

Edgar Filing: BP PLC - Form 6-K

Gary Dirks, president of BP China, said: "The decision to sell our stake in Sinopec is entirely separate from our joint business activities with the company, to which we remain committed. The equity investment BP made in Sinopec has been very successful and BP believes now is an appropriate time to sell the shares."

BP's business in China includes production and import of natural gas; supply of aviation fuel; import and marketing of liquefied petroleum gas; fuels retailing; lubricants blending and sales and petrochemical manufacturing. The company expects to invest a further $3 billion in China over the next five years.

The placing of the Sinopec shares will be arranged by Morgan Stanley on behalf of BP.
