Converium Holding Ltd, Zug

Zug, Switzerland - October 5, 2005 - Converium informs about its progress in commuting North American liabilities.

In the third quarter of 2005 Converium has commuted net reserves of close to US$ 250 million relating to liabilities of Converium Reinsurance (North America) Inc. (CRNA). The bottom-line impact on the third quarter result from these commutations will be positive.

More than 90% of the commuted liabilities are associated with volatile and long-tail lines of business, e.g. General and Special Liability, Professional Liability and Workers' Compensation.

These figures demonstrate that Converium's strategy of systematically commuting North American liabilities is on track. Converium reiterates its target to commute or otherwise settle CRNA net liabilities of approximately US$ 500 million in 2005, further de-risking the Company's balance-sheet.
