ITEM 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 3, 2007, The Cooper Companies, Inc. issued a press release to announce management changes with Robert S. Weiss, currently Cooper's executive vice president and chief operating officer, assuming additional duties as president of CooperVision, Inc., reporting to A. Thomas Bender, Cooper's chairman and chief executive officer. Mr. Weiss will have direct responsibility for CooperVision's worldwide business and for CooperSurgical, the Company's women's health medical device business. Steven M. Neil, currently vice president and chief financial officer, has been named executive vice president and chief financial officer, reporting to Mr. Weiss. His expanded role will include overseeing the integration of CooperVision's financial and information technology functions into the Company's headquarters operations. Gregory A. Fryling, currently president of CooperVision, Inc., will be leaving CooperVision to pursue other opportunities.

The release also said that Mr. Bender has expressed his desire to relinquish his role as chief executive officer by the end of 2007, but expects to have a continuing role in the Company thereafter. Cooper's Board has been engaged in a succession planning process and is considering both internal and external candidates for chief executive officer in its search process.

A copy of this release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
