BROOKFIELD HOMES AND BROOKFIELD OFFICE PROPERTIES' RESIDENTIAL UNIT TO COMBINE TO CREATE A LEADING NORTH AMERICAN LAND AND HOUSING COMPANY

(All figures are in U.S. dollars unless otherwise indicated)

NEW YORK and FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA, October 5, 2010 – Brookfield Properties Corporation (BPO: NYSE, TSX) (“Brookfield Office Properties”) and Brookfield Homes Corporation (BHS: NYSE) (“Brookfield Homes”) today announced that they have entered into a definitive agreement to combine Brookfield Homes and the North American residential land and housing division of Brookfield Office Properties (“BPO Residential”) into Brookfield Residential Properties Inc. (“Brookfield Residential”). The transaction will create a diversified North American residential land and housing company with $2.5 billion of assets and an equity value of approximately $1 billion. An application will be made to list the common shares of Brookfield Residential on the New York and Toronto stock exchanges.

“Brookfield Residential Properties will be the sixth largest residential platform in North America, with the financial strength and geographic diversity needed to thrive in the marketplace, both today and in the future,” said Alan Norris, who will be President and Chief Executive Officer of Brookfield Residential. “The company will put proven, best-in-class operating skills to work in some of the most attractive regions in North America.”

“We are pleased to be bringing a strong and diversified residential land and housing company to existing and potential shareholders and at the same time creating a world-class, pure-play global office property company at Brookfield Office Properties,” added Ric Clark, President and Chief Executive Officer of Brookfield Office Properties.

Merits of the Transaction

The Board of Directors of Brookfield Homes formed a special committee of independent directors to consider and negotiate the proposed transaction. The special committee determined that the transaction is advisable and fair to the public stockholders of Brookfield Homes. In unanimously recommending the transaction to the board of directors and stockholders of Brookfield Homes, the Brookfield Homes special committee noted that the transaction is expected to realize the following key benefits to Brookfield Homes:

strategic opportunity to further enhance value through the creation of a diversified North American residential land and housing company;

greater financial flexibility and expected benefits from the combined cash flows of Brookfield Homes and BPO Residential;

Brookfield Residential will have a stronger capital structure, which will better position the company to both withstand adverse business, financial and economic developments and take advantage of business opportunities;

stockholders of Brookfield Homes, through ownership of Brookfield Residential, will participate in Brookfield Residential's growth and any value created by operating synergies, greater financial flexibility and improvements in residential industry fundamentals; and conversion of substantially all of the 8% convertible preferred shares of Brookfield Homes into common stock.

The Board of Directors of Brookfield Office Properties formed an independent committee to assess the terms of the proposed transaction. The committee received an opinion as to fairness of the transaction from a financial point of view. The committee determined that the transaction is reasonable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Brookfield Office Properties and unanimously recommended that the Board of Directors of Brookfield Office Properties approve the transaction. The Board of Directors of Brookfield Office Properties believes that the transaction will further Brookfield Office Properties' strategic repositioning as a pure-play global office company. Further, the transaction structure provides Brookfield Office Properties with the certainty of completing the sale of its residential business and all of its shareholders will have the opportunity, through the rights offering process described below, to participate in the ownership of Brookfield Residential. The rights offering will remain open for 30 days and the rights will be listed on both the NYSE and TSX.

Summary of the Transaction

The following is a summary of the key components of the transaction:

Brookfield Homes will merge with a newly formed subsidiary of Brookfield Residential. On the merger, each outstanding share of Brookfield Homes common stock will be converted into 0.764900530 common shares of Brookfield Residential, plus a cash amount in lieu of fractional shares.

Immediately prior to the closing date, Brookfield Asset Management Inc. ("Brookfield Asset Management") will convert its shares of 8% convertible preferred stock of Brookfield Homes in accordance with their terms into 35.4 million shares of common stock of Brookfield Homes, increasing Brookfield Asset Management's ownership of Brookfield Homes common stock from 62% to 82%.

In aggregate, the approximately 65.1 million shares of common stock of Brookfield Homes expected to be outstanding immediately prior to the closing date of the merger will be converted into approximately 49.8 million Brookfield Residential common shares, representing approximately 49.1% of the as converted Brookfield Residential common shares to be outstanding immediately after the closing date.

Following successful completion of the transaction, Brookfield Asset Management is expected to hold between 66% and 91% of the Brookfield Residential common shares on a fully-diluted basis, depending upon how many shares are acquired by other Brookfield Office Properties shareholders or their assignees pursuant to the rights offering discussed below.

Subsequent to closing of the transaction, Brookfield Office Properties will distribute rights to its common shareholders, entitling them to acquire, at $10 per share, the Brookfield Residential common shares that Brookfield Office Properties will receive in exchange for its contribution of BPO Residential. The offering price reflects the value attributed to the equity of BPO Residential under the transaction. Brookfield Asset Management has agreed to exercise the rights it receives and to acquire any shares of Brookfield Residential that are not otherwise subscribed for in the rights offering at the same price per share as in the rights offering, thereby ensuring that Brookfield Office Properties receives $515 million in aggregate for its shares of Brookfield Residential. In combination with the C$480 million total principal amount of notes, Brookfield Office Properties will have sold BPO Residential for aggregate proceeds of approximately $1.2 billion, including $217 million of expected distributions from BPO Residential to be made prior to closing, of which $177 million has already been received.
