series of capital stock to be issued dividends.
- The Chairman of the Board, President or any Vice President may appoint an attorney or agent of the Company, in the name of and on behalf of the Company, to cast the votes which the Company may be entitled to cast as the holder of stock or securities in any other corporation. The Original Bylaws did not contain a similar provision.
- The permissions and restrictions on conflict of interests involving directors of the Company, as addressed under Nevada law, are not included in the Amended and Restated Bylaws. Such provisions of Nevada law were summarized in the Original Bylaws.

·Indemnification shall be provided to officers, directors and employees to the extent allowed under Nevada law. The Original Bylaws provided circumstances under which directors, officers and employees would be indemnified. The Amended and Restated Bylaws further allow for the advancement of expenses and provide that indemnification shall continue for persons who are no longer directors, officers or employees for actions taken while they were acting in such capacities, which was not provided for in the Original Bylaws.

The descriptions of the new provisions of the Amended and Restated Bylaws and the provisions of the Original Bylaws contained in this Current Report are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.5 and incorporated herein by reference.
