Item 8.01. Other Events.

On March 31, 2009, The Southern Company (Southern Company) and MC Asset Recovery, LLC (MC Asset Recovery) entered into a settlement agreement resolving claims asserted by MC Asset Recovery in MC Asset Recovery, LLC v. Southern Company, a suit pending in the Northern District of Georgia (the Southern Company Litigation). Southern Company has filed a Form 8-K dated April 2, 2009, that describes the settlement and the claims that it resolves. The settlement provides for Southern Company to pay $202 million to MC Asset Recovery in settlement of all claims asserted in the Southern Company Litigation. That payment to MC Asset Recovery will result in Mirant Corporation (Mirant) being reimbursed the funds it has provided to MC Asset Recovery but will not otherwise benefit Mirant, for the reasons described below.

MC Asset Recovery is a subsidiary of Mirant created at the time Mirant emerged from bankruptcy in January 2006 to pursue certain claims on behalf of Mirant 's former creditors and former equity holders. While wholly owned by Mirant, MC Asset Recovery is governed by managers that are independent of Mirant and its other subsidiaries.

Under the Plan of Reorganization that became effective for Mirant on January 3, 2006 (Plan), Mirant and its subsidiaries that were in bankruptcy transferred to MC Asset Recovery various causes of action, including the claims asserted in the Southern Company Litigation. The Plan required Mirant to make contributions to MC Asset Recovery as necessary to pay professional fees and certain other costs reasonably incurred by MC Asset Recovery, and provided that Mirant would be reimbursed for such funding from any recoveries obtained by MC Asset Recovery. Under the Plan, any cash recoveries received by MC Asset Recovery from the claims transferred to it, net of costs incurred in prosecuting the actions (including all capital contributions from Mirant), are to be distributed to the unsecured creditors of Mirant in the bankruptcy proceedings and the holders of the equity interests in Mirant immediately prior to the effective date of the Plan.

Once the settlement of the Southern Company Litigation has been effectuated, Mirant expects to receive reimbursement of approximately $51 million for the funds it has provided to MC Asset Recovery. Mirant expects that MC Asset Recovery will use some of the funds it receives under the settlement to pay fees owed to the managers of MC Asset Recovery and other expenses of MC Asset Recovery not previously funded by Mirant, and that MC Asset Recovery will reserve some portion of those funds to pay future expenses. Pursuant to Mirant 's Plan of Reorganization, the remainder of the amount recovered by MC Asset Recovery will be distributed fifty percent to the class of Mirant debtors identified in the plan as Mirant Debtor Class 3 Unsecured Claims and fifty percent to Mirant Debtor Class 5 Equity Interests.
