BT Group plc announces ADR Ratio Change

20 November 2015

BT Group plc (LSE: BT, NYSE: BT), one of the world's leading telecommunications services providers, announces an intended ratio change to its NYSE-listed American Depositary Receipt ("ADR") programme.

The ratio will change from the current one ADR per ten ordinary shares to one ADR per five ordinary shares. The anticipated effective date for the ratio change is 8 December 2015. To implement the change, ADR holders on the record at the close of business on 30 November 2015 will receive two ADRs for every one ADR held. The new ADRs are expected to be distributed on or around 11 December 2015. There will be no change to the underlying ordinary shares and no action is required by ADR holders.

These changes to the ADR ratio will bring the ADR price broadly in line with the market average.

JPMorgan Chase Bank has been appointed to remain as depositary bank for the ADR programme.
