On October 1, 2004, Itron, Inc. ("we," "our" or "the Company") completed a $30 million interest rate swap with a counterparty whereby we receive variable interest payments based on three-month London InterBank Offered Rate (LIBOR) and pay fixed interest payments based on a rate of 3.26%, over a three-year term of the swap agreement. There were no origination fees or other significant up front costs in connection with this financing instrument.

In addition, on October 1, 2004, we purchased a 4.00% three-month LIBOR interest rate cap pertaining to an additional $10 million of floating rate debt. The interest rate cap commences one year from now on October 1, 2005 and matures on September 30, 2007. The origination fee in connection with the interest rate cap was $103,000, which will be amortized over the term of the interest rate cap.

This interest rate swap was entered into pursuant to our $240 million senior secured credit facility agreement completed on July 1, 2004, which requires us to enter into interest rate agreements within 90 days after the closing of the senior credit facility to substantially fix or hedge the interest rate on at least 50% of our aggregate principal amount of debt for a period of not less than three years. The $30 million interest rate swap increases the percentage of fixed rate debt above the minimum requirement of 50%. The interest rate cap was not required pursuant to the secured credit facility, but was considered a prudent purchase by management.
