ITEM 8.01

Other Events.

On February 11, 2010, Genetics Technologies Limited (the “Plaintiff”) filed a complaint (the “Complaint”) in the United States District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin. The Complaint names Interleukin Genetics, Inc. (“Interleukin”) and eight other corporations as defendants (the “Defendants”) in an alleged patent infringement lawsuit (Genetics Technologies Limited vs. Beckman Coulter, Inc., et. al., Civil Action No. 10-CV-00069, W.D. Wis., filed February 11, 2010). The Complaint alleges that the Defendants make, use or sell products or services that infringe one or more claims of the patent owned by the Plaintiff, U.S. Patent No. 5,612,179 (the “ ’179 Patent”), which expires on March 10, 2010. In Interleukin’s case, the Complaint alleges that Interleukin offers and provides genetic risk assessment testing services that utilize methods set forth in one or more claims of the ‘179 Patent. Interleukin has not yet been served with the Complaint, however, on February 12, 2010, the Plaintiff alerted Interleukin to the filing of the Complaint and offered Interleukin a draft license agreement, pursuant to which the Plaintiff would grant Interleukin the right to license the ‘179 Patent in exchange for an as yet undetermined license fee. Interleukin believes that it has substantial defenses to the claims asserted in the Complaint.
