Annual Report

October 31, 2010

Letter to Shareholders (unaudited)

December 10, 2010

Dear Shareholder,

We present this Annual Report which covers the activities of Aberdeen Asia-Pacific Income Fund, Inc. (the Fund ) for the year ended October 31, 2010. The Fund s investment objective is to seek current income. The Fund may also achieve incidental capital appreciation.

Net Asset Value Performance

The Fund  $\,$ s total return based on net asset value (  $\,$ NAV  $\,$ ) was 18.6% over the year ended October 31, 2010 and 9.6% per annum since inception, assuming the reinvestment of distributions.

Share Price Performance

The Fund s share price increased by 14.2% over the year, from $6.04 on October 31, 2009 to $6.90 on October 31, 2010. The Fund s share price on October 31, 2010 represented a discount of 5.1% to the NAV per share of $7.27 on that date, compared with a discount of 7.5% to the NAV per share of $6.53 on October 31, 2009. At the date of this letter, the share price was $6.75 representing a discount of 6.0% to the NAV per share of $7.18.

Portfolio Allocation

As of October 31, 2010, the Fund held 44.2% of its total investments in Australian debt securities, 54.5% in Asian debt securities and 1.3% in U.S. debt securities.

Of the Fund s total investments, 35.3% were held in U.S. dollar denominated bonds issued by foreign issuers, bringing the Fund s U.S. Dollar exposure to 36.6%. The rest of the Fund s currency exposure was 44.4% Australian Dollar and 19.0% in various Asian currencies.

Credit Quality

As of October 31, 2010, 64.7% of the Fund s portfolio was invested in securities where either the issue or the issuer was rated A or better, or judged by Aberdeen Asset Management Asia Limited (the Investment Manager) to be of equivalent quality.

Distributions

Distributions to common shareholders for the twelve months ended October 31, 2010 totaled 42 cents per share. Based on the share price of $6.90 on October 31, 2010, the distribution rate over the twelve months then ended was 6.1%. Since all distributions are paid after deducting applicable withholding taxes, the effective distribution rate may be higher for those U.S. investors who are able to claim a tax credit.

On December 8, 2010, the Board of Directors authorized a monthly distribution of 3.5 cents per share, payable on January 14, 2011 to common shareholders of record as of December 30, 2010.

The Fund s policy is to provide investors with a stable monthly distribution out of current income, supplemented by realized capital gains and, to the extent the Fund does not generate earnings from dividends, interest and net realized capital gains equal to or in excess of the aggregate distributions paid by the Fund, paid-in capital, which is a non-taxable return of capital. It is the Board s intention that the monthly distribution of 3.5 cents per share be maintained for twelve months, beginning with the July 16, 2010 distribution payment. This policy is subject to regular review at the Board s quarterly meetings, unless market conditions require an earlier evaluation. The next review is scheduled to take place in June 2011.

Share Repurchase Policy

The Board s policy is generally to buy back Fund shares on the open market when the Fund trades at certain discounts to NAV. During the fiscal year ended October 31, 2010, and the fiscal year ended October 31, 2009 the Fund repurchased 0 and 753,400 shares, respectively.

Revolving Credit Facility and Leverage

The Fund has entered into a $600 million loan facility with a syndicate led by The Bank of Nova Scotia, which was renewed for a 364 day term on April 15, 2010. Under the terms of the loan facility and applicable regulations, the Fund is required to maintain certain asset coverage ratios for the amount of its outstanding borrowings. The Board continues to evaluate the use of leverage for the Fund. In December 2008, the Board authorized the Fund to use reverse repurchase agreements as another form of leverage. The Fund may implement a reverse repurchase agreement program if the Board determines it would be advantageous for the Fund and shareholders to do so.

Portfolio Holdings Disclosure

The Fund files its complete schedule of portfolio holdings with the SEC for the first and third quarters of each fiscal year on Form N-Q. #### Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan

As part of a broad effort to enhance available services to Shareholders, we are pleased to announce the availability of a Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan (the Plan) that is sponsored and administered by Computershare Trust Company, N.A., the Funds transfer agent. For both purchases and reinvestment purposes, shares will be purchased in the open market at the current share price and cannot be issued directly by the Fund.

The new Plan has similar features to the previous Dividend Reinvestment Plan that was administered by The Bank of New York Mellon, the Fund s former transfer agent, but it also offers some enhancements that enable investors to purchase initial shares through the Plan as a new investor, authorize recurring monthly purchases through the automatic investment feature and purchase shares over the Internet at www.computershare.com/aberdeen or by check.

Distribution Disclosure Classification (unaudited)

distribution out of current income, supplemented by realized capital gains and, to the extent necessary, paid-in capital.

The Fund is subject to U.S. corporate, tax and securities laws. Under U.S. tax accounting rules, the amount of distributable income for each fiscal period depends on the actual exchange rates during the entire year between the U.S. dollar and the currencies in which Fund assets are denominated and on the aggregate gains and losses realized by the Fund during the entire year.

Therefore, the exact amount of distributable income for each fiscal year can only be determined as of the end of the Fund s fiscal year, October 31. However, under the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act ), the Fund is required to indicate the sources of certain distributions to shareholders. This estimated distribution composition may vary from month to month because it may be materially impacted by future realized gains and losses on securities and fluctuations in the value of the currencies in which Fund assets are denominated.

The distributions for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2010, consisted of 100% net investment income.

In January 2011, a Form 1099-DIV will be sent to shareholders, which will state the amount and composition of distributions and provide information with respect to their appropriate tax treatment for the 2010 calendar year.

Report of the Investment Manager (unaudited)

Share Price Performance

On October 31, 2010, the Fund s share price was $6.90, which represented a discount of 5.1% to the NAV per share of $7.27. As of December 10, 2010, the share price was $6.75, representing a discount of 6.0% to the NAV per share of $7.18.

Loan Facility and the Use of Leverage

The Fund utilizes leverage to seek to increase the yield for its common shareholders. The amounts borrowed from the line of credit may be invested to return higher rates than the rates in the Fund s current portfolio. However, the cost of leverage could exceed the income earned by the Fund on the proceeds of such leverage. To the extent that the Fund is unable to invest the proceeds from the use of leverage in assets which pay interest at a rate which exceeds the rate paid on the leverage, the yield on the Fund s common stock will decrease. In addition, in the event of a general market decline in the value of assets in which the Fund invests, the effect of that decline will be magnified in the Fund because of the additional assets purchased with the proceeds of the leverage. Non-recurring expenses in connection with the implementation of the loan facility will also reduce the Fund s performance.

The Fund's leveraged capital structure creates special risks not associated with unleveraged funds having similar investment objectives and policies. The funds borrowed pursuant to the loan facility may constitute a substantial lien and burden by reason of their prior claim against the income of the Fund and against the net assets of the Fund in liquidation. The Fund is not permitted to declare dividends or other distributions in the event of default under the loan facility. In the event of a default under the credit agreement, the lenders have the right to cause a liquidation of the collateral (i.e., sell portfolio securities and other assets of the Fund) and, if any such default is not cured, the lenders may be able to control the liquidation as well. The loan facility has a term of 364 days and is not a perpetual form of leverage; there can be no assurance that the loan facility will be available for renewal on acceptable terms, if at all.

The credit agreement governing the loan facility includes covenants. These covenants impose on the Fund asset coverage requirements, fund composition requirements and limits on certain investments, such as illiquid investments, which are more stringent than those imposed on the Fund by the 1940 Act. The covenants or guidelines could impede the Investment Manager, Aberdeen Asset Management Limited (the Investment Adviser), or Aberdeen Asset Management Investment Services Limited (the Sub-Adviser) from fully managing the Fund's portfolio in accordance with the Fund's investment objective and policies. Furthermore, non-compliance with such covenants or the occurrence of other events could lead to the cancellation of the loan facility. The covenants also include a requirement that the Fund maintain an NAV of no less than $1 billion.

Prices and availability of leverage are extremely volatile in the current market environment. The Board continues to evaluate the use of leverage for the Fund and will explore other forms of leverage. In December 2008, the Board authorized the Fund to use reverse repurchase agreements as another form of leverage. The Fund may implement a reverse repurchase agreement program if the Board determines it would be advantageous for the Fund and shareholders to do so. A reverse repurchase agreement involves the sale of a security, with an agreement to repurchase the same or substantially similar securities at an agreed upon price and date. Whether such a transaction produces a gain for a fund depends upon the costs of the agreements; coupled with the income and gains of the securities purchased with the proceeds received from the sale of the security. If the income and gains on the securities purchased fail to exceed the costs, the Fund s NAV will decline faster than otherwise would be the case. Reverse repurchase agreements, as with any leveraging techniques, may increase the Fund s return; however, such transactions also increase the Fund s risks in down markets.

Interest Rate Swaps

The Fund entered into interest rate swaps to efficiently gain or hedge interest rate or currency risk. On March 26, 2010, the Fund entered into a new interest rate swap agreement with an aggregate notional amount of Hong Kong dollars (HKD) 53.0 million. As of October 31, 2010, the Fund held interest rate swap agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $412.5 million, HKD 127.0 million, and Thailand Baht (THB) 695.0 million which represented 75% of the total borrowings. Under the terms of the agreements currently in effect, the Fund receives a floating rate of interest. The U.S. Dollar agreements receive the three month USD-LIBOR BBA rate. The HKD agreement receives the three month HKD-HIBOR rate. The THB agreement received the six month Thai Baht Fixing rate. The Fund pays fixed rates of interest for the terms and based upon the notional amounts set forth below:

Remaining
Term as of	Amount	Fixed Rate
October 31, 2010	(in millions)	Payable (%)
54 months	HKD 53.0	2.3250
48 months	HKD 74.0	2.5050
44 months	$ 144.0	3.0125
44 months	$ 22.5	2.9600
24 months	THB 695.0	3.2300
18 months	$ 130.0	1.8170
6 months	$ 116.0	1.4700

A significant risk associated with interest rate swaps is the risk that the counterparty may default or file for bankruptcy, in which case the Fund would bear the risk of loss of the amount expected to be received under the swap agreements. There can be no assurance that the Fund will have an interest rate swap in place at any given time nor can there be any assurance that, if an interest rate swap is in place, it will be successful in hedging the Fund s interest rate risk with respect to the loan facility. The implementation of this strategy is at the discretion of the Leverage Committee of the Board of Directors.

Economic Review

The twelve month period covered by this report generally proved to be a positive one for investors. Asia-Pacific bond markets posted strong returns over the 12 months ending October 2010 as loose global monetary conditions fueled substantial inflows into the region. Fears that Greece s debt woes would spill into the core European economies, concerns about U.S. financial regulatory reform and the prospect of a slowdown in China drove investors to the relative safety of U.S. Treasuries, which pushed yields down to record lows. Towards the end of the period, optimism over a second round of quantitative easing in the U.S. gave regional bond markets a further boost, but volatility grew due to uncertainty over the extent and duration of asset purchases.

On the economic front, the deleveraging West trailed further behind fast-growing counterparts in Asia. China s GDP grew above 10% year-over-year in the first two quarters of 2010, undeterred by the government s efforts to scale back lending and cool the property market. Australia s employment data and housing prices remained robust encouraging the Reserve Bank of Australia to continue hiking official interest rates, in stark contrast to the happenings in the U.S. and Europe. Elsewhere, the export-dependent economies of Singapore, Hong Kong and Taiwan, which had contracted sharply in 2008 and early 2009, rebounded quickly.

Against this backdrop, many Asian central banks began to normalize monetary policy. India, Australia and Malaysia hiked rates first to either normalize policy settings or to rein in inflation, while Korea, Taiwan and Thailand followed suit in May. Unsurprisingly, investors poured money into the region in search of yield, growth and safety. With markets flush with overseas cash, the spectre of property bubbles loomed in China and Hong Kong, despite the raft of anti-speculation regulatory measures that soon followed. The influx of money from offshore into the region caused those currencies to appreciate sharply against the U.S. dollar, threatening the export-dependent economies in the region and compelling governments to step up currency intervention.

On the currency front, China took centre stage, coming under fire for keeping the Renminbi artificially weak and giving its exports an unfair advantage. The currency s 2% gain since Beijing removed the U.S. dollar peg in June has done little to silence critics, who deem the change meaningless in the context of what is seen as a huge global trade imbalance. However, other less managed currencies such as

Aberdeen Asia-Pacific Income Fund, Inc.

Report of the Investment Manager (unaudited) (concluded)

the Australian Dollar, THB and Philippine Peso each enjoyed significant gains against the U.S. dollar of around 8-12%. These returns further boosted the local currency bond market returns throughout the region. For example, the Australian bond market, as measured by the UBS Composite (All Maturities) Bond index, returned around 7.4% in local Australian currency terms.

The U.S. dollar Asian bond markets also performed strongly during the period under review. Declining U.S. treasury yields and a small narrowing of credit spreads resulted in a return of around 15% during the past year, as represented by the Merrill Lynch Asian Dollar Index. Of note, high yield issues returned around 21.3% while investment grade issues returned around 11.4%.

Finally, Asian bonds issued in local currency across the region also produced strong returns with the HSBC Local Currency Asian Bond Index returning around 14.6% in U.S. dollar terms. Strong returns from sovereign issues from Indonesia and the Philippines, together with strength in their respective currencies against the weaker U.S. dollar helped boost the total returns from the region during the period under review.
