The Agreement and each Confirmation thereunder will be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and each party hereby submits to the jurisdiction of the English Courts.

Reference ADRs: The American depositary receipts issued by The Bank of New York pursuant to the Deposit Agreement dated as of May 24, 1994, as amended and restated as of December 12, 1994, as further amended and restated as of November 15, 2000, between the Reference Issuer, The Bank of New York (the Depository) and all owners and holders from time to time of the Reference ADRs.

If the American depositary receipt program pursuant to which the Reference ADRs are issued is terminated for any reason, all references herein to Reference ADRs will be deemed to be references to Reference Shares, converted at a ratio equal to the ADR Conversion Factor.

Reference Portfolio: From the Trade Date until and including the Conversion Date, a face amount of Reference Convertible Bonds equal to USD 10,000,000 (the Initial Portfolio) and thereafter, a portfolio of assets consisting of a number of Reference ADRs that would be issued by the Depository in exchange for a number of Reference Shares equal to the sum of: (A) the number of Reference Shares that a Reference Holder that had validly exercised its conversion rights under the Reference Convertible Bonds would be entitled (assuming compliance by the Reference Issuer with its obligations under the terms of the Reference Convertible Bonds) to receive in respect of such exercise (and assuming that each such exercise took place on the Conversion Exercise Date) plus (B) until the Interim Exchange Date, the number of Reference Warrants that a Reference Holder that had validly exercised its conversion rights under the Reference Convertible Bonds would be entitled (assuming compliance by the Reference Issuer with its obligations under the terms of the Reference Convertible Bonds) to receive (assuming compliance by the Reference Issuer with its obligations under the terms of the Reference Warrants) had such holder validly exercised all such Reference Warrants (assuming that each such exercise took place on the Conversion Exercise Date); provided, however, that the Reference Portfolio will be adjusted by the Calculation Agent (in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner) to the extent it has any information regarding any failure by the Reference Issuer to comply with its obligations under the terms of the Reference Convertible Bonds or Reference Warrants to reflect the amount of Reference Bonds, Reference Shares, Reference ADRs and Reference Warrants that a Reference Holder that had validly exercised its relevant rights would hold considering such failure.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any such Transferred Securities transferred pursuant to provision 14 below, will not form part of the Reference Portfolio from and including the date such transfer is effected.

Except as otherwise described above, if any assets (Original Assets) in the Reference Portfolio described above are redeemed, converted or otherwise transformed in any manner (whether by amendment, exchange or otherwise) into other obligations, instruments or assets, such other obligations, instruments or assets shall replace the Original Assets for purposes of this Transaction.

The parties acknowledge that, during the term of this Transaction, Party A will not be required to directly hold any components of the Reference Portfolio, except as may be necessary for it to comply with its obligations under Section 14 hereunder.

Conversion Notice Date: Any Business Day during the term of this Transaction upon which Party A receives written notice from Party B substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (a Conversion Notice), provided that such day is both: (i) after the day that Party A has received payment from Party B of all costs, fees, and expenses associated with the conversion of USD 10,000,000 principal amount of Reference Convertible Bonds into Reference ADRs, and (ii) at least ten Business Days prior to the last day that a holder of the Reference Convertible Bonds is entitled to exercise the conversion option with respect to such Bonds. For the avoidance of any doubt, subject to (i) and (ii) herein above, Party B is entitled in its sole and absolute discretion to deliver a Conversion Notice at any time during the term of this Transaction.

Conversion Date: The date that a Reference Holder that had exercised on the tenth Business Day following the Conversion Notice Date (the Conversion Exercise Date) its conversion rights under the Reference Convertible Bonds would receive Reference Shares and Reference Warrants in exchange for the Reference Convertible Bonds assuming that such holder had complied with its obligations under the terms of the Reference Convertible Bonds in respect of such conversion.

Reference Portfolio Value: As of any date, the sum of:

1. the product of (A) the USD principal amount of Reference Convertible Bonds in the Reference Portfolio as of such date divided by USD 1000, (B) the Conversion Ratio and (C) the Reference Share Price as of such date; and
 2. the product of (A) the ADR Conversion Factor; (B) the sum of (i) the number of Reference ADRs in the Reference Portfolio as of such date plus (ii) the number of Reference ADRs which are part of the Transferred Securities as of such date and (C) the Reference Share Price as of such date,
- each as determined by the Calculation Agent in a commercially reasonable manner.

Reference Share Price: As of any date, the closing price in the regular session on the New York Stock Exchange on such date for the Reference ADRs, divided by the ADR Conversion Factor; provided, however, that if on such date a closing price for the Reference ADRs is not published on the New York Stock Exchange, the Calculation Agent shall determine the Reference Share Price in a commercially reasonable manner.

Reference Holder:	A hypothetical beneficial or registered owner of the securities comprising the Reference Portfolio, located in the United Kingdom, from and including the Effective Date to but excluding the Scheduled Termination Date. References in this agreement to any payments or distributions relating to, or conversion of, any part of the Reference Portfolio held by a Reference Holder or to the amounts that a Reference Holder actually receives or the date of receipt by the Reference Holder or any similar phrase do not require the existence of any Reference Holder but refer to the payment, distribution or conversion that would occur, and the amounts that would be received or paid by a person located in the United Kingdom, if such person were a Reference Holder. All such amounts shall be determined without regard to the exercise of any right of setoff, recoupment or other similar right by or against any particular Reference Holder that would not equally be available to or against any other person located in the United Kingdom.
Conversion Ratio:	As of any date of determination, the number of Reference Shares into which USD 1000 principal amount of Reference Convertible Bonds may be converted, to be adjusted in accordance with the terms of the indenture or other governing instrument for the Reference Convertible Bonds. As of the Trade Date, the Conversion Ratio was 1834.86.
Upfront Amount:	An amount of USD equal to 0.75% of the USD Notional Amount.
ADR Conversion Factor:	As of any date of determination, the number of Reference Shares that must be deposited with the Depository in exchange for one Reference ADR.
Calculation Agent:	Party A, whose determinations and calculations adopted in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner, shall be binding in the absence of manifest error.
Business Days:	London, New York and Buenos Aires (except that for purposes of Section 8, Business Days shall be London, New York and any days which were, as of the Trade Date, scheduled to be Business Days in Buenos Aires).

7. Settlement Terms:

- (i) Unless otherwise agreed, all cash paid hereunder shall be in immediately available freely convertible funds of the relevant currency. Party B agrees that, notwithstanding any restriction or prohibition on access to the foreign exchange market in Argentina, it will obtain such relevant currency in any other legal and appropriate mechanism for the acquisition of such relevant currency in any exchange market.

- (ii) For the purpose of the delivery of the Reference Portfolio (or any component thereof) under the terms of this Transaction, subject to any applicable condition precedent, the Reference Portfolio (or the relevant component thereof, as applicable) will be delivered to the specified party on the specified date through The Depository Trust Company or any successor to or transferee of such clearance system (the Clearance System). The parties agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange for settlement on a delivery versus payment basis. If the Clearance System ceases to clear any of the Reference Portfolio, the parties will negotiate in good faith to agree on another manner for delivery.

- (iii) If on a date on which a party is obliged to deliver the Reference Portfolio under the terms of this Transaction, there is an event beyond the control of the parties as a result of which any portion of Reference Portfolio cannot be cleared or transferred through the Clearance System (such event, a Settlement Disruption Event), then the obligation to deliver such Reference Portfolio (or the relevant component thereof, as applicable) shall be deferred to the first succeeding day on which delivery of such Reference Portfolio (or the relevant component thereof, as applicable) can take place through the Clearance System, provided that if a Settlement Disruption Event prevents delivery of such Reference Portfolio (or the relevant component thereof, as applicable) on each of the ten (10) Business Days immediately following the originally scheduled delivery date and such Reference Portfolio (or the relevant component thereof, as applicable) can be delivered in another customary commercially reasonable manner, then such Reference Portfolio (or the relevant component thereof, as applicable) shall be delivered using such other customary commercially reasonable manner of delivery (which other manner of delivery shall also be deemed the Clearance System for purposes of delivery of such assets) as determined by the Calculation Agent.

8. Additional Payments:

- 8.1 If on any Business Day during the Term of the Transaction, the Calculation Agent determines that the Exposure is greater than USD 250,000, Party B shall pay to Party A on the next succeeding Business Day (an Additional Amount Payment Date) an amount in USD equal to such Exposure (rounded up to the nearest whole multiple of USD 100,000) (an Additional Amount).

- 8.2 If on any Business Day during the Term of the Transaction, the Calculation Agent determines that the Exposure is negative (the absolute value of such negative amount being the Margin Excess) and its absolute value exceeds USD 250,000, upon the request of Party B, on the next succeeding Business Day following the date of receipt of such request (a Reduction Amount Payment Date) Party A shall pay to Party B an amount in USD (the Reduction Amount) equal to the lesser of (A) the Margin Excess rounded down to the nearest whole multiple of USD 100,000 and (B) the Cash Margin Amount as of such Reduction Amount Payment Date.

For the avoidance of doubt, Party A shall have no obligation to pay any additional amount under this provision 8.2 to the extent such payment or delivery would reduce the Cash Margin Amount to less than zero.

8.3 For the purposes of this provision 8:

Exposure means, as of any Business Day, an amount in USD determined by the Calculation Agent as equal to:

(a) the USD Notional Amount; minus

(b) the sum of (i) the product of (A) the Reference Portfolio Value on that Business Day and (B) one minus the Haircut Level and (ii) the Cash Margin Amount on that Business Day.

Cash Margin Amount shall be zero on the Trade Date and thereafter (i) the Cash Margin Amount shall be increased by the sum of all Additional Amounts paid, with effect from, and including, each relevant Additional Amount Payment Date; (ii) the Cash Margin Amount shall be decreased by any Reduction Amount paid, with effect from, and including, the relevant Reduction Amount Payment Date; and (iii) for each day that the Cash Margin Amount is an amount greater than zero the Cash Margin Amount shall be increased by the application of daily compounding at the overnight Fed Funds rate set forth in H.15(519) on that date as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Haircut Level means 66.67%.

9. Calculation of Market Quotation:

If both parties have performed their respective obligations under and in accordance with provision 2 (Initial Exchange) hereof and subsequently an Early Termination Date occurs or is designated with respect to this Transaction and/or the Agreement, for the purposes of determining the Settlement Amount under the Agreement, the Market Quotation for this Transaction shall be deemed (notwithstanding any provisions in the Agreement to the contrary) to be an amount, determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the relevant Early Termination Date, equal to:

(A) an amount in USD equal to the sum of (1) the present value as of the Early Termination Date of receiving the Party B Final Exchange Amount on the Scheduled Termination Date; (2) the present value as of the Early Termination Date of all remaining scheduled Party B Floating Amounts, for the period from, but excluding, the Early Termination Date to, and including, the Scheduled

Termination Date (for each of (1) and (2), discounted at the relevant zero coupon rates determined by the Calculation Agent as of the Early Termination Date, by reference to the then prevailing USD LIBOR and interest rate swap curves, on an Actual/360 day count basis); and (3) any loss of bargain, cost of funding or, any cost incurred by Party A as a result of its terminating, liquidating, obtaining or reestablishing any hedge or related trading position; minus

(B) an amount in USD equal to the sum of (1) the Reference Portfolio Termination Value as of the Early Termination Date (2) the ADR Value of the Transferred Securities and (3) the Cash Margin Amount held by Party A as of the Early Termination Date.

Reference Portfolio Termination Value means the market value of the Reference Portfolio as of any date determined with reference to:

(a) in the case of non-equity securities that comprise part of the Reference Portfolio on any date, the arithmetic mean of the all-in bid prices (expressed as a percentage), on such date for the type of security requested by the Calculation Agent from four leading dealers in the relevant market, as selected by the Calculation Agent. For the purpose of making such requests, the Calculation Agent may, in its sole and absolute discretion (but, for the avoidance of doubt, shall never be obliged to): (i) request prices from a dealer from which the Calculation Agent and/or its Affiliates has requested or will contemporaneously request prices in connection with other notes, transactions or proprietary holdings unrelated to this Confirmation or otherwise; (ii) request prices from dealers either orally, by electronic messaging (including, without limitation, E-mail, Bloomberg or Reuters), by facsimile, courier or post; and (iii) rather than making separate requests for such all-in bid prices, for the purposes of this provision, rely on a request or requests which were made in connection with other notes, transactions or proprietary holdings or otherwise unrelated to this Confirmation (with each such request constituting a request hereunder for the purposes of this Confirmation). If fewer than three such prices are provided following such request, the Calculation Agent, in its sole discretion, shall determine such all-in bid prices.

(b) the ADR Value of the Reference ADRs in the Reference Portfolio.

ADR Value means in respect of the Reference ADRs in the Reference Portfolio and the Transferred Securities on any date, (i) for purposes of calculating Exposure, the closing price for the relevant security as of the immediately preceding Business Day on the New York Stock Exchange, provided, however, to the extent the American depositary receipt program pursuant to which such securities are issued is terminated for any reason, the closing price of the relevant local shares converted into USD using the then-current foreign exchange rate as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion and (ii) for purposes of determining Market Quotation, an amount determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion equal to the amount that a Reference Holder would be able to realize in a sale of such securities in private transactions (which would occur at a discount to prices that would be obtained on the public market) or in the Argentine market at prices available there.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, the Calculation Agent shall make all determinations and calculations under this provision 9, and if the amount calculated herein is a positive number Party B will pay such amount to Party A; if it is a negative number Party A will pay the absolute value of such amount to Party B.

10. Additional Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgements of Party B.

- (a) In addition to any other representations made (or deemed to be repeated) by Party B under the terms of the Agreement, Party B also represents and warrants to, and agrees with, Party A as follows:
- (i) that it is a sophisticated institution and has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters and expertise in assessing credit risk, that it is capable of evaluating the merits, risks and suitability of entering into this Transaction and that it is relying exclusively on its own sources of information and credit analysis with respect to the Reference Issuer;

(b) Party B hereby acknowledges that Party A and its Affiliates may have existing or future business relationships with the Reference Issuer (including, but not limited to, lending, depository, risk management, corporate advisory and banking relationships), and will pursue actions and take steps that it deems or they deem necessary or appropriate to protect its or their interests arising therefrom without regard to the consequences for Party B.

(c) For the purposes of this paragraph, Affiliates means (i) any entity controlled, directly or indirectly, by Party A, (ii) any entity that controls, directly or indirectly, Party A, or (iii) any entity under common control with Party A (and for these purposes, control means ownership of a majority of the voting power of the entity or, as the case may be, Party A, and controlled by and controls shall be construed accordingly).

3.2 Grant

As security for the prompt and complete payment and performance of the Secured Obligations when due (whether due because of stated maturity, acceleration, mandatory prepayment, or otherwise) and to induce CSI to permit the Pledgor to exercise certain voting rights with respect to the Account Property, the Pledgor grants to CSI a continuing security interest in the Account and the Account Property.

3.4 Certain rights and remedies

Without limiting the rights granted to CSI under this Agreement and the Confirmation, the parties agree that CSI will have all the rights and remedies available to a purchaser and a secured party under articles 8 and 9, respectively, of the UCC in respect of the Account and the Account Property. For the avoidance of doubt, the Pledgor hereby consents to a private sale of the Account Property to the extent permitted pursuant to Section 9-610 of the UCC.

- (b) The Securities Intermediary will segregate all Account Property from property of the Securities Intermediary and other persons held by it by appropriate identification in its books and records. Each of these books and records will clearly indicate CSI's interest in the Account and each item of Account Property.
- (c) Book-Entry Securities credited to the Account will be held in Participant's Securities Accounts in the name of the Securities Intermediary or its nominee at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York that hold only property held by the Securities Intermediary for its customers and do not hold any property held by the Securities Intermediary in its individual capacity.

- (b) As to any matters not expressly provided for by this Agreement, the Securities Intermediary will not be required to take any action or exercise any discretion. The

6.4 Information

- (a) The Securities Intermediary will provide the Pledgor and CSI such information regarding the Account and the Account Property as either of them may reasonably request from time to time.
- (b) The Securities Intermediary will promptly notify CSI and the Pledgor if any person asserts a lien, encumbrance or adverse claim with respect to the Account or any Account Property.

The Securities Intermediary will permit the Pledgor and CSI to examine these accounts, books and records upon reasonable notice and during normal business hours.

6.5 Resignation or removal

- (a) The Securities Intermediary may resign at any time by giving at least 60 days written notice to CSI and the Pledgor, and the Securities Intermediary may be removed at any time with or without cause by CSI.
- (b) Upon the resignation or removal of the Securities Intermediary, CSI will have the right and responsibility to appoint a successor Securities Intermediary as promptly as practicable, and the retiring Securities Intermediary's resignation or removal will be effective upon the appointment of a successor Securities Intermediary and its acceptance of that appointment. If, however, no successor Securities Intermediary has been appointed by CSI and accepted its appointment within 60 days after the date of the retiring Securities Intermediary's notice of resignation or 60 days after the date of the CSI's removal of the retiring Securities Intermediary, as applicable, the retiring Securities Intermediary's resignation or removal will be effective on that 60th day and the retiring Securities Intermediary will transfer all Account Property to, or as directed (after reasonable consultation with the Pledgor) by, CSI. Any successor Securities Intermediary will be bound by the terms of this Agreement.
- (c) Upon its acceptance of appointment as Securities Intermediary:
 - (i) a successor Securities Intermediary will succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Securities Intermediary, and the retiring Securities Intermediary will be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Agreement; and
 - (ii) the retiring Securities Intermediary will promptly transfer all Account Property to the possession or control of the successor Securities Intermediary and will execute and deliver all notices, instructions and assignments necessary or desirable to transfer the rights of the Securities Intermediary with respect to the Account Property to the successor Securities Intermediary.

- (d) After the retiring Securities Intermediary's resignation or removal as Securities Intermediary, the provisions of this Agreement will continue in effect for its benefit in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was acting as Securities Intermediary.

6.6 No right of set-off

The Securities Intermediary waives, and agrees not to claim or assert, any security interest, right of recoupment or set-off, or banker's lien it may have or come to have against the Account or any Account Property, except that the Securities Intermediary shall be entitled to charge against the Account its customary fees and charges under its customer agreement with the Pledgor.

6.7 Customer agreement

In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any other agreement between the Securities Intermediary and the Pledgor, the terms of this Agreement will prevail.

7. SOLVENCY AND SURETYSHIP PROVISIONS

7.1 Consideration and enforceability

- (a) The Pledgor represents, warrants and agrees that:
 - (i) it will receive valuable direct and indirect benefits as a result of the transactions described in the Confirmation; and
 - (ii) these benefits will constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration as those terms are used in the fraudulent transfer laws.
- (b) The Pledgor acknowledges and agrees that CSI has acted in good faith in connection with the pledge and security interest granted under this Agreement.
- (c) This Agreement shall be enforceable against the Pledgor to the maximum extent permitted by the fraudulent transfer laws.
- (d) For purposes of this Clause, fraudulent transfer laws mean applicable United States bankruptcy and State fraudulent transfer and conveyance statutes and the related case law.

- (c) The Pledgor has not incurred, does not intend to incur and does not believe it will incur debts beyond its ability to pay as they mature.

- (d) The Pledgor has not made a transfer or incurred an obligation under this Agreement with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud any of its present or future creditors.

- (e) For purposes of this Clause 7.2:
 - (i) debt means any liability on a claim;

 - (ii) claim means:
 - (A) any right to payment, whether or not that right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured or unsecured; or

 - (B) any right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if that breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not the right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured; and

 - (iii) terms used in this Clause shall be construed in accordance with the applicable United States and New York bankruptcy and fraudulent conveyance statutes and the related case law.

7.3 Nature of Pledgor's obligations

The Pledgor's obligations under this Agreement are independent of any obligation of any other person, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against the Pledgor under this Agreement, and CSI may enforce its rights under this Agreement, whether or not any action is brought or prosecuted against any other person and whether or any other person is joined in any action under this Agreement.

7.4 Waiver of defenses

- (a) The obligations of the Pledgor under this Agreement will not be affected by, and the Pledgor irrevocably waives any defense it might have by virtue of, any act, omission, matter or thing which, but for this Clause, would reduce, release or prejudice any of its obligations under this Agreement, including (whether or not known to it or CSI):
 - (i) any time, forbearance, extension or waiver granted to, or composition or compromise with, the Pledgor or any other person;

 - (ii) the taking, variation, compromise, exchange, renewal or release of, or refusal or neglect to perfect, take up or enforce, any rights against, or security over assets of, the Pledgor or any other person or any non-presentation or non-observance of any formality or other requirement in respect of any instrument or any failure to realize the full value of any security;

 - (iii) any disability, incapacity or lack of powers, authority or legal personality of or dissolution or change in the members or status of the Pledgor or any other person;

- (iv) any amendment or variation (however fundamental), restatement, replacement or novation of the Confirmation or any other document, guaranty or security so that references to that the Confirmation in this Agreement shall include each amendment, variation, restatement, replacement and novation;
 - (v) any unenforceability, illegality or invalidity of any obligation of any person under the Confirmation or any other document, guaranty or security, to the intent that CSI's security interest in the Account and the Property Account and the Pledgor's obligations under this Agreement shall remain in full force and be construed accordingly, as if there were no unenforceability, illegality or invalidity;
 - (vi) any avoidance, postponement, discharge, reduction, non-provability or other similar circumstance affecting any obligation of the Pledgor under the Confirmation resulting from any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, liquidation or dissolution proceedings or from any law, regulation or order so that each such obligation shall for the purposes of the Pledgor's obligations under this Agreement be construed as if there were no such circumstance; or

- (i) diligence, presentment, demand for performance, notice of nonperformance, protest, notice of protest, notice of dishonor, notice of the creation or incurring of new or additional indebtedness of the Pledgor to CSI, notice of acceptance of this Agreement, and notices of any other kind whatsoever;

7.5 Immediate recourse

The Pledgor waives any right it may have of first requiring CSI (or any trustee or agent on their behalf) to proceed against or enforce any other rights, security or other guaranty or claim payment from the Pledgor or any other person before claiming from the Pledgor under this Agreement and enforcing CSI's security interest in the Account and the Account Property.

7.6 Appropriations

Until all amounts which may be or become payable by the Pledgor under or in connection with the Confirmation have been irrevocably and indefeasibly paid in full, CSI (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) may:

- (a) refrain from applying or enforcing any other moneys, security, guaranties or rights held or received by CSI (or any trustee or agent on their behalf) in respect of those amounts, or apply and enforce the same in such manner and order as it sees fit (whether against those amounts or otherwise) and the Pledgor shall not be entitled to the benefit of the same; and
- (b) hold in a suspense account any moneys received from any realization upon the Account or the Account Property, from the Pledgor or on account of the Pledgor's liability under this Agreement, without liability to pay interest on those moneys.

7.7 Non-competition; waiver of subrogation

 - (i) be subrogated to any rights, security or moneys held, received or receivable by CSI (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) or be entitled to any right of contribution or indemnity in respect of any payment made or moneys received on account of the Pledgor's liability under this Agreement;
 - (ii) claim, rank, prove or vote as a creditor of the Pledgor or its estate in competition with CSI (or any trustee or agent on its behalf); or unless CSI otherwise consents or directs in writing. The Pledgor shall hold in trust for and forthwith pay or transfer to CSI (or as directed by CSI) any payment or distribution or benefit of security received by it contrary to this Clause.

- (b) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of any guaranty given by the Pledgor in respect of the Secured Obligations, the Pledgor irrevocably and unconditionally waives, for the benefit of CSI, and agrees not to claim or assert after CSI has exercised its rights under this Agreement, any right of subrogation, contribution or indemnity it may have against the Pledgor as a result of any payment under that guaranty or in respect of the Secured Obligations.
