Item 1.02. Termination of Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 19, 2010, Lennar Corporation (the Company) terminated its $1.1 billion senior unsecured revolving credit facility with lenders for which JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. acted as Administrative Agent (the Credit Facility). The Credit Facility had no outstanding borrowings and was only currently being used to issue letters of credit. The Company determined it would be more cost effective to enter into cash-collateralized letter of credit agreements and has entered into such agreements with two banks with a capacity totaling $225 million, of which the Company will currently use $164 million to replace letters of credit that had been issued under the Credit Facility. The Company expects to save over $8 million annually as a result of terminating the Credit Facility and entering into more cost effective cash-collateralized letter of credit agreements.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

As a result of the termination of the Credit Facility described in Item 1.02, guarantees by subsidiaries of the Company of approximately $2.2 billion of Senior Notes and of the Company's obligations under a Letter of Credit Facility Agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as Administrative Agent and Primary Issuing Lender have been suspended, and those subsidiaries no longer are guarantors and no longer have obligations with regard to the Senior Notes or the Letter of Credit Facility. The suspension of the guarantees will terminate, and the subsidiaries will once again be guarantors of the Company's obligations with regard to the Senior Notes and the Letter of Credit Facility, if at any time the subsidiaries directly or indirectly guarantee indebtedness of the Company of $75 million or more.
