If all the holders of Company's Convertible Notes exercised its conversion right, the amount of shares would rise to 473,000,171; and if all the Company's shareholders exercise their warrants, the amount of shares would rise to 578,971,677.

We can remark the following activities during the period:

Among the activities developed during the fiscal year, the following may be highlighted:

Operating results grew 44.4%, from Ps.85.1 million as of March 31, 2005 to Ps.122.9 million as of March 31, 2006. EBITDA was Ps.183.6 million, 31.3% higher than in the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Occupancy at our office buildings continues to experience a material recovery, reaching 92% during the first nine months of fiscal year 2006, compared to 85% recorded in the first nine months of the previous fiscal year.

Revenues from the hotel segment posted a significant increase of almost 17%, from Ps. 68.3 million in the first nine months of fiscal year 2005 to Ps.79.7 million in the same period of fiscal year 2006. The increase mainly reflects the rise in average prices per room, which improved from Ps.325 to Ps.379.

Driven by the dynamism in the ABC1 segment, we are evaluating many projects for development and operation. On May 4, 2006, we entered into a swap agreement in connection with a plot of land we own in the area of Caballito for a total price of US$ 7.5 million. The development involves the construction of two residential tower buildings of 34 floors each. In addition, during this quarter sales of the units owned by the Company in Edificios Cruceros continued successfully, and we are making further progress in the Torres Renoir, Benavidez and Laguna Azul projects.

APSA's operating income was 65% higher than in the same period of the previous year, reaching Ps.105.7 million. EBITDA increased 43.4%, to Ps.153.2 million the nine-month period ended March 31, 2006.

Our tenants' sales increased by 32.2% in the nine-month period ended March 31, 2006, as compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year, and occupancy at our shopping centers reached 99.1%.
