PROXY STATEMENT

ENTERPRISE FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP

150 N. Meramec

Clayton, Missouri 63105

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the shareholders of Enterprise Financial Services Corp (the Company) by the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at 4:00 p.m. on April 21, 2004, at The Marriott West, 600 Maryville Centre Drive, St. Louis, Missouri 63141 or any adjournment or postponement thereof. The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. The Board of Directors of the Company solicits the proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, officers, directors and employees of the Company may solicit proxies by telephone, or in person. The Company may also request banks and brokers to solicit their customers who have a beneficial interest in the Company's common stock, par value $.01 (the Common Stock), registered in the names of nominees and will reimburse such banks and brokers for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. The mailing of this proxy statement to shareholders of the Company commenced on or about March 23, 2004.

Only holders of Common Stock of record at the close of business on March 10, 2004 (the Record Date) are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. On the Record Date, the Company had outstanding and entitled to be voted 9,670,532 shares of Common Stock. The presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is not present at the time the Annual Meeting is convened, the Company may adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting.

Each holder of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held with respect to each matter to be voted upon; provided, however, that cumulative voting shall be available for the election of directors. Under cumulative voting, each shareholder is entitled to cast a number of votes equal to the number of shares held by such shareholder multiplied by the total number of directors to be elected. These votes may be divided among all nominees equally or may be voted for one or more of the nominees, either in equal or unequal amounts, as the shareholder may elect. A plurality of votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of each director. Ratification of the selection of independent accountants and approval of any other proposal which may be brought before the meeting each requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting and entitled to vote on the matter. An abstention from voting on a matter by a stockholder present in person or by proxy will have no effect on the election of directors but will have the same legal effect as a vote against any other proposal. If a broker or other nominee holder indicates on the Proxy Card that it does not have discretionary authority to vote the shares it holds of record on a proposal, those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote on the proposal.

All shares of Common Stock represented at the Annual Meeting by properly executed proxies received prior to or at the Annual Meeting which are not properly revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated on such proxies. If no instructions are indicated, such proxies will be voted FOR the election of the Board's director nominees and FOR the ratification of the recommended independent accountants.

Any proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted by a written notice to the Secretary of the Company sent to the address shown below, by receipt of a proxy properly signed and dated subsequent to an earlier proxy, or by revocation of a written proxy by request in person at the Annual Meeting. The Company's corporate offices are located at 150 North Meramec, Clayton, Missouri 63105 and its telephone number is (314) 725-5500.

The date of this Proxy Statement is March 23, 2004

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR EACH OF THE INDIVIDUALS LISTED FOR ELECTION AS DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY.

Director Compensation

In the past, the Company issued Stock Appreciation Rights (SARs) to Directors to compensate them for their service. However, in December 2001, the Company gave Directors who held SARs the opportunity to continue with the SAR program or forfeit their existing SARs in favor of receiving cash compensation on a per-meeting-attended basis. For Directors who chose to stay under the SAR Plan, the Company has the option to pay vested SARs either in the form of cash or the Company's Common Stock. If the cash option was chosen, Directors receive cash payments which are currently set at $100 per board meeting and $50 per committee meeting attended beginning with the January 16, 2002 meeting and retroactive pay for meetings attended since the SARs were granted. Directors who are employees of the Company are not eligible to receive any form of compensation for their services as directors.

Directors, except Chairman McKee and any rotating members, who serve on the Executive Committee, Audit Committee or Compensation Committee, or serve as a Banking Unit Chairman, receive a monthly retainer of $500 in addition to the meeting fees noted above.

Chairman McKee serves under a consulting agreement from which he receives $40,000 annually.

Board and Committee Meetings

In November 2003, the Board adopted new charters for the Executive Committee, Audit Committee and Compensation Committee. The new charters clarify the authority and responsibilities of the various committees, as well as, the membership and quorum guidelines. In addition, the Board approved the formation and charter of a Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee.

All Committee members shall be appointed by the Board. In addition, the Board has established membership standards for each committee which require that a certain number of committee members must be independent directors, as that term is defined in Rule 4200 (a)(15) of the NASDAQ rules. Although the Company is not listed on NASDAQ, the Company has used NASDAQ's independence criteria in making this judgment in accordance with applicable SEC rules.

The Board met 4 times in 2003. All directors attended at least 75% of all meetings of the full Board and of those committees on which they served in 2003 except Directors Henges and Saur.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is empowered to act on behalf of, and to exercise the powers of, the full Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Company when the full Board of Directors is not in session, except to the extent limited by applicable Delaware law. The charter for the Executive Committee may be found at the Company's website at www.enterprisebank.com. All actions by the committee are reported at the next regular Board of Directors meeting. In 2003, the committee met twice a month. In 2004, the committee will meet once a month, and additionally as necessary.

The Committee consists of at least five non-employee directors who are independent directors as defined in the NASDAQ standards. For the period January 2003 through November 2003, the Executive Committee, consisted of Directors McKee, Eichner, Benoist, Mullins, Oliver, Saur and Warsaw, and one additional director who served on a rotating basis for three meetings. Beginning in November 2003, Director Murphy joined the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee met 16 times in 2003.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors by reviewing all audit processes and fees, the financial information provided to the stockholders and the Company's systems of internal financial controls. The Audit Committee has the authority and responsibility to select and evaluate and, where appropriate, replace the Company's independent public accountants.

The Audit Committee has not at this time designated a financial expert as that term is used in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Board is considering the issues related to and the ramifications of such a designation. In addition, only recently have rules been issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission concerning financial experts. The Board is studying these rules. The Board may elect to designate a financial expert at any time.

The Committee shall consist of three or more directors who meet the NASDAQ independence standards. For the period January 2003 through November 2003, the Audit Committee consisted of Directors Masinton, Mullins and Moskoff. Beginning in November 2003, Directors McElhatton and Guest replaced Director Moskoff. The Audit Committee met four times in 2003.

In the opinion of the Company's Board, none of the Directors on the Audit Committee has a relationship with the Company or the Bank that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities as director. None of them are or have been for the past three years employees of the Company or the Bank, and none of their immediate family members are or have for the past three years been executive officers of the Company or the Bank. In the opinion of the Company's board, each of the Directors on the Audit Committee are independent directors, as that term is defined in the NASDAQ rules.

As noted in the Audit Committee's charter, the Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing the financial statements. The activities of the Audit Committee are in no way designed to supersede or alter those traditional responsibilities. The Audit Committee's role does not provide any special assurances with regard to the Company's financial statements, nor does it involve a professional evaluation of quality of audits performed by the independent auditors.

Audit Committee Report. The Audit Committee submits the following report:

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Board of Directors which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communications with Audit Committees. The Audit Committee received written disclosures from the independent auditors as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence, and discussed with the auditors their independence. The Audit Committee has concluded that the independent auditors are independent from the Company and its management.

Based on the reports and discussions described above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision by KPMG LLP of the services covered by the audit fees is compatible with maintaining the firm's independence and concluded that it is compatible.

The Audit Committee is responsible for pre-approving all auditing services and permitted non-auditing services to be performed by the Company's independent auditors. The Chairman of the Audit Committee has authority to approve in advance all audit or non-audit services to be provided by the independent auditors if presented to the full Audit Committee at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

Principal Accounting Fees. The following table sets forth fees billed to the Company for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 by the Company's principal accounting firm KPMG LLP:

Audit fees (1)	$ 127,200	$ 120,000
Audit related fees (2)	41,500	61,650
Tax fees (3)	74,158	136,197
All other fees
Total	$ 242,858	$ 317,847

- (1) Includes professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and review of financial statements in the Company's reports on Form 10-Q and services normally provided in connection with regulatory filings including consultation on various accounting matters.
- (2) Includes fees for professional services rendered for the Trust Division of Enterprise Bank & Trust.
- (3) Includes professional services rendered for preparation of tax returns and consultation with the Company on various tax matters.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. KPMG LLP did not perform any services and therefore billed no fees relating to operating or supervising the operation of the Company's information systems or local area network or for designing or implementing the Company's financial information management systems during 2003.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee reviews and recommends salaries, bonuses and benefits for officers and certain other employees of the Company. The charter for the Compensation Committee may be found at the Company's website at www.enterprisebank.com. The Compensation Committee also supervises the operation of the Company's compensation plans and reports back to the full Board.

The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members who meet the NASDAQ independence standards and shall be outside directors within the meaning of section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. For the period January 2003 through November 2003, the Compensation Committee consisted of Directors McKee, Mullins, Oliver, Saur and Warshaw. In November 2003, Directors McElhatton and Downey replaced Directors Oliver and Saur. The Compensation Committee met 16 times in 2003. None of the members of the Compensation Committee is or has been an officer or employee of the Company. During fiscal year 2003, no member of the Compensation Committee was an executive officer of another entity on whose compensation committee or board of directors an executive officer of the Company served.

Compensation Committee Report. The Compensation Committee submits the following report:

Mr. Eichner's compensation as Chief Executive Officer is tied to the performance of the Company as a whole. His salary in calendar 2003 was $300,000 with a bonus of $369,150, or approximately 123% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Eichner was granted 58,209 stock options in 2003. His bonus was based on the committee's evaluation of his performance and the extent to which he met the committee's expectations. At the beginning of each year, the Board and Mr. Eichner establish certain targeted financial and operating goals for that calendar year. The targets are consistent with the financial plan adopted by the Board and may include goals such as earnings per share, consolidated return on equity, asset quality and performance of specific units. Mr. Eichner's bonus and any option grants are largely dependent upon meeting the targeted goals and objectives.

Each of the other executive officers of the Company develops similar goals and objectives each year that are tailored to his or her particular function within the Company. Like Mr. Eichner, the compensation and bonus awarded to each executive are largely dependent upon the fulfillment of their respective goals and objectives. Typically, the executive officers have goals that are unit specific, such as net operating income as defined, within a banking unit. They also have company-wide goals to increase shareholder value and the net worth of the Company. All factors, both financial and strategic, are taken into consideration when determining compensation. Compensation is also determined by employee performance, contribution to the Company, market comparability, Company performance, and other factors. Each executive officer's compensation is comprised of salary, bonus, options and other benefits that are focused upon performance rather than longevity with the Company.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally denies a deduction to any publicly held corporation for compensation paid in a taxable year to the Company's chief executive officer and four other highest compensated officers to the extent that the officer's compensation (other than qualified performance-based compensation) exceeds $1 million. The Compensation Committee intends to award executive compensation that meets the Section 162(m) deductibility requirements, subject to the Compensation Committee's exercising its discretion to award non-deductible compensation when it considers it in the best interests of the Company and stockholders to do so.

Respectfully submitted by the Compensation Committee,

Paul J. McKee, Jr.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee was appointed by the Board in November 2003 to assist the Board in identifying and recommending qualified director nominees for election at the shareholders' annual meeting. The charter for the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may be found at the Company's website at www.enterprisebank.com. Options/SAR Grants in Fiscal 2003

The following table sets forth information concerning the individual grants of stock options to each of the named executive officers during 2003. The exercise price per share of each option was equal to the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant, as determined by the Board of Directors. The Company has never granted stock appreciation rights (SARs) to any of the named executive officers. The potential realizable value is calculated based on the term of the options at its time of grant and an assumed rate of stock appreciation of 5% and 10% compounded annually from the date the options were granted until their expiration dates. These numbers are calculated based on the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not reflect the Company's estimate of future stock price growth. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises will depend on the future performance of the common stock of the Company and the date on which the options are exercised.

Employment Agreements

Executive Employment Agreement with Mr. Eichner. The Company entered into an Executive Employment Agreement with Mr. Eichner dated July 1, 2002 (the Eichner Agreement). The following is intended to be a general summary of the provisions of the Eichner Agreement. The agreement specifies that Mr. Eichner will serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company for an initial term of three years. The term may be extended by mutual written agreement of Mr. Eichner and the Company. The duties and responsibilities of Mr. Eichner are specifically identified in the Eichner Agreement and are believed to be consistent with the duties and responsibilities of someone in that position for a financial services company.

The Eichner Agreement provides that Mr. Eichner will receive a minimum annual base salary of $300,000 and is further entitled to receive an annual bonus and to participate in all present and future employee benefit, retirement and compensation plans of the Company consistent with his salary and his position as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company as determined by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Eichner is entitled to receive a draw against his annual targeted bonus, provided that the Board of Directors may reduce or eliminate such draw based on its evaluation of his progress in meeting his established targets.

The Eichner Agreement also grants to Mr. Eichner stock options for 82,905 common shares at $9.30 per share. Options will vest and become exercisable at the rate of 27,635 shares per year starting on June 30, 2003 through June 30, 2005. Mr. Eichner will also be eligible for additional stock option grants annually as determined by the Board of Directors under plans amended or adopted by the Company from time to time.

The Eichner Agreement provides no exact termination date, but provides for various potential circumstances for termination by the Company or Mr. Eichner. These circumstances include mutual agreement, by the Company for cause (as defined in the Eichner Agreement), by the Company without cause at any time (as defined in the Eichner Agreement), by the Company due to Mr. Eichner's disability (as defined in the Eichner Agreement), and by Mr. Eichner in connection with a change of control (as defined in the Eichner Agreement).

The method of termination determines the amount of compensation, if any, due to Mr. Eichner in connection with such termination. Generally, Mr. Eichner is entitled to payment of salary and bonus through his date of termination. If the Company terminates him other than for cause, he shall be paid as severance compensation his base salary through the remaining period of the Eichner Agreement or the one-year period commencing on the termination date (whichever period is shorter) plus any accrued and unpaid bonus. If he is terminated in connection with a change of control, Mr. Eichner is entitled to an amount equal to 24 months of his base salary and targeted bonus, as defined, plus accrued and unpaid bonus. In the event of Mr. Eichner's death, the Company is obligated to pay him his annual salary and bonus through the date of death.

The Eichner Agreement also includes certain restrictive covenants that limit Mr. Eichner's ability to compete with the Company or to divulge certain confidential information concerning the Company during his period of employment and for a period of 12 months after termination of his employment.

Executive Employment Agreement with Mr. Benoist. The Company entered into an Executive Employment Agreement with Mr. Benoist dated October 1, 2002 (the Benoist Agreement). The following is intended to be a general summary of the provisions of the Benoist Agreement. The agreement specifies that Mr. Benoist will serve as Executive Vice President of the Company, and the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company's subsidiary, Enterprise Bank & Trust, for an initial term of three years. The term may be extended by mutual written agreement of Mr. Benoist and the Company. The duties and responsibilities of Mr. Benoist are specifically identified in the Benoist Agreement and are believed to be consistent with the duties and responsibilities of someone in that position for a financial services company.

Edgar Filing: ENTERPRISE FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Benoist Agreement provides that Mr. Benoist will receive a minimum annual base salary of $250,000 and is further entitled to receive an annual bonus and to participate in all present and future employee benefit, retirement and compensation plans of the Company consistent with his salary and his position as the Executive Vice President of the Company as determined by the Compensation Committee.

The Benoist Agreement also grants to Mr. Benoist stock options for 50,000 common shares at $10.25 per share. Options will vest and become exercisable at the rate of 16,667 shares per year starting on October 1, 2003 through October 1, 2005. Mr. Benoist will also be eligible for additional stock option grants annually as determined by the Board of Directors under plans amended or adopted by the Company from time to time.

The Benoist Agreement provides no exact termination date, but provides for various potential circumstances for termination by the Company or Mr. Benoist. These circumstances include mutual agreement, by the Company for cause (as defined in the Benoist Agreement), by the Company without cause at any time (as defined in the Benoist Agreement), by the Company due to Mr. Benoist's disability (as defined in the Benoist Agreement), and by Mr. Benoist in connection with a change of control (as defined in the Benoist Agreement).

The method of termination determines the amount of compensation, if any, due to Mr. Benoist in connection with such termination. Generally, Mr. Benoist is entitled to payment of salary and bonus through his date of termination. If the Company terminates him other than for cause, he shall be paid as severance compensation his base salary through the remaining period of the Benoist Agreement or the one-year period commencing on the termination date (whichever period is shorter) plus any accrued and unpaid bonus. If he is terminated in connection with a change of control, Mr. Benoist is entitled to an amount equal to 24 months of his base salary and targeted bonus, as defined, plus accrued and unpaid bonus. In the event of Mr. Benoist's death, the Company is obligated to pay him his annual salary and bonus through the date of death.

The Benoist Agreement also includes certain restrictive covenants that limit Mr. Benoist's ability to compete with the Company or to divulge certain confidential information concerning the Company during his period of employment and for a period of 12 months after termination of his employment.

Other employment agreements. Except for Mr. Burdette, each of the named executive officers, serves pursuant to an Employment Agreement with the Company. The Agreements do not have specific termination dates other than death or disability of the officer. In the event of a termination for cause, (as defined) the officer will only be entitled to payment of base salary through the date of termination. If the officer (i) is terminated without Cause, (ii) is not offered employment after a Change of Control or (iii) voluntarily resigns, he will be entitled to compensation for 24 months in an annual amount equal to 100% of his base salary as of the end of the most recent quarter plus the average of his bonus compensation (or, in Mr. Vogel's case, he is paid at an annual rate which approximates his average monthly compensation for 12 full calendar months preceding termination) for the two most recent years prior to termination. The two-year payment period is designed to coincide with the non-compete covenants in the agreements, which provide that the officer will not, for the period of employment and two years thereafter, solicit customers of the Company to become customers of another entity or induce, or seek to induce, employees to leave the employ of the Company.

Transactions with Management

Some of the directors and officers of the Company and of its subsidiary bank, and members of their immediate families and firms and corporations with which they are associated, have had transactions with the Bank, including borrowings and investments. All such loans and investments have been made in the ordinary course of business, have been made on substantially the same terms, including interest rate paid or charged and collateral required, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unaffiliated persons, and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. As of December 31, 2003, the aggregate outstanding amount of all loans to officers and directors of the Company and to firms and corporations in which they have at least a 10% beneficial interest was approximately $24,600,000.
