Dear Colleague

Further to my letter of Friday, I wanted to update you.

The Consortium has put out its amended offer today. My response to this is that the Consortium offer still faces considerable regulatory and shareholder hurdles. We remain clear that the Barclays offer will produce better long-term value for ABN AMRO shareholders because the resulting combination will deliver excellent growth and ABN AMRO shareholders will participate in the upside from that growth. We will only proceed with this transaction on terms which produce the right results for our shareholders. We have high benchmarks for returns and we will not compromise them.

I will keep in touch with you.
