PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why the Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Consolidated (the Company) will not be able to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended July 2, 2006 by the prescribed due date of August 11, 2006. The Company expects to file the report on or before Wednesday, August 16, 2006.

The Company recently received a comment letter from the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) regarding its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2006. The Company is currently resolving a comment regarding the Company's calculation and presentation of basic earnings per share for its Common Stock and Class B Common Stock with respect to Emerging Issues Task Force Issue 03-6, Participating Securities and the Two-Class Method under FASB Statement No. 128. The Company is in the process of responding to this comment and requires additional time to conclude its discussions with the SEC and assess the impact, if any, of the resolution of the comment on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2006, fiscal quarter ended April 2, 2006 and fiscal quarter ended July 2, 2006. As such, the Company has determined it cannot fully consider the comment letter, complete its discussions with the SEC and file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended July 2, 2006 without unreasonable effort or expense.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company issued a news release on July 28, 2006 regarding its results of operations for the quarter ended July 2, 2006. As reflected in the news release, the Company expects to report net income of $8.9 million, or $.97 per diluted share, for the second quarter of 2006 compared to net income of $11.5 million, or $1.27 per diluted share, for the same period in 2005. For the first six months of 2006, the Company expects to report net income of $9.7 million, or $1.06 per diluted share, compared to net income of $12.2 million, or $1.35 per diluted share, for the same period in 2005. The change in net income for the second quarter of 2006 as compared to the same period in 2005 is primarily due to a 7.0% increase in net sales, offset by reduced pricing, higher raw material costs and increases in selling, delivery and administrative expenses and the receipt of $6.4 million from the settlement of a class action litigation in the second quarter of 2005. The change in net income for the first six months of 2006 as compared to the same period in 2005 is primarily due to a 7.4% increase in net sales, higher raw material costs and increases in selling, delivery and administrative expenses and the receipt of $6.4 million from the settlement of class action litigation in the first six months of 2005.

If the Company is required to change its calculation and presentation of basic earnings per share with respect to its Common Stock and Class B Common Stock pursuant to the resolution of an outstanding comment from the SEC, such change will not affect the Company's net income or calculation of diluted earnings per share or its consolidated statements of operations (other than basic earnings per share), consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of cash flows or consolidated statements of stockholders' equity for any of the affected periods.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Included in the Form 12b-25 and other information we make publicly available from time to time are forward-looking management comments and other statements that reflect management's current outlook for future periods. These statements include, among others, statements about the Company's expectations regarding the impact, if any, of the resolution of the SEC's comment letter.

These statements and expectations are based on currently available competitive, financial and economic data along with the Company's operating plans, and are subject to future events and uncertainties that could cause anticipated events not to occur or actual results to differ materially from historical or anticipated results. The forward-looking statements in this filing should be read in conjunction with the detailed descriptions of risk factors located in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 1, 2006 under Part I, Item 1A, Risk Factors. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements contained in this report as a result of new information or future events or developments.
