Item 3.03. Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders

The disclosure set forth under Item 5.03 below is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On February 16, 2010 Encorium Group, Inc. (the "Company") filed a Certificate of Amendment to its Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware to affect a reverse split of the Company's common stock in the ratio of one-for-eight. The reverse stock split was effective on February 16, 2010 at 5:00 p.m. EST. The Company's common stock began trading on the NASDAQ Capital Market at the market opening on February 17, 2010 on a split-adjusted basis. To denote the reverse stock split the Company's common stock will trade under the stock symbol "ENCO" for a period of 20 trading days. After 20 trading days the Company's common stock will resume trading under the symbol "ENCO".

At the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on January 8, 2010, the Company's stockholders approved an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, to affect a reverse stock split of shares of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding at a ratio to be established by our Board of Directors in its discretion of up to one for 10 (but not less than one for three). The Board of Directors approved a one-for-eight split.

As a result of the reverse stock split, the Company's stockholders will receive one new share of the Company's common stock for every eight shares held. All fractional shares which would otherwise result from the reverse stock split will be rounded up to the nearest whole share in lieu of fractional shares, so that no cash will be payable. Registered holders of the Company's common stock holding stock certificates will receive a letter of transmittal from the Company's transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, with instructions for the exchange of stock certificates. No action is required by stockholders holding the Company's common stock in book-entry form.
