Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Amended and Restated Senior Credit Facility. On December 19, 2005, in connection with the purchase of inventory and equipment of Ormet Corporation and Ormet Aluminum Mill Products Corporation, and Specialty Blanks, Inc., the Company amended our senior revolving credit facility with PNC Bank, National Association, as Administrative Agent, PNC Capital Markets, Inc., Citigroup Global Markets Inc., and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., collectively as Joint Lead Arrangers and a group of other financial institutions (together with the Administrative Agent and the Joint Lead Arrangers, the Lenders ) set forth in the Fourth Amendment (the Fourth Amendment ) to the First Amended and Restated Revolving Credit and Security Agreement (the Senior Revolving Credit Facility ). An executed copy of the Fourth Amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The purpose of the Fourth Amendment, among other things, is to:

increase from $325 million to $425 million the aggregate maximum commitment amount available under the credit facility, with an option to further increase the maximum commitment amount available to $375 million (all subject to borrowing base limitations);

extend the termination date of the credit facility to December 9, 2009;

add Alumitech, Inc. and its subsidiaries as co-borrowers and guarantors under the facility;

permit the Company, so long as no default or event of default has occurred and is continuing, to increase the revolving credit facility without the consent of any particular Lender by an aggregate amount not to exceed $50,000,000 upon the receipt by the Administrative Agent of commitments for such increase from one or more existing or new Lenders.

Borrowings under the amended and restated Senior Revolving Credit Facility bear interest, at our option, at rates per annum equal to (1) the greater of (x) a base rate equal to the lead bank lender's prime rate or (y) a federal funds rate plus  $\frac{1}{2}\%$ , in each case plus an applicable margin spread; or (2) a LIBOR-based rate plus an applicable margin spread. Commitment fees based on facility usage are due quarterly. The applicable margin spread and the per annum percentage used to calculate the unused commitment fee are determined by reference to a pricing schedule, which is based on the sum of undrawn availability under the amended and restated facility and the unrestricted cash of the borrowers. As part of the Fourth Amendment, the pricing schedule changed as follows:

For base rate and federal funds rate loans, the applicable margin spread now ranges from 25 to 100 basis points. Prior to the Fourth Amendment the applicable margin spread was from 100 to 175 basis points

For LIBOR-based loans, the applicable margin spread now ranges from 125 to 200 basis points. Prior to the Fourth Amendment the applicable margin spread was, from 200 to 275 basis points.

For Letters of Credit, the applicable margin spread now ranges from 125 to 200 basis points.
