Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 30, 2011, Chesapeake Lodging Trust (the Company) announced it had entered into an agreement to acquire a full-service hotel, currently under development, located in midtown Manhattan for $52.2 million from an unaffiliated third party. The Company intends to fund the acquisition with borrowings under its revolving credit facility. The Company expects the acquisition to close in the next 90-120 days, however, because the acquisition is subject to completion of the hotel by the third-party developer and customary closing conditions, the Company can give no assurance that the transaction will be consummated during that time period, or at all.

Certain statements and assumptions in this filing contain or are based upon forward-looking information and are being made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties. When the Company uses the words will likely result, may, anticipate, estimate, should, expect, believe, intend, or similar expressions, the Company intends to identify forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the Company's expectations as to the mix of consideration to be paid and time for completing, if at all, the acquisition described. Such statements are subject to numerous assumptions and uncertainties, many of which are outside Chesapeake Lodging Trust's control. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly release the result of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect any future events or circumstances, except as required by law.
