Item 1.01. Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

The Settlement Agreement

Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (the Company), the Wilmington Trust Company, the trustee under the Indenture (the Indenture) governing the Company's 1.875% convertible subordinated notes due 2011 (the Notes), and holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes (the Noteholders) have entered into a Settlement Agreement, dated March 19, 2008, (the Settlement Agreement) that results in the settlement of the Company's litigation in the Supreme Court for the State of New York relating to the Indenture and the Notes. The litigation resulted from allegations on behalf of certain holders of the Notes that events of default had arisen under the Indenture as a result of the merger agreement and other agreements that the Company had entered into with The Walt Disney Company (Disney) relating to the acquisition of the ABC radio network and radio station businesses (collectively, the Transactions).

A description of this litigation is more fully described in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on February 29, 2008, in Part I, Item 3, "Legal Proceedings" which is incorporated herein by reference.

Under the Tax Sharing and Indemnification Agreement, dated June 12, 2007, by and among the Company, Alphabet Acquisition Corp., formerly known as ABC Radio Holdings, Inc., and Disney, the Company was required to obtain the consent of Disney prior to entering into the transactions contemplated by the Settlement Agreement. The Company received Disney's consent to the transactions contemplated by the Settlement Agreement on March 13, 2008.

Under the Settlement Agreement, the Noteholders are required to provide the Wilmington Trust Company and the Company with medallion signatures establishing that the Noteholders constitute holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes as of the date of the Settlement Agreement. The Company's receipt of the medallion signatures is a condition precedent to the Settlement Agreement.

Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, among other things, the Company has agreed to commence a tender and exchange offer (the Offer) for all of the outstanding Notes as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later (subject to certain exceptions) than 60 days after the later of (a) the signing of the Settlement Agreement, (b) the filing of the stipulation of discontinuance with the Supreme Court for the State of New York dismissing the pending litigation between the Company and the Wilmington Trust Company upon the satisfaction of all the conditions precedent to, and execution of, the Settlement Agreement, (c) the receipt of consent of Disney, and (d) confirmation establishing the Noteholders as holders of a majority of principal amount of the Notes.

A summary of the material terms of the Settlement Agreement and the Offer was included in Item 8.01 of the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K, which the Company filed on February 12, 2008 with the SEC and is incorporated herein by reference. That summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Settlement Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. We encourage you to read the Settlement Agreement in its entirety.

The Supplemental Indenture Agreement

In connection with the Settlement Agreement, the Company entered into the First Supplemental Indenture (the First Supplemental Indenture), dated as of March 19, 2008, by and between the Company and the Wilmington Trust Company, as successor trustee (the Trustee).

The following is a summary of the material terms and provisions of the First Supplemental Indenture. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the First Supplemental Indenture, which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. We encourage you to read the Indenture and the First Supplemental Indenture, each in its entirety.

The First Supplemental Indenture amends the Indenture to confirm that the Transactions did not result in a Fundamental Change under the Indenture. Among other things, the First Supplemental Indenture:

amends the Section entitled Repurchase Upon Fundamental Change to provide that no holder of the Notes shall have the right to require the Company to repurchase the Notes as a result of the Transactions;

amends the definition of Fundamental Change to clarify that any action taken by the Company that is related to the Transactions is not a Fundamental Change; and amends the sections of the Indenture relating to the duties and replacement of the Trustee to confirm that the Trustee and any successor trustee will be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

Important Information Regarding Tender and Exchange Offer

This report is not a recommendation, an offer to purchase or a solicitation of an offer to sell any securities of the Company. The Company has not commenced the tender and exchange offer described in the Settlement Agreement. Upon commencement of the tender and exchange offer, the Company expects to file with the SEC a tender offer statement on Schedule TO and related exhibits, including the offer to purchase, letter of transmittal, and other related documents. Securityholders are urged to carefully read these documents, when they become available, as they will contain important information, including the various terms of, and conditions to, the tender and exchange offer. Securityholders can obtain a copy of the tender offer statement, letter of transmittal and other related materials, when they become available, free of charge from the SEC's Edgar Database, which can be accessed through the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). We urge Securityholders to carefully read those materials, when they become available, prior to making any decision with respect to the tender and exchange offer.
