CA - Public Participation Hearings on Verizon - MCI

What is happening: Verizon California provides your local phone service, and our parent company Verizon Communications Inc. has proposed to acquire MCI, Inc. Regulators must approve the merger, and the State Commission uses public participation hearings as a means to gather public input.

Will this affect my local service?

No. The proposed merger will not change the services currently offered by Verizon California.

Verizon has not proposed any rate changes as a result of the proposed acquisition.

Why is Verizon acquiring MCI?

The increased ability of the combined company to compete on a national and global scale.

MCI has strong business relationships with large, nationwide business customers.

MCI is a bigger player in providing the network that powers the Internet.

Are any other meetings scheduled?

No, but you can also give your input to the Commission via letters or e-mails.

Investors are urged to read the proxy statement and prospectus and the other relevant materials when such other materials become available before making any voting or investment decision with respect to the proposed acquisition.

Verizon, MCI, and their respective directors, executive officers, and other employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from MCI shareowners with respect to the proposed transaction. Information about Verizon's directors and executive officers is available in Verizon's proxy statement for its 2005 annual meeting of shareholders, dated March 21, 2005. Information about MCI's directors and executive officers is available in MCI's proxy statement for its 2005 annual meeting of stockholders, dated April 20, 2005. Additional information about the interests of potential participants will be included in the registration statement and proxy statement and other materials filed with the SEC.

NOTE: This document contains statements about expected future events and financial results that are forward-looking and subject to risks and uncertainties. For those statements, we claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The following important factors could affect future results and could cause those results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements: a significant change in the timing of, or the imposition of any government conditions to, the closing of the transaction, if consummated; actual and contingent liabilities; and the extent and timing of our ability to obtain revenue enhancements and cost savings following the transaction. Additional factors that may affect the future results of Verizon and MCI are set forth in their respective filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available at www.verizon.com/investor/ and www.mci.com/about/investor\_relations/sec/.
