MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Shareholders:

I am delighted to present this report on our business results for the 16th fiscal year (from April 1, 2006, to March 31, 2007).

With the launch of the Mobile Number Portability system in October of last year, the 16th fiscal year was for the DoCoMo Group a year of competition unprecedented in its intensity. In this environment, DoCoMo deepened its commitment to putting customers first, confident that further reinforcing our overall strengths will lead to greater competitiveness in the future. Towards that end, our initiatives included enhancement of our handset lineup and expansion of our service areas. As a result, while operating revenues increased but operating income decreased, we succeeded in moving steadily ahead with the migration of subscribers to FOMA services, achieving a healthy increase in the number of DCMX subscribers, and otherwise strengthening our business foundation for the future.

We are aware that the competition in FY2007 will be increasingly difficult, but in order to further advance cellular phones as a lifestyle infrastructure, we will take up the challenge of keeping one step ahead, and by promoting growth through creating new value in mobility, we will strive to improve our corporate value.

As always, I ask for your continued goodwill and support.

May 2007

1. Business Matters of the Corporate Group

(1) Main Business Segments of the Corporate Group

The main business activities of the NTT DoCoMo Group are summarized in the table below.

Business Segment	Main Business Activities
Mobile phone business	Cellular (FOMA) services, cellular (mova) services, packet communications services, international services, satellite mobile communications services, and sales of handsets and equipment for each service, etc.
PHS business	PHS services and sales of PHS handsets and equipment
Other businesses	Credit business, wireless LAN services, IP telephone service, radio paging (Quickcast) services, etc.

(2) Developments and Results of Operations for the Corporate Group

In the mobile communications market, the number of mobile phone subscribers¹ surpassed 100 million in January of this year, reaching an extremely high percentage of the population. In addition, the entry into the market by new carriers with the introduction of Mobile Number Portability (MNP)² in October of last year has caused competition among carriers to become even more fierce. Amidst these market conditions, the DoCoMo Group has adopted a "customer first" stance and has made serious efforts to enhance its overall strength. As a result of these efforts, consolidated operating revenues for the current fiscal year were 4,788.1 billion yen, approximately the same level as the prior fiscal year. As the percentage of "FOMA" sales increased, sales-related expenses also increased correspondingly, and as a result consolidated operating income fell below the prior year's level to 773.5 billion yen, income before income taxes was 772.9 billion yen, and net income was 457.3 billion yen.

Notes:

* Here and hereafter in this report, consolidated financial data was prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

1 Includes PHS subscriptions.

2 A system that allows mobile phone subscribers to retain the same phone number when switching to a different carrier.

n Mobile Phone Business

As of the end of March 2007, the DoCoMo Group had 52.62 million mobile phone subscribers. Of this total, the number of FOMA service subscribers reached 35.53 million as users continued to switch from mova services to FOMA, and at the end of March 2007 FOMA subscribers accounted for more than two-thirds of all DoCoMo mobile phone subscribers. In conjunction with the introduction of MNP on October 24 of last year, the number of subscribers switching from the DoCoMo Group continues to exceed that of subscribers switching to the DoCoMo Group from other carriers, resulting in a decline in the subscriber net growth rate, but the number of subscribers utilizing MNP has been less than we anticipated.

Considering that MNP is not a temporary system but will be continued permanently, the DoCoMo Group has renewed its customer first policy and is taking a variety of measures to increase customer convenience and enhance the overall strength of the Group. Details concerning those measures are discussed below.

User-friendly billing services

Since expanding the range of application of pa-ke-hodai, a flat-rate packet billing plan for unlimited i-mode usage for FOMA i-mode subscribers, the number of subscribers has increased dramatically, reaching 9.54 million as of the end of March 2007. In addition, we introduced a new flat-rate packet billing plan called pa-ke-hodai full in March of this year that enables subscribers with full-browser* handsets to access other internet websites as well as i-mode websites and use a wide range of services for a flat monthly charge.

* A function that allows websites created for PCs to be viewed on a mobile phone screen.

Enhancement of handset lineups and services

To respond to the diverse needs of customers, we enhanced and expanded our handset lineup with the launch of 48 new FOMA handset models. These included high-end models with the latest functions, models that emphasize slimness or other design features, simple and compact models, HSDPA¹ compatible models, and models that can be used to view One Segment broadcasts.²

New services include an i-menu site keyword search service and a search site-linked search service for independent sites for more convenient use of i-mode. Also, in conjunction with the launch of Mega i-appli, with its greatly expanded program capacity, we began offering Mega Games with enhanced sound quality and advanced images as well as navigation services that utilize GPS. We also expanded i-mode contents by adding Rakuten Auction and community contents to i-menu sites. We updated the basic menus and added new functions to i-channel services, which have enjoyed considerable popularity since its launch. With respect to music services, we began offering the Chaku Uta Fullservice, which allows users to download entire songs to their handsets, and Music Channel, a music delivery service for long-play, high-quality music programs utilizing high speed data access, HSDPA, and we further enhanced the competitiveness of FOMA services by introducing FOMA handsets that are compatible with Napster, a music delivery service provided by Napster Japan, Inc. We are also collaborating actively with our business partners such as Nippon Television Network Corporation, Fuji Television Network, Inc., and Kadokawa Group Holdings, Inc. to launch new services that deliver the content owned by such partners through V-Live and i-motion as well as services that integrate data broadcasting in One Segment broadcasts with i-mode.

1 A high-speed packet communications technology that uses the W-CDMA protocol.

2 Terrestrial digital television broadcasts for mobile phones and portable terminals.

3 Chaku Uta Full is a registered trademark of Sony Music Entertainment (Japan) Inc.

4 Napster is a trademark of Napster, LLC in the United States and other countries.

Improved network quality

DoCoMo designated all JR train stations, roadside stations, expressway service areas and parking areas, universities, junior colleges, vocational schools and high schools, city halls, and town and village offices nationwide as FOMA service areas. We also further developed the network in response to customer needs. As a result, the coverage of FOMA service has now achieved a level which exceeds the coverage of mova service.

In addition, we implemented a number of measures to enhance communications quality even further. These measures included expanding FOMA HIGH-SPEED Area *, which features HSDPA technology, to all major urban areas nationwide and enabling separate network control for FOMA voice and packet communications to ensure adequate communications in disaster areas.

* Areas in which HSDPA can be used.

Enhanced after-sales services

In the area of after-sales services, as a part of Premier Club Anshin Support, a service for DoCoMo Premier Club members, we launched the new Handset Replacement and Delivery Service that protects customers in case of loss or theft of FOMA handsets. Other services designed to afford customers peace of mind are the new Data Security Service and the iC Data Transfer Service which enables customers to transfer the data in the IC chip embedded in a handset when they upgrade their handsets.

Measures to cut handset procurement costs

DoCoMo developed one-chip LSI (integrated semiconductor circuits)¹ for FOMA handsets jointly with Renesas Technology Corp. and has started integrating the new chips in some FOMA 903i series handsets. The use of these chips improves basic handset functions, reduces development lead times, and cuts costs. DoCoMo has also started joint development with Renesas and handset vendors to expand the functions of one-chip LSI, such as compatibility with HSDPA services, and to develop a common handset platform that integrates basic software. We are also working with handset vendors that use the Linux² operating system³ to create a Linux-based handset operating system and to implement other measures designed to reduce handset procurement costs.

Notes:

- 1 A single chip that combines the LSI that processes handset communications functions with an application processor for handling email and multimedia applications such as music playback.
- 2 Linux is a registered trademark of Linus Torvalds in the United States and other countries.
- 3 The basic software that controls the entire computer.

Development of international services

DoCoMo integrated the WORLD WALKER service for mova customers with the WORLD WING service for FOMA customers to enhance international roaming services and lowered calling charges and handset rental fees to encourage use. We also enhanced the handset lineup by making it possible to use leading handset models in Japan and overseas. We actively expanded services areas, and as of the end of March 2007, the service area for voice calls and the Short Message Service (SMS)^{*1} covered 151 countries and regions^{*2}, that for packet communications services covered 97 countries and territories^{*2}, and that for videophone services covered 34 countries and regions. In December of last year, we acquired Guam Cellular & Paging, Inc. and Guam Wireless Telephone Company, LLC, mobile phone operators that conducted business in Guam and the Northern Mariana Islands including Saipan, to improve services in regions with large numbers of Japanese travelers. We also launched a Indemnification Service for Rental Handsets that halves the fees in the event that a rental handset is lost or stolen while traveling overseas. DoCoMo is committed to improving and expanding services in the future to raise customer convenience.

*1 A text messaging service using phone numbers.

*2 Of the above countries and regions, three require region-specific handsets.

Corporate marketing

As corporate marketing measures, we launched the Business mopera Anshin Manager service, a service that enables corporate customers to change or control settings on their handsets from a dedicated website, and Business mopera IP Centrex, a service that allows customers to use a single FOMA/wireless LAN dual handset to make internal extension, IP telephony, and FOMA calls. We also started the OFFICEED service that allows our corporate customers to make free calls to other registered FOMA handsets within an In-building Mobile Communications

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

System service area. We also launched multi-function handsets for corporate customers that place a priority on corporate security.

Satellite mobile communications services

Demand for satellite mobile communications services for communications during disasters is increasing, and in response, we began operating a new communications satellite in July 2006 to raise the quality of service. In February of this year, we launched the Duple Star system, which in combination with Wide Star Duo satellite handsets allows users to communicate using satellite telephony from FOMA/wireless LAN dual terminals, which feature excellent portability.

n PHS Business

With regard to the PHS service business, the number of subscribers has been declining as a result of lower charges for mobile phone services and other factors. We had been proceeding with preparations to terminate services in the third quarter of fiscal 2007 (October to December), but we have decided to continue services until January 7, 2008. We will continue to encourage PHS subscribers to migrate to FOMA services.

The numbers of PHS subscribers are indicated in the table below.

n Miscellaneous Businesses

Measures to expansion of the credit business

In order to make Osaifu Keitai services even more convenient for customers and to expand Lifestyle mobile phone (mobile phones integrated into the daily lives of subscribers) to all aspects of life and business, we launched the DCMX and DCMX mini services, which are iD compatible credit services that use Osaifu Keitai for payments. When using DCMX, customers accumulate DoCoMo points depending on the credit usage and can enjoy a variety of benefits. DCMX mini lets customers subscribe using i-mode and can be used for purchases up to 10,000 yen each month. The total number of subscribers to the two services was more than 2 million at the end of March 2007.

iD reader/writers were installed at all am/pm and Lawson convenience stores during this fiscal year. In addition, DoCoMo established a limited liability partnership with East Japan Railway Company to operate and manage common infrastructure (common reader/writers and a common usage center) for Suica* and iD electronic payment systems. In February of this year, the common reader/writers were first installed at AEON Co., Ltd. shops nationwide including Jusco and MaxValue. As a result, approximately 150,000 iD reader/writers have been installed as of the end of March 2007.

We also reached agreement in February 2007 with McDonald's Holdings Company (Japan), Ltd. to install iD reader/writers and ToruCa information-capture service in all McDonald's restaurants to promote use of Osaifu Keitai.

As of March 31, 2007, the number of Osaifu Keitai service subscribers was 20.80 million.

* Suica is a registered trademark of East Japan Railway Company.

Termination of Quickcast services

DoCoMo launched Quickcast, an innovative wireless paging service, in 1968. The number of subscribers increased to 6.49 million by 1996, but with the expansion of mobile phone subscribers and improvement of mobile phone email services, the number of subscribers and usage volumes had declined, and we terminated the service on March 31, 2007.

Other business

In addition to the above business activities, the Group worked to increase revenues by developing and marketing various system solutions that take advantage of our mobile technologies and expertise and by generating mobile advertising revenue through i-mode sites.

Table of Contents

The principal new services and products launched by DoCoMo during FY2006 are summarized in the table below.

Product	Overview
FOMA 903i series	High-end handsets with enhanced functions including music, security, GPS, and email

(3) Group Capital Expenditures

During FY2006, the DoCoMo Group made active capital investments in telecommunication facilities and laboratory experimental equipment to expand the coverage of FOMA service including FOMA HIGH SPEED Area , accommodate increased communications demand, improve network reliability, and launch new services such as Music Channel . DoCoMo implemented measures to improve the efficiency of capital investment and reduce associated costs including reducing goods procurement prices, introducing economical base station equipment, and devising innovations for design and engineering.

As a result, capital expenditures in FY2006 were 934.4 billion yen.

(4) Group Financing Activities

During FY2006, the DoCoMo Group raised no significant funds through capital increases, the issue of corporate bonds, or long-term debt.

(5) Group Research and Development Activities

Research and development activities during FY2006 included development of new products and services including the commercialization of HSDPA services, enhancing the functional capabilities of networks, and raising the quality of existing services. We also started development of the Super 3G standard, a high-speed communications technology that will be commercialized in the future. We are also working on the complete conversion of existing networks to IP to create flexible and economical networks and the development of micro fuel cells designed to increase battery capacity.

With regard to future technologies, we are conducting research on a wireless access format for fourth-generation mobile communications systems, and were successful in a packet signal transmission field test that achieved a maximum outdoor downlink transfer rate of 5 Gbps. We are also conducting research on networks, handsets, and media relating to the creation of new means of communications such as multi-band power amplifiers that can use multiple frequency bands and mobile three-dimensional display systems.

As a result of these activities, research and development expenditures during FY2006 were 99.3 billion yen.

(6) Group CSR Activities

In conjunction with the widespread adoption of mobile phones and advances in communications services, mobile phones have become indispensable tools in people's day-to-day lives. Mobile phones are advancing from primarily voice communications to multi-function products and services, and mobile phones are expanding into spheres that affect social issues. Under these circumstances, the DoCoMo Group seeks to contribute to society by working in good faith to conduct business activities that maintain harmony with society. In recognition of its corporate social responsibility (CSR) as a mobile communications carrier, the Group has set societal issues relating to mobile phones, earthquake and other disaster countermeasures, the increasingly serious problems of the global environment, and ease of use of mobile phones by the elderly and disabled persons as priority issues and is taking a variety of measures to address them. As a part of these activities, we have implemented the DoCoMo Anshin Mission with respect to those issues directly related to group products and services as a comprehensive and integrated program. Principal activities during FY2006 are described below.

Creating a safe and secure mobile communications society

- NTT DoCoMo Keitai safety courses have been held to teach children about correct and safe mobile phone use and proper etiquette. The course was held approximately 1,400 times nationwide in FY2006. We also promote the use of access restriction services that limit access by children to certain sites.

- We have enhanced security services designed to promote mobile phone use with peace of mind including the Denwacho Oazukari Service, Omakase Lock, and Keitai-Osagashi Service.

- We are conducting joint research with other mobile phone carriers concerning the impact of mobile phone system radio waves on human health.

Promoting universal designs

- We launched the dual-display FOMA D800iDS and FOMA Raku Raku Phone III handsets and the Sound Leaf bone-conduction receiver microphone.

Diverse disaster responses

- To increase ease of use of the i-mode Disaster Message Board Service in the event of a disaster, we improved and expanded functions and added a disaster response, security & medical care menu to the i-mode menu list. We are promoting use of this service.

- We started operation of separate network control for voice and packet communications in FOMA services to ensure the availability of communications in the event of a disaster.

- We introduced the Emergency Call Location Notice Service to notify emergency response agencies about a caller's location when an emergency call is made from a mobile phone.

Protection of the global environment

- DoCoMo is promoting energy conservation in the operation of communications facilities by installing auxiliary cooling equipment and high-efficiency rectifier equipment and operating cogeneration systems.*

- We collect and recycle used mobile phone handsets (approximately 62 million phones have been collected) and conduct DoCoMo woods reforestation activities at a total of 32 locations.

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

Social Contribution Activities

To support the education of children, DoCoMo has constructed nine schools in Thailand and holds various sports courses to contribute to the sound development of youth.

* Energy-saving systems that efficiently use thermal energy created when electricity is generated.

(8) Issues Facing the Group

With the introduction of MNP and market entry by new carriers, competition in the DoCoMo Group's business environment has become even more fierce. In response, the Group has adopted a customer first stance based on three central management policies: strengthening core businesses, creating new revenue sources, and reducing costs.

Raising competitiveness by strengthening core businesses

The Group's first priority is ensuring that its services generate high levels of customer satisfaction and the desire to continue using those services. To this end, we strive to provide goods and services that distinguish us from our competitors. In addition, we are building high-quality and reliable networks, improving after-sales services, and offering easy to use billing plans to continuously enhance overall competitiveness, gain new subscribers and reduce cancellations, and promote additional use of our mobile phone services.

Creating new revenue sources

We are offering customers attractive programming and services that take advantage of the benefits of the HSDPA service launched in August of last year and are taking measures to continuously expand roaming with overseas mobile phone operators. We are also working to promote i-channel and enhance music services to increase customer convenience and encourage greater mobile phone use.

To establish new businesses that are not dependent on traffic revenues, we are working in collaboration with other partner companies to create mobile phone use scenarios with higher added value that will lead to the creation of new revenue sources. We are actively expanding DCMX and DCMX mini credit services via iD use sites including convenience stores, supermarkets, restaurants, and large-scale commercial facilities, and going forward will continue to promote their use. We will also vigorously expand our business fields through strategic investments and tie-ups in Japan and overseas.

Reducing costs

To ensure the efficient operation of our core businesses and the expansion of new businesses, we are raising the efficiency of operations. Measures include reducing handset procurement costs and network costs by reviewing business processes and efficiently managing commissions to agent resellers.

Through the measures described above, the Group will strive to raise its corporate value by making advances in its mobile phone services from the perspectives of innovation and user peace of mind and by further developing a lifestyle infrastructure helpful to both daily life and business with an emphasis on personalization and ubiquitousness and seamlessness. At the same time, the Group will strive to gain the trust and confidence of all stakeholders by developing and operating adequate and appropriate structures for proper business operations by the Group (internal control systems), ensuring compliance and suitable risk management, and earnest implementation of CSR activities.

- (2) Policies concerning, and total remuneration of, directors and auditors

- (a) Policies

Matters concerning remuneration to directors are decided by the Board of Directors.

Remuneration to directors (excluding outside directors) comprises a monthly salary and bonuses. Monthly salaries are paid on the basis on the each director's scope of roles and responsibilities. Bonuses are paid taking into account the company's business results for the current term. Also, directors make monthly contributions of at least a certain amount for the purchase of DoCoMo shares through the Director Shareholding Association to encourage a medium- to long-term perspective. Purchased shares are owned by the directors during their terms in office.

Remuneration to corporate auditors is determined by resolution of the Board of Corporate Auditors and in order to maintain a high level of independence, consists only of a monthly salary.

(2)	Total monetary and other financial benefits payable by DoCoMo and its subsidiaries	755

Note: The audit contract between the Company and the financial auditor does not distinguish between compensation paid for audits performed pursuant to the Corporate Law and compensation paid for audits performed pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Law, and since it is not practically possible to make such a distinction, the above amounts are totals.

(3) Policies concerning decisions to discharge or not reappoint financial auditors

In the event that the circumstances set forth in any of the items of Article 340, Section 1 of the Corporate Law apply to the financial auditor, the financial auditor may be discharged by a unanimous resolution of the Board of Corporate Auditors.

In addition, if the Company determines that it would be difficult for the financial auditor to perform proper audits, the Board of Directors may, with the agreement of the Board of Corporate Auditors or upon request from the Board of Corporate Auditors, propose to the general shareholders meeting that the financial auditor be discharged or that the financial auditor not be reappointed.

5. Systems for Ensuring the Propriety of the Company's Business Activities

A summary of the Board of Directors resolutions concerning the development of systems to ensure the propriety of the company's business activities is set forth below.

(1) System to ensure that the performance of duties by directors and employees conform with laws and regulations and the Company's Articles of Incorporation

We institute the NTT DoCoMo Group Code of Ethics and compliance-related regulations and create requisite systems for ethical and legal compliance. In addition, when preparing financial statements, officers responsible for finance, corporate auditors, and independent auditors hold preliminary discussions of significant accounting policies, and for disclosure of company information including financial statements in a manner that conforms with securities-related laws and regulations, matters are decided at meetings of the Board of Directors after the necessary internal procedures pursuant to in-house regulations have been completed. Also, internal audit staffs conduct audits of all of the company's business activities to ensure conformity with laws and regulations and in-house regulations.

Table of Contents

(2) System for storage and maintenance of information relating to the performance of duties by directors

Information relating to the performance of duties by directors is recorded and stored in accordance with rules stipulating the methods of storage and administration of documents and administrative information.

(3) Regulations and other systems relating to the management of loss risks

Executive directors responsible for risk management periodically summarize information relating to risks in their organizations in accordance with rules concerning risk management, and committees made up of directors, corporate officers, and others identify risks and set risk management policies as necessary for companywide risk management. In addition, standing committees manage identified risks to prevent risks from occurring and to take rapid countermeasures in the event that risks do occur.

(4) System to ensure that the performance of duties by directors is conducted efficiently

The efficiency of the performance by directors of their duties is ensured by such means as decision-making rules based on internal regulations and the specification of powers relating to their duties, the formulation of medium-term management policies and business plans by the Board of Directors, and the establishment of committees composed of directors, corporate officers, and others.

(5) System to ensure the propriety of the business activities of the corporate group consisting of the Company, its parent company, and its subsidiaries

Based on rules governing fundamental matters relating to the management of NTT DoCoMo Group companies, group companies discuss important business matters with the Company or report them to the Company. In addition, officers with responsibility for corporate ethics who are appointed at major subsidiaries report to the Company in a timely manner on the state of problems involving senior management, and the Company provides necessary guidance. With respect to unusual transactions with the parent company, investigations are conducted by legal personnel and audits are conducted by corporate auditors. Further, audits by internal audit personnel are directed to cover its subsidiaries and affiliates, and whenever necessary they obtain and assess the results of the internal audits of those companies.

(6) Matters relating to employees who assist corporate auditors in the performance of their duties and the independence of those employees from the directors

The Corporate Auditor's Office is established as an organization dedicated to assisting the corporate auditors with the performance of their duties, and specialist staffs are assigned to it. We provide the Board of Corporate Auditors with advance explanations concerning matters such as appointments and transfers of these personnel and their job assignments, and pay respectful attention to the board's opinions before acting on such matters.

Table of Contents

(7) System for reporting to corporate auditors by directors and employees

Directors, corporate officers, and employees report promptly to the corporate auditors and to the Board of Corporate Auditors concerning matters prescribed by laws and regulations as well as requested matters necessary for the performance by the corporate auditors of their duties.

(8) Other systems for ensuring that auditing by corporate auditors is conducted effectively

Representative directors and the Board of Corporate Auditors hold regular meetings and develop an auditing environment necessary for enabling the corporate auditors to perform their duties. In addition, the internal audit staffs coordinate with the audits by the corporate auditors to ensure auditing is conducted in a collaborative manner.

NOTE TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Accounting basis for the consolidated financial statements

Summary of significant accounting and reporting policies

1. Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated statutory report including consolidated balance sheet and consolidated statement of income and comprehensive income has been prepared on the basis of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP), in compliance with Article 148, Section 1 of the Japanese Company Accounting Regulations. However, in compliance with the article, certain disclosure that is required on the basis of U.S.GAAP is omitted.

2. Valuation of inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. The cost of equipments sold is determined by the first-in, first-out method. Inventories consist primarily of handsets and accessories, and the Company evaluates its inventories for obsolescence on a periodic basis and records adjustments as required.

3. Valuation of marketable securities

The Company accounts for its marketable securities in accordance with U.S. Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities.

(1) Held-to-maturity securities are carried at amortized cost.

(2) Available-for-sale securities whose fair value is readily determinable are stated at fair value as of the end of the fiscal year. The unrealized holding gains and losses, net of applicable deferred tax assets/liabilities, are not reflected in earnings, but directly reported as a separate component of shareholders' equity. The cost of securities sold is determined by the moving-average method with the exception of debt securities sold, which is determined by the first-in, first-out method.

Table of Contents

4. Depreciation and amortization of non-current assets

(1) Property, plant and equipment

Declining balance method (Straight-line method in the case of buildings)

(2) Goodwill and other intangible assets

Straight-line method (However, in accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, goodwill and other intangible assets that have indefinite useful lives are not amortized, but are tested for impairment at least annually.)

5. Accounting for allowances

(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

The Company provides for doubtful accounts principally in an amount computed based on the historical bad debt ratio during a certain reference period plus the estimated uncollectible amount based on the analysis of certain individual accounts, including claims in bankruptcy.

(2) Liability for employees' retirement benefits

In accordance with SFAS No. 87, Employers' Accounting for Pensions, and SFAS No. 158, Employer's Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans - an amendment of FASB statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132R, to provide for employees' retirement benefits, the liability for employees' retirement benefits is calculated based upon the projected benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets at the end of the fiscal year.

Prior service costs are amortized over the expected average remaining service periods of employees on a straight-line basis.

Actuarial net loss in excess of 10% of the greater of the projected benefit obligation or the fair value of plan assets is amortized over the expected average remaining service period of employees on a straight-line basis.

(Adoption of new accounting standard)

Effective March 31, 2007, the Company adopted SFAS No. 158. In accordance with SFAS No. 158, DoCoMo recognized the funded status of postretirement benefit plan, or the difference between the fair value of plan assets and benefit obligations in the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2007. The adoption of SFAS No. 158 did not have any impact on the Company's results of operations. The effects of adoption of SFAS No. 158 on the Company's financial position were as follows: increases in Liability for employees' retirement benefits by 8,369 million yen, Deferred tax assets (non-current) by 3,273 million yen and Prepaid pension cost included in Other assets by 668 million yen, and decreases in Accumulated other comprehensive income, net of applicable taxes, by 4,843 million yen and Intangible assets by 301 million yen, respectively.

6. Consumption tax

Consumption tax is separately accounted for by excluding it from each transaction amount.

Table of ContentsNote to Consolidated Balance Sheet

Accumulated other comprehensive income includes the amounts of unrealized holding gains or losses on available-for-sale securities, net revaluation of financial instruments, foreign currency translation adjustment, and pension liability adjustment.

NOTE TO NON-CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Significant Accounting Policies for the Non-Consolidated Financial Statement

Basis of Preparation:

The accompanying non-consolidated financial statement of NTT DoCoMo, Inc. (the Company) has been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

1. Valuation of certain assets

(1) Securities

Held-to-maturity securities are stated at amortized cost.

Investments in subsidiaries and affiliates are stated at cost, which is determined by the moving average method.

Available-for-sale securities whose fair value is readily determinable are stated at fair value as of the end of the fiscal year. The holding gains and losses, net of applicable deferred tax assets/liabilities, are directly reported as a separate component of net assets instead of being reflected in earnings. The cost of securities sold is determined by the moving-average method with the exception of the cost of debt securities sold, which are determined by the first-in, first-out method.

Available-for-sale securities whose fair value is not readily determinable are stated at moving-average cost.

(2) Derivative instruments

Derivative instruments are stated at fair value as of the end of the fiscal year.

(3) Inventories

Inventories are stated at cost. The cost of terminal equipment to be sold is determined by the first-in, first-out method. The cost of other inventories is determined by the specific identification method.

2. Depreciation and amortization of non-current assets

(1) Property, plant and equipment

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is computed by the declining balance method with the exception of buildings, which are depreciated on a straight-line basis.

(2) Intangible assets

Intangible assets are amortized on a straight-line basis.

Internal-use software is amortized over the estimated useful lives (5 years or less) on a straight-line basis.

3. Accounting for allowances

(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

The Company provides for doubtful accounts principally in an amount computed based on the historical bad debt ratio during a certain reference period and the estimated uncollectible amount based on the analysis of certain individual accounts, including claims in bankruptcy.

(2) Liability for employees' retirement benefits

In order to provide for employees' retirement benefits, the Company accrues the liability as of the end of fiscal year in an amount calculated based on the estimated projected benefit obligation and plan assets at the end of the fiscal year.

Actuarial losses (gains) are recognized as incurred at the end of the fiscal year.

Prior service cost is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average remaining service periods of employees at the time of occurrence.

Table of Contents

(3) Reserve for point loyalty programs

The costs of awards under the point loyalty programs called DoCoMo Point Service and DoCoMo Premium Club that are reasonably estimated to be redeemed by the customers in the future based on historical data are accounted for as reserve for point loyalty programs.

(4) Provision for loss on PHS business

In order to provide for the loss resulting from PHS business, the Company reserves necessary provision for the estimated future loss.

(Additional Information)

The Company had recorded a reserve for directors and corporate auditors retirement benefits as of the end of the fiscal year based on our internal regulations. However, it was approved in the shareholders meeting held on June 20, 2006 to abolish the retirement benefits payment system and to award the accumulated retirement benefits to eligible directors and corporate auditors. The Company reversed the remaining balance of the reserve for directors and corporate auditors retirement benefits and classified the unpaid portion of such accumulated retirement benefits as other long-term liabilities .

4. Other Significant Accounting Policies

(1) Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Japanese yen at the current spot rate at the end of the fiscal year and the resulting translation gains or losses are reflected in earnings.

(2) Leases

Finance leases other than those deemed to transfer ownership of properties to lessees are not capitalized and are accounted for in a similar manner as operating leases.

(3) Hedge accounting

Japanese GAAP provides for two general accounting methods for hedging financial instruments. One method is to recognize the changes in fair value of a hedging instrument in net income in the period of the change as gain or loss together with the offsetting loss or gain on the hedged item attributable to the risk being hedged. The other method is to defer the gain or loss over the period of the hedging contract together with offsetting loss or gain deferral of the hedged items. The Company has adopted the latter accounting method.

However, when an interest rate swap contract meets certain conditions, the net amount to be paid or received under the contract is added to or deducted from the interest on the hedged items.

In addition, when any of foreign currency swap contracts meet certain conditions, they are accounted for in the following manner:

- (a) The difference between the Japanese yen nominal amounts of the foreign currency swap contract translated using the spot rate at the transaction date of the hedged item and the spot rate at the date of inception of the contract, if any, is recognized in the non-consolidated statement of income in the period which includes the inception date of the contract; and

- (b)

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

The discount or premium on the contract (for instance, the difference between the Japanese yen amounts of the contract translated using the contracted forward rate and the spot rate at the date of inception of the contract) is recognized over the term of the contract.

(4) Consumption tax

Consumption tax is separately accounted for by excluding it from each transaction amount.

5. Change in Accounting Policies

(1) Accounting standard for directors and corporate auditors' bonus
Effective from the year ended March 31, 2007, the Company adopted Accounting Standard for Directors and Corporate Auditors' Bonus (Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) Statement No.4 issued on November 29, 2005).

The adoption of this standard resulted in a decrease by 122 million yen in total operating income, recurring profit and net income, respectively.

(2) Accounting standard for presentation of net assets in the balance sheet
Effective from the year ended March 31, 2007, the Company adopted Accounting Standard for Presentations of Net Assets in the Balance Sheet (ASBJ Statement No.5 issued on December 9, 2005) and Guidance on Accounting Standard for Presentation of Net Assets in the Balance Sheet (ASBJ Guidance No.8 issued on December 9, 2005).

The amount of what is previously presented as Shareholders' Equity was 2,507,657 million yen as of March 31, 2007.

(3) Accounting standard for treasury shares and appropriation of legal reserve
Effective from the year ended March 31, 2007, the Company adopted revised Accounting Standard for Treasury Shares and Appropriation of Legal Reserve (ASBJ revised Statement No.1 issued on August 11, 2006) and Guidance on Accounting Standard for Treasury Shares and Appropriation of Legal Reserve (ASBJ revised Guidance No.2 issued on August 11, 2006). The adoption of this standard did not have any impact on the Company's result of operations.

6. Change in Presentation
(Non-consolidated Balance Sheet)

Short-term loans and Bailment, both of which were previously included in other current assets for the year ended March 31, 2006 were separately presented in the non-consolidated balance sheet for the year ended March 31, 2007 because the amount of each account exceeded one percent of the total assets in amount.

The amount of Short-term loans and Bailment, which was included in other current assets for the year ended March 31, 2006, was 4,000 million yen and 20,000 million yen, respectively.

(Non-consolidated Statement of Income)

Impairment of investment securities, which was previously included in Miscellaneous expenses for the year ended March 31, 2006 was separately presented in the non-consolidated statement of income for the year ended March 31, 2007 because the amount of the account exceeded ten percent of the total non-operating expense in amount.

The amount of Impairment of investment securities, which was included in Miscellaneous expenses for the year ended March 31, 2006 was 246 million yen.

7. Additional Information

The Company prepares its non-consolidated balance sheet and non-consolidated statement of income in accordance with the amended Telecommunication Business Accounting Regulation, as provided in the Supplementary Provision of Telecommunication Business Accounting Regulation.

Table of Contents

Notes to Non-consolidated Balance Sheet:

1. Non-current assets for telecommunication businesses include those used in supplementary businesses, because these amounts are not significant.
2. Accumulated depreciation of property, plant and equipment

(Note) Increase in the number of shares was due to purchase of treasury stock in the market and purchase of fractional shares. Decrease in the number of shares was due to retirement of treasury stock.

Note regarding Deferred Taxes:

Recognition of deferred tax assets resulted mainly from exclusion of liability for employees' retirement benefits, accelerated depreciation and amortization, reserve for point loyalty programs and loss on write-off of inventories from deductions, and inclusion in taxable income of unused portion of Nikagetsu Kurikoshi (two-month carry over) allowances. Recognition of deferred tax liability derived from differences in revaluation of other securities and appropriation for accelerated depreciation. The amount of valuation allowance which was deducted in calculation of deferred tax assets was 10,368 million yen.

Notes regarding Non-Current Assets under Leasehold Contracts:

Certain vehicles and electronic equipment, which are leased under finance lease contracts without transfer of title, are not capitalized. The below table includes the amount of assets leased for supplementary businesses due to its immateriality.

1. Amounts equivalent to acquisition cost, depreciation and lease obligation

As of March 31, 2007 (million yen)	Amount equivalent to acquisition cost	Amount equivalent to accumulated depreciation and amortization	Amount equivalent to lease obligation
Vehicle	680	207	473
Tools, furniture and fixtures	3,226	1,541	1,685
Software	374	289	85
Total	4,281	2,037	2,244

Note: The amount equivalent to acquisition cost is not discounted based on its time value due to the proportional immateriality of amount of lease obligation to the total amount of non-current assets recorded in the non-consolidated balance sheet.

2. Residual term of amount equivalent to lease obligation

Within one year	940 million yen
More than one year	1,303 million yen
Total	2,244 million yen

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

Note: The amount equivalent to lease obligation is not discounted based on its time value due to the proportional immateriality of amount of lease obligation to the total amount of non-current assets recorded in the non-consolidated balance sheet.

Audit Report of Board of Corporate Auditors

Based on audit reports from each Corporate Auditor, and following due discussion at meetings, the Board of Corporate Auditors has prepared this audit report regarding the execution of the duties of the Board of Directors in the 16th fiscal year from April 1, 2006 to March 31, 2007. The Board reports as follows.

1. Outline of Audit Methodology

The Board of Corporate Auditors established an auditing plan and received reports from each Corporate Auditor on the status of the implementation of audits and the results thereof, as well as reports from the Board of Directors and the Independent Auditors regarding the status of execution of their duties, and requested explanations as necessary.

On the basis of the Board of Corporate Auditors Rules established by the Board of Corporate Auditors, and in accordance with its auditing plan, the Corporate Auditors sought mutual understanding with the Directors, the internal auditing department and other employees in their efforts to collect information and achieve an environment conducive to audits, attended meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings, and received reports from Directors and employees regarding performance of their duties, requested explanations as necessary, and perused important documents regarding decisions and approvals made and investigated the status of operations and the financial position at the company's head office and major offices of business.

The Board of Corporate Auditors also carried out an audit and verification of the particulars of Board of Directors resolutions relating to the establishment of structures as set forth in the Corporate Law Implementation Regulations, Article 100, Sections 1 and 3, as structures necessary to ensure that the Board of Directors' performance of its duties is in conformity with laws and regulations and the Company's Articles of incorporation and to otherwise ensure the appropriateness of the business of a kabushiki kaisha, as well as the structures established pursuant to such resolutions (internal control system).

Regarding the subsidiaries, the Board of Corporate Auditors sought to achieve a mutual understanding and exchange of information with directors and corporate auditors and other persons of the subsidiaries, and, where necessary, received business reports from the subsidiaries.

Based on the above methodology, the Board of Corporate Auditors evaluated business reports and supplementary schedules concerning the fiscal year under review.

In addition, the Board of Corporate Auditors audited and verified whether the Independent Auditors maintained their independence and carried out their audits appropriately, received reports from the Independent Auditors regarding the execution of their duties and, where necessary, requested explanations.

Also, the Board of Corporate Auditors received notification from the Independent Auditors to the effect that the structure to ensure that duties are executed appropriately (the matters listed in Article 159 of the Japanese Company Accounting Regulations) has been established in accordance with Quality Control Standards for Auditing (Business Accounting Council, October 28, 2005), etc., and requested explanations as necessary.

Based on the above methodology, the Board of Corporate Auditors audited the non-consolidated statutory report related to the fiscal year under review (the non-consolidated balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in shareholders' equity, and note to non-consolidated statutory report), the supplementary schedules as well as the consolidated statutory report (the consolidated balance sheet, consolidated statement of income and comprehensive income, consolidated statement of shareholders' equity and consolidated note to consolidated financial statements).
