Item 8.01.

Other Events

On August 20, 2009, Power Efficiency Corporation, (the "Company") issued a press release, announcing the Company completed a private placement of $835,000 worth of preferred stock and warrants. The Company had previously announced the sale of such securities in their quarterly report on Form 10-Q, dated August 14, 2009.

On August 12, 2009, the Company issued and sold 20,875 units, each unit consisting of one share of the Company's Series C Preferred Stock, par value $.001 per share, and 50 warrants to purchase shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.40 per share, resulting in the sale and issuance of an aggregate of 20,875 shares of Series C Preferred Stock and warrants to purchase, initially, up to 1,043,750 shares of the Company's common stock, in a private offering for $835,000 in cash. The securities were issued pursuant to Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933. All of the purchasers of Units were either officers, directors or pre-existing stockholders of the Company. Each of these purchasers represented that they were an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Regulation D of the Securities Act. All of the investors were either officers, directors or pre-existing stockholders of the Company. The Chairman & CEO, Steven Strasser, as well as the Company's recently hired Executive Vice President & COO, Scott Johnson, and a director, Ken Dickey, were among the investors.

Each share of Series C Preferred Stock is initially convertible into 100 shares of the Company's common stock, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances. The Series C Preferred Stock is convertible at the option of the holder at any time. The Series C Preferred Stock is also subject to mandatory conversion in the event the average closing price of the Company's common stock for any ten day period equals or exceeds $1.00 per share, such conversion to be effective on the trading day immediately following such ten day period. The Series C Preferred Stock has an 8% dividend, payable annually in cash or stock, at the discretion of the Company's board of directors.
