PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced, UnitedHealth Group Incorporated (the Company) has substantially completed its internal analysis of the October 15, 2006 WilmerHale report to the Independent Committee of the Board of Directors (the Board) on stock option programs of the Company and is working expeditiously to complete its final review of accounting adjustments based on the determination of the applicable accounting measurement dates, the impact of variable accounting treatment for certain stock options (which principally relates to stock options granted in and prior to 2000) and the resulting tax implications. As a result, the Company expects to recognize non-cash charges for stock-based compensation expense which are likely to be material for certain periods covered in the review. Although the Company is not yet able to determine the final amount of such non-cash charges and additional cash charges resulting from potential tax liabilities, the Company anticipates that it will be significantly greater than the estimate contained in its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006. Accordingly, on November 7, 2006, management of the Company concluded, and the Audit Committee of the Board approved the conclusion, that due solely to the stock option matter, the Company's financial statements for the years ended 1994 to 2005, the interim periods contained therein, the quarter ended March 31, 2006 and all earnings and press releases, including for the quarters ended June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 and similar communications issued by the Company for such periods, and the related reports of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm should no longer be relied upon. Accordingly, the Company has delayed filing its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. The Company will review its analysis and proposed restatement adjustments with the SEC prior to completing its restatement and is working as quickly as possible to return to current filing status.

Edgar Filing: UNITEDHEALTH GROUP INC - Form NT 10-Q

operations for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 compared to the quarter ended September 30, 2005, including significant increases in the Company's revenue and expenses. The Company is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of the results because it expects to recognize non-cash charges for compensation expense related to past stock option grants which are likely to be material for certain periods covered in its review of accounting adjustments discussed in Part III above. Although the Company is not yet able to determine the final amount of such non-cash charges and additional cash charges resulting from potential tax liabilities, the Company anticipates that it will be significantly greater than the estimate contained in its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006.
