Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 7, 2008, R&G Financial Corporation (the Company) announced by press release that it had received regulatory permission from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, to make dividend payments on its preferred stock and distributions on its trust preferred securities that are due to be paid in March 2008. The permission granted by the Federal Reserve was conditioned upon the financial support provided by Mr. Victor Galán, a director and former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, through his purchase of $5.2 million of delinquent loans, which will assist in the funding of the Company's March dividend payments. Based upon these events, the Company believes it is very uncertain that future dividends and distributions will be approved absent material improvements to the Company's liquidity, capital and cash flows. While it is possible that approval may be obtained and the Company is taking steps to apply for further approvals, the Company currently expects that the payment of dividends and distributions on its outstanding preferred stock or its trust preferred securities is unlikely in the foreseeable future.

As of February 29, 2008, the Company and its Puerto Rico bank subsidiary, R-G Premier Bank of Puerto Rico, maintained capital ratios that comply with the numerical requirements for well capitalized status within the meaning of the federal bank regulations.

The information furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1, shall not be deemed filed for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be incorporated by reference into any of the Company's filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, unless otherwise expressly stated in such filing.
