CITIC Prudential awarded life insurance licence for eighth Chinese city

Prudential plc (Prudential) announced that its life insurance joint venture, CITIC Prudential Life, has been awarded a life insurance licence for Zhongshan, in Guangdong Province in Southern China. This new licence continues CITIC Prudential's well planned expansion into the rapidly growing Chinese life insurance market. Prudential is now the only European life insurance joint venture with licences for eight Chinese cities.

Situated in the Pearl River Delta in the economically significant Guangdong Province, Zhongshan is conveniently situated between Guangzhou and Hong Kong. The city has a population of over 2.5 million and in 2004 the GDP of Zhongshan was GBP3.6 billion, an increase of 19 per cent over the previous year.

Mark Norbom, Chief Executive, Prudential Corporation Asia, said, "This latest licence for Zhongshan highlights the strong momentum our business has established. With the support of our partner CITIC, we look forward to this pace of expansion continuing."

Captain Chia, CEO China CITIC Prudential Life added, "With offices in Guangzhou, Dongguan, Foshan and now Zhongshan, CITIC Prudential has established a powerful presence in Southern China. I look forward to leveraging this strong presence as we continue to expand our life insurance business across all of China. "

In 2000 CITIC Prudential opened its Guangzhou branch and in August 2003 its Beijing branch was opened. In September 2004 CITIC Prudential Suzhou commenced operation and in November 2004 CITIC Prudential received a life insurance licence for Shanghai. In February 2005 CITIC Prudential received licences for new life insurance operations in Dongguan and Foshan and in March it received an additional licence for the city of Wuhan. The Zhongshan licence is CITIC Prudential's eighth and the operation is expected to open by the end of May 2005. CITIC Prudential now has a network of over 8,000 staff and agents in China.
