Latest time and date for the Offers to remain open for acceptance (Note 6)

4 : 00 p.m. on Friday, 10 March 2006

Notes:

- (1) The Share Offer will be subject to, among other things, the Offeror having received valid acceptances of the Share Offer in respect of Peoples Shares which constitute not less than 90% of the maximum number of Peoples Shares to which the Share Offer relates, by 4 : 00 p.m. on the date which is 49 days after the making of the Share Offer, being the First Closing Date, or such later time(s) and/or date(s) as the Offeror may, subject to the rules of the Takeovers Code, decide. The Option Offer will be subject to and conditional upon the Share Offer becoming or being declared unconditional. Unless the Offers have previously become or been declared unconditional, revised or extended, the latest time and date for acceptance of the Offers is 4 : 00 p.m. on the First Closing Date.
- (2) The First Closing Date assumes that prior consent from the Telecommunications Authority under section 7P(6) of the Telecommunications Ordinance is obtained on or before 29 December 2005. If the prior consent from the Telecommunications Authority is obtained on or before the First Closing Date and the other Conditions are either fulfilled or waived, the Offers will become unconditional and will close at least 14 days thereafter. If the prior consent from the Telecommunications Authority is not obtained on or before the First Closing Date, the Offeror will decide whether to waive that condition on the First Closing Date. If the Offeror decides to waive that condition on the First Closing Date, the Offers will proceed in accordance with the expected timetable set out above. The Offeror reserves the right to extend the Offers until such time and/or date as it may determine and in accordance with the Takeovers Code. The Offeror will issue an announcement on the Stock Exchange's website by 7 : 00 p.m. on Thursday, 29 December 2005, being the First Closing Date, stating whether the Offers have been revised or extended, have expired or have become or been declared unconditional (as to acceptances or in all respects). Such announcement will be republished in South China Morning Post (in English) and Hong Kong Economic Times (in Chinese) on Friday, 30 December 2005.

An acceptor of the relevant Offer is entitled to withdraw his/her/its acceptance after 21 days from the First Closing Date if the Share Offer has not by then become unconditional as to acceptances. In the situation where prior consent from the Telecommunications Authority under section 7P(6) of the Telecommunications Ordinance is not obtained on or before 29 December 2005 (irrespective of whether the Offeror waives this condition), an acceptor of the relevant Offer is entitled to withdraw his/her/its acceptance from 19 January 2006 if the Share Offer has not become or been declared unconditional as to acceptances by then. However, such entitlement to withdraw is exercisable only until such time as the Share Offer becomes or is declared unconditional as to acceptances.

- (3) Pursuant to Rule 20.1 of the Takeovers Code, payment in cash in respect of acceptances of the Offers will be made within 10 days of the date of receipt of complete and valid acceptance or of the date on which the Offers become or are declared unconditional in all respects, whichever is the later. Relevant documents of title must be received by the Offeror to render each acceptance of the Offers complete and valid.
- (4) In accordance with Rule 15.3 of the Takeovers Code, where the Offers become or are declared unconditional, they should remain open for acceptance for not less than 14 days thereafter. In such case, at least 14 days' notice in writing must be given before the Offers are closed to the Peoples Independent Shareholders or the Peoples Optionholders (as the case may be) who have not accepted the Offers.
- (5) In accordance with Rule 15.5 of the Takeovers Code, except with the consent of the Executive, the Share Offer may not become or be declared unconditional as to acceptances after 7 : 00 p.m. on the 60th day ( Day 60 ) after the day on which the Composite Document is posted (or such later date as extended by the Executive). Accordingly, unless the Share Offer has previously become or been declared unconditional as to acceptances, the Offers will lapse at 7 : 00 p.m. on Monday, 9 January 2006 unless the Offers are extended by the Offeror with the consent of the Executive. Note 3 to Rule 15.5 of the Takeovers Code provides that if there is a delay in the decision of the Telecommunications Authority under section 7P of the Telecommunications Ordinance after the posting of the Composite Document, the Executive will normally extend Day 39 (see Rule 15.4 of the Takeovers Code) to the second day following the announcement of such decision with consequent changes to Day 60.
- (6) According to Rule 15.6 of the Takeovers Code, as the Offeror may consider exercising its rights under the relevant provisions of the Companies Ordinance to compulsorily acquire those Peoples Shares not acquired by the Offeror under the Share Offer, the Share Offer may not remain open for acceptance for more than four months from the posting of the Composite Document unless the Offeror has by that time become entitled to exercise such power of compulsory acquisition.
