Item 8.01 Other Events

In connection with discontinued operations, Cooper Tire & Rubber Company (the "Company") incurred a net charge of $35 million for a U.S. tax obligation due to the settlement of a taxation matter for an Advanced Pricing Agreement that was initiated prior to the sale of a former subsidiary. The resulting cash impact to the Company of the above settlement consists of two parts, a tax obligation in the U.S. of approximately $35 million and a refund of taxes paid in Canada of approximately $70 million. On August 3, 2009, Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc., the company that acquired the former subsidiary, filed voluntary petitions for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S Bankruptcy Code. Based upon these facts, the Company does not believe the criteria for recognition of the refund receivable has been met and will not record a receivable until the certainty of realization is assured. The Company will pursue all options to recover the tax refunds owed to it under the sale agreement.
