Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The information set forth in Items 2, 3, 4 and 5 is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 6. The Reporting Persons are party to the following contracts, agreements and understanding with respect to securities of the Company:

Stock Purchase Agreement

On January 30, 2012, the Company entered into the Stock Purchase Agreement with Navilyst, Inc., the stockholders of Navilyst named therein (including the Avista Capital Funds) and the other parties thereto, pursuant to which the Company agreed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Navilyst for the consideration specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement, which, in the case of the shares of common stock of Navilyst, included a combination of cash and Company Common Stock. The closing of the Acquisition occurred on May 22, 2012, at which time Navilyst became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the total purchase price paid by the Company for the Navilyst capital stock was approximately $237.5 million plus 9,479,607 shares of Common Stock, subject to adjustment based upon the final working capital of Navilyst. The cash consideration was used to repay Navilyst's existing indebtedness, pay the liquidation value of the issued and outstanding Navilyst preferred stock, pay for certain fees, expenses and employee transaction bonuses of Navilyst and its securityholders and to pay certain cash consideration to the Navilyst stockholders, including the Avista Capital Funds, in respect of their issued and outstanding shares of Navilyst common stock.

The representations and warranties of the Navilyst stockholders, Navilyst and the Company made in the Stock Purchase Agreement survive for a period beginning on the closing date of the Acquisition and ending on July 15, 2013. The Navilyst stockholders, including the Avista Capital Funds, have agreed to indemnify the Company for certain losses related to breaches of the representations, warranties and covenants of Navilyst and the Navilyst stockholders. The Company has agreed to indemnify the Navilyst stockholders, including the Avista Capital Funds, for certain losses related to breaches of the representations, warranties and covenants of the Company. Subject to limited exceptions, the indemnification obligations of the parties are subject to the prior satisfaction by each party of a deductible amount equal $3,750,000, whereupon the applicable indemnified party will be entitled only to receive amount in excess of the deductible amount. At the closing, the Company deposited $14,901,216.64 of the cash purchase price together with 415,444 shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement into an escrow account, which will be used as the sole and exclusive remedy to satisfy any post-closing working capital adjustment in the Company's favor and any indemnification obligations of the Navilyst stockholders, subject to limited exceptions. Claims for indemnification that do not exceed $50,000 will not be eligible for indemnification and will not be considered in the calculation of the deductible amount. Amounts payable out of the escrow account will be taken first from the cash consideration held in the escrow account and only after all of the cash consideration held in the escrow account has been distributed in satisfaction of prior claims, thereafter, to the extent necessary to satisfy any remaining claims, from the shares of Common Stock held in the escrow account. For purposes of determining the number of shares of Common Stock to be paid out of the escrow account in satisfaction of a claim, each share of Common Stock shall be deemed to have a value equal to the volume-weighted average of the per share trading prices of the Common Stock as reported through Bloomberg (based on all trades in the Common Stock and not an average of daily averages) for fifteen (15) consecutive full trading days ending on the business day immediately preceding the applicable payment date.

This summary description does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Stock Purchase Agreement, a copy of which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 3, 2012 and is incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 2 to this Statement.

Stockholders Agreement

On May 22, 2012, in connection with the closing of the Acquisition and in accordance with the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company and the Reporting Persons entered into the Stockholders Agreement, pursuant to which, among other things, the Company agreed to increase its board of directors from eight (8) to ten (10) directors and ACP has the right to appoint two (2) directors to the Company's board of directors until such time as, with respect to the first director, the Avista Capital Funds (together with any permitted transferees) beneficial ownership in the Company has been reduced below 20% of the then outstanding Common Stock and, with respect to the second director, the Avista Capital Funds (together with any permitted transferees) beneficial ownership in the Company has been reduced below 10% of the then outstanding Common Stock.

The Stockholders Agreement contains certain standstill obligations, which prohibit the Avista Capital Funds and their controlled affiliates from taking certain actions with respect to the Company until the later of (i) seven (7) years following the closing of the Acquisition and (ii) three (3) years after the Avista Capital Funds and their permitted transferees cease to beneficially own at least five percent (5%) of the then outstanding Common Stock. Until the first anniversary of the closing of the Acquisition, the Avista Capital Funds are required to vote their Common Stock in accordance with the recommendation of the Company's board of directors with respect to any business or proposal on which the Company's stockholders are entitled to vote. For the period from the date that is one (1) year from the closing of the Acquisition until the first date that the Avista Capital Funds no longer beneficially own at least ten percent (10%) of the Common Stock outstanding at such time, the Avista Capital Funds have agreed to vote all Common Stock then owned by them, in the sole discretion of each Avista Capital Fund, either (x) in accordance with the recommendation of the Company's board of directors or (y) in proportion to the votes cast with respect to the Common Stock not owned by the Avista Capital Funds with respect to any business or proposal on which the stockholders of the Company are entitled to vote. If at any time following the first anniversary of the closing of the Acquisition, the Avista Capital Funds and their permitted transferees beneficially own less than fifteen percent (15%) of the Common Stock then outstanding and there is no stockholder designee then serving on the Company's board of directors pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, the Avista Capital Funds may vote all shares of Common Stock then owned by the them in their own discretion. In addition, from the closing of the Acquisition until there is no longer a stockholder designee serving on the Company's board of directors pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, the Avista Capital Funds are subject to a non-competition covenant, which, subject to certain exceptions, prohibits them from acquiring, holding, or otherwise investing in certain competitors of the Company and Navilyst.

The Stockholders Agreement grants the Avista Capital Funds certain registration rights with respect to their Common Stock and imposes certain restrictions on their ability to transfer their shares of Common Stock, including, among other things, a twelve (12) month prohibition on the transfer, without the Company's consent, of the shares of Common Stock issued to the Avista Capital Funds in the Acquisition (other than transfers to certain permitted transferees). Thereafter, the Avista Capital Funds are permitted to transfer their shares of Common Stock, subject to certain volume, prohibited transferee, and other restrictions.

This summary description does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Stockholders Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3 to this Statement.

Escrow Agreement

On May 22, 2012, in connection with the closing of the Acquisition and in accordance with the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company, Avista GP, in its capacity as sellers' representative under the Stock Purchase Agreement, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as escrow agent, entered into an Escrow Agreement (the "Escrow Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company deposited into an escrow account a portion of the Acquisition's purchase price consideration that included 415,444 shares of Common Stock otherwise issuable to the Avista Capital Funds in the Acquisition.

The escrow account, subject to certain limited exceptions, will be the sole and exclusive source of recovery to satisfy any post-closing working capital adjustment in the Company's favor or any indemnification obligations of the Navilyst stockholders under the Stock Purchase Agreement. To the extent that the shares of Common Stock held in the escrow account are used to satisfy a claim under the Stock Purchase Agreement, such shares of Common Stock will be deemed to have a value, for purposes of payment of such claim, equal to the volume-weighted average of the per share trading prices of the Company's Common Stock as reported through Bloomberg (based on all trades in the Company's Common Stock and not an average of daily averages) for fifteen (15) consecutive full trading days ending on the Business Day immediately preceding the applicable payment date. The claims period in respect of indemnification claims under the Stock Purchase Agreement will terminate on July 15, 2013, after which date the escrow agent (a) will release for distribution to the Navilyst stockholders any remaining funds and shares of Common Stock that are not subject to an outstanding, unresolved indemnification claim and (b) will continue to hold in escrow any remaining funds and shares of Common Stock that are subject to an outstanding, unresolved indemnification claim, until such time as the claim is resolved. The Escrow Agreement will terminate immediately and automatically following the disbursement of the entirety of the funds and shares held in the escrow account.

This summary description does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Escrow Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 4 to this Statement.
